Delhi boy crowdfunds for fee at London ballet school

LONDON: A 20-year-old ballet enthusiast, who is the son of an e-rickshaw driver in Delhi, is using a crowdfunding campaign to raise money to pay the fee for a training course at the famed English National Ballet School in London. Kamal Singh dreams of representing India at an international dance platform after he won admission to the school's one-year Professional Trainee Programme.However, he needs to raise enough funds not only towards the fees but also the high living costs in the UK capital. " I could not afford the fees of the one-year programme — 8,000 pounds (USD 10,365) — not to mention the additional living expenses in London — at least 1,000 pounds (USD 1,295) per month," said Kamal. US court rejects plea challenging H-1B visa ban

WASHINGTON, SEPTEMBER 18
An Indian-American federal judge has turned down an appeal by 169 Indian citizens who had challenged President Donald Trump's order that barred foreign nationals on H-1B specialty occupation visas from entering the US till the end of the year.

The H-1B visa is a non-immigrant visa that allows US companies to employ foreign workers in speciality occupations that require theoretical or technical expertise. US District Judge Amit P Mehta of US District Court for the District of Columbia in his 11-page order on Wednesday said that Indian citizens, who are now trapped abroad during trips to India when borders closed, are unlikely to win their case contesting the travel ban proclamation of Trump. — PTI

Nepal's revised map now in textbooks

Incorporates three strategically-important Indian areas as part of its territory

KATHMANDU, SEPTEMBER 18
Nepal has introduced new textbooks in the school curriculum that include the country's revised political map showing three strategically-important Indian areas as part of its territory amid a border dispute with New Delhi.

India has already termed as untenable the "artificial enlargement" of the territorial claims by Nepal after its Parliament unanimously approved the new political map of the country featuring the Lipulekh, Kalapani and Limpiyadhura areas, which India maintains belongs to it.

The Curriculum Development Centre, under the Ministry of Education, recently published the books with the revised map, information officer at the centre Ganesh Bhattarai said.

The new books titled "Nepal's territory and reading materials for border issues" for classes IX and XII have a preface written by Education Minister Giriraj Mani Pokharel.

THE TRIGGER

- The India-Nepal ties came under strain after Defence Minister Rajnath Singh inaugurated an 80-km strategically crucial road connecting the Lipulekh Pass with Dharchula in Uttarakhand on May 8.
- Nepal reacted sharply to the inauguration of the road, claiming that it passed through the Nepalese territory. India rejected the claim, asserting that the road lies completely within its territory.

ACCORDINGLY, BANK TOLD TO MINT NEW COINS

- India has termed as untenable the "artificial enlargement" of the territorial claims by Nepal after its Parliament unanimously approved the new political map of the country featuring the Lipulekh, Kalapani and Limpiyadhura areas, which India maintains belongs to it.
- The new books titled "Nepal's territory and reading materials for border issues" for classes IX and XII have a preface written by Education Minister Giriraj Mani Pokharel.
- The Nepal government has instructed the Nepal Rastra Bank to mint the coins with the revised map.

Nepal in May released the revised political and administrative map of the country laying claim over the three strategically important areas in Uttarakhand, more than six months after India published a new map in November 2019.

Following the endorsement of the new map by the Nepal Cabinet, then government spokesperson and Finance Minister Yuvaraj Khatiwada told the media that the government had decided to update the schedule of the Constitution and school curriculum incorporating the new political map. India, in its response, said it had already made its position clear on it.

"This artificial enlargement of claims is not based on historical fact or evidence and is not tenable. It is also violative of our current understanding to hold talks on outstanding boundary issues," Ministry of External Affairs Anurag Srivastava had said. The Nepal government has also decided to issue coins with the inclusion of Kalapani.

The government has instructed the Nepal Rastra Bank to mint the coins with the revised map. An official at the bank, however, said they had no immediate plan to mint the coin, though preparations are on to issue coins worth Re 1 and Rs 2 with the inclusion of the new map within a year.

Cutting Air India's debt, delaying disinvestment plan under study

NEW DELHI, SEPTEMBER 18
The Central government is considering reducing Air India's debt further and delaying its disinvestment process in order to woo buyers, senior officials said on Friday.

The debt of Air India as on March 31, 2019 was Rs 58,255 crore. Later in 2019, Rs 29,464 crore of this debt was transferred from Air India to a government-owned special purpose vehicle called Air India Assets Holding Company Limited (AIAHL).

"The government is considering reducing the debt of the airline further in order to make it attractive for interested parties in the current economic scenario affected by the Covid-19 pandemic," a senior government official said.

More time is likely to be given to bidders to submit their bids and it will delay the disinvestment process further, another government official said. The deadline to submit bids for the national carrier has already been extended four times this year.

The fourth extension was given on August 25 when the deadline for placing bids was pushed to October 30 as the Covid-19 fallout has disrupted economic activity globally. — PTI

Apple online India store on Sept 23

NEW DELHI, SEPTEMBER 18
Apple on Friday said it will launch its online store in India next week, offering its full range of products to customers across the country for the first time, a move that will help the tech giant cash in on the festive demand.

The new online store, which will be launched on September 23, will provide customers with the same premium experience found in Apple Store locations around the world, delivered by online team members who are ready to offer their expertise, Apple said.

In February, Apple CEO Tim Cook had said the company will launch its online store in India later this year, while its first physical retail store will open in the country in 2021.

"We know our users are relying on technology to stay connected, engage in learning, and tap into their creativity, and by bringing the Apple Store online to India, we are offering our customers the very best of Apple at this important time," Apple senior vice- president of Retail + People Deirdre O'Brien said.

Apple currently sells its products in India through third-party sellers and online marketplaces like Flipkart and Amazon. In a major push to single-brand retail, the government had last year relaxed foreign direct investment (FDI) guidelines, offering players more flexibility on local sourcing norms.

The Apple Store online will allow people to shop for Apple products, with online Apple specialists available to help with services like custom-configuring Macs to setting up new devices.

Customers can get advice, receive guidance, and learn about new products directly from Apple, both in English and Hindi, the statement said. — PTI

New guidelines in place to bring transparency in tariff plans

NEW DELHI, SEPTEMBER 18
Telecom regulator TRAI on Friday issued a fresh set of rules for publication and advertisement of tariff plans by telcos, in a bid to boost transparency in mobile offers and to help subscribers make informed decisions.

The consumer-oriented move assumes significance as telecom subscribers often grapple with issues such as lack of information, unclear or hard to find plan details — a situation that affects subscribers' ability to make proper choices.

Tightening the rules for telcos, Telecom Regulatory Authority of India (TRAI) on Friday issued directions on tariff publication and tariff advertisements.

"...it has been observed that existing measures adopted by telecom service providers are not transparent as they should be and that some of the telecom service providers are not prominently highlighting additional terms and conditions and are also collating the terms and conditions applicable to various tariffs on a single web-page and that the relevant information either gets lost in the maze of detail or becomes ambiguous and incomprehensible to consumers," TRAI directive said. — PTI

DIRECTIVE TO TELCOS

- TRAI has now directed telcos to publish, service area-wise — within 15 days — each tariff plan for postpaid and prepaid subscribers

Shortage of shipping containers in Ludhiana

Pandemic-induced countrywide lockdown followed by trade disruption to blame

VIJAY C ROY
TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

CHANDIGARH, SEPTEMBER 18
The pandemic-induced lockdown, followed by trade disruption, especially fall in imports, has led to shortage of containers in Ludhiana, affecting exports from Punjab, Himachal Pradesh and J&K.

Due to the trade disruption, exporters have to wait for 5 to 10 days for containers as compared to 0-1 day during the pre-Covid times.

The lockdown led to a sharp drop in imports. Normally, the containers used for imports are deployed for exports as exporters have to bear additional transportation cost if they bring empty containers from the ports.

According to industry, there has been a surge in industrial activity in Ludhiana and surrounding towns after the lockdown was lifted. It also led to surge in exports as the traders had to meet export obligations. As a result, the demand for containers also shot up.

"There is a shortage of containers in Ludhiana because imports have dropped and exports have started picking up," said Amit Goswami, director, Euro Forge (Punjab).

Ludhiana has five fully functional Inland Container Depots (ICDs) with a capacity to handle over 25,000 TEUs (twenty-foot equivalent unit) per month. The corporates located in Punjab, Himachal Pradesh and J&K are dependent on Ludhiana ICDs for exports besides Delhi.

"During the pre-Covid days, the ICDs in Ludhiana used to handle around 500 containers for imports and 300 containers for exports per day and the containers were available instantly. However, due to the trade disruption the scenario is entirely different now and almost 400-500 containers are required for exports daily," said Ajay Thakur, a customs clearing agent.

In July, the fall in imports was steeper at 28.4%. Jawaharlal Nehru Port Trust in Mumbai — the country's largest container port — saw exports exceeding imports by 41,600 TEUs in July.

Trade insiders said the container shortage will persist until imports from China and other countries pick up. "It is anticipated that an increase in imports ahead of Diwali may increase container availability and help cool off freight," said another customs clearing agent.

10-DAY WAITING

Due to the trade disruption, exporters have to wait for 5 to 10 days for containers as compared to waiting period of 0-1 day during the pre-Covid times.

PM blames middlemen for farm protests, says Oppn spreading lies

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

NEW DELHI, SEPTEMBER 18

Prime Minister Narendra Modi today termed the three agriculture Bills passed by the Lok Sabha "historic" and slammed Opposition parties for "spreading lies and misguiding farmers, supporting middlemen" and opposing new opportunities being provided to the sector.

"Farmers have been given new independence. They will now have more options and opportunities to sell their produce. It was necessary to bring these measures to protect them from middlemen," he said, reiterating the promise to protect the MSP structure while urging farmers to be wary of those who ruled the country for decades and were now "lying to them".

"They are opposing just for the sake of opposition without realising that farmers are aware that these people are standing with middlemen," he said, speaking at the launch of set of projects for poll-bound Bihar, including long-awaited Kosi Rail Mahasetu connecting Kosi and Mithila regions.

The Congress is now trying to play politics over the APMC Act but it had promised to repeal it in its 2019 election manifesto, the PM said in his second statement on the issue in less than 24 hours. He also said the APMC Act had been done away with in Bihar by CM Nitish Kumar, giving farmers freedom of choice in the state.

Taking charge of the matter amid a growing war of words, the PM last evening had sent out a series of messages after Akali leader Harsimrat Kaur Badal resigned from his Cabinet, labelling the three legislations "anti-farmer". Seeking to downplay differences with the Akali Dal, BJP leaders said "they are and will continue to talk" with their ally to "address its concerns".

"The PM always wanted to remove the middleman culture from the system. There is no going back," said BJP sources.

PRESIDENT ACCEPTS HARSIMRAT'S RESIGNATION

President Ram Nath Kovind on Friday accepted the resignation of Food Processing Industries Minister Harsimrat Kaur Badal. Agriculture Minister Narendra Singh Tomar has been given additional charge of the Food Processing Ministry.

The Tribune INTERVIEW: SUKHBIR SINGH BADAL, SAD PREZ

'Akalis feel betrayed'

THE Shiromani Akali Dal fears that NDA government's farm legislations will destroy the country's federal structure as well as Punjab's economy. A day after his wife Harsimrat Kaur Badal quit the Union Government, party chief Sukhbir Singh Badal spoke exclusively with Jupinderjit Singh of The Tribune on the chain of events leading to the resignation.

Your alliance with the BJP is more than three decades old. How do you feel about the turn of events?

I am saddened. It is a dark day for the farmers in particular and the country as a whole. My father Sardar Parkash Singh Badal was among the founder members of the National Democratic Alliance which was forged to take on 'anti-people' forces like the Congress. It all started from the Tihar Jail where my father was imprisoned for raising his voice against the anti-people policies of the Congress government. But I have the satisfaction of having stood by the farmers. Our party is of the farmers, for the farmers and will fight for the farmers.

Does Harsimrat's resignation from the Union Cabinet mean the SAD-BJP alliance is over?

Members of the SAD core committee will sit together, analyse the situation and take a decision accordingly. Sadly, we were not consulted on the farm ordinances. There is a feeling of betrayal within the party.

Are you surprised at the haste shown in accepting the resignation?

No. We left no room for reconciliation. We were firm in our opposition to the ordinances. I repeat we were not consulted on the issue. The SAD is the only party that represents the farmers. I am a farmer, my father is a farmer and so is my son and more than 90 per cent members of the party. Yet we were not consulted.

Why did your party support the farm ordinances earlier?

We never supported the ordinances. Harsimrat marked objections on the inter-ministerial note. The issue, not listed on the Union Cabinet agenda, was tabled at the last minute. She objected and demanded that the matter be deferred. She was told that these were only ordinances and the government would have enough time to make any amendment before Bills replacing the ordinances were tabled in Parliament. Amendments were not made and farmers' viewpoint was disregarded. So, she had to resign. We cannot be a part of anything that is anti-farmer.

