US tariffs on $200-billion China goods illegal: WTO

JAMEY KEATEN
Geneva, September 15

THE WORLD TRADE Organization (WTO) on Tuesday said that Trump administration tariffs on Chinese goods totalling more than $200 billion are illegal under the rules of the global trade body.

The decision marks the first time the Geneva-based trade body has ruled against a series of tariffs that US President Donald Trump's government has imposed on a number of countries, allies and rivals alike.

Trump has repeatedly criticised the WTO, which oversees international disputes on trade, for allegedly treating the US unfairly.

In its decision, the WTO ruled against the Trump administration's argument that China has engaged in practices harmful to US interests, on issues including intellectual property theft, technology transfer and innovation.

The ruling, in theory, would allow China to impose retaliatory tariffs on billions worth of US goods — if the process is completed.

HIGH TAXES

Toyota won't expand in India

Says needs to protect jobs; utilising capacity created to take time

ANURAG KOTOKY
September 15

TOYOTA MOTOR WON'T expand further in India due to the country's high tax regime, a blow for Prime Minister Narendra Modi, who's trying to lure global companies to offset the deep economic malaise brought on by the coronavirus pandemic.

The government keeps taxes on cars and motorbikes so high that companies find it hard to build scale, said Shekar Viswanathan, vice-chairman of Toyota's local unit, Toyota Kirloskar Motor. The high levies also put owning a car out of reach of many consumers, meaning factories are idled and jobs aren't created, he said.

"The message we are getting, after we have come here and invested money, is that we don't want you," Viswanathan said in an interview. In the absence of any reforms, "we won't exit India, but we won't scale up".

Toyota began operating in India in 1997. Its local unit is owned 89% by the Japanese company and has a small market share — just 2.6% in August versus almost 5% a year earlier, Federation of Automobile Dealers Associations data show.

While Toyota Kirloskar continues to be committed to India and needs to protect jobs, utilising the capacity it has created "will take time", the company said in a statement after the Bloomberg story was published.

The message we are getting, after we have come here and invested money, is that we don't want you...we won't exit India, but we won't scale up.

INVESTMENTS IN START-UPs

House panel for 2-yr LTCG tax removal

Proposal comes at a time when Covid-19 pandemic has hit several businesses

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, September 15

THE PARLIAMENTARY STANDING committee on finance has suggested that the long-term capital gains (LTCG) tax be abolished for at least two years on investments in start-ups made by collective investment vehicles (CIVs) such as angel funds, alternative investment funds (AIFs) and certain limited liability partnerships (LLPs).

"After this two-year period, the Securities Transaction Tax (STT) may be applied to CIVs so that revenue neutrality is maintained," said the report of the panel, headed by former minister of state for finance Jayant Sinha. The report titled, Financing the Start-up Ecosystem, was tabled in Parliament at a time when the Covid-19 pandemic has threatened the survival of thousands of start-ups that are gasping for liquidity. Tighter scrutiny of Chinese investments has added to the difficulty in getting funds.

KEY SUGGESTIONS

- Abolish LTCG on investments made by angel funds, AIFs into start-ups
- Replace LTCG with STT after two years; bring tax parity between domestic & foreign investors
- Form an expert panel to firm up valuation methodology for start-ups
- Exempt asset management services to foreign investors from GST

Venture capital investments in start-ups crashed between April and July in the wake of the pandemic. Domestic start-ups witnessed 40 Series A deals worth $156 million during the period, sharply lower than the 66 worth $421 million between December and March, according to Venture Intelligence data.

'Be self-reliant, ease curbs on AIFs to boost start-up funding'

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, Sept 15

INDIA NEEDS TO cut dependence on capital from key destinations such as the US and China for its start-ups and become "self-reliant" by having several large domestic growth funds powered by local capital to support its unicorns, the parliamentary standing committee on finance said in a report, seemingly echoing the government's latest Aatmanirbhar initiative.

Interestingly, of the 21 Indian start-up unicorns (with a combined valuation of about $73.2 billion) that featured in the Hurun Global Unicorn Index released in August, as many as 11 have got funding from Chinese investors like Alibaba, Tencent and DST Global.

SERUM INSTITUTE

'Not enough Covid vaccines till 2024'

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, September 15

HEALTH MINISTER Harsh Vardhan has spoken of how India is likely to get a vaccine for Covid-19 by the first quarter of next year, but the person responsible for manufacturing it seems to be less sanguine.

In an interview to Financial Times, Adar Poonawalla, chief executive of Serum Institute, the world's largest vaccine producer, has said it will take till the end of 2024 for everyone in the world to be inoculated. Poonawalla told FT that pharmaceutical firms the world over were not ramping up capacity fast enough to deliver the vaccine faster than that.

Poonawalla told FT that if the vaccine, like the one for measles or the rotavirus, was a two-shot one, 15 billion shots will be required.

■ Serum CEO Adar Poonawalla's remarks come even as Union health minister Harsh Vardhan on Monday said a vaccine would be ready by early next year

■ Poonawalla estimates the world will need 15 billion doses of vaccine if it is taken in two steps

Covid vaccine: India role critical, says Gates

BILLIONAIRE PHILANTHROPIST Bill Gates has said India's willingness to play a "big role" in manufacturing a Covid-19 vaccine and allow it to supply to other developing countries will be a critical part in containing the pandemic globally.

In an exclusive interview with PTI, Gates, whose foundation is focusing on fighting the pandemic, called it the "next biggest thing" the world has been confronted with after the World War. The Microsoft co-founder said the world is looking to India for large scale production of Covid-19 vaccine once it is rolled out. ■ P2

LADAKH A 'CHALLENGE'

Troops ready for 'all contingencies': Singh

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, September 15

FIRMLY ARTICULATING THE government's position on the tense Sino-India border row in eastern Ladakh, defence minister Rajnath Singh on Tuesday said China has been very clearly conveyed that any attempt to "unilaterally" change the status quo along the LAC is not at all acceptable, while acknowledging that India is facing a "challenge" in the region.

Defence minister Rajnath Singh in the Lok Sabha on Tuesday

Making a statement in the Lok Sabha, Singh said there should be no doubt about the country's determination to protect its sovereignty and territorial integrity, and asserted that India's armed forces are ready to deal with "all contingencies" in the high-altitude region.

Referring to the Galwan Valley clashes on June 15, the defence minister said Indian soldiers "inflicted costs including casualties on the Chinese side", adding the House should have "full confidence" that the armed forces will always rise to the challenge and make the country proud.

FESTIVE SEASON

Flipkart to hire 70,000 ahead of grand sale

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, September 15

FLIPKART ON TUESDAY said it will help create more than 70,000 direct jobs in the run-up to its upcoming Big Billion Days sale. The direct jobs will be in addition to lakhs of indirect seasonal employment opportunities that the company expects the festive sale event to generate.

The online festive sales are usually scheduled closer to Navratri and run for five to six days. The direct job roles will be accommodated across Flipkart's supply chain that includes delivery executives, pickers, packers and sorters. The indirect jobs will be facilitated at Flipkart's seller partner locations and kiranas.

"This will be further supplemented by job creation in ancillary industries including vendor locations and freight partners, as the entire ecosystem scales up for the festive season," the company said in a statement.

Exports drop 12.66% in Aug; trade deficit narrows

CONTRACTING FOR the sixth straight month, India's exports slipped 12.66% year-on-year to $22.7 billion in August, on account of fall in the shipments of petroleum, leather, engineering goods and gems and jewellery items, as per the government data released on Tuesday, reports PTI. The contraction in August was higher compared with the 10.21% in July and 12.41% in June. The country's imports, too, declined 26% to $29.47 billion in August, leaving a trade deficit of $6.77 billion, compared with a shortfall of $13.86 billion in the same month last year, as per the data. Centre approves AIIMS for Bihar's Darbhanga

THE UNION Cabinet has approved the establishment of a new All India Institute of Medical Sciences (AIIMS) at Bihar's Darbhanga, an official statement said on Tuesday, reports PTI. The institute will come up under the Pradhan Mantri Swasthya Suraksha Yojana (PMSSY) at a total cost of ₹1,264 crore, it said. The new AIIMS is likely to be completed within a period of 48 months from the date of the approval by the Centre, the statement said. It will add 100 undergraduate (MBBS) seats, 60 B Sc (nursing) seats and will have 15-20 super speciality departments and 750 hospital beds, the statement said.

Hotstar hopes to hit ₹300 cr from IPL ads

VENKATA SUSMITA BISWAS
Mumbai, September 15

DISNEY+ HOTSTAR IS believed to be eyeing advertising revenues of ₹300 crore from the Indian Premier League (IPL) this year, with each associate sponsor reported to be bringing in about ₹20 crore. The official online streaming platform for the IPL, Disney, has tied up with a total of 13 sponsors so far.

Gopa Kumar, COO, Isobar India, believes the lack of people on the move, absence of some telco and other partnerships that made viewing free and putting the game behind a paywall would have only a marginal impact on the reach of IPL on Disney+ Hotstar. "There has been a dearth of sports content lately and IPL is expected to have high engagement this year," Kumar said.

Mehul Gupta, co-founder and CEO, SoCheers, observed he is seeing high interest in performance-based marketing solutions on IPL. "Brands could either advertise in the second-half of IPL starting from semi-finals or for the whole duration. We are advising brands to invest about ₹15-45 lakh, for an optimal use of IPL," Gupta told FE.

Indeed, advertising revenue for Star Sports, the official broadcaster of the IPL 2020, may marginally exceed last year's revenue of about ₹2,000 crore, given the tournament, which kicks off on September 19 and ends on November 8, coincides with much of the festive shopping season. While Durga Puja will be celebrated October 22 onwards, Diwali will be celebrated on November 14. As much as 25-30% of total consumer spends on products such as two-wheelers, cars, consumer durables, apparel and even homes, takes place during the festive season.

Due to the massive pent-up demand for live sports, especially cricket, analysts expect IPL 2020 to attract a record number of viewers.

FM PLACES BILL IN RS

No insolvency process for Covid-related default

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, September 15

FINANCE MINISTER NIRMALA Sitharaman on Tuesday introduced in the Rajya Sabha a Bill to replace an ordinance that was promulgated in June to suspend insolvency proceedings for up to one year against fresh Covid-related default from March 25. The move was aimed at providing breather to thousands of firms battered by the pandemic.

The Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (Second Amendment) Bill, 2020, will be made into law once Parliament clears it and replace the Ordinance the validity of which expires in six months.

The government had sought to suspend invocation of three sections – 7, 8 and 10 — of the IBC for fresh default from March 25. These sections deal with the initiation of the insolvency proceedings by financial and operational creditors and corporate debtors. However, insolvency applications filed for default before March 25 are being entertained.

The cut-off date of March 25 (for filing insolvency application) also came as a relief for the lenders who had filed applications or intended to do so against stressed firms that had defaulted before the pandemic started to spread, in sync with the central bank's June 7, 2019, circular. According to this circular, a default case will have to be referred to the NCLT under the IBC if no other resolution plan is firmed up within six months.

However, as some analysts have pointed out, the breather will potentially hit financial and operational creditors hard and bleed their balance sheet, apart from temporarily depriving them of a credible mode of bad debt resolution.

India's GDP to shrink 9% in FY21: ADB

INDIA'S CORONAVIRUS-BATTERED ECONOMY will shrink by 9% this fiscal, the Asian Development Bank (ADB) predicted on Tuesday saying outlook remains highly vulnerable to either a prolonged Covid outbreak or a resurgence of cases. This will be the first time in four decades that the Indian economic growth will contract.

In its Asian Development Outlook 2020 Update, it forecasts a strong recovery in FY21, with GDP growing by 8% as mobility and business activities resume more widely. — PTI

Exports fall 12.66% in Aug; trade deficit narrows

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, September 15

CONTRACTING FOR THE sixth straight month, India's exports slipped 12.66% year-on-year to $22.7 billion in August, on account of fall in the shipments of petroleum, leather, engineering goods and gems and jewellery items, as per the government data. The contraction in August was higher compared to 10.21% in July and 12.41% in June. Exports was at $25.99 billion a year ago.

The country's imports, too, declined 26% to $29.47 billion in August, leaving a trade deficit of $6.77 billion, compared to a shortfall of $13.86 billion a year ago, as per the data. The deficit was $4.83 billion in July. Oil imports declined by 41.62% to $6.42 billion in August. Gold imports jumped to $3.7 billion in August against $1.36 billion a year ago.

During the April-August period, exports declined by 26.65% to $97.66 billion, while imports fell 43.73% to $118.38 billion — trade deficit stood at $20.72 billion.

GST taxpayers to get more help in filing returns

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, September 15

STARTING THIS MONTH, GST taxpayers will have the assistance of auto-generated documents detailing tax liability and availability of input tax credit (ITC) to make it easier for them to file their monthly summary returns (GSTR-3B), the Goods and Services Tax Network (GSTN) said on Wednesday.

Usually, the taxpayers face two main issues while filing their GSTR-3B which are related to their liability and ITC. Till now, taxpayers were required to compute these values but now the system has been upgraded to enable linking of summary returns and the outward supply return or GSTR-1.

Taxpayers above ₹1.5 crore turnover are required to file GSTR-1 by the 11th of every month and GSTR-3B by 20th. This linking of these two returns has been done for these taxpayers but the functionality for others, who are allowed to file GSTR-1 quarterly, would be enabled later.

The linking will provide taxpayers with available credit they can claim. In this enhancement, the system will auto-generate the invoice-wise ITC statement based on information furnished by the suppliers of the taxpayer in GSTR-1. "A new form GSTR-2B has been launched for this purpose which is, unlike GSTR-2A, a static statement and will be made available for each month on the 12th day of the succeeding month," GSTN said.

The move is expected to give GSTN a big edge in curbing under-reporting of liability and over-reporting of ITC.

Curbing FTA abuse: Govt to tighten scrutiny of imports from Sept 21

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, September 15

A BROAD RANGE of imports, including of mobile phones, set-top boxes, camera and various white goods, will come under stricter scrutiny from September 21, as the government will enforce tougher customs rules to curb abuse of its free trade agreements (FTAs) with trading partners by unscrupulous elements.

Customs officials have long suspected that China may be diverting its supplies to India through Asean nations, abusing rules of origin, to illegally take advantage of duty-free market access under the FTA. Given the latest Indo-China border skirmish, the diversion may surge, they fear.

In fact, after Singapore and Hong Kong, Vietnam has emerged as the third Asian trade partner, which counts on massive Chinese investments, to turn its usual trade deficit with India into a decent surplus in a span of just three years. Between FY18 and FY20, India's trade balance with Vietnam swang from a surplus of $2.8 billion to a deficit of $2.2 billion, according to official data.

The budget earlier this year had introduced a change in Section 28DA of Customs Act that pertains to procedures regarding claim of preferential rate of duty. To tighten the rules of origin of imported products, the revenue department last month stipulated that the importer or his agent, at the time of filing bill of entry, has to make a declaration that the purchased items qualify for preferential duty, and also produce certificates of origin. The claims can be rejected if the certificate of origin is incomplete or has any alteration not authenticated by the issuing authority or the certificate is produced after its validity period has expired, it said.

Finance ministry sources say investigations have revealed that items, including TVs, mobile phones, set-top boxes, telecom network products and metals, coming from FTA countries did not meet the prescribed origin criterion.

Also, various FTAs have only caused India's trade deficit to soar. For instance, in Asean case, the trade gap has risen from $5 billion in 2010, when the FTA with Asean was implemented, to over $22 billion now. Apart from Singapore and Vietnam, it has widened with Malaysia, Thailand and Indonesia as well. A part of supplies from these countries may have actually originated from other non-FTA destinations like China, customs officials suspect. The Customs have detected fraudulent claims under FTA of ₹1,200 crore, while "irregular imports" have caused serious injury to local industry.

LS passes Bill to cut salaries of MPs by 30%

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, September 15

THE LOK SABHA on Tuesday passed a Bill to reduce for one year the salaries of MPs by 30% "to meet the exigencies" arising out of the Covid-19 pandemic. The Salary, Allowances and Pension of Members of Parliament (Amendment) Bill, 2020, was introduced in the Lower House on Monday. It will replace the Salary, Allowances And Pension of Members of Parliament (Amendment) Ordinance, 2020.

The ordinance was cleared by the Cabinet on April 6 and promulgated the next day.

Parliament passes Bill to give statutory status to aviation regulators

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, September 15

PARLIAMENT ON TUESDAY passed a Bill that seeks to improve India's aviation safety ratings and provide statutory status to regulatory institutions, including the Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA). The Aircraft (Amendment) Bill, 2020, which provides for statutory backing to the DGCA, the Bureau of Civil Aviation Security and the Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau, was passed by a voice vote in the Rajya Sabha.

The Bill that was passed in Lok Sabha on March 17 also entails to increase the fine for violations from ₹10 lakh to ₹1 crore.

Civil aviation minister Hardeep Singh Puri said, "The operating thrust of the Bill is to provide statutory basis to these important agencies... This is necessary as we move forward with an exponential growth in civil aviation."

Puri said the Bill seeks to insert a new definition for three regulatory bodies DGCA, BCAS and AAIB, and added that they will be provided statutory recognition.

India's role in production of Covid vaccine critical: Bill Gates

MANASH PRATIM BHUYAN
New Delhi, September 15

BILLIONAIRE PHILANTHROPIST BILL Gates has said India's willingness to play a "big role" in manufacturing Covid vaccine and allow it to supply to other developing countries will be a critical part in containing the pandemic globally. In an exclusive interview to PTI, Gates called it the "next biggest thing" the world has been confronted with after the World War. The Microsoft co-founder said the world is looking to India for large scale production of vaccine once it is rolled out.

"Obviously, all of us want to get a vaccine out in India as fast as we can, once we know that it's very effective and very safe, and so the plans are coming into focus that sometime next year, it's very likely that roll-out will take place and take place in fairly big volume," he said. "The world is also looking to India for some of that capacity to be available to other developing countries. Exactly what that allocation formula looks like will have to be figured out," Gates added.

The Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation has been involved in global efforts to contain the pandemic. In India, the foundation has entered into a partnership with the Serum Institute to accelerate the manufacturing and delivery of vaccines. "India's willingness to play a big role in the manufacturing and to allow some of those vaccines to go to other developing countries will be an absolutely critical part of that," he said. "India will be helping to make sure we have equity. We have a model that shows that getting the vaccine out to those who need it the most will save half the lives that you'd lose if you only send it out to the rich countries," he said. — PTI

Not enough Covid vaccines till 2024: Serum CEO

While the Oxford AstraZeneca vaccine trials have restarted — Serum Institute will be producing those vaccines in India — Poonawalla was sceptical of the Indian government's readiness to ensure the country's 1.3 billion population is vaccinated at the earliest. "I still don't see a proper plan," he told FT, "on paper to do that beyond 400 million doses". He added, "you don't want a situation with the vaccine where you have capacity for your country but you can't consume it".

Ladakh a 'challenge': Troops ready for 'all contingencies', says Rajnath Singh

"I will not hesitate to share with this august House that we are facing a challenge in Ladakh and I urge the House to pass a resolution in support of our armed forces who have been defending our motherland at great heights and most inclement weather conditions," he said.

He said even though the situation this year is very different, both in terms of scale of troops involved and the number of friction points, India remains committed to the peaceful resolution of the current situation. "At the same time, the House can be assured that we remain prepared to deal with all contingencies," the defence minister said.

Singh also referred to his talks with the Chinese defence minister on the sidelines of a multilateral meet in Moscow recently, and said, "I conveyed in clear terms our concerns related to the actions of the Chinese side, including amassing a large number of troops, their aggressive behavior and attempts to unilaterally alter the status quo that were in violation of the bilateral agreements," he said.

Flipkart to hire 70,000 ahead of grand sale

Anticipating a surge in demand during the festive season, Flipkart has partnered with more than 50,000 kiranas to help deliver in far-flung villages and remote areas. The understanding is that the kiranas are well-acquainted with the nook and corner of towns and villages and can aid in faster and accurate delivery of goods.

Flipkart and Amazon have been expanding their capacities and recruiting fresh staff as order volumes increased manifold on the back of most consumers shifting to online platforms. Navratri and Diwali, that drive the bulk of the domestic festive spends, are estimated to lead to an uptick in online customer orders.

Earlier this year, Amazon India hired close to 70,000 temporary staff across delivery, fulfilment and customer service departments. "We will continue to create thousands of additional opportunities across the network to support customer demand across the country this upcoming festive season, so customers can stay and stay safe," Amazon India said in a statement on Tuesday.