Did you take up the issue with the government before the ordinances were tabled?

We talked to the farmers and

In RS, Dullo seeks CBI probe into Pb liquor tragedy

NEW DELHI, SEPTEMBER 18

Alleging a nexus between politicians and the liquor mafia in Punjab, Congress Rajya Sabha MP Shamsher Singh Dullo today demanded that the Centre should order a CBI probe into the recent spurious liquor tragedy that left 136 dead.

Raising the issue during Zero Hour, Dullo said the government should ensure that the victims of the tragedy got adequate compensation.

Noting that illicit liquor manufactured in Punjab was also sold in Haryana, HP, J&K and Rajasthan, the MP said, "The Centre should intervene and order an independent inquiry to bring the culprits to justice." Dullo said in the past three years, besides the loss of lives, the Central and the state governments had lost revenue to the tune of Rs 2,700 crore owing to the liquor mafia. — TNS

Army men indicted for excesses

MAJID JAHANGIR
TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

SRINAGAR, SEPTEMBER 18

An Army inquiry has found "prima facie" evidence its men violated powers under the Armed Forces Special Powers Act during an encounter in Kashmir's Shopian in which three men were killed. It has initiated disciplinary proceedings.

"Consequently, the competent disciplinary authority has directed to initiate disciplinary proceedings under the Army Act against those found prima facie answerable," read an Army statement. The Army did not explain how exactly the AFSPA was exceeded and the guidelines were contravened.

It was also silent how many Army men were facing action.

On July 18, the Army had said three unidentified militants who had fired at the soldiers were killed in a gunfight in Amshipora, Shopian. Almost a month later, three families in Rajouri alleged the slain men were three missing cousins who had travelled to Shopian to work as labourers, but were killed in a staged encounter.

Following the controversy, both the Army and the police started investigating the case. The police collected DNA samples on August 13. The reports are awaited.

Yogi mulls law to check 'love jihad'

LUCKNOW, SEPTEMBER 18

UP CM Yogi Adityanath has asked officials to formulate a strategy and bring an ordinance if required to prevent religious conversions in the name of love, an official said on Friday.

"It has been seen in the recent past that women have been made to convert in the name of love and marriage and later subjected to cruelty and even murder," the official who didn't wish to be named said.

In Kanpur, the police had recently set up a special investigation team to look into reports of "love jihad". Last year, the UP State Law Commission had submitted a report suggesting law to check forcible conversions. — PTI

Amid the Covid-19 outbreak, now several thousand people in northwest China have tested positive for brucellosis, a bacterial disease, the authorities have confirmed.

The brucellosis outbreak was caused by a leak at a bio-pharmaceutical company last year. According to media reports, the disease, also known as Malta fever or Mediterranean fever, can cause symptoms including headache, muscle pain, fever and fatigue. While these may subside, some symptoms can become chronic or never go away, like arthritis or swelling in certain organs, as per the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). — IANS

In Jalandhar, critical patients 'dumped' on road

APARNA BANERJI
TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

JALANDHAR, SEPTEMBER 18

Four patients, including two seriously injured men, were dumped on the roadside allegedly by ESI hospital workers near Raen Basera here last night. The injured — a 70-year-old man with sores on his back and an 18-year-old boy with a fractured leg — were unable to walk on their own.

Deputy Commissioner Ghanshyam Thori ordered an inquiry after Sant Cinema Market Welfare Society activists approached him.

The activists claimed they found the two patients in a pitiable condition with both men having catheters without drainage bag. Writhing in pain, the two were lying at a spot strewn with garbage. They were unable to move, and the bandages on their bodies were soiled, they said. The elderly man named Gora who had called for help, thereby alerting the society members, said he along with three other men had been left at the spot in an auto.

Lalit Mehta, society president, said: "We heard the elderly man screaming. He told us he had been admitted to ESI Hospital after his pelvic bone was injured in an accident. But last night he and three other patients were left near Raen Basera by the hospital staff. The 18-year-old lying next to him had been hit by a vehicle four days ago."

Despite a search, the other two patients could not be located, added Mehta.

Jalandhar Civil Surgeon Dr Gurinder Kaur Chawla said, "I haven't received the complaint yet, but will take it up with the ESI Hospital Medical Superintendent."

'DON'T KNOW HOW THEY ENDED UP OUTSIDE'

"The patients were in hospital. We don't know how they ended up on roadside. At times, relatives take them out. We have nine patients whose whereabouts are not known... We wrote to the DC, but got no reply. Dr Loveleen Garg, MS, ESI HOSPITAL

Manpreet takes dig at Harsimrat

BATHINDA, SEPTEMBER 18

Taking a jibe at Harsimrat Kaur Badal over her resignation from the Union Cabinet, Finance Minister Manpreet Badal today said "it is like upar se ladai, ander se bhai-bhai".

Questioning Harsimrat's silence when the farm ordinances were presented in the Cabinet, Manpreet said when she saw the protests were intensifying against the Akalis and their political survival was at stake, she resigned from the Cabinet.

Manpreet also accused the SAD of spreading lies that he as Finance Minister supported the ordinances at a high-power committee meeting. He claimed that he attended one meeting in which he said the MSP should not be abolished.

Manpreet feared the farm Bills were the first step towards abolishing the MSP of unlimited produce. — TNS

Farmers reject parties' offer to join stir

Joint meeting of all major unions to decide future course of agitation at Moga today

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

CHANDIGARH, SEPTEMBER 18

With all political parties in Punjab trying to prove themselves to be most farmer-friendly, farmers have rejected their offer of joining their state-wide stir.

From the beginning of this week, all prominent farmer unions have been protesting against the three farm Bills passed by the Lok Sabha. Two major dharnas are going on, one in Patiala, the hometown of CM Capt Amarinder Singh, and second at Badal village, outside the residence of Akali Dal president Sukhbir Singh Badal. Farmers have also been laying siege to national and state highways.

Balbir Singh Rajewal, president of BKU (Rajewal), said they want to fight on their own. "There is no way that we will take support from the politicians, who change colours once voted to power. If the farmers can feed the entire country, they can also fight for their cause and bring the country to a halt. Any politician who fails to support us and favours these Bills, will be taught a lesson," he said.

Gearing up for a joint meeting of all major farmer unions at Moga tomorrow, Jagmohan Singh Patiala, general secretary of Bhartiya Kisan Union (Dakaunda), said political histrionics and changing stands on the Bills do not impress them. "Our livelihoods and the future of farming as a viable employment avenue is at the stake. Politicians, cutting across party lines, are only concerned about their votes. Once they get elected, they forget about farmers and start favouring corporates. After all our votes help them come to power and the corporates' money keeps them in power. That is why we have rejected offers from the politicians to be part of our protests," he said.

Yesterday, an AAP delegation had offered to support the farmers' six-day dharna at Badal village. Sukhdev Singh Kokrikalan, general secretary of BKU (Ekta Ugrahan), said they outrightly rejected the offer. "Politicians want to use our protests for their political gains. Just as we are protesting, let these parties, too, launch similar agitations if they support us. Their political statements will not suffice. If they are serious, they need to do much more to save the farm economy," he said. In the coming days, the unions intend to start "rail roko" campaigns, while a complete bandh call has been given for September 25.

Aged protester commits suicide at Badal village

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

MUKTSAR, SEPTEMBER 18

A day after the Lok Sabha passed two more contentious farm Bills, despite BJP ally SAD terming these "anti-farmer", an elderly farmer from Mansa district committed suicide by consuming a poisonous substance during a protest at Badal village today.

Pritam Singh was taken to the Civil Hospital at the village and later shifted to a private hospital in Bathinda, where he died later in the evening, said Shingara Singh Mann, state secretary, BKU (Ekta Ugrahan). Sources said the victim's family was under Rs 10 lakh debt.

A large number of farmers, including women, have been lodging their protest since September 15 by pitching a tent near the Badals' residence at the village.

Earlier, Mann said: "One of the protesters, Pritam Singh, from Akkanwali village in Mansa district this morning consumed some poisonous substance at the protest site, a reflection of how the Centre had forced the farmers to die. He had been protesting from day one." Meanwhile, a large number of cops had been deployed at the village and the road to the Badals' residence barricaded.

PROTEST EXTENDED TILL SEPTEMBER 25

The farmers, already on a six-day protest, on Friday decided to extend it by five days i.e. till September 25. Shingara Singh Mann, state secretary, BKU (Ekta Ugrahan), said Bathinda MP Harsimrat Kaur Badal's resignation as Union Minister was a mere drama and they had now extended the protest by five days.

SAD core committee to take call on alliance

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

CHANDIGARH, SEPTEMBER 18

The Shiromani Akali Dal (SAD) core committee will decide on whether to remain part of the alliance with the BJP in the next few days. The two parties have been allies for over three decades but differences over the farm produce-related Bills have led to the resignation of senior Akali leader Harsimrat Kaur Badal from the Union Cabinet.

While the BJP, both at the Centre and Punjab, has said the alliance will remain intact, there are strong voices within the SAD that want an immediate separation from the saffron outfit.

Party sources said members were angry at the BJP leadership's 'inflexible' attitude in tabling the farm Bills despite opposition by the Akalis. Also, members said they were peeved at the speed with which the Union Government accepted Harsimrat's resignation.

A party spokesperson said the core committee would meet in a few days and deliberate on the issue. He said the Akalis had told the BJP leadership they stood by the issues of the Sikhs, Dalits, Punjabis and farmers, and won't compromise on these.

No question of compromise, high command to decide: BJP

CHANDIGARH, SEPTEMBER 18

The BJP state unit has refused to comment on its alliance with the SAD, saying it is for the party high command to take a call. It accused the Opposition of misleading farmers on the minimum support price (MSP) issue.

State BJP president Ashwani Sharma, while talking to The Tribune, said: "We firmly stand by the farm ordinances and there is no question of any compromise, locally, on the Bills. As far as the alliance with the SAD is concerned, we have nothing to say. A call will be taken by our high command."

Calling the ordinances revolutionary, Sharma said "the political parties showing opposition are misleading farmers. The Congress, particularly in Punjab, wants to divert the attention of farmers from its failure to address the issues of illegal mining, illicit liquor and joblessness, besides others". The state president said the party would visit villages to readdress any misgivings about the Bills among farmers. — TNS

Withdraw farm Bills: Randhawa

JALANDHAR, SEPTEMBER 18

Terming the farm Bills passed in the Lok Sabha as 'black laws' for the farmers of Punjab, Jails and Cooperation Minister Sukhjinder Singh Randhawa, who was present in the city on Friday to virtually participate in Punjab Agriculture University's Virtual Kisan Mela, said the contentious legislations would ruin Punjab, the breadbasket of India, which has been feeding the country for decades.

He said the Bills would lead to exploitation of the food growers with the entry of private corporate houses in the agriculture marketing sector.

He said the minimum support price (MSP) regime would be completely wiped out and private players would procure the crops at their own decided rates as the government would have no control on them. — TNS

Sidhu breaks silence, supports protesters

NEW DELHI, SEPTEMBER 18

Former Punjab minister and senior Congress leader Navjot Singh Sidhu today broke his nearly yearlong silence on Twitter by coming out strongly against the farm Bills passed by the Lok Sabha yesterday and daring a revolution against the move.

Sidhu, who last tweeted on September 25, 2019, announcing the vacation of his official bungalow as Punjab Cabinet minister after resigning, today said farming was the soul of Punjab and attack on the soul and identity of the state would not be tolerated.

"Farmer is the soul of Punjab. Wounds on the body can heal but wounds on the soul fester. We will not tolerate this assault on our identity and soul. A war bugle has been sounded. I stand with farmers in the spirit of Punjab and Punjabiyat," he tweeted expressing solidarity with the farmers.

Sidhu tweeted that farmers were the pride and turban of every Punjabi. "Sarkaarein tamaam umr yehi bhool karti hain, dhool unke chehre par thi, aaeena saaf karti hain," Sidhu tweeted a verse, declaring support for farmers and telling them to prepare for a struggle against the Centre. — TNS

Farm laws part of 'kisan maaru, Punjab maaru' conspiracy: CM

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

CHANDIGARH, SEPTEMBER 18

Punjab Chief Minister Captain Amarinder Singh on Friday alleged that the farm Bills were part of the 'kisan maaru, Punjab maaru' (destroy farmers, destroy Punjab) conspiracy of the BJP-led NDA, of which the Akalis continue to be a part at the cost of their own state and people.

"I don't know what enmity the BJP and the Akalis have with Punjab and why they are out to destroy us," said the Chief Minister while launching the Virtual Kisan Mela of the Punjab Agriculture University, Ludhiana.

The launch, held virtually at 100 locations, was attended by farmers and their representatives, ministers, MLAs, PPCC chief Sunil Jakhar and other stakeholders.

Warning again that the farm laws would lead to growing angst among the people in the border state and give Pakistan the opportunity to stoke more fire, the CM said the anti-farmer move would spoil the 'abo hawa' (environment) of Punjab.

"The legislations would undo the sacrifices made by Punjab and its farmers over 65 years to make India self-sufficient in food," he said, notwithstanding the Centre's denials that these new laws would pave the way for the elimination of the MSP regime. Rejecting the BJP and SAD claims that Punjab was on board on the farm ordinances, Capt Amarinder waved the draft report shared with the state, which made no mention whatsoever of the ordinances.

'DELHI HAS TO RETHINK'

"Delhi has to rethink as these legislations will spoil the peaceful environment of the border state.

REJECTS NAGRA'S RESIGNATION

A day after Fatehgarh Sahib MLA Kuljit Singh Nagra resigned as Congress legislator over the passage of the farm Bills in the Lok Sabha, CM Capt Amarinder Singh on Friday rejected his resignation. The Fatehgarh Sahib MLA said he respected the party's decision.

Snap ties with BJP, BKU urges Akalis

Says they have to choose between the alliance and farmers

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

PATIALA, SEPTEMBER 18

The Bhartiya Kisan Union (Ekta Ugrahan) — which has been spearheading the protest at PUDA ground here since September 15 — has asked the Shiromani Akali Dal (SAD) to snap the ties with the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP).

The SAD wouldn't be able to save its political skin until the party snapped ties with the BJP completely, the BKU (Ekta Ugrahan) said.

During the ongoing protest against the Central Government's contentious farm Bills, the BKU said Harsimrat Kaur Badal's decision to quit the Modi Cabinet should be seen as fallout of the ongoing protests by the farmers in the state.

Protesting farmers said the opposition parties — the Congress and Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) — should have opposed the ordinances at the very outset itself in June.

Meanwhile, Joginder Singh Ugrahan, state president, BKU (Ekta Ugrahan), said, "The resignation of Harsimrat Kaur Badal does not mean anything given her party's announcement: the 'alliance with BJP will continue'. They (SAD) should be with either farmers or the BJP; the decision is theirs."

He added that they (farmers) would not let the members of political parties enter the villages if they (parties) do not come on roads and protest along with them.

Advisory panel for food processing

CHANDIGARH, SEPTEMBER 18

To woo investment in the food processing sector in the state, the Punjab Government today issued a notification to constitute an advisory committee.

The Punjab Food Processing Minister will be the Chairman of the committee, while chairmen of the Punjab Agro Industries Corporation, Milkfed and Markfed will be the non-official members.

Additional Chief Secretary (Development); Principal Secretary, Department of Finance; Principal Secretary, Department of Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Affairs; Principal Secretary, Department of Animal Husbandry; Principal Secretary, Department of Industries and Commerce; and Principal Secretary, Punjab Bureau of Investment Promotion, will be members of the committee. — TNS

SANGRUR, SEPTEMBER 18

For the success of protests at Patiala and Badal village against the three contentious Bills, rural households have started liberally contributing grocery items, milk, vegetables and other things to protesters. Now, the BKU (Ugrahan) has sufficient quantity of essential commodities for its both protests.

Earlier, the BKU (Ugrahan) had announced its protest from September 15 to 20, but now it has decided to extend it till September 25.

"We made announcements in villages before the start of our protests. Within hours, a majority of residents reached us with bags of flour, packets of sugar and vegetables. Since we cannot store supplies at the protest sites, we have kept these in villages and sending it to protesters as per their requirement," said Dharminder Pashore, Lehra block president, BKU (Ugrahan).

The union has set up stage management, langar and transport committees to ensure timely distribution of food, tea and water among protesters daily. As per a rough estimate, around 2,000 members have been included in the committees to ensure smooth completion of all work. "I have contributed 20 kg flour and one kg sugar. Many others have contributed groceries as per their capacity as it's our fight against the Central Government," said Balwinder Kaur, a resident of Pashore village.

Apart from residents, gurdwaras have also been preparing langar and supplying it to protesters. A gurdwara committee from Sangrur supplied rice to protesters in Patiala today. "Many gurdwara committee members are calling us as they want to supply langar to protesters. We are preparing a list so that the food does not go waste," said Rajpal Singh, a BKU leader.

Apart from participating in the protest along with union members, many farmers have been reaching the protest sites in their own vehicles to express solidarity with farmers.

ED shifts liquor probe to Delhi

Agency seeks files of entire investigation | Will lead to delay, say officials

AMAN SOOD
TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

PATIALA, SEPTEMBER 18

In a move that may create ripples in Punjab politics, a senior official today confirmed "the Delhi-based headquarters of the Enforcement Directorate (ED) today ordered shifting of the entire investigation" of the booze scam to the National Capital.

This comes amid speculation that "liquor mafia will try to get the probe shifted". A senior officer with a vast field experience is already probing the case.

Sources said almost three weeks after the ED stepped in to investigate the illicit liquor trade in Punjab after the August hooch tragedy, the Central Government today paved the way for shifting the entire probe and related investigations to the Delhi headquarters.

"We were anticipating this given the large-scale involvement of politicians who control over 70 per cent of the legal liquor trade, while the liquor mafia continues to make over Rs 2,500 crore per annum at the behest of certain politicians," said a top ED officer.

"Surprisingly, the case pertains to Punjab, accused are also from the state and even the court jurisdiction will be here, but the ED office has decided to take away the files. This will not only delay, but also hamper in-depth probe," said the official.

On September 3, the Central investigating agency had registered an enforcement case information report, kick-starting probe into the tragedy, which claimed 125 lives, and also the role of officials, politicians and accused who made crores of rupees through illegal trade. The ED has sought details of the FIRs filed by the Punjab Police in the case to verify a possible money laundering angle.

"Even the investments made by the accused and politicians protecting them would have been probed for money laundering. Our officer Deputy Director Niranjan Singh, who has over three decades of field experience, has been asked to stop further probe and the case has been taken away to the National Capital. Surely there is much more than meets the eye," said an ED official.

Interestingly, SAD and some Congress leaders have already demanded a CBI probe, claiming Congress MLAs are directly running the trade. On the other hand, Congress claims the probe is already on.

Two days ago, ED Jalandhar Joint Director Ashok Gautam had denied any move to shift the probe to Delhi. However, the official orders were received today in Jalandhar.

The AAP has alleged the shifting of the case outside Punjab from an experienced team that probed the multi-crore drug trade shows the Congress and SAD are playing a friendly game.

PROVES CONGRESS-SAD NEXUS

BOOZE SCAM

1.02L litre 'lahan' seized

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

AMRITSAR, SEPTEMBER 18

In a major crackdown, the Tarn Taran police today confiscated a huge quantity of 'lahan' from the Mand area near Marar village in Harike. During the operation, the police used drones equipped with highly sophisticated cameras.

Senior Superintendent of Police Dhruman H Nimbale said 1.02 lakh litre of 'lahan' was seized during the operation. He said the area was notorious for illegal manufacturing of liquor.

125 cops conduct raids in Mand area

During the crackdown, the police also recovered five boats from the spot.

The SSP said based on inputs obtained through drone cameras, over 125 police personnel, in close coordination with the Excise Department and Forest Department of Punjab, conducted the raids in the Mand area early this morning.

He said the area had a marshy terrain and was not accessible due to tall elephant grass. Hence, drones mounted with cameras were used.

The footage of the drone cameras was shown to residents of nearby villages to identify the suspects involved in the trade.

When the accused saw the police raiding teams, they dumped a huge amount of 'lahan' in the Sutlej, said the SSP, adding the accused would also be booked under the Water (Prevention & Control of Pollution) Act, 1974.

Oil firm staff booked for pilferage

BATHINDA, SEPTEMBER 18

The pilferage of gas from tankers of the Indian Oil Corporation Limited (IOCL) is going on unabated in the district. The police have filed a case against the owner of a transport firm and some IOCL employees for pilfering gas and selling it at high prices illegally on the Jassi Paowali-Phus Mandi road.

In the FIR, the police said after tankers laden with liquefied petroleum gas left the IOCL depot, the gas was pilfered on the way. — TNS

9 booked for illegal mining

FEROZEPUR, SEPTEMBER 18

Eight persons, including three women, were booked for illegal mining at Isa Panj Garain village in Guruharsahai on Thursday.

After receiving inputs regarding illegal mining in the village, police officials raided the site. ASI Gurmej Singh said during the raid, the accused fled the scene.

The accused have been identified as Mahla Singh, Subhash Singh, Paramjit Singh, Mukhtiar Singh, Kala Singh, Veero, Maya Bibi and Lalo Bai. The ASI said two tractor-trailers filled with sand were also recovered from the spot. A case under Sections 379 of the IPC, and 21 (3), and 21 (4) of the Mines and Minerals Act has been registered at the Guruharsahai police station.

In another case, an unidentified person was booked for illegal mining near Taranwali village in the Mamdot block. — OC

Few takers, no Ldh flight for a week; fresh schedule out

KULDIP BHATIA

LUDHIANA, SEPTEMBER 18

Call it the Covid effect or other restrictions on travel but for the time being, the industrial capital of the state is off the air map of the country as the lone Delhi-Ludhiana-Delhi flight has been suspended for the past eight days and it might take another week or so for the flight to resume with a new schedule.

Air India officials attributed the suspension of flight from September 1 to 24 to extremely low passenger load which had turned the flight financially unviable. "Once the flight resumes with a revised morning schedule from September 24, the passenger load will be assessed and a final decision will be taken," an Air India official said.

NEW TIMINGS

- Air India morning flights (every Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday)
- Delhi-Ludhiana Departure from Delhi: 9 am, Arrival at Ludhiana: 10.15 am
- Ludhiana-Delhi Departure from Ludhiana: 10.45 am, Arrival at Delhi: 11.45 am

The air connectivity with the National Capital remained suspended for nearly two months after a lockdown was imposed in March. The flight had resumed in May 25 when domestic flights were allowed with certain restrictions.

However, the passenger load remained low during the May-August period as business and industrial activity in the city were adversely affected post the lockdown and only a few passengers were travelling by air to Delhi. Even when the flight restarts from September 24, its continuity will depend solely on volume of passenger load because the three-year period of 'viability gap funding' by the Centre and state government under the UDAN scheme also expired in the first week of September, an official said.

Now, control room to monitor medical oxygen supply in state

CHANDIGARH, SEPTEMBER 18

The Punjab Government has set up a state-level control room to monitor the supply and rational distribution of medical oxygen amid reports of its short supply to treat high-risk Covid-19 cases.

Against a daily demand of 10,000 oxygen cylinders in the pre-Covid times, the demand has gone up by five times. This surge has forced the Health Department to divert all oxygen supply to healthcare institutions, asking all suppliers to divert production of industrial oxygen to medical oxygen, and use only the surplus (if any) for industrial use, said RS Sachdeva of Hi Tech Industries, Mohali, a medical and industrial oxygen manufacturer.

Meanwhile, Punjab reported 2,817 fresh cases and 62 deaths on Friday. This has taken the total number of active cases to 21,662.

As the number of patients requiring oxygen support increases, hospitals are increasingly complaining of its shortage. The Health Department has been increasing the number of oxygen beds.

There are 9,180 oxygen beds in Level 2 and 3 healthcare facilities in both government and private sector. Of these, 3,737 beds are occupied. Health Department data shows of the 7,847 oxygen beds in Level 2 facilities, 2,797 are occupied. The problem is in Level 3 facilities, where the high-risk and serious cases are being referred. Of the 1,333 oxygen beds here, 940 are occupied.

Tanu Kashyap, managing director of the Punjab Health Systems Corporation, said: "We are working to increase the number of oxygen beds in tertiary care (Level 3) hospitals. In the next five days, the number of oxygen beds in the Amritsar medical college would increase from 109 to 160, in Faridkot medical college from 32 to 100 and from 120 to 150 in Patiala medical college. At the same time, we are working to ensure there is adequate supply of medical oxygen."

MISSING 'SAROOPS' CONTROVERSY

SGPC executive barred from attending events for a month

Longowal submits public apology for 'administrative carelessness'

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

AMRITSAR, SEPTEMBER 18

Akal Takht officiating Jathedar Giani Harpreet Singh, in the presence of five Sikh high priests, today criticised the SGPC's existing and 2016 executive bodies for negligence which led to misappropriation of 328 'saroops' of Guru Granth Sahib.

Pronouncing religious punishment from the podium of the highest Sikh temporal seat, the SGPC executive was barred from participating in any religious programme or making any public address for one month i.e. till October 17. However, the members can attend the annual budget session which has been scheduled for September 28. The SGPC executive members were also directed to sweep the street leading to the Golden Temple 'deori' from Gurdwara Saragarhi Niwas for one hour for three days.

Giani Harpreet Singh said it was "shameful" that the staff members misappropriated the 'saroops' under the nose of the SGPC and no efforts were made to check the ledgers of the Publication Department that prints and manages the holy scriptures.

16 OFFICIALS FAIL TO TURN UP

The 16 SGPC officials and staff members, who were held accountable for the misappropriation of 328 'saroops', did not turn up at Akal Takht for atonement, as asked by the SGPC executive during its meeting held on September 5.