"The expansion and strengthening of the supply chain will help create a robust system enabling millions of new e-commerce users to shop online seamlessly," Flipkart said.

Flipkart, which received a fresh $1.2-billion investment from Walmart in July, said its delivery network covers 100% serviceable PIN codes ranging from Nagaon in Assam to Kannur in Kerala. The firm claims to have created millions of local job opportunities over the years.

E-commerce players are estimated to have clocked $3 billion in GMV (gross merchandise value) during the 2019 festive sale, according to market research firm RedSeer Consulting.

High taxes: Toyota won't expand in India

The unit is "confident" the government will do everything possible to support the industry, which has requested a "viable tax structure", it said.

In India, motor vehicles, including cars, two-wheelers and sports utility vehicles (although not electric vehicles), attract taxes as high as 28%. On top of that there can be additional levies, ranging from 1% to as much as 22%, based on a car's type, length or engine size. The tax on a four-meter long SUV with an engine capacity of more than 1500 cc works out to be as high as 50%.

The additional levies are typically imposed on what are considered to be "luxury" goods.

As well as cars, in India that can include cigarettes and sparkling water. International automakers have struggled to expand in the world's fourth-biggest car market. — BLOOMBERG

Hotstar hopes to hit ₹300 cr from IPL ads

This has prompted the streaming platform to hike its ad rates. The advertising rate for IPL on Disney+ Hotstar has increased from a CPM (cost per 1,000 impressions) of ₹120 per 10 seconds last year to a CPM of ₹180 per 10 seconds. According to Disney+ Hostar, the platform recorded a reach of 300 million for IPL 2019.

Disney+ Hotstar will offer a range of advertising solutions from non-skippable video ads to billboards and various features for moment marketing. "Brands can partner on various innovations with the social feed like branded emojis, branded cards, scorecard branding, etc. Our targeting options on live streaming comprise nine cohorts across geographies and audience profiles," Nitin Bawankule, president, ad sales, Star and Disney India, said. Disney+ Hotstar has been the primary destination for those watching on-the-go or without access to a TV.

Dream11 is both the title and the co-presenting sponsor for the streaming platform, while energy drink Boost is the co-powered sponsor. Eleven others have come on board as associate sponsors. Acko, Maruti Suzuki, KhataBook, Flipkart, Swiggy, Ace23, HDFC Bank, Great Learning, MX Player, Kingfisher Calendar and Amfi (Association of Mutual Funds in India) are among the associate sponsors. "We have seen BFSI, ed-tech and e-commerce emerge as key advertiser categories this year," Bawankule said.

PM-Kisan: Over ₹38,000 crore transferred during Apr-Aug

THE CENTRE HAS transferred ₹38,282 crore to farmers under PM-Kisan till August this fiscal, agriculture minister Narendra Singh Tomar informed the Lok Sabha on Tuesday. There is no proposal to either advance the payment of the remaining installments or increase the amount from the current level, he added.

Under the Pradhan Mantri Kisan Samman Nidhi Yojana (PM-KISAN), the government is providing ₹6,000 per annum in three equal installments to 14 crore farmers.

The amount is directly transferred into the bank accounts of the beneficiaries through the direct benefit transfer (DBT) mode. — PTI

WORLD OZONE DAY

Protecting the ozone layer

World Ozone Day is annually observed to protect the ozone layer. It is celebrated annually on September 16 to raise awareness and attention to the care of the ozone layer. The day is celebrated by organising world-class conferences, lectures and exhibitions nationally and internationally. This Day is also organised in schools and awareness is spreading in the media. The World Ozone Day persists in international efforts to curb the production and release of harmful gases.

What will happen to the earth if the ozone layer is not secure?

The ozone layer is a layer of ozone molecules found in the stratosphere layer of the atmosphere between 20 and 40 kilometres in particular. The ozone layer is formed in the atmosphere when ultraviolet radiation breaks down oxygen atoms in the sun. Oxygen atoms are mixed with oxygen and therefore form ozone molecules in this way. The problem with the lack of this layer is that when the sun's harmful rays can escape from the atmosphere after they stick to the earth's surface.

Most scientists believe that without the ozone layer, life on earth would be limited.

World Ozone Day: Theme for 2020

"Ozone for life" is the motto of World Ozone Day 2020. The motto of the day, "Ozone for life", reminds us that ozone is important for our health on earth and that we must continue to protect the ozone layer for our future generations. This year, we celebrate 35 years of the Vienna Convention and 35 years of protection of the earth's ozone layer.

In order to preserve the ozone layer, World Ozone Day in India is celebrated with great enthusiasm by students. College students organise campaigns on this topic and thus use a variety of methods to reduce the hole in the ozone layer. The Indian government provides respect and education to those intelligent people who create creative ways to reduce emissions and harmful substances, which are not only permanent but also sustainable.

"THE WORLD has entered 35 years of global ozone layer protection and the slogan for World Ozone Day 2020 is "Ozone for Life". We must strengthen our resolve to conserve the ozone layer which is so crucial for life on Earth and for our future generations. The Ozone Layer acting as a protective cover provided to us by nature, we must safeguard it. History is witness to the fact that a nation cannot develop at a fast pace without rapid industrial development. However, as a responsible corporate citizen, it is our responsibility to ensure that we strive for sustainable development, which takes care of the nature and its constituents and "Ozone Layer" is one of them. On this day, let us take pledge to make effort to protect it.

INTERIM COMPENSATION

SpiceJet says Boeing Max offer more than recognised

ANURAG KOTOKY
September 15

SPICEJET, ONE OF the world's biggest customers for Boeing's now-grounded 737 Max jets, said an interim offer of compensation from the US planemaker is higher than what the Indian budget carrier recognised earlier.

SpiceJet, India's second biggest airline, has been using an unusual accounting method to book income on expected compensation from Boeing in the past few quarters. SpiceJet, which had 13 Boeing 737 Max jets in its fleet when they were grounded worldwide, has added ₹8.6 billion ($117 million) as other income from compensation and related foreign exchange gains in the past five quarters, the company said.

Based on current advanced discussions and an interim offer from Boeing, "which is higher than the amount recognised by the company," SpiceJet is confident of collecting that amount, it said in its quarterly earnings statement to stock exchanges. However, its auditors SR Batliboi & Associates, cautioned in a report posted on stock exchanges that "there is no virtual certainty to recognise such other income and related receivable."

SpiceJet's comments may provide some insight into the costs Boeing may incur for compensating carriers worldwide over lost revenue, which is expected to run into several billions of dollars. The 737 Max, which was idled last year following two deadly crashes, is now under review by the US Federal Aviation Administration and could return to service before the end of this year.

Blackstone, Partners Group in race to buy Piramal glass unit

BAIJU KALESH & ANTO ANTONY
September 15

BLACKSTONE GROUP AND Partners Group Holding are the two remaining bidders vying for a controlling stake in Piramal Enterprises's glass unit, people familiar with the matter said.

The investment firms have progressed to the final round of bidding for India's Piramal Glass, the people said, asking not to be identified as the information is private. Billionaire Ajay Piramal's conglomerate is seeking a valuation of $1 billion for the unit from the sale, the people said. Piramal could name a winner as soon as October, one of the people said.

Negotiations are ongoing and the investment firms can decide not to proceed with offers, the people said. Other bidders could also emerge, and Piramal could choose to keep the business, they added. Representatives for Blackstone, Partners Group and Piramal declined to comment. Piramal Enterprises has been raising funds through debt issues as well as weighing sales of some of its non-core units. In June, the group agreed to sell a 20% stake in its Piramal Pharma arm to private equity firm Carlyle Group for $490 million, giving the business an enterprise value of $2.7 billion.

Ajay Piramal has also said he intends to exit his investment in the parent of shadow financier Shriram Capital, while Piramal Enterprises has recently been seeking to introduce new investors to shore up the capital for its own shadow lender, Piramal Capital & Housing Finance.

Piramal Glass makes glass packaging and has factories across the US, India and Sri Lanka with a total capacity of 1,475 tons per day, according to its website. The former Gujarat Glass was acquired by Piramal Group in 1984.

Bajaj electric Chetak takes a pause to localise components sourced from China

GEETA NAIR
Pune, September 15

THE RETURN OF Bajaj Auto's iconic Chetak scooter in its new electric avatar generated a lot of interest among Bajaj's loyal customers. However, disruption in the supplies from China and the consequent long waiting period has forced the company to put a pause on fresh bookings of the Chetak electric scooter for now. Bookings will resume once the company starts work on localisation of component manufacturing.

Bajaj's electric scooter, Chetak, totally designed and developed in-house, was launched in January 2020 with a price tag of ₹1 lakh and a running range of 98 km per charge. The scooter was initially launched in the Pune and Bengaluru markets and was to be launched in other cities thereafter. Chetak deliveries had started in these two cities through a network of 18 dealerships and company showrooms. Bookings since then have been greater than their cumulative deliveries. The company has not revealed booking or sales data of the electric Chetak yet.

Rakesh Sharma, ED, Bajaj Auto, said the immediate response the company received in January and February surpassed expectations. However, around the same time, the company started facing interruptions in the supplies of key components being sourced from Wuhan itself.

"This seriously impaired our ability to respond to the customer requirements resulting in long waiting periods. Since there is a likelihood of long waiting periods evoking negative sentiments, we had to take the difficult decision to stop taking bookings," Sharma said.

Bajaj had to close bookings between March and April 2020, after Wuhan closed down. In September again, it has halted bookings for the second time, as the frequent lockdowns in Pune and factory closure disrupted production

Bajaj had to close bookings between March and April 2020, after Wuhan closed down. In September again, Bajaj Auto has halted bookings for the second time, as the frequent lockdowns in Pune and factory closure disrupted production coupled with flow of components from China being hampered.

Bajaj Auto's dependency on imports from China is very low for a majority of their product portfolio barring the electric scooter. Production of electric scooters have been severely affected because of the pandemic and subsequent disruptions in China and India. When production in China was restored, India went into a lockdown so Chetak had to deal with many hurdles on its ride back into the Indian market.

Since then Bajaj has started working towards reducing complete dependency on some critical components from China so that it had other options to fall back on. "We have accelerated a programme for complete localisation through development of alternate vendors. Once we are confident about it then we will resume bookings in the two cities we are currently operating in," Sharma said. Bajaj is going to steady the supply chain, which required development of alternate and additional vendors including the validation of their components, he said.

The pan India roll out of Chetak depends on a few other factors beyond just the supply chain capability, Sharma said. "We will evaluate customer experience, response of the charging ecosystem as well as the financials before we undertake major roll outs," Sharma said.

Development of alternative vendor base is seen as a big challenge and could come in the way of a fulsome development of the electric portfolio for Bajaj Auto and also all other electric vehicle makers in the country.

Ensuring full capacity utilisation a priority for the company: TKM

Toyota Kirloskar Motor's factory on the outskirts of Bengaluru BLOOMBERG

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, September15

TOYOTA KIRLOSKAR MOTOR (TKM) on Tuesday said its first priority is to ensure full utilisation of production capacity it has already created in the country.

The company, which has an installed capacity of 3.10 lakh units spread across two plants in Bidadi, near Bengaluru.

"Our first step is to ensure full capacity utilisation of what we have created and this will take time," TKM said in a statement. The company rolls out Innova, Fortuner and Vellfire (imported as CBU) from the first plant, and Yaris and Camry Hybrid from the second facility.

In an interview earlier, TKM vice chairman Shekar Viswanathan said that government keeps taxes on cars and motorbikes so high that companies find it hard to build scale.

The company later said that it continues to be committed to the Indian market, and its operations in the country is an integral part of Toyota's global strategy.

"We need to protect the jobs we have created and we will do everything possible to achieve this. Over our two decades of operations in India, we have worked tirelessly to build a strong competitive local supplier eco-system and develop strong capable human resources," the automaker said.

In wake of the slowdown that has been exaggerated by Covid-19 impact, the auto industry has been requesting the government for support to sustain industry through a viable tax structure, TKM noted.

"We remain confident that the government will do everything possible to support the industry and employment. We recognise the strong proactive efforts being made by the government to support various sectors of the economy and appreciate the fact that it is open to examine this issue despite the current challenging revenue situation," it added.

Novavax aims for 2 billion Covid-19 vaccine doses with expanded India deal

REUTERS
September 15

US DRUG DEVELOPER Novavax said on Tuesday it was doubling its potential Covid-19 vaccine manufacturing capacity to two billion doses annually under an agreement with Serum Institute of India, sending its shares up about 7%.

In August, Novavax signed a deal with Serum Institute, the world's largest producer of vaccines, to produce a minimum of one billion doses of its vaccine candidate, when approved, for low- and middle-income countries and India.

As part of the expanded agreement, Serum Institute will also manufacture the antigen component of the vaccine, dubbed NVX-CoV2373, which Novavax said will bring its manufacturing capacity to over two billion doses by mid-2021.

Novavax's vaccine is currently in mid-stage trials after an early-stage study showed it produced high levels of antibodies against the novel coronavirus. The company plans to begin late-stage trials in the third quarter.

Last month, Novavax said it will supply 60 million doses of its coronavirus vaccine candidate to the UK beginning as early as the first quarter of 2021.

The company is also preparing to deliver 100 million doses to the United States by January after it was awarded $1.6 billion for its potential vaccine, and has also signed supply agreements with Canada and Japan.

Other drugmakers such as Pfizer and Moderna Inc have already begun large late-stage studies of their experimental vaccines.

Facebook India announces grant of $4.3 million for small businesses

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, September 15

FACEBOOK INDIA ON Tuesday announced a grant of $4.3 million (₹32 crore) for more than 3,000 small businesses across Delhi, Gurgaon, Mumbai, Hyderabad, and Bengaluru where the company has offices.

The development is in line with Facebook's $100 million global grant for small businesses announced in March.

The grant includes both cash and ad credits, with cash constituting a larger share. The grant programme is open to small businesses from all industries and verticals, and businesses do not need to have a Facebook family of apps presence in order to apply.

They are also free to do what they wish to do with this grant, Ajit Mohan, MD and VP at Facebook India said in a blog post.

Facebook conducted a survey on small and medium-sized businesses (SMBs) around the world to ascertain the impact of Covid-19 in collaboration with OECD and World Bank and found out that more than a third of operational SMBs on Facebook India expect cash flow to be a challenge in the next few months. The survey also revealed that 41% of operational SMBs on Facebook India reported to have made at least a quarter of their sales digitally.

"We hope that our grant, along with the numerous other steps that we're taking to aid the recovery of small businesses, can help some of them emerge from the crisis," Mohan said.

Facebook also announced the discovery and sale of gift cards to help small businesses reach more potential customers online. "Configuring gift cards on Facebook and Instagram is free for businesses, and we have tied up with multiple partners to enable the issuance and management of gift cards," Mohan added.

Multiplex body appeals to govt to reopen cinemas, says jobs are at stake

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, September 15

THE MULTIPLEX ASSOCIATION of India (MAI) has appealed to the government to consider reopening theatres in the country. Shut down since mid-March, the film exhibition sector that directly employs more than two lakh people is estimated to have lost up to ₹9,000 crore in the last six months. The government has allowed public places like malls, restaurants, hotels to recommence operations and also gyms and yoga institutes of late.

Multiplex chain PVR on Monday reported consolidated net losses of ₹226 crore in the three months ended June 30 as compared to profits of ₹18 crore during the year-ago period. CMD Ajay Bijli is hopeful that by the first week of October, cinemas should get an indication to reopen. "Cinema is an incomplete offering till such time that you get brand new movies. By Dussehra, if the brand new movies start coming, occupancy levels will be much better," Bijli said in an interaction with a local news channel.

In its appeal, the MAI said that more than 85 countries have fully reopened cinemas across the globe. As cinemas continue to stay shut, film producers have launched their movies on over-the-top (OTT) platforms. An estimated 7,000 single screens and 3,500 multiplex screens across India have been closed for operations since March. The film body said malls, airlines, railways, retail, restaurants, gyms and many such services have already restarted as part of 'Unlock India'. In the fourth phase of unlocking, bars and metro services also opened up.

The association, which in July introduced several SoPs such as paperless tickets, seat distancing, staggered intervals to make cinemas a safe place to visit, reiterated that it is equipped with better abilities to ensure crowd management in "stringent hygienic environments while maintaining applicable social distancing norms".

BASIS FOR OFFER PRICE

The Offer Price will be determined by our Company (through the IPO Committee) in consultation with the Selling Shareholder and the BRLMs, on the basis of assessment of market demand for the Equity Shares offered through the Book Building Process and on the basis of quantitative and qualitative factors as described below. The face value of the Equity Shares is ₹10 each and the Offer Price is 122.90 times the Floor Price and 123.00 times the Cap Price of the Price Band. Bidders should also see "Our Business", "Risk Factors", "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" and "Financial Statements" on pages 103, 20, 223 and 160, of the RHP, respectively, to have an informed view before making an investment decision.

Qualitative Factors

Some of the qualitative factors and our strengths which form the basis for computing the Offer Price are:

a. Largest Infrastructure and Services Provider in a Large and Growing Mutual Funds Market; b. Integrated Business Model and Longstanding Client Relationships in our Mutual Funds Services Business; c. Scalable Technology Enabled Ecosystem; d. Strong Focus on Processes and Risk Management; e. Experienced Management and Board and Marquee Shareholders.

For details, see "Our Business – Strengths" on page 104 of the RHP.

Quantitative Factors

The information presented below relating to our Company is based on the Restated Consolidated Financial Information. For details, see "Financial Statements" on page 160 of the RHP.

Some of the quantitative factors which may form the basis for computing the Offer Price are as follows:

A. Basic and Diluted Earnings Per Share ("EPS") at face value of ₹10, as adjusted for change in capital:

Financial Year ended	Basic EPS (in ₹)	Diluted EPS (in ₹)	Weight
March 31, 2018	29.93	29.93	1
March 31, 2019	26.75	26.75	2
March 31, 2020	35.57	35.54	3
Weighted Average	31.69	31.68
Three months period ended June 30, 2020*	8.37	8.37

 Not annualised*

Notes:

1. Earnings per share calculations are in accordance with Ind AS 33 (Earnings per Share).
2. The ratios have been computed as below:

a) Basic earnings per share (₹) = Restated Consolidated Net profit available to equity share holder for the year / period / Weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year / period.

b) Diluted earnings per share (₹) = Restated Consolidated Net profit available to equity share holder for the year / period / Weighted average number of diluted equity shares outstanding during the year / period.

B. Price/Earning ("P/E") ratio in relation to the in relation to Price Band of ₹1,229 to ₹1,230 per Equity Share:

Particulars	P/E at the Floor Price (no. of times)	P/E at the Cap Price (no. of times)
Based on basic EPS for year ended March 31, 2020	34.55	34.58
Based on diluted EPS for year ended March 31, 2020	34.58	34.61

Industry Peer Group P/E ratio

There are no listed companies in India that engage in a business similar to that of our Company. Accordingly, it is not possible to provide an industry comparison in relation to our Company.

C. Return on Net Worth ("RoNW")

March 31, 2018	32.91	1
March 31, 2019	29.56	2
March 31, 2020	32.13	3
Weighted Average	31.40
Three months period ended June 30, 2020*	30.92

RoNW for the period ended June 30, 2020 has been annualized.*

Note:

RoNW is calculated as net profit after taxation attributable to the owners of the Company divided by shareholders' funds for that year. Shareholders'funds = share capital + reserves and surplus – revaluation reserves excluding non-controlling interest

As the Offer consists only of an offer for sale by the Selling Shareholder, there will be no change in the Net Worth post completion of the Offer.

D. Net Asset Value ("NAV") per Equity Share

Financial Year ended/ Period ended	Restated Consolidated Financial Information (₹)

LOSS OF LIVES

Congress leader Rahul Gandhi

The Modi govt does not know how many migrants died during lockdown ... how many lost jobs. If you didn't count ... did nobody die? The sad part is that the govt does not care about the loss of lives

China's strategic profiling helps fine-tune its India plan

Analysing social media posts helps China identify not just hot-button issues, but which influencers to work upon, etc

HOW MANY WELL-WISHERS of the government are critical of the way it has handled the economy, or perhaps the manner in which it reacts to critics? So even though most Indians would side with the government when it comes to China, perhaps it is possible to, through these persons, create a narrative that banning Chinese apps or keeping Chinese vendors out of critical Indian projects will end up hurting the economy? That, in a nutshell, is what China is hoping to achieve, eventually, through its attempt to monitor what over ten thousand important Indians—from prime minister Narendra Modi to Zomato founder Deepinder Goyal—are saying on social media, in newspaper articles, in position papers they are writing, causes they are espousing, charities they are working with, concerns they are expressing, etc. Most nations spend decades trying to profile influencers in various countries, but as The Indian Express (IE) has been reporting over the last few days, China has taken this—like most things Chinese—to a scale few could have imagined.

A Shenzen-based IT firm Zhenhua Data Information Technology Company—IE says it has links with the Chinese government and communist party—is scraping data from social media, newspaper articles, seminar papers, etc, to create a 'relational database' to track what thousands of influencers are saying, how others are reacting to this, etc. This helps the company create what it calls a 'hybrid warfare' strategy since, once there is such a database that helps China identify potential stress points and whom to use to target these fissures, it can then possibly even run disinformation campaigns in India. Though the comparison hasn't been made, Zhenhua's work is, on a much larger scale, what Cambridge Analytica did using data from Facebook during the US elections. Cambridge tried to create profiles of voters who were most susceptible to being influenced, and in the swing districts that mattered the most, and then set about sending them certain kind of messaging. If Zhenhua's database is as comprehensive as planned, China can hope to not just focus on changing perceptions during elections, but on the most important issues.

One of the various stories IE has carried on this mentions Zhenhua collecting "even private information about movements such as geographic location", but for the most part much of what the Chinese firm is collecting may be public information; so there may not be much that can really be objected to from the point of view of privacy. What makes it worrying is the industrial scale of the collection of information and the patterns/insights that may emerge once this is parsed using various analytical tools including artificial intelligence; what is worrying is that it is not even clear what kind of data a Zhenhua—are there others doing the same thing?—has. Writing in The Washington Post, its China correspondent Gerry Shih recalls that in 2018, a fitness-tracking app revealed the locations of various US bases overseas! And, in 2015, Shih points out, the Chinese government issued a strategy paper on big data and, the same year, an essay in a world affairs journal of the communist party "suggested that China could conduct automated Web scraping or legally purchase proprietary databases as its governmental and commercial dealings expand". Spying operations focus on obtaining top-secret data, but there is a lot to be gleaned from Facebook posts, LinkedIn profiles, Instagram pictures.

How India reacts to Zhenhua remains to be seen, as the implications of the stories haven't fully sunk in as yet. Apart from the obvious condemnation of Zhenhua, and the possibility of India trying to do the same thing to China—even if not at the same scale—it is clear there will be domestic implications. If a Zhenhua-type operation—and this assumes the Chinese government will be using the database/services—makes it easier for the Chinese to influence, or even distort, the narrative in India, the Indian government will need to find a counter-strategy that is equally well-crafted. Not all those opposing the official line on China have been manipulated, but the government has to find ways to counter China's propaganda.

Getting it right on Covid

Surging infections is not surprising given the complacence

WHILE THE GOVERNMENT has done well to prevent, going by its narrative, around 14-29 lakh infections and 37-78,000 deaths thanks to its lockdowns as well as augmenting the health infrastructure, there is today a severe shortage of both hospital beds and ventilators in major infection areas. While the Union health minister Harsh Vardhan spoke of the number of dedicated isolation beds going up by 36.3 times and dedicated ICU beds by nearly 25 times since March, the facilities in several cities are woefully inadequate. In a hotspot like Pune, for instance, there are no spare ventilators in either government or private hospitals, and very few ICU beds are now vacant. Moreover, 86% of hospital beds are occupied at a time when the city is reporting close to 2,000 new infections every day. In Mumbai, too, only 6% of the total number of ventilators are now available for new patients, and 94% of the ICU beds are occupied; this is worrying because the city has seen a resurge in infections with the caseload jumping 15% in the first 12 days of September. It is now likely several sick people may be turned away from hospitals.

Equally worrying is the shortage of oxygen. Maharashtra has decided to retain 80% of the oxygen produced for local use—from 50% earlier—thereby restricting exports to other states. News reports say both Madhya Pradesh and Karnataka are facing a shortage of oxygen. Given that even in June, the serosurvey had suggested a high national prevalence of 0.73%, the preparedness should have been of a much higher degree. Creating health infrastructure is actually the job of state governments, but if the Centre is taking credit for the hike in capacity, it has to face the flak for the shortages. Besides, giving more funds from PMCares may have made creating extra capacity easier for the states.

In this context, the efforts at both testing and contact-tracing have fallen short of what is needed; the Aarogya Setu app, which was launched in April, could have been used far more effectively and not enough has been done to create awareness about it. The secret of Kerala's early success in containing the pandemic lay in effective contact-tracing when it was able to track 35-40 persons per patient. After the initial rigour, contact-tracing seems to have lost momentum; some states are barely tracking 14-15 people per infected person, many even less. Perhaps hiring volunteers to do the job would have worked better than deploying existing municipal or government staff since the latter have been overloaded with other responsibilities. This can still be initiated. Also, both the Centre—and states—need to roll out awareness campaigns to push citizens to use the Aarogya Setu app and also enlist the support of telcos to ensure more downloads. The cost of putting a few thousand youngsters to work is minimal, but the efforts can be very rewarding. Rather than remaining complacent about the fatality rate being only 1.7%, we need to create more healthcare facilities; else the infection curve could stay steep.

MarriageRIGHTS

Govt should grant legal sanctity to marriages in the LGBTQ community

THE SUPREME COURT'S decriminalisation of LGBTQ relations in the 2018 Navtej Johar case granted same-sex couples recognition, but it still did not bestow any legal sanctity to the union. Although the logical progression should have been to allow same-sex marriages, the government now seems to contend that the idea of marriage is against the law and values of the country. In a submission to the Delhi High Court, the solicitor general (SG) Tushar Mehta said, "Our laws, our legal system, our society and our values do not recognise marriage, which is a sacrament, between same-sex couples".

The SG is right in contending that government has the power to legislate and the option of legalisation should be left to it, but the 2018 judgement and the Puttaswamy decision did leave cues for more rights for the community as the majority opinion held that people had the right to family life. Legalisation shall also open the doors for equality in terms of property rights, benefits and adoption. Besides, law and values need to evolve with changing times. Over the last few years, 25 countries have recognised these rights. If the government is wary of a backlash from religious groups, it can follow the example of countries like France and England where equal partner rights were granted to same-sex couples before legalising same-sex marriage.

MODI BEYOND 70

PRIME MINISTER MODI HAS DEMONSTRATED HIS CAPACITY FOR STRATEGIC, FORWARD-LOOKING VISION ON MULTIPLE OCCASIONS OVER THE YEARS

From peak to pinnacle: Navigating the next horizon

NK SINGH

Chairman, 15th finance commission
Views are personal

THE FIRST FORTY years of our life give the text, the next thirty furnish the commentary upon it", writes Arthur Schopenhauer, the 19th-century German philosopher known for his essays on the role of human will in creating the world that we experience—in a sense, a kind of European derivative of our concept of the Veil of Maya. The sum of this experience, at seventy, "enables us rightly to understand the true meaning and connection of the text with its moral and its beauties"—it gives us the panoramic view from the peak.

This is an important perspective. Our prime minister turns 70 tomorrow at a time when the rate of change, bringing both risks and opportunities, seems to be accelerating on all fronts. His simple, straightforward style is well known. His memory—for facts large and small—is legendary. This is equally true of his acuity in filtering through the noise with his legendary implementational capabilities while micromanaging to a fault of which examples are multiple: the iconic Narmada Project pumping water against gravity to bring succour and relief to the water-starved areas of Kutch; and, equally, the implementation of the iconic Statue of Unity.

Yet, it is also clear that this 70 is no time for him to rest and assume that the hard-won understanding of the present will, in fact, enable wisdom for navigating the future—the pinnacle on the horizon. "Those who stare at the past have their backs to the future", notes the oft-repeated saying. Our complex world has forks in the road, not just oscillations around a stable centre. Change is non-linear: interconnectedness—and interdependency—is a fact of life. The next pinnacle will thus, be a different matter than the previous peaks.

Prime minister Modi has demonstrated his capacity for strategic, forward-looking vision on multiple occasions over the years. The Swacch Bharat Mission and the Pradhan Mantri Ujjwala Yojana, for example, took a creative and strategic approach to improve our nation's health and productivity by directly addressing environmental health risks in taking up issues considered social taboos like ODF and sanitary pads. With his continuing belief in fiscal rectitude, the Pradhan Mantri Jan Dhan Yojana and the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code tackle the two challenging frontiers of the banking system to extend access to financial services on the one end and shore up the foundations of bank solvency on the other. Again, moving beyond platitudes to address the root barriers to the world we want to see.

> PM is committed to harnessing the digital revolution in a comprehensive sense and to build greater collective security

Looking forward, he is conscious of the need to navigate three new unfolding complex realities: rapid environmental change; shifting power dynamics between regions, actors, individuals and sectors; and the digital revolution from the Fourth Industrial Revolution to the opening up of new realms of intelligence. The earth that we once thought of as beyond our influence is now very clearly on the new trajectory of the Anthropocene. This has implications for temperature, rainfall, food and water security and biodiversity, among others. The rapid pace at which we are now able to analyse and influence myriad aspects of society, environment, economy, infrastructure and even individual lives has offered a glimpse of the powers that we can use to rise to the occasion. Modi is committed to harness the digital revolution in a comprehensive sense and to build greater collective security. And, how do we adjust to a new world where cybersecurity threats can arise from literally anywhere? These two trends are unfolding within—and influencing—a time of great change in the relationships that structure and reshape our collaboration. Modi's belief in the PRAGATI (Pro Active Governance and Timely Implementation) platform is part of these same endeavours.

At the risk of presenting a birthday request rather than a birthday felicitation: what are some of the ways in which he can truly use the perspective of 70s in the decades toward 80 and beyond?

He will recognise the need for three qualities of leadership in the coming years.

The ability to remember the past, but also see the present very clearly. We are entering into a delicate era of shifting geopolitical sands. Our past alliances and interactions matter—friends are friends—but navigating new partnerships and initiatives that help us tackle emerging global challenges will require clear-eyed vision. This is true in internal matters as much as external affairs: we need new forms of a collaborative partnership between the Centre, the states, and local governments.

A leader of his stature knows how to work within the constraints of reality—whether fiscal, chemical or biological—and, at the same time, inspire others to unite in making the best choices among hard choices that these constraints dictate. We are on the edge of one of the greatest economic upheavals that the world has seen in recent memory, as Covid-19 and our efforts to halt the pandemic have accelerated existing trends to the point of discomfort and exposed hidden vulnerabilities. Prime minister Modi cannot wish this reality away and must build the support for an innovative strategy that can mirror the hopes and wishes of his countrymen.

Finally, we need a visionary with the energy and freshness of perspective to forge ahead in a world that could be seen as offering both opportunities and risks. The prime minister will be the first to recognise that, by hindsight, joy, beauty, and a common humanity are at the foundation of all that we have tried to do as a nation over the centuries. The horizon lies ahead.

Happy Birthday.

Inflation is nearing its peak

In view of more durable damage to growth versus a more transitory shift in inflation, expect 50bps in cumulative rate cuts in total

CPI INFLATION WAS unchanged at 6.7% y-o-y in August (Consensus and Nomura: 6.9%), from a downwardly revised 6.7% y-o-y in July (vs 6.9% previously), as the slight moderation in food price inflation was offset by higher fuel and core inflation. Food and beverage price inflation abated slightly to 8.3% y-o-y in August vs 8.5% in July (downwardly revised from 8.7%). On a month-on-month (m-o-m) basis, vegetable prices rose by a strong 4.7% (vs an already elevated 13.8% in July), and prices in the eggs, sugar and beverages categories rose by over 1% m-o-m. By contrast, prices of cereals, pulses and meat & fish decelerated in August. Overall, the build-up of food prices remains materially higher than in past years, although we are seeing the ex-vegetable food basket gradually correct.

Meanwhile, core inflation (RBI core = CPI ex-food & beverages, fuel) rose to 5.7% y-o-y in August vs 5.5% in July (downwardly revised from 5.7%). Within the core basket, there has been a higher m-o-m rise in personal care (2.7% vs an already elevated 1.8% in July) and transport & communication (0.9% vs 2.6% in July) price inflation, reflecting higher retail prices of gold/silver and petroleum products, respectively. In the case of transport & communications, even ex-petrol and diesel, there has been a strong 0.94% m-o-m increase in the index, reflecting higher railway and airfares, two-wheeler prices and internet and mobile charges.

Looking ahead, food supply-chain challenges and commodity prices remain a potential risk for headline inflation. There are reports that heavy rains have led to production losses and have triggered high vegetable prices in retail markets across the country, with expectations of elevated prices in the coming months. During the first 13 days of September, our index for key vegetable prices rose a whopping 10.8% m-o-m, over an already elevated 4.6% in August. This is problematic as the September-December period typically sees vegetable prices fall seasonally. With an over 6% weight in the CPI basket, unseasonally high vegetable prices could keep headline inflation elevated for a few months longer than our current baseline.

Recall that the current phase of high inflation essentially began from Q4 2019, when unseasonal rains led to some ~27pp build up in vegetable price inflation from September 2019 onwards (vs contraction of 14.3pp in September-December 2018). This contributed to headline inflation sharply picking up from 4% y-o-y in September 2019 to 7.4% by December, and averaging 6.7% through Q1 2020. The sharp uptick in vegetable prices in September risks seeing elevated vegetable prices returning during the winter months this year too, hence, potentially further elongating the period of stagflation.

The disinflationary pressures from the slump in domestic demand have been overshadowed by supply-side shocks and 'pandemic-centric' demand-side ones. We find that three segments stand out as major inflation drivers over the last few months: intoxicants and beverages (impacted by higher excise duties on liquor), transport & communication (higher petrol/diesel prices due to higher taxes and rising oil prices) and personal care (mainly due to higher gold and silver prices, which rose by 7% m-o-m and 0.5% respectively in August). In addition, we find the pandemic has triggered a 'demand elasticity conversion' within the core basket, i.e. goods and services that were previously demand-elastic (high prices triggers low demand) are gradually turning demand-inelastic (demand persists despite high prices) under restricted mobility conditions. We see this in higher price increases in core categories such as recreational and hobby-related goods (49.1% m-o-m), railway fares (11.5%) and airfares (9.3%), though the latter are still seeing relatively lower transaction volumes. Overall, we believe that core pressures are not as broad-based given that RBI core inflation ex-petrol, diesel, gold and silver, rose by a more subdued 0.3% m-o-m vs 0.6% in July.

Looking ahead, if vegetable prices mirror trends observed in the first half of September through the month, then headline inflation in September is likely to remain close to August's print. The trajectory thereon remains sensitive to the evolution in vegetable prices over the winter. If the expected price correction kicks in from October, then inflation should moderate close to RBI's 4% target by December, supported by a favourable base effect. The upside risk to this projection will be an unabated increase in vegetable prices through Q4. Nevertheless, we believe inflation is near its peak, and while vegetable prices may delay the timing, the trajectory is likely to be lower over the next 6-12 months due to easing supply constraints amid still-weak final demand. The current elevated level of inflation, which is well above RBI's upper bound of 6%, suggests the MPC will pause again in October. However, given more durable damage to growth versus a more transitory shift in inflation, we expect 50bps in cumulative rate cuts in total, with the next 25bps to be delivered at the December policy meeting.

Indo-China conflict

China, no doubt, has an upper hand in terms of military power, which is ten times stronger than India in army, air force and navy. On the economy front also, they are much better placed as compared to India. India is also very poorly placed on account of Covid-19 pandemic with around 5 million cases at the moment and with no signs of improvement in near future in comparison to China where, the virus has almost been completely wiped out and life has been put back on track. In view of all of the above situations, how India can afford to have even a war like situation? If the 1962 like situation happens today, it is for sure that other than loss of innumerable soldiers on the borders, India will lose millions of people due to starvation apart from economy plunging down further and the pandemic situation getting out of control, will lead to many deaths across the country. So, in such an alarming period, India has no other option but to use its diplomatic skills to the best possible levels in handling the ongoing tensions with China. Even if we have to bow down a little bit in front of China, in the interests of the country and its 1.3 bn people, the government shouldn't hesitate for a moment, and should avoid taking any step which can trigger the tensions on the borders. We badly need peace on the borders as there is lot of turbulence within the country arising out of the pandemic and quickly dipping economy.

Remembering the socialist leader

Raghuvansh Prasad Singh, who breathed his last on Sunday, was a relentless crusader of the cause of rural India. Born in an upper-caste family and a doctorate in Mathematics, he took the plunge in the politics during the days of national emergency in 1977. He broke his long association with RJD just two days before his death. He remained a grassroots leader and is credited for implementing MGNREGA. He lived and breathed his last as a staunch socialist.

INDO-CHINA CONFLICT

What's in it for Pakistan?

Pakistan is likely to push for more Chinese equipment in the coming times despite its economic challenges. It will also continue to escalate the nuclear threat to push for the Kashmir agenda and attract global attention

PAKISTAN'S CHIEF OF army staff, Qamar Javed Bajwa, recently made a statement on Pakistan's Defence Day and Martyrs' Day at the General Headquarters (GHQ) in Rawalpindi that, "We (Pakistan) are facing the challenge that has been imposed (by India) in the form of a fifth-generation or hybrid war. Its (India's) purpose is to discredit the country and its armed forces and spread chaos". Pakistan has been reinforcing the narrative, targeting India's military and diplomatic positioning, and strategic partnerships that Pakistan perceives could potentially challenge its anti-India strategy, which relies on sponsoring a proxy war through terrorism and anti-India propaganda with regards to Kashmir.

Ashraf Jehangir Qazi, a Pakistani diplomat, in his article published in The News on September 11, highlighted the strong probability of Pakistan opting for nuclear weapons against India to negotiate the issue of Kashmir. General Bajwa's statement and Ashraf Qazi's comments come at the peak of tensions between India and China. Pakistan and China share a deep strategic (and, now economic) alliance for decades and Pakistan is often (in recent times) satirically called a 'colony of China' with the growing Chinese investment and engagement. China remains the largest defence supplier to Pakistan, and between 2015-2019 more than 70% of Pakistan's weapons came from China. There are concerns and discussions on the probability of a 'two-front war' against India in the wake of the frequently erupting tensions between India and China. It would be useful to analyse Pakistan's leverages and gains during the India-China tensions.

A brief look into the history of the alliance would assist our understanding of the current scenario. Pakistan's interest in, and approach to, China intensified in 1959 after the Tibetan revolt and flight of the Dalai Lama to India, which embittered the Sino-India relationship. A further boost to the Sino-Pak relationship came post the Sino-India border war in 1962. The two countries signed the Shaksgam Valley agreement in 1963 which laid the foundation of the Karakoram highway and provided the base for future defence and military collaboration. The Sino-Pak alliance witnessed significant development post-1965, due to three factors: first, during the 1965 War, China demonstrated sympathy and support for Pakistan; second, while Pakistan failed to win the war in 1965, its military, nevertheless projected it as a victory, especially in the air, and the thirst for high technology systems intensified; third, the US arms embargo led to the suspension of US military assistance to Pakistan.

For China, Pakistan is strategically important as a low-cost sustainable option to contain India and also the US expansion in the region. China's thinking has been to militarily strengthen a military-run but insecure state (Pakistan) which would keep India perpetually distracted and slow down India's growth. Although Beijing has maintained a No First Use nuclear doctrine, it supplied complete nuclear weapon technology and delivery systems to Pakistan. Islamabad has been more confident in conducting the covert war against India after it acquired nuclear weapons (1987), and it continues to rationalise the First Use nuclear doctrine and project a low nuclear threshold.

Chinese weapon exports to Pakistan started in the mid-1960s and have grown at an accelerated pace in the last two decades. Although the relationship commenced as a pure military alliance, it eventually flourished at the diplomatic and economic levels. Beijing has been making regular attempts to serve Pakistan's Kashmir agenda by raising the issue of Kashmir at the United Nations Security Council. There have been a number of discomforting occasions where China extended its support to Pakistan and countered India's moves to question and deter Pakistan's strategy of terrorism. At present, Beijing is portraying Pakistan as a successful model of Chinese alliance to other smaller nations and, in a virtual meeting in July, China asked Nepal and Afghanistan to be like "iron brother" Pakistan.