Admitting administrative carelessness, SGPC president Gobind Singh Longowal submitted a public apology. Longowal said though they were not being called up, they had unanimously decided to seek pardon for the lapse in managing the 'saroops' .

As revealed in the probe report, Longowal sought pardon while admitting that the officials and staff members issued the 'saroops' without putting them on record and pocketed the 'bheta' (the amount charged at the time of issuing the 'saroops').

About skipping the 'pashchatap path' (remorse prayers) following the May 2016 fire incident at Gurdwara Ramsar Sahib that left several 'saroops' destroyed, Giani Harpreet Singh termed it a "bajjar galti" (serious mistake).

The then SGPC executive members appeared for penance. All of them submitted a public apology. Then senior vice-president Raghujit Singh Virk was questioned for the lapse of not performing remorse prayers. All of them were directed not to occupy any position in the SGPC for the next one year and the SGPC executive was directed to enure compliance of directions. The members were also directed to listen to 'sehaj path' and perform 'sewa' at a local gurdwara as per their physical capacity.

The existing SGPC executive was also directed to conduct a session of 'sehaj path' prayers at Gurdwara Ramsar Sahib, where the incident had occurred, and another one at Akal Takht.

In another case, SGPC member Gurinder Pal Singh Gora, former Dharam Parchar committee members Rattan Singh Jafarwal and Sarchand Singh were strictly warned against having any association with former SAD minister Sucha Singh Langah. Langah was excommunicated by Akal Takht on October 5, 2017, after his objectionable video with a woman had gone viral.

Post punishment, senior vice-prez puts in papers

AMRITSAR, SEPTEMBER 18

As a fallout of lapses in administrative control that led to misappropriation of 328 'saroops' of Guru Granth Sahib, two high-rank positions in the SGPC's body have fallen vacant.

After Dr Roop Singh, who quit the office of the chief secretary on August 27, senior vice-president Rajinder Singh Mehta today put in his papers after Akal Takht officiating Jathedar Giani Harpreet Singh directed the SGPC executive of 2016 not to occupy any position in the apex body for a year.

Mehta was part of the SGPC executive in 2016 which was held guilty of not performing the 'pashchatap path' (remorse prayers) following a fire incident that occurred during the intervening night of May 18 and 19, 2016, on the third floor of Gurdwara Ramsar Sahib that houses the Publication Department where the 'saroops' are printed.

After submitting his resignation, Mehta said, "The five high priests held the 2016 executive body responsible for skipping the 'pashchatap path' and put a bar on holding any position for next year. I, being the member of the then executive, share the responsibility of facing religious punishment. I submit my resignation as it is my moral duty to do so." — TNS

For child's care, granny gets bail in murder case

SAURABH MALIK
TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

CHANDIGARH, SEPTEMBER 18

For a two-year-old, life could not have been more unfair. After losing her mother, the infant was compelled to remain incarcerated on the jail premises with her grandmother — an accused in a murder case.

Coming to her rescue, the Punjab and Haryana High Court has now granted bail to the grandmother on compassionate grounds after observing that there was little chance of the trial getting completed in a reasonably short period in view of the ongoing Covid-19 pandemic.

Justice Sudip Ahluwalia of the High Court asserted the petitioner was a woman and had to look after the minor child, who was compelled to remain incarcerated on the jail premises as she was in the petitioner-grandmother's custody.

Justice Ahluwalia said the court, taking into consideration the facts of the matter, was not inclined to detain the accused-grandmother any further at the current stage. The matter was brought to the Bench's notice after the accused filed a petition through counsel Ravinder Bangar for bail in the case, registered at he Basti Jodhewal police station in Ludhiana on May 5 last year for murder and other offences under Sections 302 and 201 of the IPC. Section 120B of criminal conspiracy was added later.

'Framed', man gets relief in drugs case

MOGA, SEPTEMBER 18

Coming down heavily on the working of the Moga police, the Punjab and Haryana High Court has granted bail to a Ferozepur resident 'framed' in a case of heroin smuggling last year.

The suspect had been languishing in jail for the past one year and the trial in his case was yet to start even months after filing of the chargesheet.

Gajjan Singh, a resident of Chuge Nehanga village, was picked up by policemen in plain clothes from Ferozepur on July 25, 2019, and was shown arrested from Dagru village of Moga district the same day at 7.35 pm along with Pippal Singh, a resident of Hamad Chak village of Ferozepur district. The police claimed to have recovered 265 gm and 15 gm of heroin from them, respectively.

An FIR was registered under Sections 21 and 25 of the NDPS Act, 1985 (Section 29 added later), at the Sadar police station in Moga. Abhilaksh Gaind, the counsel for Gajjan, argued before the HC that his client was falsely implicated and taken into custody illegally. — TNS

Mgmt of three Adarsh schools divested of powers over fraud

Edu Dept takes charge of institutes

FARIDKOT, SEPTEMBER 18

After a judicial inquiry reportedly indicted the private management of three Government Adarsh Schools for bungling funds, the School Education Department today sacked the management.

The department had allotted the management of three Government Adarsh Schools — one in Moga and two in Faridkot — to Ludhiana-based Sukh Sagar Avenue Welfare Society under the Private Public Partnership (PPP) mode on August 12, 2016.

Under the PPP mode, the state government spends Rs 1,852 per student per month in 24 Adarsh schools in the state. These funds are provided to the management.

Earlier, after a judicial inquiry into the functioning of these Adarsh schools found many financial and administrative irregularities, the Director General, School Education, (DGSE) had issued orders to cancel the 99-year lease with the management on June 4 this year.

However, challenging the cancellation of the agreement, Narinder Singh Randhawa, chairman of the private management, had approached the High Court, claiming that the judicial inquiry report was never communicated to him. Following this, the Education Department withdrew its June 4 cancellation orders and proceeded further from the stage of supplying the inquiry report to the association and sacked the private management today. The District Education Department has taken charge of the three schools now. — TNS

Teachers: Cancel dismissal of whistleblowers

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

BATHINDA, SEPTEMBER 18

The teaching fraternity under the banner of the Democratic Teachers' Front staged a protest in Bathinda today, demanding cancellation of termination orders to teachers who had unearthed irregularities in Adarsh schools of the region.

The protesters also expressed concern over the new education policy and burnt an effigy of the state Education Department to express their resentment.

Jaswinder Singh, state secretary of the union, said, "We demand that the decision to terminate the services of teachers, who brought forth the irregularities in Adarsh schools running in PPP mode in the region, must be cancelled.

The notices being issued to teachers for not participating in training, on a call given by unions, must be cancelled, he said.

"The jobs of scores of teachers, who have been rendering their services for many years, have not been regularised till now. Even promotions of the teachers are getting stopped due to the apathy of the department," he added.

Hooda seeks spl House session on ordinances

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

Bhupinder Singh Hooda

CHANDIGARH, SEPTEMBER 18
Leader of Opposition Bhupinder Singh Hooda, along with Congress MLAs, today submitted a memorandum to Haryana Governor requesting him to impress upon the state government to convene a special session to discuss the impact and ramifications of the three farm ordinances.

Hooda said farmers were facing an existential crisis due to the three "anti-farmer" black laws which would take away the protection provided to farmers.

He said the situation demanded political consensus and was important that all parties raised their voice in the interest of farmers.

"A special session of the Assembly should be called and these three laws should be rejected outright on the lines of Punjab. These laws should be discussed in the House so that people also know which party and member stands with the farmer and those who stand against them," he said.

Answering a question on the resignation of Akali Dal's Harsimrat Kaur Badal, Hooda said it was a case of too little, too late.

HARERA: Can't auction project before adjusting allottees' dues

Pronounces landmark judgment on promoters who default

SUMEDHA SHARMA
TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

GURUGRAM, SEPTEMBER 18
Pronouncing a landmark judgment, Haryana Real Estate Regulatory Authority (HARERA), Gurugram, has mandated that no bank or financing agency would auction or sell a loan-defaulting project to recover damages before adjustment of allottees' dues. Chairman, HARERA Gurugram Dr KK Khandelwal said that there has been a big increase in complaints in the state where a peculiar trend has been noticed. Promoters mortgage their project land/structure thereupon as well as all receivables from the sold/unsold inventory to lending organisations/ financial institutions/ banks/creditors in order to attain bank loans to fund the construction costs for developing the projects.

But when these promoters fail to repay the loans taken, the financial institutions /banks/ creditors directly auction residential or commercial properties that have been pledged with them to recover loans from borrowers by invoking the SARFAESI Act.

"Such auctions invoke great anguish and distress to the allottees of the project as there is no acknowledgement of the huge investments made by the allottees into buying their dream home. The future of such allottees is in complete darkness and obscurity. The latest judgement in interest of the allottees of the project "Supertech Hues" is the first of its kind in the nation," said Khandelwal.

According to the HARERA judgment, promoter M/s Supertech Limited, who is neither the licensee nor a collaborator, approached PNB Housing Finance Limited for a construction loan for the project "Supertech Hues". It was duly advanced to M/s Supertech Limited, with M/s Sarv Realtors Pvt Ltd as the confirming party, by way of equitable mortgage of the project land measuring 33.33 acres by deposit of the title deeds along with receivables from the mortgaged properties.

It failed to repay the loans taken and hence became a defaulter. The said project was put for e-auction by the creditor company. So, the allottees moved HARERA.

Farmers fear losing MSP, traders say will be ruined

SUSHIL MANAV
TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

CHANDIGARH, SEPTEMBER 18
Even as the Lok Sabha today passed three controversial farm Bills, with Prime Minister Narendra Modi terming the moment as historic, farmers and commission agents across Haryana continued to protest, fearing that the Bills, when implemented, would spell doom for them.

Farmers and traders held protests and burnt copies of the Bills at several places in the state today and expressed their disapproval of the new laws.

The Bills passed today are the Farmers' Produce Trade and Commerce (Promotion and Facilitation) Bill 2020 and the Farmers (Empowerment and Protection) Agreement of Price Assurance and Farm Services Bill. The Lok Sabha had already passed the Essential Commodities (Amendment) Bill.

As per the government's viewpoint, explained by Chief Minister Manohar Lal Khattar on Thursday and state BJP president Om Prakash Dhankar from time to time, the Bills would accelerate agricultural growth through private sector investment in building agricultural infrastructure and supply chains for farm produce.

While the first Bill would promote barrier-free inter-state and intra-state trade and commerce outside grain markets notified under the State Agricultural Produce Marketing Committee Act, the second one provided for a national network on farming agreements that protected and empowered farmers to engage with farm business firms, processors, wholesalers, exporters and large retailers for farm services and sale of future farming produce at a mutually agreed upon remunerative price framework in a transparent manner.

Farmers' apprehensions

The major apprehension being expressed by protesting farmers was the fear of losing the minimum support price (MSP) for their crops in due course, if not immediately.

Gurnam Singh Charuni, president of the Bhartiya Kisan Union (BKU) in Haryana, spearheading the farmers' agitation, said they wanted the government to give an undertaking that the procurement of crops would continue under the MSP regime, but the government was not willing to do so.

Farmer leaders maintained that the new Bills would not benefit anyone in Haryana or Punjab, where the mandi system was quite robust.

"Big corporates have the reputation of capturing the entire business by finishing competitors. They will initially offer good rates, which will lead to complete demolition of the present marketing set-up. Once they monopolise trade, they will buy farmers' produce at the price of their choice," farmer leaders said.

Leader of Opposition Bhupinder Singh Hooda said the farmer of the state was demanding fair prices for crops, but the government wanted to get rid of the MSP.

"We have all along been demanding that if the government is honest in its endeavour, it should have mentioned in the Bills that farmers will get the MSP, whether they sell their crops inside or outside mandis," he said.

Arhtiyas' apprehensions

Ashok Gupta, president of the Haryana State Anaj Mandi Arhtiya Association, said they had no doubt that they would be ruined within four to five years of implementation of the Bills. "Procurement outside mandis means that the buyer does not have to pay 4 per cent market fee and 2.5 per cent commission of the arhtiya, as applicable in Haryana. In the first year, a commission agent selling 10 lakh quintals of paddy or wheat of farmers per year will lose between 20 per cent and 25 per cent of business. Some buyers will procure the crop from outside grain markets. Next year, some more business will go and so, traders will lose almost the entire business in four to five years," said Gupta.

He said it would not be easy for big players to establish themselves in the system. He said the procurement system in Haryana was robust and procurement agencies had enough warehouses. "Tomorrow, if big players like Ambani and Adani come, they will need to set up warehouses and other infrastructure, which will take years," he added.

Harsimrat Badal's resignation

Amid farmers' agitation, PM slams middlemen for misinformation

IN the glare of unbridled power, the saffron ties forged by first-generation Jana Sangh leaders like AB Vajpayee and LK Advani have frayed so badly that their 'ideological allies' have started seeking out political alternatives. Shiv Sena did the unthinkable of joining a Congress-NCP alliance simply to keep the big brother out of power in Maharashtra. Now, the older ally too has broken the barriers of saffron brotherhood by quitting the Union government, albeit staying within the National Democratic Alliance. The resignation of Union Food Processing Minister Harsimrat Kaur Badal from the Cabinet has seemingly more to do with a trust deficit than the farmers' agitation. Akali rebel Sukhdev Singh Dhindsa getting feted by the government and the Akalis' refusal to contest the Delhi Assembly polls as a BJP ally were all pointers towards a troubled relationship.

The Akali Dal-RSS alliance was cemented in 1967 when the Gurnam Singh government was propped up in Punjab by Jana Sangh and the Communists. And it was with Jana Sangh support that Parkash Singh Badal first got sworn in as Chief Minister on March 27, 1970, as the leader of the Akali Dal (Sant group) along with Balwant Singh and Balram Das Tandon of Jana Sangh. It is this 50-year-long relationship that is getting severely strained as Badal's daughter-in-law walks out of the government.

The three farm Bills were discussed and approved by the Union Cabinet, where Harsimrat Badal could have put her foot down. The new laws dismantling the Agricultural Produce Marketing Committee regime allowing farmers the benefit of seamless movement of produce with the protection of Minimum Support Price seemed a progressive step for the farmers till a statewide agitation shook the political leadership. The Congress turned it into a successful mobilisation ploy against the Centre and the Akalis, leaving the Badals with little choice but to cut themselves adrift as they launch the 2022 poll campaign. It is still not clear whether the agitation is triggered by the fears of the arhtiyas or farmers, for PM Narendra Modi, while reaffirming the continuance of MSP, has slammed middlemen for misinforming the farmers.

IPL in the Emirates

Need vigilance against Covid, corruption

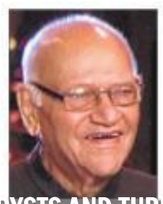
THE start of the IPL today, following a six-month delay due to Covid-19, would gladden the heart of the Indian cricket fan, who has lived through a veritable drought since March — this is the longest period of inactivity for Indian cricketers in living memory. Many players have expressed fears that they may not be able to play well because of the long lay-off. But it's clear that Covid is here to stay and life cannot grind to a halt due to it. There will be no fans at the ground and it's made-for-TV fare, but cricket must go on, with the greatest possible care for the safety of the players, staff and organisers.

For the first time ever, the whole of the IPL would be played outside India — two earlier editions were played partly outside India due to the General Elections. The choice of the United Arab Emirates (UAE) to host the IPL is understandable, but also somewhat dismaying. The UAE seems to attract a lot of people interested in corrupting sport — just five days ago, the International Cricket Council (ICC) charged two UAE cricketers for accepting 'bribe/gifts' in order to fix matches. In April, the ICC banned Deepak Aggarwal, a Dubai-based owner of a T10 League franchise, for 'obstructing or delaying an investigation', following uncovering of corrupt practices in cricket. Aggarwal, who is a free man as there are no criminal charges against him, is interested in the IPL, too. During the 2018 tournament, he illegally sought team information from Sunrisers Hyderabad player Shakib Al Hasan, who was banned when this came to light.

The track record of the Indian board and IPL management is not stellar when it comes to acting strongly against corruption — remember how they tried to brush the IPL betting and spot-fixing scandal under the carpet in 2013? It's not a good sign that BCCI has discarded the services of the ICC's anti-corruption unit for the IPL and instead, hired a private sports integrity solutions company. Let there be play, but let there be integrity in sport, too.

The letter and its aftermath

Police Commissioner's response on Delhi riot probe far from satisfactory



TRYSTS AND TURNS
JULIO RIBEIRO

THE open letter I wrote to Delhi's police chief got more publicity than I had thought possible. I had doubts about the intentions and the manner in which the investigations into the February riots in Delhi were being conducted. The figures showed that 753 cases were registered, 410 on the basis of complaints lodged by Muslims who suffered disproportionately in terms of deaths and loss of property as compared to Hindus.

On the first day of the riots, the Muslims did retaliate. But the next three days saw one-sided battles, with the sheer weight of numbers dominating the outcome. Some mosques were also attacked and damaged. The Delhi Police say that a couple of temples were similarly targeted.

One would have thought that numbers would tell their own tale. Yet, a conspiracy case was registered against 18 PhD students, some of them women. They were Muslim or Left-oriented, both anathema to the ruling dispensation. Hence, my doubt about fair inquiries. And hence, my open letter to the Commissioner.

I am a member of the Constitutional Conduct Group, some 150-odd former civil servants. The group had asked for a meeting with Mr Shrivastava. There was no response. It was then that we decided that I should address the police chief in an open letter which was released to the Press.

When he received my letter asking for fair play, he wanted to ascertain that it was I who had written the letter. He graciously spoke to me on the phone and tried to convince me that he had been even-handed in dealing with the complaints.

WATCH OUT: The police must ensure that the 'conspirators' are not kept in custody under the UAPA, without trial, by misuse of a loophole in this draconian Act.

> Parties in power do try to protect their own. Police leaders should be able to hold the ground at such times, but they appear to buckle when they have to deal with strong leaders who tolerate no dissent.

I told him that the truth would be established during trial. In particular, the charge of conspiracy against students, exclusively Muslim and left-leaning youngsters, smacked of a cavalier approach. I got the impression that the Commissioner was a trifle uncomfortable with the question why three BJP stalwarts had not been charged, despite making threats of violence against those who dared to oppose the CAA and the NRC.

I did not mention the Commissioner reaching out to me to more than a handful of my associates, but our interaction took a different turn when two days later, he sent an email to reiterate the assertions and released the email to the Press.

I have no personal animosity to the Commissioner. In fact, I learnt from the interview of a former Delhi Police Commissioner, Neeraj Kumar, that Shrivastava was a much more effective police leader than his predecessor. I respect the opinion of my friend Neeraj, an officer of integrity. Also, I have to admit that the political bosses Neeraj and I worked with in our days were markedly dissimilar to those that poor Shrivastava has to navigate.

When Shrivastava wrote the email, I knew that I had to state my position and the stand I would take. Here is my reply:

Dear Shri Shrivastava

Your gesture of personally phoning to justify your stand, and later putting down your say in an email is praiseworthy. I would have done likewise. There are doubts in my original open letter which you have not addressed. I realise that it is difficult, indeed impossible, to justify the licence given to the three BJP stalwarts I named — licence to rant, rave and threaten those who were peacefully protesting perceived wrongs. If the speakers were Muslims or Leftists, the police would have surely taken them in for sedition.

I have decided to put myself in your shoes! How would I dispel the doubts that your retired brother officers still have about Delhi Police investigations in the riots? I would quickly file the chargesheets in all 753 cases, including specially the conspiracy case registered by your special cell, and get the evidence tested in a court of law.

I would not prolong the UAPA case by arresting persons just a day or two before the time limit expires for filing the chargesheet.

You have doubted the patriotism of the three who I named as 'true patriots' — Harsh Mander, Prof Apoorvanand and me. I have not described anyone else as such and hence my surmise. Harsh and Apoorvanand are Gandhians. I should have remembered that Gandhians have lost favour with this regime!

With regards.

Here the exchange of letters needs to end. The evidence, he says he has against the conspirators, has to be tested in a court of law. He should ensure that the alleged conspirators are not kept in custody under the stringent UAPA without trial by misuse of a loophole in this draconian Act. If any more arrests are needed, according to the investigators, they should be over and done with before the expiry of the next time limit of three months. With the arrest of Umar Khalid a few days ago, the time limit was automatically extended by another three months. This tactic ensures punishment without trial, in truth turning the police into judges!

Any citizen who breaks the law should be hauled up. That is what police officers are there for. If the students, who are alleged to have conspired to instigate the riots, are truly guilty, let the police place the chargesheet in court. (This was done on September 16 against 15 accused.) I had urged the Commissioner to send up all chargesheets so that the evidence that was not shared with the accused and the public can be disclosed.

The fact that BJP stalwarts, including a minister in the PM's Cabinet, had made communally charged speeches, heard on TV before the riots started, has not been taken note of by the police. Parties in power do try to protect their own even when they blatantly violate laws. The police leaders should be able to hold the ground at such times, but they appear to buckle when they have to deal with leaders who tolerate no dissent.

A quintessential teacher

MOHINDER SINGH

SEPTEMBER 20 marks the birth centenary of the late Dr Amrik Singh. His father, Dr Gopal Singh, was Medical Officer in Abbottabad (Pakistan). Amrik Singh could have gone in for medicine like his father or civil services, as was the trend with the educated families in those days, but he decided to go in for teaching as a profession. After graduating from Khalsa College, Amritsar, he joined Government College, Lahore, for his Masters in English. After a brief stint in teaching, he joined the University of London for his PhD. Back home in 1960, he served as Associate Professor and later Professor and Head of the Department of English in the University of Delhi. He was the founder-director of the South Campus and later secretary of the Association of Indian Universities.

Apart from teaching, he showed keen interest in promoting the quality of education through his writings, seminars and workshops. During half a century of teaching, he wrote several books dealing with higher education. To encourage young teachers in expressing their views on academic matters, he started a bi-monthly, The Indian Book Chronicle, in 1976.

When in 1977 he was invited to take over as the Vice-Chancellor of Punjabi University, Patiala, he happily accepted the offer as in this he found an opportunity to implement his vision of higher education. He describes his stint in his book Asking for Trouble: What it means to be a Vice-Chancellor today. The advances that the university made in the first year of his appointment brought the institution attention at the national level. He arranged a national seminar on Mahatma Gandhi, and attracted talented scholars and teachers from all over India, including Ram Gopal Bajaj (who later became director of NSD). Bajaj's play Jasma Odhan, performed in Patiala, drew in audiences not only from the city but also Chandigarh and other towns.

Some of the appointments made by Amrik Singh became a subject of controversy. Added to this was his decision to implement the report of a committee appointed to enquire into the conduct of some of the teachers during the tenure of the previous VC. It had recommended strong action against the 'errant' teachers and in some cases, termination from service. Teachers who had political links got the meeting of the Syndicate cancelled where the recommended action was to be taken. While the Chief Minister and the Governor privately admired his commitment to the cause of higher education, they felt helpless in protecting him in the face of strong political opposition. Left with no choice, Amrik Singh resigned as VC in 1979 and rejoined as secretary of the Association of Indian Universities and continued his reading and writing till his last days.

That Dr Amrik Singh had achieved the mission of his life — getting due respect for the teaching community — was clearly visible during his last journey when the President, Vice President and the Prime Minister joined his students and well-wishers in paying tributes to this quintessential teacher.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Truth never damages a cause that is just.

— Mahatma Gandhi

ON THIS DAY...100 YEARS AGO

The Tribune.

LAHORE, SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1920

THE OFFENDING OFFICERS.

AT last the Government of India has made a public statement on the subject of the action it has taken, or proposes to take, in regard to the offending officers in the Punjab. The statement, of which a telegraphic summary was published yesterday, and which will be found elsewhere in this issue, is the most disappointing and unsatisfactory official publication that we have seen for many a long day. But before noticing it at any length, a word may be said on a preliminary point. There has apparently been the same delay in making this statement that has all along marked the procedure of the Government in this matter. We believe notice of the searching questions, to which the statement is the reply and for which thanks of the country in general and of the Punjab in particular are due to Mr. Sinha, was given simultaneously with that of other questions by the same hon. member and this must have been sometime in the beginning of last month. Yet the Government was not able to reply to the question before the very last day of the session. What is the explanation for this delay? It appears that before passing orders, the Government first awaited the report of the discussion in the House of Commons, and then consulted the Local Government. We think both were superfluous. The consultation with the Local Government ought to have been finished before the Government of India's despatch was written. After it was written and after his Majesty's Government had definitely asked the government of India to take the necessary action in this matter, there was clearly no room whatever for any fresh consultation between them and the Local Government. As regards awaiting the report of the discussion in the House of Commons, one fails to see what that discussion had to do with the matter.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Farm Bills

The NDA government has amended the agriculture crop sale pattern by passing Bills amid strong protests. The new slogan of enabling the farmers to sell their produce to anyone anywhere, at any price, sounds good, but it is difficult in practice, especially for small farmers who form 40-45% of the farming community. Our farmers are simple and not literate with limited resources. The farmers should be protected from the big buyers coming to procure their crops. He is already burdened with the vagaries of nature. The biggies are sure to exploit him.

NPS SOHAL, CHANDIGARH

Himachal opens its doors

This refers to 'No quarantine for visitors'; it is a good move as the tourism industry needs to be revived, especially in states like Himachal, where 80% revenue comes from the hospitality sector. During the lockdown, the state's revenue fell from Rs 400 crore to Rs 40 crore. From taxi drivers to small businesses or luxury hotel chains, all earned nothing for almost four months, which made their condition more fragile. Now the whole world is unlocking and we can't just wait for the vaccine. At the same time, proper SOPs need to be taken by the government to avoid any major spurt.