It would be good to understand what could Pakistan gain in the India-China tensions, given its deep reliance on Beijing. China is celebrating two centenary celebrations (Liang Ge Yibai Nian) by aiming to achieve two goals; "build a moderately prosperous society in all respects" by 2021 and become a "major world power with pioneering global influence" by 2049. Given the Chinese ambitions, it looks unlikely that Beijing would wish to exercise the option of inciting Pakistan to initiate a conventional skirmish against India. This move would question China's ability to deal with India (alone). This, to an extent, also explains the cancellation of President Xi Jinping's visit to Pakistan. Islamabad is under significant stress due to its deteriorating economic condition, pressure from the international financial institutions (IMF), and the upcoming (decisive) Financial Action Task Force meeting in October. Given these realities, there is a reduced likelihood of a two-front war at this point. China's intent has always been to divert Indian military capability towards managing Pakistan with a sustained supply of Chinese defence equipment.

While Pakistan will continue to try to intensify its proxy war and anti-India propaganda, at this point, it is likely to be inclined to exercise three options. Firstly, Pakistan would highlight its posture of victimhood and strengthen the narrative of its capability and willingness to defeat India's strategy.

The need to bolster this narrative is even stronger at the moment due to the recent embarrassing episode of corruption charges against Lt. General Asim Bajwa (retd), CPEC chairman, published in an investigative report by the journalist Ahmad Noorani. History has repeated instances of Pakistan army's aggressive attempts to repair any possible damage to its image and integrity. Fighting against India has always been the most potent tool to consolidate the military's positioning in Pakistan and distracting the populace from the growing personal wealth of the military personnel. Secondly, Pakistan is likely to push for more Chinese equipment in the coming times despite its economic challenges. It has recently requested Beijing for the much-desired aircraft—J-10 CE and PL-10 and PL-15, short-range, and long-range air-to-air missiles, respectively. Thirdly, Pakistan will continue to escalate the nuclear threat to push for the Kashmir agenda and attract global attention. In the last one year, prime minister Imran Khan has repeatedly flagged the nuclear threat to remind India and the international community about the presence of nuclear weapons in the region and the dangers emanating from a potential nuclear war.

UN proposal to amend definition of royalty brings certainty; it still does not address all software related tax issues

THE ISSUE OF taxation of cross border software licensing transactions has been a bone of contention between the Indian Revenue and the taxpayer over the years. The controversy is pursuant to the broader definition of royalty under the domestic tax law of India, as compared to the narrower definition under the tax treaties. The principal issue relates to the characterisation of software, which leads to the determination of what is being procured when payment for software is made and what rights are granted to a user. If the grant is of a copyright (i.e. an intangible), then the source country can tax it as royalty on a source basis. If instead, it is a sale of a copyrighted article (i.e. a product), the source country can tax it only in the event the vendor has a permanent establishment in the source country. Many of these issues are currently pending before the Supreme Court, for a final adjudication on the legal interpretation of classification of software. While it would take some time to settle the controversy in India and some other countries, the inconsistency created as a result of divergent views has caused much uncertainty to taxpayers.

With a view to promote certainty, the UN Tax Committee has released a discussion draft on 'Inclusion of software payments in the definition of royalties' in the UNModel Double Taxation Convention by proposing an amendment to Article 12 on 'royalties'. The Committee invited public comments on the discussion draft by October 2. The proposed amendment aims to steer clear of the controversy on whether payment for the right to use the software, constitutes royalty.

The above proposal has not received consensus from all members of the tax committee due to divergent views. Some members are in favour because it will remove the distinction between payments towards the use of copyright in software or copyrighted software and also that increasing engagement with the economic life of user's country would justify the allocation of taxing rights to that country. On the other hand, other members have objected to the proposal as allocation of taxing rights to the country of source in itself cannot justify the proposal and it would give rise to practical challenges for licenses centrally procured and used in a number of countries, purchase of software by individuals, etc.

> It is imperative to evaluate the implications of equalisation levy where software payments may qualify as royalty under the tax treaties

While the above proposal if implemented in bilateral treaties, may make software payments taxable in source countries, it may put to rest the ongoing litigation in India and some other countries, on software payments, and provide tax certainty by aligning the treatment under tax treaties and the domestic tax law. It may further resolve the ambiguities and challenges around claiming the different tax credit in the resident country provided the countries adopt a bilateral approach. The proposal dilutes the non-taxability position adopted by distributors for various kinds of software, who buy and sell software in various modes / media. The controversy around royalty characterisation in cases of software being pre-installed / embedded in a product (for instance, computer hardware and telecommunication equipment) may still continue.

The committee has recently proposed insertion of Article 12B - Income from Automated Digital Services in the convention, to deal with the tax treatment of payments for digital services. This article has illustrated the services falling under 'automated digital services' which include automated provision of computer programmes/software and could result in a potential overlap with the proposed amendment to Article 12 and therefore, requires to be adequately addressed.

The scope of recently introduced equalisation levy provisions is very broad to include sale/use of software through digital means. If the software payments are subject to EL, then they are exempt under the domestic tax law of India from April 1, 2021. It is imperative to evaluate the implications of EL where software payments may qualify as royalty under tax treaties.

To conclude, while the proposal to amend the definition of royalty brings certainty and may put to rest the tax controversy to a significant extent, it still does not address all issues and depends on the bilateral approach of the countries.

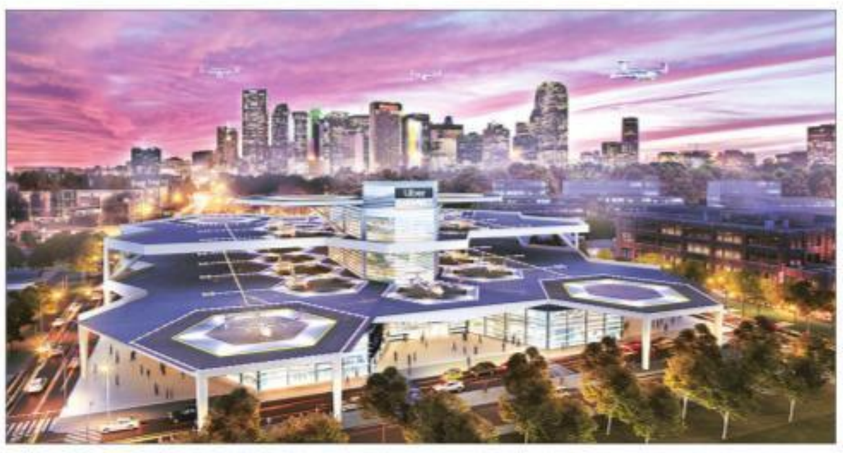
URBAN AERIAL MOBILITY

Preparing for a flying future

Development of UAM infra will likely have significant cost advantage over heavy-infra approaches such as roads

KOWTHAMRAJ VS

Young Professional in NITI Aayog



THE BACK TO the future movie series predicted flying cars becoming the norm by October 2015. The real future in 2015 did not hint at the possibility of a commercial flying car. A year later, Uber launched Uber Air and the Uber elevate conference gave us a taste of what a future with flying cars would look like. Imagine reducing a 90-plus minute stop-and-go commute from Gurgaon to your office in central New Delhi to a mere six minutes. That future has become conventional wisdom in 2020, as hundreds of commercial companies, multiple cities, and several hundred startups are pivoting into "Urban Aerial Mobility (UAM) aka the flying cars" to capture a slice of the potential trillion-dollar market. There is a reason why Uber chose New Delhi along with Silicon Valley (San Jose) to study the potential of air-mobility.

The MoveinSynq report titled 'Travel Time Report Q1 2019 vs Q1 2108' states that an average Indian spends 7% of the day in commute to office averaging less than 3 minutes per kilometre.

On-demand aviation has the potential to radically improve urban mobility, giving people back the productivity lost in their daily commutes. Just as skyscrapers allowed cities to use limited land more efficiently, urban air transportation will use three-dimensional airspace to combat transportation congestion. A network of small e-VTOLs (electric- Vertical Takeoff and Landing Vehicles) will enable rapid, reliable transportation between suburbs and cities and, ultimately, within cities. Just like in e-3-wheelers, it is inevitable that India will come up with a localised solution.

The development of infrastructure to support an urban VTOL network will likely have significant cost advantages over heavy-infrastructure approaches such as roads, bridges and tunnels. Uber and other actors have proposed repurposing of the tops of parking garages. Even unused land surrounding highway interchanges could form the basis of an extensive, distributed network of "vertiports" (VTOL hubs with multiple takeoffs and landing pads, as well as charging infrastructure) or single-aircraft "vertistops" (a single VTOL pad with minimal infrastructure) atop a qualified building. As costs for traditional infrastructure options continue to increase, the lower cost and increased flexibility provided by these new approaches may provide compelling options for cities and states around the world.

Varon Vehicles Corp is a US company that chose to implement its first UAM systems in Latin America because it is faster and simpler. Felipe Varon, CEO Varon Vehicles says, "Without cutting any corners in safety and certification requirements, we can implement a much less complicated concept for airspace integration in developing countries... India, just like most countries in Latin America, is a perfect example of a part of the world where UAM can happen faster and tackle urgent needs for radical mobility solutions."

UAM, thus, has the potential to save trillions of dollars in eliminating a fraction of new roads and fly-overs from crowding our space-starved cities and save another few hundred billion by preventing congestion and resultant productivity loss.

Though urban aviation is not going to take a sizable share out of on-road vehicle sales, they will free-up the arterial roads. It took until 2016 for someone to bet on flying cars, not because the technology to propel a car to the sky was not available, but due to the lack of cheap high-energy-density batteries. This has changed in the last five years.

The technologies that are required to make intra-city air mobility are not that different from current know-how in e-mobility or aerospace engineering. Though integrating multiple components into an aerial vehicle is relatively straightforward; the real challenge lies in creating an ecosystem encompassing infrastructure, standards, policy, and the associated sky-worthy component capabilities in the supply chain. Just like on-road e-mobility—the challenge is not building an e-VTOL, but building a compelling and desirable e-VTOL experience.

Developing, manufacturing, and deploying electric urban aerial vehicles will give Indian e-mobility value-chain a high-value sector to subsidise R&D for their on-road offerings and will create concomitant aerial economy opportunities in software, monitoring, controls, and civil-engineering. Aviation is a $1.5 trillion industry with aeroplanes, fuels, engines, and airline operators combined. Electric aviation will be India's pathway to leap-frog half-a-century of western R&D in traditional aviation. If we play our cards right, over time, an alternative for the Boeing-Airbus duopoly can be catalysed in India, as we will eventually become the third-largest aviation market for long-haul flights.

By a series of consistent and coordinated efforts, India should earn the right to be a global hub for the urban aerial economy. It was China and not the developed countries which boast the best ease of doing business rankings that introduced electric mobility. Brazil led the world in the Bio-fuel revolution.

Changing perceptions and redefining what's possible in Indian mobility requires indomitable will and consistency by the policymakers along with the emergence of several heroes in the private sector with sizeable risk capacity.

MIDDLE EAST DIPLOMACY

Donald J. Trump
@realDonaldTrump
HISTORIC day for PEACE in the Middle East — I am welcoming leaders from Israel, the United Arab Emirates, and the Kingdom of Bahrain to the White House to sign landmark deals that no one thought was possible. MORE countries to follow!

Quick View

Citigroup to resume job cuts after pausing for pandemic

CITIGROUP WILL RESUME job cuts starting this week, joining rivals such as Wells Fargo in ending an earlier pledge to pause staff reductions during the coronavirus pandemic. The reductions will affect less than 1% of the bank's global workforce, the company said Monday in a statement. With recent hiring, overall headcount probably won't decline, Citigroup said. Citigroup is facing a likely revenue drop and another increase to loan-loss reserves this quarter as the pandemic drags on, as well as years of expenses to improve risk controls.

Pak students back in school after over 6 mnths

MILLIONS OF STUDENTS in Pakistan returned to classes on Tuesday after a break of six months, as schools and colleges began to reopen for the first time since the outbreak of the novel coronavirus. Educational institutes were closed in March as the virus began to spread in Pakistan, but, with daily infection numbers falling, the government last week announced a staggered resumption of classes. Senior schools were the first to restart, with middle school set to go back next week and primary school the week after.

Billionaire Steve Cohen nod to buy New York Mets

BILLIONAIRE HEDGE FUND manager Steve Cohen has signed a deal with Sterling Partners to buy the New York Mets baseball team, the two sides said in a statement on Monday. "I am excited to have reached an agreement with the Wilpon and Katz families to purchase the New York Mets," Cohen said. A spokesman for Cohen declined to comment beyond the statement.

'Long-term damage if people don't get back to work'

JAMIE DIMON SAYS it's time to get people back to work. The JPMorgan Chase & Comapany CEO, who's been going into the bank's offices since June, said he saw economic and social damage from a longer stretch of working-from-home. Governments should be focused on cautiously reopening cities, learning from earlier mistakes made in hasty attempts.

BOOST TO RECOVERY

China industrial output accelerates, retail sales up

Country's recovery has been gaining momentum as pent-up demand, govt stimulus and resilient exports propel rebound

GABRIEL CROSSLEY AND KEVIN YAO
Beijing, September 15

Industrial output growth quickened to 5.6% in August from a year earlier, the fastest gain in eight months, National Statistics Bureau data shows. File photo of an employee at an optical fibre cables factory at Huzhou in China's Zhejiang province PHOTO: REUTERS

CHINA'S INDUSTRIAL OUTPUT accelerated the most in eight months in August, while retail sales grew for the first time this year, suggesting the economic recovery is gathering pace as demand starts to improve more broadly from the coronavirus crisis.

An annual decline in fixed-asset investment over January-August also moderated due to government stimulus efforts.

After the pandemic paralysed huge swathes of the economy, China's recovery has been gaining momentum as pent-up demand, government stimulus and surprisingly resilient exports propel a rebound.

"We think that China's economic recovery is on a reasonably firm footing now and should continue through Q4 and into 2021, with solid investment growth, gradually recovering consumption momentum and resilient exports," said Louis Kuijs at Oxford Economics. Industrial output growth quickened to 5.6% in August from a year earlier, the fastest gain in eight months, data from the National Statistics Bureau showed on Tuesday. Analysts polled by Reuters had expected a 5.1% rise from 4.8% in July.

Retail sales also rose 0.5% on-year, snapping a seven-month downturn and beating analysts' forecast for zero growth. It July, sales dropped 1.1%. Consumer confidence has been picking up lately, from spending on automobiles and duty-free shopping.

Auto sales rose 11.8% in August from a year earlier while sales of telecoms products jumped 25.1% y/y, the data showed.

Fixed-asset investment fell 0.3% in January-August from the same period last year, compared with a forecast 0.4% slide and a 1.6% decline in the first seven months of the year. Private sector fixed-asset investment, which accounts for 60% of total investment, fell 2.8% in January-August, compared with a 5.7% decline in the first seven months of the year.

Recent economic indicators ranging from trade to producer prices and factory activity all suggested a further pick up in the industrial sector, and the broader economy.

Government stimulus has been a powerful domestic driver, while momentum has also been supported by Beijing's largely successful efforts to get the virus under control.

"Fiscal and monetary policy stimulus should continue to support the recovery. But we expect the impact of policy stimulus to lose some punch with credit growth easing in Q4," Oxford Economics' Kuijs said.

Data last week showed China's August exports marking the strongest annual gain since March 2019, as more of its trading partners eased coronavirus lockdowns. Factory gate prices also fell at their slowest annual pace in five months last month.

Some analysts fear that the recovery could stall, hurt by rising tensions between Washington and Beijing, which many expect could escalate ahead of the US presidential election in November.

China also is looking to reduce its reliance on overseas markets for its development as US hostility and the pandemic increase external risks that could hamper longer-term progress. —REUTERS

Trump says he wanted to kill Assad after earlier denying it

BLOOMBERG
September 15

PRESIDENT DONALD TRUMP said he was set to assassinate Syrian leader Bashar al-Assad in 2017, contradicting his earlier denial that he'd sought to kill him. "I would have rather taken him out," Trump said Tuesday on Fox News. "I had him all set, Mattis didn't want to do it."

Trump said during the Fox interview that he does not regret deciding against moving forward with the killing, but faulted former defence secretary James Mattis, whom he called "highly overrated" and a "bad person." The ex-Pentagon chief, who left the administration in January 2019, has been critical of Trump. "To me he was a terrible general, he was a bad leader," Trump said of Mattis.

A book written by journalist Bob Woodward in 2018 said Trump urged Mattis to come up with a plan to kill Assad, but that the then-defence secretary did not go along with the president's demands. The discussions about killing Assad, according to the book, came after a chemical attack on civilians in April 2017 that was blamed on the Syrian government.

The US launched cruise missiles at Syria in response to Assad's chemical attack, but the targets were limited to military installations. After details of Woodward's book became public, Trump denied that he'd sought Assad's death.

"No, that was never even contemplated, nor would it be contemplated," the president told reporters in September 2018. "And it should not have been written about in the book. It's just more fiction. The book is total fiction." During the Tuesday interview, Fox News host Brian Kilmeade tried to temper Trump's criticism of Mattis, a retired Marine Corps general who led US troops in combat in Iraq and Afghanistan. Kilmeade said while the two men did not "gel," Mattis is a "great American." "I don't say he is a good American or a bad American. I just say he didn't do a good job. I let him go," Trump said of Mattis. Mattis in December 2018 resigned in protest of Trump's decision to withdraw US troops from Syria.

Trump has faced scrutiny of his views on military service members after the Atlantic magazine reported this month that that he privately referred to US Marines buried at a cemetery in France as "losers" and "suckers."

'Iran attack will face 1000 times greater retaliation'

PRESIDENT DONALD TRUMP has warned Iran that any attack against the US would be retaliated with "1,000 times greater in magnitude" after media reports that Tehran is planning to avenge the killing of top general Qasem Soleimani in January. The death of General Soleimani, head of Iran's elite Quds Force, in a US airstrike near Baghdad's airport marks a major escalation in the standoff between Washington and Tehran, since US President Trump withdrew from the 2015 nuclear deal and imposed crippling sanctions. Iran had vowed to seek revenge for Gen Soleimani's killing. "Any attack by Iran, in any form, against the United States will be met with an attack on Iran that will be 1,000 times greater in magnitude!" Trump said in a tweet. — PTI

Trump sees foreign policy win in gulf nations' Israel deal

DONALD TRUMP WILL be centre stage as the UAE and Bahrain sign accords establishing diplomatic relations with Israel, an achievement the president's supporters say merits the Nobel Peace Prize and his detractors claim is mostly illusory.

The UAE and Bahrain will become just the third and fourth Mideast nations to formally recognize Israel at a White House ceremony on Tuesday that the president sees as vindication of his peacemaking skills after decades of failed efforts by his predecessors in both parties. "You'll see some very great things happening in the Middle East," Trump said Tuesday in a meeting with the UAE's foreign minister, Abdullah Bin Zayed, before the signing ceremony.

Benjamin Netanyahu

Although there are parallels to accords that brought diplomatic recognition to Israel by Egypt in 1978 and Jordan in 1994, Tuesday's agreements signal something new: official recognition of the long-standing informal ties between Gulf nations and Israel. They also represent a regional move away from letting the fate of the Palestinian territories dictate ties with Israel.

"The strategy began with the reality: For decades this town's foreign policy with respect to the Middle East gave the Palestinians a veto right, that they could act in a way that prevented any Arab nation from engaging with the most important democracy in the Middle East," secretary of state Michael Pompeo told the Atlantic Council in Washington hours before the ceremony. "We took a different view."

Israeli PM Benjamin Netanyahu will join Trump and the foreign ministers from the UAE and Bahrain for the noon event. The ceremony offers a reprieve for Netanyahu, who continues to confront corruption charges and has been pilloried for his response to the pandemic. He had to order a second nationwide lockdown that goes into effect Friday, the eve of a major Jewish holiday. The pact continue to be denounced by Palestinian leaders, who call it a "betrayal" of their cause, but they have had little success in rallying traditionally supportive Arab nations to their defence. —BLOOMBERG

ByteDance's Chinese version of TikTok hits 600 m daily users

DOUYIN, THE CHINESE version of short video app TikTok, hit 600 million daily active users in August, an executive with parent company ByteDance said on Tuesday, a 50% jump since the start of the year.

Users in China are not able to access the TikTok app, which is wildly popular with teenagers worldwide and the subject of a fierce rift between Beijing and Washington over security concerns, but can use Douyin, which is similar in design.

Four-year-old Douyin's more than 22 million creators have earned a total of 41.7 billion yuan ($6.15 billion) over the past year, ByteDance China CEO Kelly Zhang said during an online conference. She said Douyin aimed to help them double that income over the next year. Douyin's surge comes as TikTok faces a possible ban in the US by the Trump administration, which wants ByteDance to sell TikTok's US operations.

US-listed Oracle Corp said on Monday it would team up with ByteDance, which could help keep TikTok operating in the US. Like TikTok, Douyin allows users to watch short videos and livestreams and make in-app purchases. It is currently one of the most popular social media apps in China and its growth is seen as indicative of TikTok's potential evolution. —REUTERS

China says TikTok sale shows US 'economic bullying'

BLOOMBERG
September 15

A SENIOR CHINESE official accused the US, which forced the sale of TikTok on national security grounds, of "economic bullying," while lambasting European Union restrictions on Huawei Technologies, in comments highlighting Beijing's increasing assertiveness against what it sees as unfair treatment from Western governments.

"What has happened with TikTok in the US is a typical act of coercive possession," the head of the Chinese Mission to the EU, Zhang Ming, said. "Some American politicians are trying to build a so-called clean network under the cover of fairness and reciprocity and blah, blah, blah," ambassador Zhang said in an interview with Bloomberg TV. "This is nothing but economic bullying."

The Bytedance-owned company has come under pressure in the US, where President Donald Trump's ban has forced a sale of TikTok's American operations. TikTok submitted a proposal to the treasury department over the weekend in which Oracle Corporation will serve as the "trusted technology provider," the software company said.

Oracle's closely watched bid will have to pass a US national security review and win the blessing of Trump

Zhang's comments represent an oft-repeated refrain from Beijing, which has accused Washington of targeting Huawei without evidence and called the forced sale of TikTok US "state-sanctioned theft."

Oracle's closely watched bid will have to pass a US national security review as well as win the blessing of President Trump. Instead of buying the business outright, Oracle will make an investment in a newly restructured TikTok, and at least two shareholders in TikTok's Chinese parent company, General Atlantic and Sequoia Capital, would take stakes in the new business, Bloomberg reported Monday, citing people familiar with the proposal.

The terms of the deal, which would also require sign-off from China, are still evolving. Zhang said the exclusion of Chinese companies from European and US markets on national security grounds isn't based on any concrete evidence.

UK loses 700,000 jobs to pandemic

BRIAN SWINT & DAVID GOODMAN
September 15

Britain's labour market took a turn for the worse in July even as the economy gradually reopened, taking total job losses under the pandemic to almost 700,000 and raising pressure on the government to extend its wage support.

Employment fell by 102,000, the first decline since the initial full month of lockdown in April, the Office for National Statistics said Tuesday. The pandemic also finally began filtering through to the unemployment rate — so far subdued by the furlough programme — pushing the single-month figure up the most since 2013.

The figures are a stark signal of labour-market fragility as the government prepares to end furloughs next month. Chancellor of the exchequer Rishi Sunak has insisted that companies must adjust to the post-Covid reality, although economists fear a dramatic spike in U.K. unemployment. Many European nations have extended their programs.

"No matter what conclusions you draw from today's data, the critical period is going to be October" when government aid expires, said Philip Shaw, chief economist at Investec Bank.

Tuesday's report showed some damage has already been done, even though the government's plan has helped support almost 10 million jobs. The number of employees on payrolls in August was down 695,000 from March — the equivalent of about 2.4% of workers — while the number of people claiming jobless benefits has more than doubled to 2.7 million. That's left the government facing mounting calls to do more to safeguard jobs and wages after the worst economic contraction in centuries.

Most economists predict the heightened uncertainties will prompt the Bank of England to increase its monetary stimulus later this year. Policy makers may lay the groundwork for that when they meet this week as the UK faces a triple whammy of a spike in unemployment, new restrictions on activity as infections mount, and a turbulent Brexit at the end of the year. —BLOOMBERG

A Covid-19 vaccine may be available for "ordinary Chinese" as soon as November or early December following a Phase III trial that "went very smoothly," the Global Times said in a tweet, citing the Chinese CDC's chief biosafety expert.

A WHO official on Tuesday said that the decision by AstraZeneca to pause global trials of its experimental coronavirus vaccine after an unexplained illness showed the firm was prioritising safety.

Siemens Healthineers AG has joined U.S. and European health officials to create an international standard for coronavirus antibody tests, a key step toward knowing who needs a future vaccine or booster shot.

Hong Kong concluded a Beijing-backed campaign to offer everyone in the city a free virus test. Health experts see the drive as an additional weapon against the disease and preparation for any flareups.

The number of new cases in Iran climbed for a second day to 2,705, the highest in six weeks, taking the total to 407,353. The death toll reached 23,453 with 140 more fatalities, down from a four-week high of 156 the previous day, Health Ministry data showed.

Russia's new cases and deaths rose the most since late July as the virus spread with the return of millions to school and work.

Covid vaccine: Can FDA be trusted, wonders Gates

ERIK SCHATZKER
September 15

BILL GATES USED to think of the US Food and Drug Administration as the world's premier public-health authority.

Not anymore. And he doesn't trust the Centers for Disease Control and Protection either. Both, in his view, are casualties of a presidency that has downplayed or dismissed science and medicine in the pursuit of political gain. One recent example came when FDA commissioner Stephen Hahn, speaking at one of President Trump's news conferences, exaggerated the benefit of blood plasma as a treatment for Covid-19, then backtracked the following day.

"We saw with the completely bungled plasma statements that when you start pressuring people to say optimistic things, they go completely off the rails. The FDA lost a lot of credibility there," Gates, the billionaire philanthropist, said in an interview on Bloomberg Television. "Historically, just like the CDC was viewed as the best in the world, the FDA had that same reputation as a top-notch regulator," Gates said. "But there's been some cracks with some of the things they've said at the commissioner level."

At stake is nothing less than public confidence in the vaccine that could end the coronavirus pandemic, and which the FDA would have to approve. Polls conducted in the past two months show a majority of Americans worry development of the vaccine is being rushed and a third wouldn't get inoculated.

In the meantime, Trump has made no secret of his hope that a vaccine will be ready before the November 3 polls. Last week, he hinted that one could be approved next month, also saying it would be "safe and effective." Like the rest of the country, Gates is now in the unfamiliar position of having to put his faith in the companies working on Covid treatments and vaccines, not the agency that regulates them. —BLOOMBERG

THE KNOCK-ON effects of the coronavirus pandemic have halted and reversed global health progress, setting it back 25 years and exposing millions to the risk of deadly disease and poverty, a report by the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation warned on Tuesday. Navalny plans to return to Russia after surviving poison attack

RUSSIAN OPPOSITION POLITICIAN Alexei Navalny shared a photograph from a Berlin hospital on Tuesday, sitting up in bed and surrounded by his family, and said he could now breathe independently following his poisoning last month.

The photo — the strongest evidence yet of Navalny's advancing recovery since he fell violently sick in Siberia on August 20 — was swiftly followed by confirmation from his press spokeswoman that he planned to return to Russia. "Hi, this is Navalny. I miss you all," he wrote in the caption to his Instagram followers. "I can still hardly do anything, but yesterday I could breathe all day on my own. Actually on my own."

Navalny, the leading opponent of Russian President Vladimir Putin, fell violently sick in Siberia last month and was airlifted to Berlin. Germany says laboratory tests in three countries have determined he was poisoned with a Novichok nerve agent, and Western governments have demanded an explanation from Russia.

Moscow has called the accusations groundless. —REUTERS

RISKS VS RETURNS

How much portfolio diversification is too much?

A well-distributed portfolio of 10-20 quality stocks from unrelated sectors balances risks and returns optimally

PARTHAJIT KAYAL

IN THE SEARCH for better returns, equity-oriented assets such as mutual funds, Portfolio Management Services (PMS) and direct stocks have increasingly gained retail investors' attention over the last few years. However, trying to achieve life's important financial goals through this risky asset class is not an easy task.

The sudden experience of a financial market crisis and unexpected large financial losses has prompted many mature investors towards an unreasonable preference for fixed income assets like FDs, bonds, gold, etc. It becomes imperative for investors to understand the real impact of psychological states on their investment decision making. It forces them to adopt irrational choices that would have a damaging impact on their investment value over the long term due to low returns and high inflation.

Investors' risk & reward preferences are asymmetrical

There is no doubt that we need to invest a large share of our funds in equity-oriented asset classes to beat inflation and achieve higher returns than fixed-income assets. However, the inherent volatility in equity investments and the fear of losing capital scare investors. After all, it's their hard-earned money. A common trait found in most people and also frequently discussed in behavioral finance literature is that investors' risk and reward preferences are asymmetrical. They care far more about avoiding loss than they do about achieving a gain. Ultimately we all are risk-averse people especially when it comes to investment.

Multiple holdings may not reduce the risk but lower the returns

Appropriate diversification is important to protect ourselves from catastrophic financial losses and achieve relatively superior returns. However, immature investors might easily think that investment through multiple funds or stocks will automatically reduce the risk of loss. In that process, they choose several investment alternatives based on historical performance without giving much thought to the possible risk of capital loss. Therefore a simple addition of multiple stocks or funds would not necessarily reduce the future risk.

Instead, it could magnify the risk if investors' choice of stocks and funds are directly or indirectly linked with each other. For appropriate diversification, it is not that more is always better as it could lead to over-diversification that can be an impediment for investment. It is a matter of fact that on average, a concentrated portfolio with fewer holdings is less volatile than more diversified funds and also earns relatively higher returns. Further, an over diversified fund or a portfolio rarely beats the benchmark.

ILLUSTRATION: SHYAM KUMAR PRASAD

Diversification does not alleviate market risk

Investment value in the equity assets tends to move with the performance of the overall market, i.e., the benchmark indices. The market could underperform due to factors such as recessions, political issues, natural disasters, wars, terrorist attacks, etc. This sort of risk is called market risk. Diversification cannot mitigate this market risk. Although we have no control over these events, a well-diversified portfolio can reduce the impact of this market risk and help us to recover the investment value faster.

Investment should be well distributed across sectors

Wide diversification is required only when investors do not have sufficient knowledge of their holdings. Investors may be better off buying a low-cost index fund in that case. Alternatively, they can choose three to four well-managed low-cost large-cap mutual funds. However, they need to keep their returns expectations in line with the index funds as holding three to four mutual funds is similar to holding a market index. In an ideal situation, 10 to 20 quality stocks in unrelated sectors would be the right choice.

Investors should have sufficient knowledge about the stocks they are holding to evaluate possible risks arising from each. That is feasible only when the number of stocks is limited. Investors can always reduce firm-specific risk by investing in quality market leaders from different sectors. Further, investment should be well-distributed across the sectors to avoid the risk of co-movements or covariance among stocks itself. It gives a balance against sectoral bias.

To sum up, diversification is desirable to reduce the risk but it could lower the returns. Therefore it is a matter of individual choice. A well-distributed portfolio of 10 to 20 quality market leader stocks from unrelated sectors could be optimum for investment.

YOUR MONEY

GHAZAL JAIN

Why gold's prospects are brighter than that of silver

THE PRECIOUS METALS space is definitely dazzling. Prices of gold and silver have appreciated by 32% and 43% year-to-date, respectively. Given that silver has outperformed gold in the recent run-up, investors now want to know which of the two is going to do better going forward. While silver is more accessible given that it is less expensive, and could have good upside potential in the short term given the momentum of speculative demand and supply disruptions, gold is the better investment option.

Gold's prospects look brighter after Covid-19

Silver's primary role is industrial, and its role as money is secondary to its use in industry whereas gold is primarily a monetary asset. With the global economy staring at a protracted economic deceleration, demand for industrial commodities like silver will be impacted. At the same time, accommodative stance of central banks and widespread stimulus measures to ease the pandemic's blow will continue for the foreseeable future. This will be beneficial for gold as it is widely viewed as an asset that usually does well during times of rising prices and currency debasement.

Gold is a better diversifier

Silver prices, because of the metal's industrial use, have a stronger relationship to economic growth. Thus, silver prices generally tend to move in tandem with equities. In contrast, gold gets a push in times of economic distress when equities tend to suffer. Gold is thus a better diversification tool to add stability to the portfolio in these times of unpredictable equity markets.

Gold prices are less volatile

As the overall market for silver is smaller than gold, the likelihood of large price movements caused by buying or selling by a few market participants is more for silver. Silver is thus more speculative and risky and prices tend to be more volatile than gold prices.

Gold is more liquid

Liquidity is an often overlooked consideration for investors which eventually impacts returns. Gold has a much larger, liquid market that is driven mostly by investment and jewellery demand. This gives it an edge in liquidity over silver, reducing liquidity costs and boosting its value. The bid ask spreads on silver are significantly higher as compared to that of gold thus leading to high impact cost on the buy / sell transaction.

With all of the uncertainty in today's global economy, it has never been more important to diversify and add the stability of gold to your investment strategy

Central banks prefer gold, too

Gold is an actively used central bank asset, while silver is not. So silver is more wide open for speculators, while gold prices tend to be more stable as they are supported by central bank buying and selling.

Gold is easier to invest in

Investors can choose to invest in gold through financial forms such as Gold ETFs and gold mutual funds, as well as digital gold and Sovereign Gold Bonds. These are all simple, convenient and efficient forms of investing in the metal. However, to be able to invest in silver, investors have to choose between the physical form or Silver Futures. Owning the physical metal is inefficient due to purity concerns and storage costs, while Silver Futures are complex, risky instruments better suited for sophisticated investors.

With all of the uncertainty in today's global economy, it has never been more important to diversify and add the stability of gold to your investment strategy. Every investment portfolio should contain an allocation of 10-15% to the precious metal.

TDS refund to be claimed on filing ITR for final tax liability

● I am 61 and do not have any regular income. I did not file ITR for FY 2018-19 as interest income was ₹2.20 lakh. I want to sell my house and buy a new one. Should I file a nil ITR for FY 2019-20? The house will be sold for around ₹85 lakh while the new one will cost around ₹1.10 crore. How do I get refund of TDS on sale of my house?
—Alok Kapur

Obligation to furnish an ITR arises when total income (without giving effect to exemptions under section 54/54F or deduction under chapter VI A) exceeds maximum amount not chargeable to income tax. For filing ITR for FY19-20, you have to compute income from all sources and if it exceeds basic exemption limit of ₹3 lakh, you have to furnish ITR, giving the particulars of your income. If the house is sold in November 2020, capital gains arising on sale would arise in FY 2020-21, in respect of which you shall be required to file an ITR on or before July 31, 2021. You have to deduct cost of acquisition from the sale consideration to arrive at the taxable capital gains. If the property is held for more than 24 months then the resultant capital gains would be classified as 'long-term' and if the same are invested for purchase of another house, then you claim exemption under Section 54. At the end of the financial year, while filing ITR, final tax liability has to be determined by including income from all sources. TDS can then be claimed as credit from this final tax liability. Excess of TDS over the final tax liability shall be refunded by credit to your bank account. If income is correctly disclosed in the ITR, the income tax department may not raise a query.

INCOME TAX

● If listed shares are gifted to a relative, what amount needs to be mentioned in the ITR of the donee in exempt income—cost to previous owner/donor or the market value as on date of the gift?
—Manish I Mehta

Assuming that the shares were received from a 'relative' as defined under I-T Act, the FMV shall not be chargeable to tax. However, the same shall form a part of your total income and shall have to be disclosed in Schedule EI of the ITR form. Upon sale, the capital gains shall be computed by deducting the cost of acquisition from the sale consideration. The cost of acquisition shall be deemed to be the cost at which the immediate previous owner of the shares acquired it.

Education goes high-tech in Delhi govt schools

Project Aspiration 2020 has empowered hundreds of teachers, many of whom have limited experience using computers, by putting powerful digital tools and skills at their disposal

SUDHIR CHOWDHARY

WHEN THE COVID-19 pandemic and subsequent lockdown in March forced school classes to go online, the digital divide in the country became even more apparent. Only a handful of private schools located in big cities and towns could adopt online teaching methods while budget private schools and government schools were left in the lurch..

Cut to present. Technology companies have developed and delivered learning modules via free apps and radio channels, and free live classes are being delivered through popular social media platforms. Edge-based technologies can play a crucial role in expanding the impact of digital learning beyond private schools in urban centres. Effective industry collaboration to accelerate technology innovation across cloud, network and at the edge can also pave the way to a more dynamic and accessible school environment across the country. A success story from the National Capital Territory of Delhi's (NCT Delhi) government schools shows how technology can act wonders.

"Teachers have been excited to see that students who rarely speak up in class are active and enthusiastic in the online classroom chat.

—PRAKASH MALLYA, VP & MD- SALES & MARKETING GROUP, INTEL

The department of education of NCT Delhi engaged Career Launcher to find a fast-scaling solution to not only ensure educational continuity but to also serve as a platform for long-term educational transformation. Career Launcher enlisted the help of Intel and Amazon Web Services (AWS) and worked with educators to adapt aspiration.ai, Career Launcher's learning portal, to address the needs of Delhi's government schools. Within two weeks the trial was successfully launched, and Project Aspiration 2020 was born.

From the initial group of 55 schools and 1,500 students, aspiration.ai is now serving over 165,000 students with extremely high rates of engagement: 90% of students enrolled are regularly active. With requests to participate in the programme coming in from across the country, the project aims to reach one million students. "The aspiration.ai learning platform is focused on delivering learning, fun, and mentoring at scale," said Rahul Sharma, president – Public Sector, India and South Asia, Amazon Internet Services.

"The goal for the programme stretches well beyond the Covid-19 crisis. The fast scaling that Career Launcher, Intel, and AWS have achieved is inspiring government officials to think differently about education. They're seeing the potential for this programme to have a lasting impact on students' lives and to help lead a transformation in the education system across the country that gives more children access to the best learning experience possible," said Prakash Mallya, VP & MD – Sales and Marketing Group, Intel India.

Aspiration.ai is built on AWS Cloud, which offers scalable performance and built-in AI acceleration with Intel Xeon Scalable processors. AWS scaled up quickly and seamlessly while offering a wide array of services and delivering the needed performance for very large groups of users. For intensive workloads that involve video, analytics, AI, and more, Intel's Xeon Scalable processors deliver extensive compute headroom to cost-effectively scale platforms like aspiration.ai to meet the future learning needs of students.

Project Aspiration 2020 has empowered hundreds of teachers, many of whom have limited experience using computers, by putting powerful digital tools and skills at their disposal. To ensure that the special connection between teachers and students continue, Career Launcher is using cloud technology to offer livestreaming of classes as well as archival and replay of past recordings. By offering both synchronous and asynchronous learning content, the programme is inclusive of students who have limited access to broadband internet. While these students are unable to stream the lessons live, they can view the content on demand when they are able to get online, often via a parent's smartphone. In addition to the face-to-face connection that aspiration.ai allows, it is enabling advanced analytics for teachers.

ZOHO WORKPLACE

Doing business with ease

Zoho Workplace reimagines work by bringing business context and continuity across apps, devices, and modes of work

FE BUREAU

CHENNAI-BASED BUSINESS software maker Zoho has announced major updates to Zoho Workplace—a single software platform that brings together collaboration, productivity, and communications tools and integrates them into other business processes. Centred around a full-featured business mail and cloud office suite, Zoho Workplace includes nine tightly mingled applications, built on a common data model and unified through common search and AI across one dashboard, allowing customers to solve business problems quickly and collaboratively.

"The nature of work has undeniably changed, and Workplace has grown to meet that change," said Sridhar Vembu, Zoho's CEO and co-founder. "Businesses are not looking to solve a collaboration problem, they are looking to solve a custom invoicing problem or sales enablement problem or support problem. Workplace, through pre-built integrations with powerful business apps and context and continuity across applications, devices, and departments, stands alone in having the vision and functionality to meet the broad business needs of today."

Sridhar Vembu, CEO and co-founder, Zoho

According to a joint study by Zoho and Beagle Research, 54% of enterprise-level employees (businesses with over 500 employees) found the applications they work with not intuitive and difficult to integrate. Additionally, 40% of the largest enterprise employees surveyed (businesses with over 4,000 employees) said their work can be chaotic, working with multiple technology platforms.

New capabilities

Mail (Business Mail): Audio or video calls from within the app, edit document attachments in Zoho Writer, meet online with contacts, and access all email accounts from within Zoho Mail.