MEHUL MONGA, AMRITSAR

Exam funds

With reference to the article 'Entrance exams part of testing business'; where does all money earned through various exams held throughout the year go? There is no accountability and answerability to anyone. It is a mere process of earning profits in the name of set standards to clear different sorts of entrance and eligibility tests by lakhs of aspirants every year. The government should reduce the fees of all these tests and ensure transparency in the earnings of testing agencies. The money should be used for improving the overall network to impart quality education.

GURJEET KAUR, BY MAIL

No gratitude for doctors

Apropos of 'Treat doctors who died of Covid as martyrs' (Sept 17), I was wondering how times have changed! Doctors are dying in the line of duty and there is no one to thank them, rather the whole world is ranting about 'money-making hospitals' and 'cruel' doctors. We are living in a thankless world that understands only one language, that of money power. Doctors will have to blow their own trumpet, and that is exactly what the IMA has been forced to do. Not even a single politician, bureaucrat, eminent sportsperson, actor or singer has come forward to praise the medical community.

SANDEEP CHAUDHRI, KARNAL

Restraining media

Refer to 'Restraining rabid shows' (Sept 17); there is nothing more essential to a democracy than a free media. But the way in which the electronic media works pollutes debates and defeats the very purpose of freedom of media which is considered as the fourth pillar of democracy. There should be some check by the News Broadcasting Standards Authority, the regulator for private news channels.

Long wait for verdict

Refer to 'After 28 years, widow gets dues with interest' and 'Babri demolition verdict on Sept 30'; both reveal the pathetic long wait to get justice. It is unfortunate that our judicial system is very slow and indifferent to the harmful effects of delayed justice. One can imagine the oceanic changes in the world's progress in all fields during these 30 years, but there is no change in the speed of our judicial system. People go to the court for all kinds of social, economic, religious, political and family disputes but many die without a verdict. There should be a PIL petition for the time limit for a verdict in a case. There are many weaknesses in our judicial system, which should be rectified.

Medical oxygen

Apropos of the editorial 'Stocking medical oxygen' (Sept 17), people are being denied proper treatment as the rates of private hospitals have hit the roof. And also, these items are being sold on the black market, causing shortage, which is shameful. Punjab and the other states should keep a check on such people and must assure the public of adequate supply of every commodity required. It is a good step by the Punjab government to appoint nodal officers that have tied up with oxygen cylinder manufacturers as it will help in ensuring a regular supply of affordable cylinders. As citizens, we should also play a positive role in supporting the government and work under its guidelines.

Explosive mix of being educated & jobless

AUNINDYO CHAKRAVARTY
SENIOR ECONOMIC ANALYST

ABOUT a decade ago, I was pleasantly surprised when our driver's son proved me wrong. He had insisted on doing a graphic designing course, and although I had paid for it, I was convinced that it wouldn't get him a job. But not only did he get employed straight after completing his course, but it also paid a decent salary.

The small private IT school he had joined was opening a branch in Chandigarh, and he had been offered a job as its manager. It wasn't exactly what he was trained to do, but it was good money. There were some initial costs — his parents had to fund his first month's expenses in the new city, but he promised to pay them back as soon as he got his first salary.

And he did exactly as he had promised. Our driver was extremely proud that his son was now making more than he would ever hope to earn. After all, that is what all the sacrifices were for, to get him educated. The boy's mother, I learnt, had already started looking for a good girl for him. No ordinary girl would do, since their son was now earning more than all his friends and cousins.

One night, a couple of weeks later, our driver got a call. The second month's salary was getting delayed and his son needed cash to pay his rent and buy food. So, some money was transferred into his account. The salary never came. One unpaid month rolled over into the next. Till finally, the owner of the IT school shut the branch down, because there wasn't enough demand for his courses.

Since that day, our driver's son has never got another job. He first tried his hand at being an entrepreneur, by using his designing skills to become an interior design contractor. His father provided the initial capital, and then they got caught in delayed payments. The business collapsed. He then worked several gig jobs — as a delivery man, shop assistant, part-time Uber driver, helper at a path lab. In his early 30s now, he is married, with a child, but no job.

His younger brother saw what happened to him and decided to give up studies right after his 10th Boards. I told my driver to force him to finish high school, but I had no answer when he asked how it would help his younger son. In fact, the younger one did end up with work. He joined a local car mechanic's workshop as an apprentice, at just Rs 3,000 a month. After a year of getting work out of him for free, the workshop owner hired him for monthly salary of Rs 15,000. He also gets tips from a few customers, and ends up with Rs 2,000-3,000 more per month.

The elder brother with a college degree and a diploma in graphic designing has no work. The younger one, who reconciled to a life of a low-paid blue-collar work, is bringing some money home.

REVEALING DATA: There are about 1.2 crore graduates who want work but are unemployed.

> It is likely that younger people look for secure salaried jobs, and when they don't get it, they become self-employed. 'Self-employed' is mostly very low-paid itinerant work. Average monthly earning of a self-employed person in 2018-19 was just ₹8,363 and a formal job provided ₹25,866. That explains why over the past decade, young people have lost the urge to become entrepreneurs.

This is not an isolated story. This is what has been happening to young people across India, well before Covid-19 exacerbated the unemployment crisis. The CMIE estimates that there were about 10 crore graduates and post-graduates in India. Out of these, about 6.4 crore were willing to work, but only 5.2 crore were employed. That means about 1.2 crore graduates in India who want work are currently unemployed.

Most of these would be younger people. Those fresh out of college are more optimistic about their chances of getting a 'suitable' job — something commensurate with what they were trained to do. They hedge their bets by simultaneously enrolling in post-graduate courses, hoping to exit as soon as they get their dream job. By the time they are about 25, their families start putting pressure on them to get married and 'settle down'. So, they begin to lower their expectations. By the time these same people hit 30, they take anything available, usually way below what they had initially hoped for as their chosen career.

This graph is replicated in unemployment numbers. The CMIE's data for January to April 2020 tells us that the 'greater' unemployment rate — those who are actively seeking work and those who are willing to work but not actively looking for it — among young people in the 20-24 age bracket is a whopping 52 per cent. This number drops sharply to 22 per cent for 25-29-year-olds, and then to 13 per cent in the 30-34 age group, finally settling in the 10-12 per cent range for those between 35 and 59 years of age.

It is also likely that younger people look for secure salaried jobs, and when they don't get it, they become self-employed, as they grow older. The word 'self-employed' conjures up glamourous images of free entrepreneurship, but in reality, it is mostly very low-paid itinerant work — domestic helps, plumbers, electricians, carpenters, hawkers, cab and auto-rickshaw drivers, car mechanics. The government's own data tells us that the average monthly earning of a self-employed person in 2018-19 was just Rs 8,363. On the other hand, a regular formal job provided an average monthly salary of Rs 25,866.

That explains why, over the past decade, young people have lost their urge to become entrepreneurs and wanted stable government jobs. Two CSDS-Lokniti surveys done in 2007 and 2016 chronicled this massive change in job aspirations among the youth. In 2007, 48 per cent of young people in big cities wanted government jobs. By 2016, that number had risen to 62 per cent. Amongst graduates, the number of young people seeking government jobs rose from 54 per cent in 2007 to 73 per cent in 2016.

It is in this context that one should look at the calamitous impact of Covid-19 on salaried jobs. The CMIE data tells us that about 21 million salaried jobs were lost during the lockdown period. The latest four-month unemployment data shows that 6.6 million white-collar salaried jobs were lost between May and August this year. These are the best-paid and most-stable jobs in the country. Those who lost these jobs are also most likely to have graduate and post-graduate degrees.

This is a powder keg that is waiting to explode. The political class will ignore it at its own peril.

Indus Waters Treaty turns 60, disputes persist

LT GEN PRAMOD GROVER (RETD)
FORMER STATE INFORMATION COMMISSIONER, PUNJAB

> The existing geopolitical situation and the emerging China-Pakistan water axis prevent any workable negotiations with Pakistan. The only option with India at present is to draw the maximum benefit from provisions of the treaty. This would involve utilising all available waters of the eastern rivers and exploiting full potential of the western rivers for irrigation and hydro-power. Pakistan's rhetoric over the matter will have to be tackled diplomatically as heretofore.

THE Indus Waters Treaty, hailed as one of the finest, the most sophisticated and comprehensive international water treaties, remains a contentious issue even after 60 years. For India and Pakistan, the blame game carries on.

The 1960 treaty is perhaps the only agreement that physically divides the river system between two nation-states and the only one wherein a third party, the World Bank, played a crucial role in not just brokering for a protracted period of 10 years to work out the specific arrangement, but was also a signatory.

This treaty addressed specific water allocation issues, providing unique design requirements for the run-of-the-river dams to ensure steady water flow and guarantee power generation through hydroelectricity, and also provides a mechanism for consultation and arbitration should questions, disagreements, or disputes arise between the incumbents. Some disputes notwithstanding, the treaty continues to remain intact despite the trust deficit between the two nuclear neighbours, and the established fact that Pakistan exports and supports terrorism in India. For its continuance, the role of India's political leadership must be acknowledged.

Following the development and construction of several projects by India on the western rivers, such as the Salal hydroelectric project, the Wullar barrage project, the Baglihar hydroelectric project, and the Kishenganga hydroelectric project to name a few since 1976, Pakistan has been accusing India of several violations of the treaty. In fact, due to the storage/diversion of western river waters associated with these projects, it also holds India responsible for any shortage of water that it is facing. In response,

UPPER HAND: Every time Pakistan has taken India to neutral arbitrators or court of arbitration with accusations of non-compliance with the treaty, the ruling has been in India's favour.

however, India has maintained that it has all along adhered to the provisions of the treaty in letter and in spirit and has never deprived Pakistan of its share of water under the treaty and has no intention of doing so. Every time Pakistan has taken India to neutral arbitrators or a court of arbitration with accusations of non-compliance with the treaty, the ruling has been in India's favour.

Over the past decade, Pakistan has been accusing India of diverting/storing water entitled to Pakistan on the western rivers. It is demanding a bigger share of water from rivers that run from India even though India, as per the treaty, generously gave away 80.52 per cent of the Indus system waters to Pakistan for indefinite duration. Pakistan has also been highlighting at various international forums that water scarcity in Pakistan is being caused (or partially caused) by Indian action, a situation that would seriously jeopardise economic growth and prove to be a health hazard for Pakistan.

To put Pakistan's viewpoint and concerns in perspective, we need to focus on some of the imperatives of the treaty. First, it allocates the water of the three western rivers to Pakistan, but allows India to tap the considerable hydropower potential before the rivers enter Pakistan. Second, the treaty allowed India to create storage on the western rivers of 1.25, 1.60, and 0.75 MAF (million acre feet) for general, power, and flood storages, respectively, amounting to total permissible storage of 3.6 MAF. Third, the treaty does not require India to deliver assured quantities of water to Pakistan and instead it requires India to let flow to Pakistan the water available in these rivers excluding the limited use permitted to India by the treaty. Fourth, there are no quantitative limits to the hydroelectricity that India can produce using the western rivers nor any limit to the number of run-of-the-river projects India can build.

Since hydro-power does not consume water, the only issue is timing. Pakistan must realise that the overall effect the run-of-the-river hydro-power projects will have is perhaps a negligible delay as far as timing is concerned. Secondly, for general, power, and flood storages amounting to total permissible storage of 3.6 MAF, India has built no storage and is yet to utilise fully its entitlement. Further, of the 1.34 million acres permitted for irrigation, India is using only 0.792 million acres. Out of an assessed potential of 18,653 MW, only projects worth 3,264 MW have been commissioned so far. Any reduced flows into Pakistan from time to time are not the result of any violation of the treaty by India or any action to divert such flows from the western rivers.

Pakistan is facing a grim situation regarding its fast-depleting fresh water resources. Detailed analysis indicates water scarcity problems, mainly due to high inefficiency of water use in irrigation (80% of the water is used for low value agriculture production), increased levels of water pollution, lack of water storage facility and competing needs driven by high population growth in Pakistan. Estimates indicate that the availability of water in Pakistan has been consistently declining over the past few decades, from 5,000 cubic metres per capita 60 years ago to 1,000 cubic metres per capita at present, and is estimated to fall to about 800 cubic metres per capita by 2025. Pakistan has also realised that there will be an increase in the demand for water due to the impact of climate change. This is because higher levels of irrigation are needed to compensate for increased evaporation. Thus, in order to provide water security, Pakistan has now commenced construction of dams with Chinese assistance on the western rivers.

What is the future of this treaty? Is there a need to revisit it? The response is simple. Unfortunately, there is no clause to withdraw from it unilaterally. Various sane voices from both sides have suggested that both India and Pakistan should realise the strategic importance of water as an economic resource and discuss efforts required to jointly optimise the potential of the Indus River System as per Article VII ('Future Cooperation') of the treaty.