Cliq (Messaging): Check in or check out and set custom statuses, collaborate with external stakeholders, connect with teams via group audio or video calls, and view message-read status.

Meeting (Conferencing): Schedule recurring or one-off meetings and set multiple email reminders from web and mobile devices.

Connect (Social Intranet): Connect integrates with human resource information systems, including Zoho People.

Show (Collaborative Presenting): Show is integrated with Atlassian, Unsplash, and Humaans, and features an organisation-wide slide library and data linking, allowing users to connect live data to slides.

FUNDRAISING SPREE

At ₹15.30L cr, RIL m-cap bigger than all PSUs

YOOSEF KP
Mumbai, September 15

RELIANCE INDUSTRIES (RIL), which was less than half the size of all state-owned listed firms put together at the beginning of the year, has now surpassed the combined market valuation of these behemoths. Shares of the country's most valuable company have risen 54.6% since January 2020, following its fundraising spree for its digital and retail arms.

The cumulative market capitalisation of 83 public sector undertakings (PSUs) as of Tuesday stood at ₹15.16 lakh crore, while in contrast, the RIL alone commands a market valuation of ₹15.30 lakh crore, Bloomberg data showed. At the start of the year, PSUs had a market capitalisation (m-cap) of ₹19.3 lakh crore whereas RIL had a market cap of ₹9.6 lakh crore.

RIL, which has raised $33 billion of equity capital in the past six months, has more than doubled its investors wealth compared to 15.7% gains clocked by the benchmark Nifty50 in the last six months. As of Tuesday's close, RIL's market capitalisation was $207.88 billion, which is about 10% of all the companies listed on the Indian bourses. India –the tenth largest equity market in the world has a market valuation of $2.11 trillion, Bloomberg data shows.

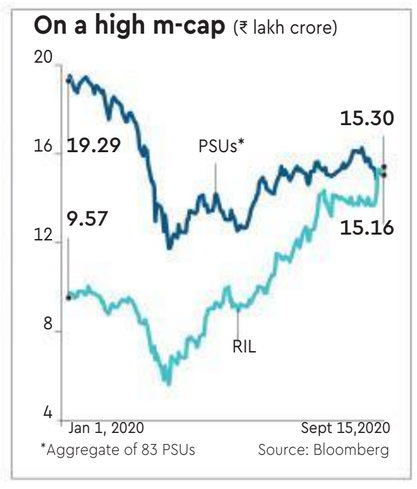
The surge in RIL share prices also propelled promoter Mukesh Ambani's net worth to $88.4 billion to make him the sixth richest person in the world

Kotak Institutional Equities believes, RIL enjoys multiple factors such as dominant and growing presence in several sectors, large weight in all benchmark indices and large outperformance.

"In our view, valuations are less important except at extremes for certain stocks," the brokerage said in a note to investors.

It also observed that things that are relevant for investor to appreciate are: Capital, execution and scale that result in dominance.

While the largest state-owned firm — State Bank of India — commands a market capitalisation of ₹1.79 lakh crore, Tata Consultancy Services (TCS) is a distant second, with an m-cap of ₹9.35 lakh crore.



The surge in RIL share prices also propelled promoter Mukesh Ambani's net worth to $88.4 billion to become the sixth richest person in the world. At the end of June 2020, promoter group held 50.37% of the company.

During the year 2007, the market capitalisation of RIL swelled from $50 billion to $100 billion over a span of six months. However, the stock was largely an underperformer since then and uptick again started about three years ago.

RBI's bond yield control runs into inflation wall amid pandemic stress

SUBHADIP SIRCAR & ANIRBAN NAG
Mumbai, September 15

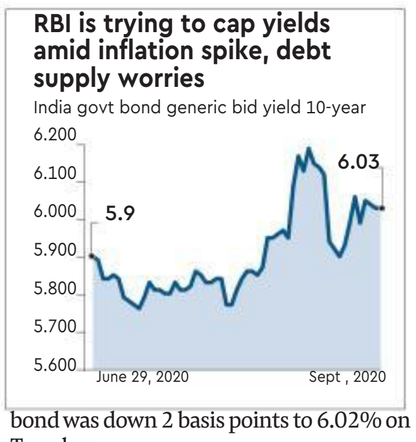
THE RESERVE BANK of India's battle to rein in bond yields is meeting an unexpected foe — inflation that just refuses to go away even with the economy in shreds from the pandemic.

Consumer prices rose 6.7% last month, exceeding RBI's upper limit of 6% for a fifth month, according to data released late Monday. That's reinforcing bets in bond markets that the central bank's easing cycle may be over even as the federal government and states gear up for a borrowing binge to meet a revenue shortfall.

The RBI has fought a running battle with bond vigilantes as yields on the nation's 10-year debt surged almost 30 basis points last month. By making underwriters buy huge chunks of debt at auctions to Federal Reserve-style Operation Twists, its actions led many in the market to conclude that the central bank is seeking to cap benchmark yields at the 6% mark.

"In the face of such uncertainties markets would demand a premium to hold duration, especially with past instances showing that the RBI is trying to hold a line in the sand with the benchmark 10-year yield at 6%," said A. Prasanna, chief economist at ICICI Securities Primary Dealership in Mumbai. The RBI is trying to maintain that line with the help of limited interventions, he said.

The yield on the benchmark 10-year bond was down 2 basis points to 6.02% on Tuesday.



A spokesman for the central bank wasn't immediately available for comment.

In late August, the RBI unveiled a series of policies including allowing banks to hold more sovereign debt without the need to mark losses, more Operation Twists, and an injection of liquidity. Those steps came after benchmark yields had surged to a three-month high of 6.21%. India's federal government is likely to raise its gross borrowings to ₹14 lakh crore ($190 billion) from ₹12 lakh crore, according to a HSBC Holdings note. Prime Minister Narendra Modi's administration is also pushing states to borrow from the market to meet a shortfall in the goods and services tax revenue kitty, which will further add to borrowing pressures. —BLOOMBERG

RBI issues draft rupee interest rate derivatives

THE RESERVE BANK on Tuesday proposed allowing foreign portfolio investors (FPIs) to undertake exchange-traded rupee interest rate derivatives transactions subject to an overall ceiling of ₹5,000 crore. Interest Rate Derivatives (IRD) are contracts whose value is derived from one or more interest rates, prices of interest rate instruments, or interest rate indices. The proposed Rupee Interest Rate Derivatives (Reserve Bank) Directions, 2020 are aimed at encouraging higher non-resident participation, enhance the role of domestic market makers in the offshore market, improve transparency, and achieve better regulatory oversight, according to the RBI.

Cost-cutting makes Barclays Asia FX trading head leave

BARCLAYS ASKED PRITPAL Gill, head of foreign exchange trading in Asia Pacific, to leave after about 18 months with the British lender. Gill, head of G10 foreign exchange and foreign exchange options trading in the region, is departing as part of cost cutting measures across the bank's corporate and investment divisions, according to people with knowledge of the matter, who asked not to be identified because the matter is private. Gill joined Barclays in January 2019 and was based in Singapore. Before that, he ran a family office and also worked at Citigroup Inc. A representative for Barclays in Mumbai declined to comment.

Positive inflation data, global cues push Sensex up 288 pts

FE BUREAU
Mumbai, September 15

EQUITIES ENDED THE day in the green on Tuesday with the benchmark Sensex gaining 287.72 points or 0.74% to close at 39,044.35 whereas, the Nifty gained 81.75 points or 0.71% to close at 11,521.8. The markets were up on favourable inflation data and positive global cues.

The markets traded in the green throughout the trading session, clocking most of its gains during the last hour of trade. On the domestic front, the Consumer Price Index (CPI) inflation remained flat in August at 6.69%. The markets reacted positively to the CPI numbers that came out late last evening. Additionally, strong global cues also helped the markets remain buoyant and contributed to their gains. The Chinese retail sales grew for the first time in the year whereas, the industrial output accelerated the most in eight months. Deepak Jasani, head-retail research, HDFC Securities, said, "Encouraging Chinese retail sales and industrial production data, hopes on vaccine and flurry of corporate deals pushed indices higher. Banks and pharma indices rose while realty index was down. Smallcap and midcap indices rose more than the Nifty."

Asian markets in Hong Kong, Taiwan, China, and South Korea were up between 0.38% and 0.65%. On the other hand, European markets in Germany, France, and the United Kingdom were up between 0.31% and 1.04% at the time of press. In its previous trading session, the US markets had also witnessed gains with benchmarks like Dow Jones, S&P 500, and Nasdaq rallying between 1.18% to 1.87%. At the time of press, Dow Jones Mini Futures were also up by 203 points.

The small and midcap stocks outperformed the benchmarks for the second straight session after the re-allocation norms from the Securities and Exchange Board of India were announced on September 11.

Nifty Midcap 100 and Nifty Smallcap 100 were up by 1.09% and 1.53%. In its report, Jefferies said, "As of August 2020, the average net assets under management (AUM) of Multi-Cap funds stands at ₹1,467 billion.

As per Jefferies estimates, approximate average allocation split between large, mid and small cap companies is now at close to 75%, 17% and 6%. If these rebalancing guidelines (min 25% each) get implemented, mid and small cap categories could witness an incremental allocation to the tune of close to ₹115 billion or close to ₹275 billion, respectively. This could be a sizeable opportunity — the current AUM of mid and smallcap funds stands at ₹881 billion and ₹509 billion (as of August 2020)."

The futures and options segment saw a turnover worth ₹15.8 lakh crore against the six month average of ₹15.43 lakh crore. The cash market saw a turnover worth ₹53,882.92 crore against the six-month average of ₹53,128 crore. The foreign portfolio investors in September so far have been marginal sellers, pulling out $179.28 million in total. On Monday, FPIs bought stocks worth $39.23 million whereas, domestic institutional investors sold stocks worth $15.83 m.

Rupee drops 16p to 73.64 vs dollar

THE RUPEE PARED early gains to settle 16 paise lower at 73.64 against the US dollar on Tuesday due to dollar buying by banks and oil importers. The rupee had opened higher at 73.33 but later lost ground to touch a low of 73.72 due to high dollar demand.

Forex traders said the rupee ended lower due to dollar purchases by state-run banks likely on the behalf of the RBI. The central bank has turned a dollar buyer to offset the impact of portfolio inflows, they added. — PTI

'SBI Card working on to allow customers to see credit scores'

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, September 15

SBI CARD IS working on providing customers the facility to see their credit bureau scores when they log in to their credit card accounts, its MD and CEO Ashwini Kumar Tewari said.

Tewari, who took charge last month, used to handle State Bank of India's New York office operations, covering three branches — New York, Chicago and Los Angeles.

"In terms of what I would do (here), what experience I have from the US, there are two three things which I can bring from the US. But we (SBI) did not have credit card as a product there. So therefore from a credit card perspective, which is only as a user in the US that I can try and bring some of the things.

"One thing is that the provision of credit bureau score into the account of the credit card holders. When the card holder logs into his account, he should be able to see the credit score. That is very, very common in the US, at no extra charge," Tewari told PTI.

"So I have already discussed this with the team, they said it is doable but we are still working with the modalities. That helps in terms of card holders knowing at all times how the credit bureau score is trending. So that is one customer friendly initiative I think we can very quickly implement," he added.

The second thing in the US is the co-branded space. "So that is also one of the things I think we should be working towards...," he said. In the US, if someone is making a purchase at a retailer and does not have a card, they will ask him to get one, Tewari said. If the person agrees, they will simply ask for his social security number and then issue a card, if the credit score is fine, within 5-10 minutes.

Sebi clears air on fine for non-collection of margins in cash segment

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, September 15

MARKETS REGULATOR SEBI on Tuesday provided clarity on levy of penalty for non-collection of margins from clients in the cash segment by trading and clearing members.

The clarification, which comes after the watchdog received various representations, is with regard to levy of penalty for non-collection of 'other margins' on or before T+2 days from clients. The 'other margins' exclude VaR (value at risk) margin and ELM (extreme loss margin). "If pay-in (both funds and securities) is made by T+2 working days, the other margins would deemed to have been collected and penalty for short / non-collection of other margins shall not arise," Sebi said in a circular addressed to stock exchanges and clearing corporations. Further, it said if early pay-in of securities has been made to the clearing corporation, then all margins would be deemed to have been collected and penalty for short/non-collection of margin, including other margins, would not arise.

In case a client fails to make pay-in by T+2 working days and the trading member or clearing member concerned does not collect other margins from the client within the given time period, the same would result in levy of penalty. "It is reiterated that clearing corporation shall continue to collect upfront VaR plus ELM and other margins from TM/CM as applicable from time to time," the circular said.

'Claims from Covid to increase health loss ratios in H2FY21'

FE BUREAU
Mumbai, September 15

THE CLAIMS ARISING from the Covid-19 are expected to increase health loss ratios in the second half of the current financial year. ICICI Securities in its report says if assumed that Covid claims maintain a run rate of $150m per month (₹1,105 crore) from September, the total FY21 Covid claim amount would be around $1.4bn (₹10,500 crore).

As on September 10, general insurance companies have received around 2.07 lakh claims from Covid-19 patients for over ₹3,300 crore and have settled over 1.30 lakh claims amounting to ₹1,260 crore. The gross direct premium income (GDPI) of health insurance in the period between April and July was ₹18,415 crore shows the data from Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India. While for the month of July GDPI of health insurance was ₹4,979 crore.

"Assuming August was similar at Rs 5,000 crore, the total health GDPI till August end works out to ₹23,400 crore (US$3.2bn). Hence, total Covid-related claims till August end was approximately 11% of the total health GDPI," said ICICI Securities in its report on General Insurance. It also says that industry reports suggest that reinsurers are hesitant to underwrite the Covid risk. This has been a major challenge for pricing of insurance policies covering Covid treatment.

Currently more and more are coming from the Covid treatments but a the non-Covid claims normalise, the health loss ratio would worsen in second half of FY21. "Rising Covid claims against the backdrop of normalisation in non-Covid claims is set to put health loss ratios under pressure in H2FY21. While exponential increase in Covid claims will lead to cut in earnings estimates, well-funded insurers stand to gain market share in health insurance in the longer run," said ICICI Securities. From ₹181 crore in June, claims from novel Coronavirus have risen to ₹2,665 by end of August.

Real returns from FDs remain negative for 10 straight months

FE BUREAU
Mumbai, September 15

AS INFLATION CONTINUES to hold above the monetary policy committee's (MPC) tolerance band and deposit rates fall nonetheless, savers are being given the short shrift. August was the tenth straight month of negative real returns from fixed deposits (FDs). The trend may persist longer as banks, including State Bank of India (SBI), have cut rates even in September.

The return on a one-year retail term deposit with SBI adjusted for tax and inflation stood at -3.12% in August. A one-year deposit with the country's largest lender earned interest at the rate of 5.1%, which works out to a 3.57% effective yield, assuming a tax rate of 30%. The headline consumer inflation rate of 6.69% resulted in a negative return for the depositor. SBI has again reduced the interest rate on September 10 on one-year term deposits to 4.9% and this could hit returns further.

In a report dated July 31, SBI's research wing had said that negative real interest rates are likely to become the new norm. This will be a result of household savings continuing to rise in India despite lower rates on deposits. It is important to keep real rates negative at present as it could have a "sobering" effect on asset quality, the report added.

"..it is largely believed that positive real interest rates act as an enabler of household savings if the substitution effect, in which saving increases as consumption is postponed to the future, dominates the wealth effect in which savers increase current consumption at the expense of saving. Paradoxically, in the current context, people are increasing their savings even as we are facing negative real interest rate as people are saving money as a precautionary motive," the SBI report said.

It added the incremental small savings deposits have significantly slowed down as a percentage of incremental deposits with scheduled commercial banks in the current fiscal, with people parking more money in liquid bank deposits rather than locking them in financial savings. According to data released by RBI, deposits with banks stood at ₹140.80 lakh crore as on August 14, up 11.04% year-on-year (y-o-y).

Banks are lowering deposit rates in order to protect margins at a time when the system is flooded with liquidity. Loan growth is limited and much of the money with banks is flowing into low-yielding government securities, with the current level of statutory liquidity ratio being 29%. The liquidity surplus in the banking system for the fortnight ended August 14 stood at ₹3.27 lakh crore, according to Care Ratings. "Additionally, the banking system liquidity is expected to remain in a surplus position aided by sustained growth in bank deposits as against slower growth in the bank credit off-take."

ANALYST CORNER

Maintain 'buy' on Spandana Sphoorty

ICICI SECURITIES

WE ATTENDED SPANDANA Sphoorty Financial's business update call and the key takeaways include Cumulative collection efficiency (April'20 to 13th Sep'20) stands at 55%; it collected >₹14bn vs demand of ₹31bn since the lockdown, August'20 collection efficiency (ex arrears) stands at ~78/80%, management expects it to reach 98% (borrowers) by October'20, state-wise – Kerala and Odisha are lagging in collections, while Gujarat, AP, Karnataka, Telangana, MP are leading, Spandana is comfortably placed on liquidity - raised ~₹15bn since lockdown, at an average cost of borrowing of 9.95% (~10.6% ex assignments) and E) company expects industry-level write/offs to remain 3-4% due to Covid-19 pandemic. While ~13% inactive customer base poses near-term risk on asset quality, improving collection across states, diversified operations, adequate provisioning buffer and comfortable capital position (CAR 53%) would ensure it navigates through the current cycle relatively better than peers. Maintain BUY.

MFI industry's resilience is reflected in its steady improvement in collections with every passing month. In-line with industry, collections for Spandana also improved from lows of 2% in April to 23%/75%/95% in June/July/August, respectively. Spandana is following "interest capitalisation" method and hence, unlike peers, it is not collecting interest on EMIs due during moratorium period. It already capitalised ₹80m in Q1FY21. While disbursement remained muted until July'20, it gained momentum in August'20 with disbursement increases to ₹5.2bn and it further improve to ₹3.17bn in September (from 1-13 September'20). Including past month's due, collection is already running at >100% since last week of August'20. Most banks have renewed credit lines – Spandana has not availed moratorium from any lenders.

Govt plans to introduce law to ban cryptocurrency trading

ARCHANA CHAUDHARY & SIDDHARTHA SINGH
September 15

The bill is expected to be discussed shortly by the Union Cabinet before it is sent to parliament

INDIA PLANS TO introduce a new law banning trade in cryptocurrencies, placing it out of step with other Asian economies which have chosen to regulate the fledgling market.

The bill is expected to be discussed shortly by the Union Cabinet before it is sent to parliament, according to people familiar with the development who who asked not to be identified, citing rules on speaking with the media.

The government will encourage blockchain, the technology underlying cryptocurrencies, but is not keen on cryptocurrency trading, according to two people.

Finance ministry spokesman didn't respond to call and a message seeking comments.

The central bank had in 2018 banned crypto transactions after a string of frauds in the months following Prime Minister Narendra Mod's sudden decision to ban 80% of the nation's currency. Cryptocurrency exchanges responded with a lawsuit in the Supreme Court in September and won respite in March 2020.

The win in court prompted an almost 450% surge in trading in just two months since March, according to TechSci Research, reviving concerns as more Indians risk savings amid job losses and an economic slowdown worsened by the coronavirus pandemic. Bitcoin marketplace Paxful reported 883% growth between January to May 2020 from around $2.2 million to $22.1 million. WazirX, a Mumbai based crypto exchanger grew 400% in March 2020 and 270% in April 2020 on month-on-month basis, according to TechSci.

Regulating trades

India's decision will be crucial as more Asian countries weigh pros and cons of virtual currencies. Rival China, which banned initial coin offerings and virtual currencies in 2017, recently allowed Bitcoin trading as virtual property, not as fiat money. It is also planning its own central bank digital currency. Both Singapore and South Korea regulate crypto trades.

The Indian government think tank, Niti Aayog, is exploring possible uses of blockchains — structures that publicly store transactional records or blocks in several networked databases — to manage land records, pharmaceutical drugs supply chain or records of educational certificates. And while it is planning a virtual currency, the government is averse to the idea of the cryptocurrency trades.

CARE reaffirms rating on Can Fin Homes' ₹ 4.5k-cr debt issue

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, Sept 15

CANARA BANK-PROMOTED housing finance firm Can Fin Homes (CFHL) on Tuesday said CARE Ratings has reaffirmed its A1 plus rating on its commercial paper issue of up to ₹4,500 crore.

Care Ratings has reviewed the ratings of the commercial paper issue of up to ₹4,500 crore (outstanding ₹1,850 crore), it said in a regulatory filing.

It has reaffirmed the rating 'CARE A1+', with rating action 'removed from credit watch with developing implications', the company said.

"On review of recent developments including removal of credit watch of rating of Canara Bank, principal shareholder of CFHL and operational and financial performance of the company for FY20 and Q1FY21, the rating was reviewed," Can Fin Homes said.

CFHL had reported 15% rise in net profit at ₹ 93.16 crore in the first quarter ended June of the current fiscal.

Income during the quarter was up at ₹522.50 crore as against ₹484.14 crore in the year-ago period.

In FY 2019-20, the net profit grew by 26.7% to ₹376.12 crore from ₹296.74 crore in preceding fiscal.

Can Fin Homes stock closed at ₹434.45 apiece on BSE, up 1.97%.

E-market to boost India's jute exports

FE BUREAU
Kolkata, September 15

THE INDIAN JUTE Mills Association (IJMA) has launched an e-market place to create a global demand for jute products that have very limited market access compared to those from Bangladesh.

Indian jute products have nearly no market demand at present. The domestic industry is surviving on the government orders of sacks, which is mainly governed by the Jute Packaging Material Act -1987. Without this Act the jute industry would have ceased to exist, an IJMA official said, adding that there is a need to transform the demand from that of government orders to market driven orders and hence IJMA has created this integrated e-commerce platform.

The e- commerce platform includes four portals — jutekart, fibreofindia, juteflash and juteindex. All of them together will facilitate the supply chain from procuring raw jute for mills, fabric for jute product manufacturers to showcasing jute products in both domestic and overseas markets. The integrated platform will provide end-to-end solution.

Although there are 92 jute mills and more than 5 lakh jute product manufacturers across the country, IJMA initiative has just roped in 3 jute mills and 200 manufacturers into its platform. "We seek to have all the jute mills and jute product manufacturers under this platform," IJMA chairman Raghavendra Gupta said. IJMA has roped in a lean management consultant, who is working closely with the ministry of textiles to convert the government dependent jute industry to a market driven industry.

Adverse Opinion expressed by the Statutory Auditors on Standalone and Consolidated Financial Results

Attention is drawn by the Auditors to the following notes of the accompanying Audited Standalone and Consolidated Financial Results of the Company:

a) Inter Corporate Deposits (ICD) aggregating to Rs. 2,86,881 lakhs as on June 30, 2020 (including Interest of Rs. 2,337 lakhs accrued till March 31, 2019) given to certain companies is subject to compliances, as required under Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act'). The amount outstanding as on this date as given above is doubtful of recovery. In absence of provision there against, the loss for the period is understated to that extent. Impact in this respect have not been ascertained and disclosed in the consolidated financial results.

b) The Company had given advance to a body corporate aggregating to Rs. 1,400 lakhs which are outstanding as on June 30, 2020. In absence of appropriate audit evidence and status thereof, we are unable to comment on the validity and recoverability of such advances.

c) Non-recognition of Interest by the Company Rs 2,779 Lakh (including Rs. 597 lakhs for the period) on inter-corporate borrowings and thereby the loss for the period is understated to that extent.
Further as stated, penal/compound interest against borrowings from banks/financial institution of the Company have not been recognised and other adjustments as stated in the said note have been given effect to, which is subject to confirmation from bankers and reconciliation with their balances. Pending final determination of amount in this respect, adjustments arising therefrom and consequential impact has not been ascertained.

d) Reconciliation of certain debit and credit balances with individual details in the Company and confirmation thereof are pending. Adjustments/Impact in this respect are currently not ascertainable and as such cannot be commented upon by auditors.

Note :

1. The above is an extract of the detailed format of Quarterly Standalone and Consolidated Financial Results filed with the Stock Exchanges under Regulations 33 of the SEBI (Listing and other Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015. The full format of the Financial Results are available on the websites of the Stock Exchanges' at (www.bseindia.com),(www.nseindia.com) and (www.cse-india.com) and also on the Company's website (www.mcleodrussel.com).
2. The above results were reviewed by the Audit Committee and approved by the Board of Directors in their respective meetings held on 14th September 2020. The Limited Review Report for the Quarter ended 30 June 2020, has been carried out by the Statutory Auditor, as required under Regulation 33 of SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015.

CHEMCON

CHEMCON SPECIALITY CHEMICALS LIMITED

Our Company was originally incorporated as Gujarat Quinone Private Limited at Vadodara, Gujarat, India, as a private limited company under the Companies Act, 1956, pursuant to a certificate of incorporation dated December 15, 1988 issued by the RoC. Our Promoters and Promoter Group completed the acquisition of 100% of the Equity Share capital of our Company in 2004 from the shareholders of our Company at the time. Chemcon Engineers Private Limited* ("CEPL") was incorporated at Vadodara, Gujarat, India as a private limited company under the Companies Act, 1956, pursuant to a certificate of incorporation dated April 30, 1996 issued by the RoC. CEPL, a company largely owned and promoted by our Promoters and Promoter Group, merged into our Company pursuant to an order of the High Court of Gujarat dated May 6, 2004 approving the Scheme of Amalgamation between CEPL and our Company. Thereafter, to reflect the nature of activities of our Company consequent to the Scheme of Amalgamation, the name of our Company was changed to "Chemcon Speciality Chemicals Private Limited" pursuant to the approval of our Shareholders at an extra-ordinary general meeting held on July 24, 2004 and the fresh certificate of incorporation on change of name issued by the RoC on July 27, 2004. Subsequently, our Company was converted into a public limited company pursuant to the approval of our Shareholders at an extra-ordinary general meeting held on November 28, 2018. Consequently, the name of our Company was changed to "Chemcon Speciality Chemicals Limited" and a Fresh certificate of incorporation consequent upon conversion to public limited company was issued by the RoC on April 10, 2019. For further details relating to the changes in the registered office and name of our Company, see "History and Certain Corporate Matters" on page 162 of the Red Herring Prospectus dated September 12,2020 ("RHP").

BASIS FOR THE ISSUE PRICE

The Price Band, Floor Price and Issue Price will be determined by our Company and the Selling Shareholders, in consultation with the BRLMs, on the basis of assessment of market demand for the Equity Shares offered through the Book Building Process and on the basis of the quantitative and qualitative factors described below. Investors should also refer to "Our Business", "Risk Factors", "Restated Financial Statements" and "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Position and Results of Operations" on pages 136, 23, 194 and 243 respectively, to an informed view before making an investment decision.
The face value of the Equity Shares is ₹10 each and the Issue Price is 33.80 times the face value at the lower end of the Price Band and 34.00 times the face value at the higher end of the Price Band.

Qualitative factors
Some of the qualitative factors which form the basis for computing the Issue Price are:
(a) We are a leading manufacturer globally of the Pharmaceutical Chemicals and we are a leading manufacturer in India of the Oilwell Completion Chemicals (Source: Frost & Sullivan Report); (b) Diversified customer base coupled with long standing relationships; (c) The specialty chemicals industry in which we operate has high entry barriers; (d) Consistent financial performance with a strong financial position; (e) Manufacturing facility with dedicated plants for each of our products; and (f) Experienced senior management.
For further details, see "Our Business –Our Strengths" on page 137.

Quantitative factors
The information presented below relating to our Company is based on the Restated Financial Statements.
Some of the quantitative factors which may form the basis for calculating the Issue Price are as follows:

I. Basic and diluted earnings per share ("EPS")

Fiscal/Period Ended	Basic and Diluted EPS (₹)	Weight
2020	15.37	3
2019	13.54	2
2018	8.30	1
Weighted Average	13.59	-

Basic earnings per share (₹) = Net Profit as restated attributable the Shareholders of our Company divided by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year.
Diluted earnings per share (₹) = Net profit as restated attributable to the Shareholders of our Company divided by the weighted average number of diluted Equity Shares outstanding during the year.
Notes: 1. Basic and diluted earnings per Equity Share are computed in accordance with Indian Accounting Standard 33 'Earnings per Share', notified accounting standard by the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules of 2015 (as amended). 2. Weighted average number of Equity Shares is the number of Equity Shares outstanding at the beginning of the period adjusted by the number of Equity Shares issued during the period multiplied by the time weighting factor. The time weighting factor is the number of days for which the specific shares are outstanding as a proportion of total number of days during the period. 3. The earnings per share figure for the year ended March 31, 2018 have been adjusted to give effect to the allotment of the bonus shares, as required by Ind AS-33. 4. The above statement should be read with significant accounting policies and notes on Restated Financial Statements as appearing in the Restated Financial Statements.

II. Price/Earning ("P/E") ratio in relation to Price Band of ₹338 to ₹340 per Equity Share:

Particulars	P/E at the lower end of the Price Band (number of times)	P/E at the higher end of the Price Band (number of times)
Based on basic EPS for Fiscal 2020	21.99	22.12
Based on diluted EPS for Fiscal 2020	21.99	22.12

Industry Peer Group P/E ratio

Particulars	Industry P/E (number of times) (for Fiscal 2020)
Highest	43.71
Lowest	19.04
Average	31.30

Note: The industry high and low has been considered from the industry peer set provided later in this chapter. The industry composite has been calculated as the arithmetic average of P/E for industry peer set disclosed in this section. All the financial information for listed industry peers mentioned above is sourced from the standalone audited financial statements of the relevant companies for Fiscal 2020, as available on website of stock exchanges. P/E ratio is calculated as closing share price (July 31, 2020 - BSE) / Diluted EPS for year ended March 31, 2020. Diluted Earnings per share mentioned in the above table are as reported by the respective companies in the relevant annual reports/results for Fiscal 2020/Q4FY20

III. Return on Net Worth ("RoNW")
As per Restated Financial Statements:

Financial Year ended	RoNW (%)	Weight
2020	34.23	3
2019	44.94	2
2018	49.20	1
Weighted Average	40.30	-

Return on net worth (%) = Net Profit as restated, attributable to the Shareholders of our company, divided by Net Worth as restated, including Share Capital and Reserves & Surplus, as restated at the end of the year.
Net Worth means the aggregate value of the paid-up share capital of our Company and all reserves created out of profits and securities premium account, net of pre-issue expenses, as per the restated statement of assets and liabilities of our Company in the Restated Financial Statements.

IV. Net asset value per Equity Share (face value of ₹ 10 each)
I. Restated Net Asset Value per Equity Share as per the Restated Financial Statements as on March 31, 2020: ₹ 44.91.
II. After the Issue*:
(a) At the Floor Price: ₹ 83.94 | (b) At the Cap Price: ₹ 84.00
III. Issue Price*: ₹ [•]
*To be updated in the Prospectus.
Note:
Net asset value per Equity Share = Net Worth as restated, including Share Capital and Reserves & Surplus, as restated at the end of the year divided by total number of Equity Shares outstanding at the end of year.

LISTING
The Equity Shares offered through the Prospectus are proposed to be listed on the SME Platform of BSE Limited ("BSE SME"), in terms of the Chapter IX of the SEBI (ICDR) Regulations, 2018, as amended from time to time. Our Company has received an In- Principle approval letter dated September 02, 2020 from BSE SME for using its name in this offer document for listing of our shares on the BSE SME. For the purpose of this Issue, the Designated Stock Exchange will be the BSE Limited.

DISCLAIMER CLAUSE OF SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE BOARD OF INDIA ("SEBI")
Since the Issue is being made in terms of Chapter IX of the SEBI (ICDR) Regulations, 2018, the Offer Document was not filed with SEBI. In terms of the SEBI ICDR Regulations, SEBI shall not Issue any observations on the Offer Document. Hence, there is no such specific disclaimer clause of SEBI. However, investors may refer to the entire "Disclaimer Clause of SEBI" on page 208 of the Prospectus.

DISCLAIMER CLAUSE OF SME PLATFORM OF BSE LIMITED ("BSE SME") (DESIGNATED STOCK EXCHANGE)
It is to be distinctly understood that the permission given by the BSE Limited ("BSE") should not in any way be deemed or construed that the contents of the Prospectus or the price at which the Equity Shares are offered has been cleared, solicited or approved by BSE nor does it certify the correctness accuracy or completeness of any of the contents of the Prospectus. The investors are advised to refer to the Prospectus for the full text of the "Disclaimer Clause pertaining to BSE" on page 209 of the Prospectus.

RISK IN RELATION TO THE FIRST ISSUE
This being the first Public Issue of our Company, there has been no formal market for the securities of our Company. The face value of the shares is ₹ 10.00 per Equity Shares and the Issue price is ₹ 40.00 per Equity Share, i.e. 4 times of the face value. The Issue Price (as determined by our Company in consultation with the Lead Manager as stated in the chapter titled on "Basis for Issue Price" beginning on page 73 of the Prospectus) should not be taken to be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares after such Equity Shares are listed. No assurance can be given regarding an active or sustained trading in the Equity Shares of our Company or regarding the price at which the Equity Shares will be traded after listing.

GENERAL RISK
Investments in equity and equity-related securities involve a degree of risk and investors should not invest any funds in this Issue unless they can afford to take the risk of losing their investment. Investors are advised to read the risk factors carefully before taking an investment decision in this offering. For taking an investment decision, investors must rely on their own examination of our Company and the Issue including the risks involved. The Equity Shares offered in the Issue have neither been recommended nor approved by Securities and Exchange Board of India nor does Securities and Exchange Board of India guarantee the accuracy or adequacy of the Prospectus. Specific attention of the investors is invited to the section titled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 21 of the Prospectus.

CREDIT RATING: This being the issue of Equity Shares, no credit rating is required.

DEBENTURE TRUSTEES: As this is an issue of Equity Shares, the appointment of Trustees is not required.

IPO GRADING: Since this issue is made in terms of Chapter IX of the SEBI (ICDR) Regulations, there is no requirement of appointing an IPO Grading Agency

Note:
1) These financial results were reviewed and recommended by the Audit Committee and approved by the Board of Directors at their meetings held on Sepetmber 15, 2020. These results are as per Regulation 33 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, as amended. The statutory auditors have carried out a limited review of the financial results for the quarter ended June 30, 2020.
2) The above is an extract of the detailed format of Quarterly Financial Results filed with the Stock Exchanges under Regulation 33 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015. The full format of the quarterly/annual financial results and notes there to are available on the stock exchange websites (www.nseindia.com and www.bseindia.com) and on Company's website (www.powermechprojects.com)
3) The figures for the quarter ended March 31, 2020 are the balancing figures between the audited figures for the full financial year ended March 31, 2020 and the published year to date figures upto third quarter ended December 31, 2019.
4) The lockdown as imposed has impacted significantly the company's operations and financial results for the quarter under review. Hence, the results for the current quarter are therefore not comparable with those for the previous quarters.
5) Figures for the previous periods have been regrouped and reclassified wherever necessary to conform to current period classification.

Over 1,600 Indian cos received $1-bn FDI from China during April 2016-March 2020

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, September 15

MORE THAN 1,600 Indian companies have received foreign direct investments worth $1 billion from China during the April 2016 to March 2020 period, according to government data. The data was provided in a written reply to the Rajya Sabha on Tuesday to a question on whether it is a fact that large scale investments have been made by Chinese agencies in Indian companies, specially the start-ups.

Over 1,600 companies received $1,020.25 million ($1.02 billion) foreign direct investment (FDI) equity inflows from China for the April 2016 to March 2020 period, as per the data.

These companies were in 46 sectors. Out of them, the automobile industry, printing of books (including litho printing industry), electronics, services and electrical equipment received more than $100 million FDI each from China during the said period.

The automobile industry received the maximum FDI from China at $172 million. The services sector attracted such funds worth $139.65 million, the data showed.

In the written reply, MoS for corporate affairs Anurag Singh Thakur said the corporate affairs ministry does not maintain information regarding the investment made by Chinese agencies.

He said the Ministry of commerce & industry has informed that FDI Data Cell compiles and maintains the data of FDI reported through equity inflow in the country.

The relevant data for the April 2016 to March 2020 period was provided along with the written reply.

Some states against borrowing to meet GST shortfall: Thakur

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, September 15

SOME STATES HAVE objected to the proposed borrowing plan of the Centre to fund the GST revenue shortfall and they are being requested to exercise either of the two options, MoS for finance Anurag Singh Thakur said on Tuesday.

The Centre late last month gave two options to states to borrow either ₹97,000 crore from a special window facilitated by the RBI or ₹2.35 lakh crore from market and also proposed extending the compensation cess levied on luxury, demerit and sin goods beyond 2022 to repay the borrowing.

"Some states have objected to the proposed two options. They are being requested to exercise one of the two options," Thakur said in the Rajya Sabha.

In reply to a separate question, Thakur said the provisional GST compensation due to the 31 states and UTs stands at ₹1,51,365 crore in the April-July period. "GST compensation cess collected in current FY 2020-21 is not sufficient to release the admissible GST compensation for period April-July, 2020," he said.

Over 27,000 EVs supported till Sept 10 under FAME phase-II

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, September 15

THE GOVERNMENT ON Tuesday said under the second phase of FAME India Scheme, over 27,000 electric vehicles have been supported till September 10 this year by way of demand incentive amounting to about ₹95 crore.

In a written reply to the Lok Sabha, heavy industries and public enterprises minister Prakash Javadekar said further 5,595 electrical buses have been sanctioned to various state/ city transport undertakings under Phase-II of the scheme. This involves government incentive of around ₹2,800 crore, he said.

"Under Phase-II of FAME India Scheme, 27,201 electric vehicles have been supported till 10.09.2020 by way of demand incentive amounting to about ₹95 crore," he said. He also said the department of heavy industry has also sanctioned 2,636 EV charging stations amounting to ₹500 crore in 62 cities across 24 states/UTs under FAME India (Faster Adoption and Manufacturing of Hybrid and Electric Vehicles in India) scheme phase II.

Customers of lithium batteries exiting Chinese products: Exide

INDIA'S LARGEST STORAGE battery maker Exide Industries (EIL) on Tuesday said the coronavirus pandemic had provided a major opportunity for the company, which has been witnessing renewed interests from many original equipment manufacturers as customers of lithium-ion batteries are no longer looking for Chinese products.

Eyeing India's electric vehicle (EV) market, Exide had formed a joint venture with Switzerland-based Leclanché SA in a 75:25 ratio in June 2018. Production plant of the JV company, Exide Leclanche Energy, is in Gujarat, where six production lines have been ordered for battery pack assembly for cylindrical, prismatic and pouch cells.

The above financial results were reviewed and recommended by the Audit Committee and approved by the Board of Directors at the meeting held on September 15, 2020. The Statutory Auditor have carried out a limited review of the aforesaid financial results as required under Regulation 33 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 as amended.
The Financial Results of the Company has been prepared in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards (IND AS) notified under the Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 as amended by the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) (Amendment) Rules, 2016 and other accounting principles generally accepted in India.
As a result of the nationwide lockdown imposed by the Government of India (GOI) due to outbreak of Covid-19 Pandemic, the business operations of the Company were temporarily disrupted at its various trading and distribution locations impacting production and sales from the second half of March 2020. Since then, the operations have been gradually resuming in line with the GOI directives issued in this regard. The Company has informed the impact of Covid-19 to the stock exchanges from time to time. The management has considered the possible effects that may result from the pandemic on the recoverability/carrying value of its assets which does not have any significant impact on carrying value of its assets. The impact of Covid-19 on the Company's financial statements in future may differ from that estimated as at the date of approval of these financial results.

Maha farmers seek removal of ban on onion exports

NANDA KASABE
Pune, September 15

A DAY AFTER the Centre banned exports of onions to contain a spike in domestic prices, farmers in the largest agriculture producing state of Maharashtra, held agitations, calling the move "arbitrary" and seeking the removal of the restriction. Before the move, prices of the kitchen bulb in Lasalgaon, the country's biggest onion market in Maharashtra, had doubled to ₹3,000 per quintal since March.

Farmers from Lasalgaon, Nasik, Ahmednagar, Akola, Solapur and Pabhani, among others, blocked state highways. They complained that the sudden decision of the government would drag down their returns just after they started to get better prices for their produce.

The surge in prices, which forced the centre to ban onion exports, was caused by the massive destruction of crops due to moisture during heavy monsoon downpours. Heavy rains washed away the crop in states, including Karnataka, Madhya Pradesh and Gujarat.