However, the existing geopolitical situation and the emerging China-Pakistan water axis prevent any workable negotiations with Pakistan. Both the Indus and Sutlej originate from China, which has been constructing storage/dams on these rivers before they enter the Indian territory.

The only workable option with India at present is to draw the maximum benefit from provisions of the treaty. This would involve utilising all available waters of the eastern rivers and exploiting full potential of the western rivers for irrigation and hydro-power (including permissible storage) while remaining within the four corners of the provisions of the treaty. Simultaneously, a study group of experts should be convened to work out future course of action to include utilisation/transfer of water of the western rivers including legal ramifications in case the need arises. Pakistan's inevitable rhetoric over the matter will have to be tackled diplomatically as heretofore.

The educational institutions falling outside the containment zones in the state would start functioning from September 21, as per the standard operating procedures (SOP) issued by the Union Ministry of Home Affairs and the Union Ministry of Health and Family Welfare.

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

MANDI, SEPTEMBER 18

KK Pathak, Managing Director, National Highways and Infrastructure Development Corporation Limited (NHIDCL), and Sanjeev Malik, Executive Director, yesterday visited the north and south portals of the Shinku La tunnel.

After the LAC face-off with China in the Galwan valley, the Central Government is now focusing on building infrastructure in border areas of Ladakh and Himachal Pradesh.

In order to improve road connectivity, the NHIDCL, which is under the Ministry of Road, Transport and Highways, has expedited the process to prepare a detailed project report (DPR) on the 13.5-km Shinku La tunnel in Ladakh and Lahaul and Spiti district.

The officials travelled from Leh via Padum to the north and south portals of Shinku La. Anand Kumar Pahal, Executive Director, Regional Office, Srinagar, also accompanied them.

Once completed, the tunnel would provide all-weather connectivity to Leh from Manali to the Army via the Darcha-Padum-Nimmu highway as an alternate route. Till now, there is access to Leh from Manali only via the Manali-Leh highway, which is used by the Army only during the summer season. During the winter, the Manali-Leh highway gets closed for six months.

State govt restores MLALAD fund

ASSEMBLY IN SESSION

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

SHIMLA, SEPTEMBER 18

The state government today restored the MLA Local Area Development (MLALAD) fund, which was put on hold in April.

Chief Minister Jai Ram Thakur made the announcement on the floor of the Vidhan Sabha. "It has been decided that the MLALAD fund, which was suspended following a decision by the Cabinet on April 7, will be restored. We will provide Rs 50 lakh this year in two equal installments," said the Chief Minister.

He said that the fund, which is utilised by MLAs for various development works in their Assembly segments, was being restored on the demand of the legislators from both sides. Lawmakers get an annual MLALAD fund of Rs 1.75 crore for undertaking development works.

"The fund was suspended in view of the Covid-induced economic crisis, but the able fiscal management and proper monitoring of the situation helped improve and stabilise the condition," said the Chief Minister. He added that while the first installment of Rs 25 lakh would be released in October, the second one would be released after the panchayati raj elections later this year.

Thakur said that it was decided in April that the fund would suspended for two years. He added that the government expenditure in the first five months of this financial year was far more than the expenditure in the corresponding period last year.

Shopian encounter probe puts focus back on AFSPA

ARUN JOSHI
TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

JAMMU, SEPTEMBER 18

The Army's admission on Friday that soldiers involved in the Amshipora Shopian encounter had exceeded their powers under the Armed Forces Special Powers Act (AFSPA) is first such acceptance since August 5 last year.

It is rife with ramifications in which anger on the ground in Kashmir threatens to escalate and complicate the already complex situation.

It will also raise more questions about the continuation of the special powers, for which there are no easy answers available as to why the AFSPA is needed even after more than 30 years of its existence in J&K.

Ever since the AFSPA was invoked on July 5, 1990, after it was found that the system had collapsed and routine laws were insufficient to deal with the heightened militancy and violence, there have been a series of charges against forces for misusing the special powers. Inquiries were instituted in some cases, and a few of these found soldiers guilty, but what happened thereafter was not made public, reinforcing doubts of people in such investigations.

"Staged encounters" and the killing of civilians were also reported during the period of political governments, but this is for the first time that such a thing has come to the fore since J&K became a UT on October 31last year.

All 20 districts of the UT are covered under the AFSPA where the forces have a shield against any legal action for their acts of omission and commission. While the entire Kashmir Valley and 20 km radius from LoC in the twin border districts of Rajouri and Poonch in the Jammu region were declared disturbed areas and brought under the AFSPA in July 1990, the rest of the Jammu region was covered under this Act in August 2001.

What, however, is significant in this particular episode is that the Army has stated it candidly that its inquiry "brought out certain prima facie evidence indicating that during the operation, powers vested under the AFSPA 1990 were exceeded and the do's and don'ts of Chief of Army Staff (COAS) as approved by the Supreme Court have been contravened".

"Consequently, the competent disciplinary authority has directed to initiate disciplinary proceedings under the Army Act against those found prima facie answerable."

But the people in Kashmir whose silent anger is swelling would have their own versions. They may have no appetite for street protests, but the overload of the temperature over such cases creates a high-pressure situation.

'Misuse' of spl powers

Shopkeepers told to display -ve report

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

JAMMU, SEPTEMBER 18

Alarmed at the detection of a large number of positive cases from different markets in rapid testing, the authorities on Friday directed owners of shops and business houses to prominently display Covid negative reports in front of their establishments.

Apart from government officials, a large number of shopkeepers have tested positive during the past 15 days in different parts of the Jammu province.

"The pandemic is getting stronger every day and as a preventive measure, all shops and business owners in Ramban, who are visited by people, will need regular testing and also display Covid negative report prominently, else they cannot open shops," Deputy Commissioner stated in an order issued this evening.

Although the order has been issued by the DC, the same process will be implemented in all 10 districts of the Jammu province which recorded a surge in positive cases during the past 15 days. The authorities have made it clear that without displaying the negative reports, shopkeepers will not be allowed to open their establishments.

On September 1, the total cases in the Jammu province were 9,022, out of which 6,634 recovered and 2,318 cases were active positive with 70 deaths. But these numbers swelled to 21,255 on September 18 with 11,823 active positive and 209 deaths.

The situation is worse in Jammu district, where the number of positive cases jumped to 9,650 on September 19 from 3,409 on September 1.

Jammu has been reporting a doubling time of 15 days, recovery rate of 33 per cent and case fatality rate of 1.24 per cent.

HEALTH DIRECTOR IN PRIVATE HOSPITAL

Amid allegations that the system had completely crumbled in the government-run hospitals across the Jammu region, the Director, Health Services, Jammu, who tested positive, has been shifted to a private hospital for treatment. All dedicated Covid centres, set up by the government in the Jammu region, are confronting the shortage of oxygen, so influential people prefer to get treatment in private hospitals.

Document registration goes online

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

SRINAGAR, SEPTEMBER 18

Lieutenant Governor Manoj Sinha launched the National Generic Document Registration System (NGDRS) at a ceremony organised at the Srinagar Deputy Commissioner's office today.

The NGDRS represents a major shift from the existing manual registration system to online registration of all transactions in sale-purchase/transfer of land and the stamp papers have been replaced by e-stamps, which have been incorporated in coordination with the Stockholding Corporation of India. J&K will be the 10th state/UT to become part of the NGDRS, an official spokesman said.

Speaking on the occasion, the Lt Governor remarked that today's launch marked another step of the government towards the establishment of an accountable and transparent governing system where the welfare of common citizen was at the core.

"The overall intent is to ensure hassle-free service delivery and transparency in the registration process by online uploading of the document, appointment with the registration office, e-stamp, and a one-time visit to the registration office. The entire process has been reduced to 15 minutes, which earlier would take several days in view of multiple steps involved. Now all five steps are under the digital process," the Lt Governor said.

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

SRINAGAR, SEPTEMBER 18

Cricketer Suresh Raina has been roped in to hone the cricketing skills of youths here.

Raina made the announcement in this regard on Twitter today after holding meetings with Lieutenant Governor Manoj Sinha and DGP J&K Dilbag Singh.

"It gives me immense pleasure to get the support of honourable @manojsinha_ sir, had a productive meeting today with him on working towards creating a platform for sports in Jammu & Kashmir. Let's make it bigger!" Raina tweeted.

Raina had earlier written to the DGP and offered to play a role in the promotion of cricket in J&K by identifying talented youngsters, particularly underprivileged kids.

Singh said the presence of the star cricketer in J&K would help in "connecting with people, particularly youths, thus channelising their energy in positive directions".

As per a police statement, Raina said he wanted to promote sports among youth of J&K.

Pvt schools to face legal action for charging admission fee

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

JAMMU, SEPTEMBER 18

Acting tough against private schools charging admission fee from parents, the Jammu and Kashmir Government today ordered that any school charging capitation fee from students would invite legal action, including 10 times fine of the admission fees charged.

The government also ordered the private schools to refund the capitation fee, if charged, to parents or guardians of students without any delay, failing which the recognition of the said school would be cancelled.

The government orders followed complaints of parents that private schools had been charging admission fee despite clear directions from the School Education Department.

"Orders have been issued under Section 13 of the RTE Act, 2009," said Asgar Hassan Samoon, Principal Secretary, School Education.

Samoon said no private school or person while admitting a child would collect any admission fee from any child or parents or guardians and such fee, if already collected in violation of Right of Children to free and Compulsory Education Act from the date of its applicability on October 31 last year, would be refunded with immediate effect.

"Subjecting a child to screening procedure shall be punishable with fine which may extend to Rs 25,000 for first contravention and Rs 50,000 for each subsequent contravention," Samoon said.

Pak violates ceasefire in Gurez

SRINAGAR, SEPTEMBER 18

Pakistan violated the ceasefire agreement and resorted to heavy firing along the Line of Control in north Kashmir's Bandipora district on Friday morning, Srinagar-based Defence spokesman said.

The latest ceasefire violation took place at Kanzalwan in the Gurez sector on a day when Chief of the Army Staff General Manoj Mukund Naravane was on a two-day visit to Kashmir, which concluded on Friday. The Army Chief reviewed the security along the LoC and hinterland during his visit and also met J&K Lieutenant Governor Manoj Sinha.

The spokesman said Pakistan fired mortars and other weapons at Kanzalwan, Gurez, and a "befitting response was given".

HC orders to hold KCC&I elections

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

SRINAGAR, SEPTEMBER 18

After infighting within the Valley's apex business body, the High Court today ordered fresh elections to elect the executive committee of the Kashmir Chamber of Commerce and Industries (KCC&I).

Deputy Commissioner, Srinagar, Shahid Chaudhary and two retired judges have been told to oversee the electoral process.

"The High Court in its order has restored functioning of the KCC&I by the executive committee elected in 2018, subject to conditions till the expiry of their term, which had previously been extended by them till September 27, 2020. The election process is to begin from September 28, 2020, and is to conclude on October 25, 2020. The elections are to be supervised by the Deputy Commissioner, Srinagar, with the assistance of two retired judicial officers of the rank of Principal District Judge. However, the parties have been asked to give their response to the tentative proposed arrangement ordered by the court," a KCC&I spokesperson said.

The spokesman said the stand of the existing KCC&I executive committee had been "vindicated which always wanted to hold elections and had given it in writing before the trial court as well as before the High Court".

He said the KCC&I earlier had, however, expressed "its difficulty in holding it because of Covid-19 and imposition of Section 144 of the CrPC".

Buzz missing but IPL aims to bring normality amid pandemic

The show begins

MUMBAI, SEPTEMBER 18

After months of uncertainty due to the Covid-19 pandemic, the delayed season of the Indian Premier League will kick off in the United Arab Emirates tomorrow with a clash between defending champions Mumbai Indians and Chennai Super Kings.

The 2020 edition of the world's richest T20 league was originally scheduled to begin on March 29 in India but had to be postponed indefinitely by the country's cricket board (BCCI) due to worsening situation of the pandemic. IPL's cancellation would have meant a potential $534 million loss in revenue, leading the board to shift the tournament out of India, which is the world's second-worst affected country with over 5 million cases of coronavirus infections.

The postponement of this year's T20 World Cup in Australia because of the pandemic also helped. It presented a window in the international cricket calendar for the eight-team league, which is attended by most of the world's top players. The matches will be held in bio-secure bubbles in Dubai, Sharjah and Abu Dhabi in front of empty stands but organisers are hoping to allow some fans during the later stages of the tournament, which will end on November 10.

While it will be impossible to create the usual carnival-like atmosphere in the stands, BCCI chief Sourav Ganguly felt organising the event was an attempt to bring normality to people's life in India. "Crowds will watch it on television ... they (broadcasters) are actually expecting the highest rating of IPL this season because they believe if (people) don't turn up in the ground, they will be actually watching on their television sets," former India captain Ganguly said. — Reuters

RS passes Bill to cut salaries of MPs, ministers by 30 pc

PARLIAMENT MONSOON SESSION

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

NEW DELHI, SEPTEMBER 18

With the Rajya Sabha giving its nod, the Parliament today passed Salaries and Allowances of Ministers (Amendment) Bill, 2020, and Salary, Allowances and Pension of Members of Parliament (Amendment) Bill, 2020, by voice vote.