NCP president Sharad Pawar said he has discussed the issue with commerce minister Piyush Goyal and urged him to rethink it. "The ban jeopardizes India's export share in the onion markets of Gulf countries, Sri Lanka and Bangladesh," Pawar said in a tweet, adding that it could allow other countries, such as Pakistan, to displace India.

Noted agricultural economist Ashok Gulati said: "Onion export ban reflects the typical urban consumer bias in the minds of our bureaucrats and policymakers. This is an anti-farmer policy. How a prime minister that wants to double farmers income agree to such a policy? When onion prices collapse to ₹5/kg, no one comes to support. But when prices go to ₹30/kg, all hell breaks loose to pull the prices down. The August price inflation for onion is minus 4% and the country is putting export ban!! If the crop is damaged due to floods, the Centre should start importing."

Anil Ghanwat, president, Shetkari Sanghatana, said the decision is irrational. "Nothing happened all these months when onion prices were ₹1,500 per quintal and the day prices at Lasalgaon touched ₹3,000 per quintal, a ban was put in place. Such arbitrary decisions will surely bring down the government," Ghanwat warned, adding that farmer protests in the state will continue until the government rolls back the ban.

"Containers have been stopped at JNPT port and hundreds of trucks have been stopped at the Bangladesh border. This has hit onion prices which have dropped to ₹2,000 per quintal within a day which means losses for farmers again," he pointed out. According to onion traders in Nashik, around 450 containers are at JNPT port.

All India Kisan Sabha general secretary Ajit Navale, said the ban not only deceives onion growers from Maharashtra but across the country. "Farmers are angry with this decision and have decided to protest by coming out on roads," he warned, alleging that the decision was taken because of the upcoming Bihar elections as high onion price are undesirable for any government seeking re-election.

Trade war: US tariffs on $200-bn China goods illegal: WTO

But the US government can appeal the decision announced by the WTO's dispute settlement body, and the WTO's appeals court is currently no longer functioning — largely because of Washington's single-handed refusal to accept new members for it. The US tariffs target two batches of Chinese products. Duties of 10% were imposed on some $200 billion worth of goods in September 2018, and were jacked up to 25% eight months later. An additional 25% duties were imposed in June 2018 against Chinese goods worth about $34 billion in annual trade.

The administration has justified the sanctions under Section 301 of the Trade Act of 1974, a common tool used by the government to impose sanctions. The US argued that China's actions had amounted to "state-sanctioned theft" and "misappropriation" of U.S. technology, intellectual property and commercial secrets.

The WTO panel ruled that the US measures violated long-standing international trade rules because they only applied to products from China, and that Washington had not adequately substantiated its claim that the Chinese products hit with the extra duties had benefited from the allegedly unfair Chinese practices. — AP

Investments in start-ups: House panel for two-year LTCG tax removal

Similarly, 33 Series B deals worth $320 million were concluded in the April-July period, against 42 such deals worth $485 million in December to March. The number of series C investments remained almost flat at 22, but deal values dipped from $362 million to $338 million in the April to July period.

Replacing the LTCG with the STT will make the taxation system fairer, less cumbersome, and transparent, the panel said. It will also ensure that investments in unlisted securities are on a par with investments in listed securities.

The panel endorsed the industry's view that capital gains on AIF returns should be calculated after setting off management fees. Additionally, asset management services provided to foreign investors should be treated as an export service and should not be subjected to the GST. "This would also encourage the growth of the asset management industry in the country instead of fostering the current scenario, where funds are being pooled offshore and not within the country," the report said.

The panel also suggested that tax exemption for income on investment made in only infrastructure projects should be extended to all sectors. The Finance Act 2020 has given this exemption for investment made before March 31, 2024.

"Given that the Indian economy is reeling under the Covid-19 crisis and various sectors need capital to recover, the committee recommended that the exemption for income on investments made before March 31, 2024, subject to the investment being held for a period of at least 36 months as incentivised in the Finance Act, 2020, should be provided to long-term and patient capital invested across all sectors," it said.

To arrive at the correct valuation of start-ups, which has caused frequent frictions between promoters and the income tax department, the panel has suggested that an expert committee be set up to establish a framework for this. The I-T department had sought to tax share sale of these companies based on conventional methods of calculating fair market value while the promoters have argued that these businesses are valued more on their future potential than current cash flow considerations.

Following several complaints, the government, in a breather to start-ups, had in February 2019 raised the cap of funding by unlisted firms or individuals in a start-up that would be exempted from the so-called angel tax to ₹25 crore from ₹10 crore and also relaxed a clutch of rules to ease investment flow into such entities. Investments by listed companies having a net worth above ₹100 crore or annual turnover of ₹250 crore will be exempted from any such limit, which will enable them to invest more without fears of the angel tax.

The angel tax is typically an impost on the extra capital raised by an unlisted firm through the issue of shares over and above their fair market value. According to Section 56(2)(viib) of the I-T Act, the excess capital so raised is treated as income and taxed accordingly. While the section was aimed at curbing money laundering, it had troubled start-ups and their investors.

"Under the current environment, given that the businesses are stressed for liquidity and valuations of businesses have softened, there is a need to adopt a more pragmatic approach on applying fair market value principles in transactions between independent parties," the report said.

It added that the pricing guidelines prescribed under the various laws and regulations by Sebi, Income Tax Act, Companies Act, Foreign Exchange Management Act (Fema) should be made more consistent to provide a certain, coherent and simple framework for facilitating large-scale investments in India.

It's been a dull April-June quarter for India's internet consumer companies with just $480 million of capital coming in; that's a fall of 60% over the $1.27 billion seen in the June, 2019 quarter. Data sourced from researcher Tracxn showed the amount is also considerably lower than the over $2 billion that companies raised in the March quarter.

'Be self-reliant, ease curbs on AIFs to boost start-up funding'

- Japan's SoftBank has investments in nine of these unicorns, while the US' Tiger Global has invested in five
- Recently, Tiger Global also invested in Zomato, while Byju's secured funding from US-based Bond

Japanese investor SoftBank has investments in nine of these unicorns, while the US' Tiger Global has invested in five. Recently, Tiger Global also invested in food delivery start-up Zomato, while Byju's secured funding from US-based Bond.

The committee, chaired by former minister of state for finance Jayant Sinha, held that Small Industries Development Bank of India's (Sidbi) fund-of-funds vehicle be expanded and fully utilised to play an anchor investment role. Similarly, major banks should join hands to float a fund-of-funds and their exposure limits to start-ups need to be enhanced. Banks should also be allowed to invest in Category-III alternate investment funds (AIF).

Large financial institutions in India should also be encouraged to channelise a proportion of their investible surplus into domestic funds, which would bring in additional local capital for startup investments, the panel said.

For this purpose, the Pension Fund Regulatory and Development Authority (PFRDA) and the National Pension Scheme (NPS) may invite bids from professional fund managers for running a fund-of-funds programme. SIDBI would be eligible to participate as well.

"Further, the removal of restrictions such as the minimum corpus of AIF being an eligibility criteria for pension fund investment and requirement to invest only in listed AIFs, would considerably ease roadblocks for investment by NPS in AIFs," the report said. Pension funds can start by allocating small percentage of their corpus into AIFs and then gradually increase it as they gain more experience, the panel suggested.

Even the insurance regulator should give insurance companies the latitude to invest in fund-of-funds. Further, investments by insurance companies in AIFs must be carved out under a separate category while calculating the applicable exposure limits and must not be clubbed with other investments under 'unapproved investments', the panel said.

Foreign development finance institutions may also be encouraged to participate with local asset management companies to set up fund-of-funds structure or direct venture capital/private equity funds, particularly in social impact, healthcare and venture/start-up sectors.

Reverse migrant workers: Nabard to begin short-term skill development scheme

FE BUREAU
Kolkata, September 15

NATIONAL BANK FOR Agriculture And Rural Development (Nabard) will soon start a short-term skill development programme for reverse migrants that will help them to get re-employed at the earliest. The board has initially sanctioned programmes for Uttar Pradesh, Bihar and Jharkhand.

CU Bhaskar, Nabard's chief general manager in Mumbai told Financial Express the programme would be implemented on a large scale and majority of the funding would be done by Nabard.

"But the entire process would be complicated since it would involve identifying efficient skill development centres and the real needy, who would require training to get back to work. The details of the programme are yet to be worked out," Bhaskar said.

Subrata Mandal, Nabard's chief general manager in Kolkata said, they will roll out this programme through the lead bank scheme, that will bring into its folds Rural Self Employment Training Institutes to carry out the short term skill development programmes.

Nabard has also tied up with various CSR initiatives who will participate in the skill development initiative and do part-funding of the programme

"An individual bank that functions as lead bank for a district and has a wide network of branches with adequate financial and manpower resources will be entrusted to spearhead the programme, although the entire funding would be done by Nabard," Mandal said.

Nabard has also tied up with various CSR initiatives like that of the Tata Trust, Ambuja Cement, Dalmia Cement, ACC Cement and others who will participate in the skill development initiative and do a part-funding of the scheme.

Free ration distributed to 2.67-cr migrants per month in May, June: Govt

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, September 15

FREE RATION WAS distributed to 2.67 crore migrant workers per month in May and June against the target of 8 crore under the Atmanirbhar Bharat package announced following the Covid-19 outbreak, Parliament was informed on Tuesday.

Under the scheme, 5 kg foodgrains per person and 1 kg pulses per household was to be distributed for free to 8 crore migrants who neither have a central or state ration card. Initially, the scheme was for two months (May to June). Later, it was extended till August.

"Until August 31, about 2.67 lakh tonnes (provisional) of foodgrains have been distributed under the scheme to about 2.67 crore persons (i.e. 94.6% of estimated beneficiaries by States/UTs) per month for the months of May and June," Minister of State for Food and Consumer Affairs Danve Raosaheb Dadarao said.

The minister, in a written reply in the Lok Sabha, further said the Centre had liberally allocated foodgrains to cover maximum migrants/stranded migrants.

Tencent picks Singapore as Asia hub after India, US bans

BLOOMBERG
Singapore, September 15

TENCENT HOLDINGS HAS picked Singapore as its beachhead for Asia, joining rivals Alibaba Group Holding and ByteDance in the race to build up their presence closer to home after setbacks in the US and India.

Management at China's largest social media and gaming company had been discussing Singapore as a potential regional hub and geopolitical tensions accelerated its plans, according to people familiar with the matter. Tencent has been considering the shift of some business operations — including international game publishing — out of its home country, according to the people, who asked not to be identified discussing private deliberations.

China's tech behemoths are increasingly turning to Southeast Asia in the face of growing hostility from the U.S. and other major markets, setting up the region — with its 650 million increasingly smartphone-savvy population — as a key battleground. President Donald Trump has banned US entities from dealing with Tencent's super-app WeChat from September 20, while the company's hit games PUBG Mobile and Arena of Valor are banned in India.

Tencent said in a statement that it will open a new office in Singapore to "support our growing business in Southeast Asia and beyond," in addition to current ones in Malaysia, Indonesia and Thailand. It's recruiting for various positions including tech and business development, the company said, without offering details. Tencent currently has dozens of job openings in Singapore for businesses including cross-border commerce, cloud computing and esports, according to its hiring site.

Singapore in particular is attracting attention as a regional base for both Western and Chinese corporations because of its advanced financial and legal system, and as Beijing tightens its grip on the city of Hong Kong. The city-state of under 6 million people has been careful not to take sides in the standoff between the world's two superpowers, with Prime Minister Lee Hsien Loong pledging last year to remain "good friends" with both the US and China.

TikTok's owner ByteDance is planning to spend several billion dollars and add hundreds of jobs in Singapore over the next three years, Bloomberg News reported last week. It has also applied for a digital-bank license from the city-state's central bank, alongside Alibaba-backed Ant Group and Tencent-backed Sea.

Alibaba has splashed out $4 billion to take full control of Singapore-based regional e-commerce platform Lazada, which aims to serve 300 million people in Southeast Asia by 2030. In May, Alibaba struck a deal to buy half of Singapore's AXA Tower, valued at around $1.2 billion, underscoring its ambition to expand in the market. China's largest corporation is in talks to invest $3 billion into Singapore-based ride-hailing giant Grab Holdings, Bloomberg News reported on Monday.

Tencent thus far has had a smaller footprint in Southeast Asia. The online entertainment juggernaut is largely run from its Shenzhen headquarters, though some global products in areas like music and video streaming operate in Hong Kong, where President Martin Lau is based. The company says it stores some user data in Singapore.

1) The above results have been reviewed by the Audit Committee and approved by the Board of Directors at their respective meetings held on September14, 2020 and have been subjected to Limited Review by the Statutory Auditors.

Due to outbreak of Covid-19 a Nationwide Lockdown was been imposed by the Government of India vide MHA Order w.e.f. 23rd March and thereafter it was only during mid of May 2020it had granted permission to certain extent to run the factory. Since the Lockdown period all our business operation remained on standstill and was disrupted till mid of May 2020. Due to outbreak of Covid-19, many workers have migrant from Bangalore to other states. Hence due to such migration the Company had to face the shortage of workers for the operation of factory.

2) As per Government (Ministry HomeAffairs) MHA Guidelines, the Government had allowed to operate the Factory with all Safety and Security measuresto fight against the Covid-19. Hence, companystarted our operation at our Factory with 50% of its previous capacity only. The safety of employees whoare now required to step out for work is being ensured and they have been mandatedto use protective gear and takeall safety precautions.

However, company was notable to operate as its full extent to meet its minimum operating cost. Due to loss of Income/Sale and negative cash flow it became very difficult for the company to operate and to manage even the minimum operational cost. However, Company expects to receive carrying amount fall its assets including trade receivables, inventory and advances in ordinary course of business.

However, Considering the fact that the situation is exceptional and is changing dynamically, the Company is not in a position to gauge with certainty, the future impact on its operations. Company is sure that demand in garments will take some time certainly for pick up. In spite of many challenges of Covid-19 situation, we are expecting new opportunity in protective apparel and textile industry to overcome the situation.

3) The Company has incurred losses of Rs. 1,465.17 lakhs (before other comprehensive income) for the quarter ended June 30, 2020 (quarter ended June 30, 2019 - Rs. 1,477.73 lakhs). The accumulated losses exceed its paid up capital and other equity as on June 30, 2020. These conditions indicate the existence of a material uncertainty that may cast significant doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern and, therefore it may be unable to realise its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business. The Management is currently implementing a plan to increase turnover, improve profitability and financial position and has assessed that it will be able to meet the working capital requirements for the next 12 months. The Holding company has confirmed financial support to the Company to continue as a going concern. The Company is therefore being viewed as a going concern and the financial results have been prepared under the going concern assumption.

4) The Company has only one reportable segment i.e. Garments.

5) For the quarter ended June 30, 2020, the application of Ind AS 115 has resulted in the Finance costs being higher by Rs. 1,098.83 lakhs (Quarter ending March'20- Rs. 1,018.95 lakhs) and loss after tax being higher by a similar amount vis-a-vis the amounts if the replaced standard was applicable. The basic and diluted EPS would be Rs. (0.76) as against Rs. (3.05).

1 The above is an extract of the detailed format of the Unaudited Standalone and Consolidated Financial Results for the quarter ended on 30th June, 2020 filed with the Stock Exchanges under Regulation 33 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015. The full format of the aforesaid Results for the quarter ended on 30th June, 2020 are available on the websites of the National Stock Exchange of India Limited (www.nseindia.com), BSE Limited (www.bseindia.com) and also on the Company's website (www.jaypeeinfratech.com).

2 The Standalone Results of the Company comprise of only one segment i.e. Yamuna Expressway Project, an integrated and indivisible project which inter-alia includes construction, operation and maintenance of Yamuna Expressway and rights for land development of 25 million sq. mtrs. along the expressway.

3 The Corporate Insolvency Resolution Process (CIRP) that was initiated against the Company on 09.08.2017 has since been concluded with approval of Resolution plan of NBCC (India) Limited (with certain modifications) by NCLT, Principal Bench, New Delhi vide its order dated 03.03.2020. The Successful Resolution Applicant (NBCC) preferred to file an appeal before the Hon'ble National Company Law Appellate Tribunal ("NCLAT") against the Hon'ble NCLT order dated 03.03.2020 against certain modifications made to its Resolution Plan. Hon'ble NCLAT in its order dated 22.04.2020 has inter alia stated that the approved Resolution Plan may be implemented with constituting a Interim Monitoring Committee (IMC). The Interim Resolution Professional (IRP) constituted an 'Interim Monitoring Committee (IMC)' "comprising of the 'Successful Resolution Applicant', i.e the Appellant and the three major Institutional Financial Creditors i.e IDBI bank Ltd., IIFCL and LIC" pursuant to the directions of Hon'ble NCLAT, till the disposal of above appeal to manage the affairs of the company.

However, the Resolution Plan of Successful Resolution Applicant (RA) though approved is not being implemented since the RA is of the view that Hon'ble NCLAT order dated 22.04.2020 is not a direction to implement the Resolution Plan & the implementation shall take place post finalization of the appeals before Hon'ble Appellate Tribunal and / or Hon'ble Supreme Court of India. Hon'ble Supreme Court in the Civil Appeal Diary No 14741/2020 between Jaypee Kensington Boulevard Apartments Welfare Association & Ors Vs NBCC (India) Ltd & Ors vide its order dated 06.08.2020 has transferred all the pending appeals/cases bearing Nos. 486, 488, 475, 478, 480, 489, 506, 547, 544 and 630 of 2020 with NCLAT to itself i.e. to Supreme Court to avoid further delay in execution of scheme. Further, it has stayed the order of Hon'ble NCLAT dated 22.04.2020 till further order and in the meanwhile Hon'ble Supreme Court has ordered the IRP to manage the affairs of the company. Directions were again passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India vide its order dated 10.09.2020 that since the entire resolution plan is pending consideration in these proceedings before this Court, it is appropriate that no coercive action be taken by any person/authority against the Company until further orders on the principle underlying Section 14 of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016. The arguments of the main proceedings are inconclusive. Accordingly, the operations of the company are managed on going concern basis.

4 The total income from operations is inclusive of revenue from real estate (netted off delay rebate). During the quarter ended on June 30, 2020, revenue from real estate is ₹ NIL. Consequent upon approval of Resolution plan of NBCC by committee of creditors (COC) on 17.12.2019, the delay rebate is not being appropriated /adjusted while raising demand to customers from January 2020 onwards. Since then though the company is not providing delay rebate to customers , as a matter of prudence, a provision has been made in the Books of account for the quarter ended 31.03.2020.

5 As the power of Board of Directors have been suspended, the above result have not been adopted by the Board of Directors. However, the same have been signed by Shri Prem Pal Singh, Vice President (F&A) of the Company confirming accuracy & completeness of result. These financial results have been thereafter taken on record by the IRP on September 14, 2020 for filing with the stock exchanges.

6 The Company has disclosed outstanding loans and interest in financial statements as per balances appearing in its Books of Accounts as per agreements with respective banks/financial institutions. Finance Cost is inclusive of Interest on debt for the quarter ending June 30, 2020 aggregating to ₹ 48047 Lakh (Cumulative ₹ 464180 Lakh as at June 30, 2020), which shall be restated on implementation of the Resolution Plan by the Successful Resolution Applicant.

7 The Company reviewed the deferred tax assets/ liabilities on temporary differences between the tax base of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purpose at reporting date. However, since the Company was under CIRP, there is virtual uncertainty of taxable profits in near future and availability of deferred tax assets to be set off. Accordingly, the deferred tax (net assets) for the reporting period i.e. April 1, 2020 to June 30, 2020 have not been considered.

8 The privately placed listed Non Convertible Debentures aggregating to ₹ 21195 Lakh as on 30th June 2020 are secured by way of exclusive charge /mortgage on 124.73 acres of land situated at Land parcel 4 i.e. Tappal, Dist. Aligarh, Uttar Pradesh.

9 The outbreak of corona virus (COVID-19) pandemic globally and in India is causing significant disturbance and slowdown of economic activity. Due to the lockdown announced by the Government, the Company's operations were suspended/slowed down for most part of the current quarter and accordingly financial results for the quarter ended June 30, 2020 have been adversely impacted and are therefore not comparable with those for the previous quarters. The operations and economic activities have gradually resumed with requisite precautions.

10 The figures for the quarters ended 31st March,2020 represents the balancing figures between the audited figures for the full financial year and published year to date figures up to third quarter of the said financial year.

11 The previous quarters/ year figures have been reworked/regrouped/rearranged wherever necessary to conform with those of current quarter/ year.