However, MPs cutting across party lines, except for the ruling BJP, asked the government to restore the suspended MPLAD funds.

The Lok Sabha had approved the two Bills to reduce for one year the salaries of ministers and MPs by 30 per cent "to meet the exigencies arising out of the Covid-19 pandemic" on Tuesday.

The two Bills were taken up together for discussion though it was moved separately by two ministers – Minister of State (MoS) for Home G Kishan Reddy and Parliamentary Affairs Minister Prahlad Joshi. Reddy moved the Bill on ministers' salary and Joshi moved the MPs' salary Bill.

Reddy in his replies to the members' criticism that the House spent two hours addressing these issues said the idea of this Bill was not just to save money, but a matter of principle.

The Bills intended to reduce 30 per cent of the government's outgo on ministers and MPs' salaries and allowances due to them.

Noting that charity should begin at home, Joshi said, "We have to be role models for our country." He clarified that the saving from the Bills was not Rs 6 crore, as suggested by a member, rather it is at least Rs 53.83 crore.

Initiating the debate, Congress MP from Maharashtra Rajeev Satav says he and his party fully support the Bill and was willing to work for Re 1 if that would aid Covid-19 response, but insisted that the attempt to suspend MPLAD was wrong. He also asked that the Central Vista project be suspended until the Covid-19 fight is done with. Echoing Satav's sentiment, several MPs, including from the BJD, YSRCP, TDP, TRS, SP, BSP and all others, demanded restoration of Members of Parliament Local Area Development (MPLAD) fund.

Leader of Opposition Ghulam Nabi Azad said, "The MPLAD funds are vital and its suspension be modified from two years to one year and 100 per cent to 50 per cent cut. We don't construct palaces. It is used to construct small houses, kutcha roads and other small, but necessary amenities."

OPPN WANTS MPLAD FUNDS RESTORED

"MPLADS funds are meant for taking care of needy people. It should not be suspended for two years. My suggestion to the govt will be to reduce it for one year and in that one year ₹2.5 crore fund be kept

Legislation on homoeopathy gets RS nod

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

NEW DELHI, SEPTEMBER 18

The Rajya Sabha today passed two Bills, replacing ordinances related to the Central Council of Homoeopathy and the Indian Medicine Central Council.

The Homoeopathy Central Council (Amendment) Bill, 2020, seeks to further extend the time to form the Central Council of Homeopathy by a year, after exhausting two years for the purpose.

The Indian Medicine Central Council (Amendment) Bill, 2020, also seeks a year's extension to reconstitute the central council and provide for a board of directors to exercise its powers in the interim period.

Replying to the debate on the two Bills, Union Health minister Harsh Vardhan said the government was committed to providing affordable and easy healthcare facilities to every citizen.

Oppn, BJP clash as Anurag slams Nehru to defend PM Cares Fund

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

NEW DELHI, SEPTEMBER 18

The Opposition and the ruling BJP clashed in the Lok Sabha on Friday over setting up of PM Cares Fund, leading to Minister of State for Finance Anurag Thakur expressing "regret" over his remarks on former PM Jawahar Lal Nehru. The House was adjourned four times between 4 pm and 6 pm.

Replying to queries by the Opposition on the need to create PM Cares Fund, Thakur said the earlier Prime Minister's National Relief Fund was created by "Nehru ji like a royal order".

"From 1948 till today, it has not been registered. How did it get the FCRA (foreign contribution) clearance?" he said.

Alleging misuse of funds, he said, "You created a trust for the Gandhi family. Nehru and Sonia Gandhi were its members. This should be investigated."

This led to pandemonium in the House with Congress leader in the Lok Sabha Adhir Ranjan Chaudhary hitting back: "Have we said (PM Narendra) Modi is stealing from funds? How could he (Anurag) use such words for Nehru." Congress MP Gaurav Gogoi demanded an apology from Thakur. At 6 pm, the House resumed normal business after Thakur said, "I did not want to hurt anyone.... I regret my words."

Farm Bills: Those at odds now jointly opposing Centre

VIBHA SHARMA
TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

NEW DELHI, SEPTEMBER 18

Every story has two sides, but the ongoing farmers' agitation against the three agriculture-related ordinances has more than that with farmers, middlemen (arhtiyas), states and the Centre, adding to various facets.

As agriculture expert Sudhir Panwar points out, sides traditionally at odds (farmers and arhtiyas) are now jointly opposing the BJP-led Centre. And, these protesters are aided by Opposition, farmers' organisations and activists.

Perhaps, the real issue is too technical with apprehensions about the threat of new ecosystem, rendering the MSP structure irrelevant. The Tribune talked to different sides to understand the dynamics of the growing agitation.

After the PM accused the Opposition of misleading farmers, BKU general secretary Yudhvir Singh said, "The PM is trying to suppress reality with these allegations. Farmers' 'virodh' has not happened for the first time. We have fought several battles against the government."

"Yes, farmers are exploited by arhtiyas, but the aim should have been to fix that lacuna in the system. Procurement at the MSP is only for a limited period and farmers who are not able to sell during that are forced to sell at lower prices to arhtiyas, but the same group will step if the system changes. The government is acting at the behest of the WTO, World Bank and the IMF," says the BKU leader.

Upset with PM's attempt to "eliminate middleman", arhtiyas say they are the and integral part of the foodgrain procurement network system working for benefit of both farmers and government agencies. Ravinder Singh Cheema, president of the Punjab Arhtiya Association, says: "Arhtiyas work like a bridge, take the responsibility of quality and quantity of the government stock up to 45 days in procurement season and protect farmers against officials. If the government does not change the decision, the central agency will not be allowed to purchase a single grain from Punjab and Haryana," he added.

BJP president JP Nadda says: "The UPA in 2013-14 de-notified fruits and vegetables from the APMC Act in its states. The Congress in its 2019 manifesto made it clear that it will repeal the Agricultural Produce Market Committees Act." However, Panwar believes implementation of new agriculture legislations will be difficult. There are many reasons, but most important is "lack of consultations with stakeholders". "Punjab and Haryana will be affected the most because of loss of mandi tax, which a good source of revenue. While arhtiyas will lose their work, farmers are apprehensive about the functioning of the new land contract system," he added.

'NOT A FIRST STIR'

"The PM is trying to suppress reality with these allegations. Farmers' 'virodh' has not happened for the first time. We have fought several battles against the government.

'WORK LIKE BRIDGE'

"These Bills will ruin the agriculture marketing network created in five decades. Arhtiyas work like a bridge & take the responsibility of quality and quantity of govt stock.

Why insult Covid warriors, Rahul asks Centre

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

NEW DELHI, SEPTEMBER 18

After the government informed Parliament that 155 Covid warriors had applied for insurance under the Central scheme meant to cover their Covid mortality risk and that it did not have full data on doctor deaths, Congress leader Rahul Gandhi asked the Centre why it was insulting Covid warriors.

"This government is averse to adverse data. More important than clapping for Covid warriors is ensuring their dignity. Why this insult to warriors?" Gandhi asked tweeting government answer in Parliament that it did not have the entire data on death of Covid warriors since health is a state subject.

Minister of State for Health Ashwini Choubey informed the Rajya Sabha this week that health was a state subject and "such data is not maintained at Central level by Ministry of Health". This was in response to a question on the number of healthcare staff, including doctors, nurses, support staff and ASHA workers, who have been affected by the virus or died due to it. The IMA has published a list of 382 doctors, who have died of Covid.

At TMC-led protest in Parl, Cong left out

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

NEW DELHI, SEPTEMBER 18

A shadow has been cast on the unity of Opposition parties against the BJP-led Union Government due to competitive politics of the Trinamool Congress (TMC) against the Congress and the Left.

This was in display on Thursday on Parliament's premises when the TMC organised a demonstration of MPs of eight Opposition parties to protest against the Centre for not releasing the GST compensation to the states.

The Congress, the main Opposition in Parliament, and the Left parties were kept out of the loop.

On Congress' absence from the demonstration, TMC's Lok Sabha Chief Whip Kalyan Banerjee reasoned that his party couldn't expect cooperation from the Centre while the Congress acted against his party in West Bengal.

The development is bound to be welcomed by the BJP which would want to see the Opposition in disarray. West Bengal goes to the Assembly poll in May next year.

While for the BJP, West Bengal is the frontier state in eastern India to be won, the ruling TMC wants to return to power for the third consecutive term.

The BJP has never been in power in the state. On the contrary, its rivals have ruled it individually on their own in the past.

The Congress and the Left parties will in all probability contest the coming Assembly election in alliance.

Cyber attack on NIC computers

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

NEW DELHI, SEPTEMBER 18

A cyber breach was attempted by unidentified actors to install malware on approximately 100 odd computers of the National Informatics Centre (NIC), the government's nodal agency which is responsible for securing critical cyber-infrastructure in the country, sources in the government said. A complaint has been lodged with the Delhi Police.

The police, in an official statement, said a government employee had recently reported that he was having difficulty in accessing his official email account which was lying unused for some weeks.

Earlier, the NIC found there was "an attempted breach by unidentified cyber actors", which is a kind of regular activity over cyber space, it said, adding that the malware was, however, detected by the government's IT agency's robust cyber security systems.

According to initial investigation, an email from a Bengaluru firm is suspected to have created the malware and the alarm was raised.

According to sources, the computers at the NIC's cyber hub contain crucial information and data on India's security, citizens and important government functionaries, including the PM, National Security Adviser, Home Minister among others.

'Akalis feel betrayed'

told the government about their misgivings. We got a letter from the Union Home Minister, saying the MSP regime would stay. The farmers were not convinced. There were objections to the dismantling of Punjab's mandi system. We told the Modi government that the Punjab mandi system was the best in the country and must be replicated elsewhere. We have invested a lot on raising agri infrastructure in the past 50 years.The multi-nationals will finish all that hard work. The farmers will benefit initially, but once the multi-nationals have a monopoly, they will think only of their profit.

Why do you think the Modi govt is in such a hurry to pass these Bills?

That is a big question. We wanted the Bills to be referred to a select committee. After a discussion with all stakeholders, the government could have taken an informed decision. But none of that happened. When people are not happy with a law, why bring that law?

"The Akali MPs voted against the Bills. The Cong MPs walked out. Capt should resign for deceiving farmers. The Congress promised the same legislation in its poll manifesto.

The Congress and other parties say the resignation is too little, too late. Your comment?

We don't need a certificate from the Congress. The Akali MPs voted against the Bills. The Congress MPs walked out, which only helps the government during voting. In fact, the Congress is equally responsible. Punjab CM Capt Amarinder Singh should resign for deceiving the farmers.The Congress promised the same legislation in its 2019 poll manifesto. The Punjab Government has already approved the setting up of private mandis. Captain was among the seven CMs on a committee that discussed the ordinances before these were tabled. Why did he not object then?

The recommendations are made by an independent national jury composed of eminent environmentalists and scientists, a statement said.

Blue Flag beaches are considered the cleanest in the world. The eight beaches are Shivrajpur in Gujarat, Ghoghla in Daman and Diu, Kasarkod and Padubidri in Karnataka, Kappad in Kerala, Rushikonda in Andhra Pradesh, Golden beach of Odisha and Radhanagar beach in Andaman and Nicobar.

Union Environment Minister Prakash Javadekar said the government was committed to cleaning the beaches across the country. Clean beaches are the testimony to environment in the coastal area, he said. — TNS

People in Mizoram, Punjab happiest: Report

ADITI TANDON
TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

NEW DELHI, SEPTEMBER 18

In the happiness rankings of states and union territories (UTs), Mizoram, Punjab and Andaman and Nicobar Islands are the top three.

The study, conducted by India's leading management strategy expert Rajesh Pillania, is based on a nationwide survey covering 16,950 people between March and July 2020 and tracks the impact of Covid-19 on people.

In the final happiness rankings, Mizoram, Punjab, Andaman and Nicobar Islands are the top three states and UTs, while Odisha, Uttarakhand and Chhattisgarh are the bottom three.

Among big states, Punjab, Gujarat, and Telangana lead the happiness rankings and among smaller states, Mizoram, Sikkim, and Arunachal Pradesh top the list.

The research has named Andaman and Nicobar Islands, Puducherry, and Lakshadweep as the happiest UTs.

"Happiness is a subjective concept and the differences in rankings are due to differences in the components of happiness across states and UTs. This study used six components to measure happiness — work and work related issues like earnings and growth; relationships, including family and friends, health, including physical and mental, philanthropy, spiritual orientation and the impact of Covid-19 on happiness. All these components are found to be significant in the regression analysis and explain the differences in happiness scores," Pillania said.

UTs Andaman and Nicobar Islands, Puducherry and Lakshadweep also on list
