Elections are being held for 19 ward member posts and 3 Sarpanch posts in Marripadu, Chejerla and Udayagiri mandals in Nellore district and 169 vice Sarpanch posts in Prakasam district on Monday.

The elections were postponed in the past due to various reasons including court cases and withdrawal of all nominations.

According to the district collector of SPSR Nellore district, KVN Chakradhar Babu, 82.6 percent of polling was recorded till 3.30 pm.

Chejarla Mandal recorded 90 pc polling among the three Mandals. Collector visited the polling booths at Vavileru, Mypativari Kandriga of Chejarla Mandal, and asked the officials to complete the counting process by 8 pm.

Collector said they had conducted polls that were postponed due to court disputes and other issues. They had deployed Police, Red Cross, and others for smooth conduct of the polls.

In the case of Prakasam district, Vice Sarpanch elections are being conducted in 119 Gram Panchayats on Monday as the election could not be held due to lack of quorum in the past. Similarly, polling being conducted for 3 wards.

Venkatagiri legislator Anam Ramanarayana Reddy said that the Telugu Desam chapter is closed in SPSR Nellore district while pointing to the spectacular victory in all the civic bodies of Nellore district.

Speaking to media persons at his residence on Monday, he claimed they had created history in Venkatagiri by bagging all the 25 ward member posts in the municipal election.

He attributed the outstanding performance of YSRC in the municipal elections to their welfare schemes, the confidence of people in YSRC and the leadership of Chief Minister Y.S. Jagan Mohan Reddy.

Sarvepalli legislator Kakani Govardhan Reddy and former Chairman of Central Cooperative Bank Mettukuri Dhanunjaya Reddy were also present.

VISAKHAPATNAM, MARCH 15

The official spokesperson and Anakapalli MLA Gudivada Amarnath said the former chief minister and TD national president Chandrababu Naidu and his son Lokesh should take political sanyas owing to his defeat in the municipal elections.

Addressing a press conference in the party office in Visakhapatnam on Monday, Amarnath said Naidu has no face to meet the people of Andhra Pradesh for the kind of defeat he faced in the elections.

He said the people realised that TD did nothing for the state under the leadership of Chandrababu Naidu and hence put immense faith in chief minister Y.S. Jagan Mohan Reddy. They have seen what Jagan Mohan Reddy did in the last 21 months, he said.

"During his two-day campaign, he only mentioned about the service he did to the people in Visakhapatnam after the Hudhud super cyclone but failed to mention about his efforts to develop the city," Amarnath said.

Tadipatri politics took several twists and turns on Monday following the rejection of a representation of TD MLC Deepak Reddy and three YSRC MLCs — Shamanthakamani, Md. Iqbal and V. Gopal Reddy to avail the ex officio votes in the chairman and vice chairman polls.

Tadipatri municipal commissioner Narasimha Reddy said they were rejected as they did not have local votes when they were elected as MLCs. The ex-officio votes will play a key role for YSRC in Tadipatri municipality where Telugu Desam won the maximum number of will have a total of 20 voters while YSRC has only 18 votes including that of the local MLA and MP.

Deepak Reddy sought the municipal authorities to recognise him as an ex-officio member. Similarly, YSRC leadership planned to increase its number where upon three MLCs from different parts of the district sought being considered as members.

The municipal commissioner rejected the four after reviewing Section 4 (A), Subsection (2), (5) of the Act of municipal elections.

Meanwhile, suspecting that pressure was likely to be mounted by YSRC on the newly elected ward councillors, TD leaders, J.C. Prabhakar Reddy and Anantapur Lok Sabha TD in-charge J.C. Pavan Reddy took all party councillors and the independent to other states. They will return on March 18 when elections for the chairman and vice-chairman are slated to be held, TD sources said.

YSRC leadership is making efforts to ensure that Prabhakar Reddy would not become municipal chairman of Tadipatri.

JS councillor goes missing from TD camp in MydukurDC CORRESPONDENT
KADAPA, MARCH 15

Politics is on an overdrive following declaration of results for Mydukur municipality in Kadapa district.

While Telugu Desam won 12 of total 24 civic body seats, its ally Jana Sena emerged victorious from one ward. Ruling YSRC Congress won 11 seats.

The hairline majority has led to TD and YSRC holding their councillors in separate camps. Opposition TD camp, however, suffered a jolt after the Jana Sena winner Vadanapalli Babu went missing after collecting his winning certificate from the 19th Ward on Sunday.

With his vote becoming crucial for the election of municipal chairperson, there is large-scale speculation about his whereabouts. But none knows where he is at the moment.

While this is so, Mahaboo Bee, who has been elected from the 6th Ward, left the TD camp on Sunday evening, reportedly after being permitted to do so by the party leadership.

However, Mydukur Telugu Desam in-charge Putta Sudhakar Yadav went on to allege that police had taken her away from their camp. Following this, her son complained to police

VERDICT GIVEN
BY PEOPLE: TDDC CORRESPONDENT
KADAPA, MARCH 15

Telugu Desam politburo member Reddeppagari Srinivasareddy (Vasu) said that they respected the verdict given by the people.

Speaking to the media in Kadapa on Monday, he alleged that the ruling party leaders arbitrarily intimidated TD candidates and voters.

He said the YSRC got only a technological victory, not a moral one.

He questioned why the voting percentage had not increased if all the people were satisfied with the YSRC rule.

that his mother is missing ever since she got elected as councillor. Police then tracked Mahaboo Bee and handed her over to her family. Since then, she is reported to be at the home of a senior ruling YSRC Congress leader.

With this development, the number of elected members belonging to TD has reached 11, the same as YSRC. Under the circumstances, if Mahaboo Bee is not present during the chairmanship election on March 18 and the JS winner too remains missing, the number of members of both YSRC and TD will be 11.

Then, ruling party's Kadapa MP Y. S. Avinash Reddy and Mydukur MLA S h e t t y p a l l i Raghuramireddy can cast their ex-officio votes and YSRC can take over the chairmanship with a two-vote lead.

It is learnt, the ruling party leaders are making efforts to attract additional TD councillors to their side.

It remains to be seen to what extent Telugu Desam is able to keep its flock together. If Jana Sena councillor supports the ruling party, then YSRC number will reach 14 and the latter's candidate will win the chairperson post. Even if Vadanapalli Babu supports TD, the opposition party will have only 12 members as Mahaboo Bee is still missing. Yet, if she too, along with Jana Sena candidate supports Telugu Desam, the opposition party's tally will be 13, equivalent to that of YSRC, inclusive of the latter's two ex-officio votes. The municipal chairperson will then be elected with a toss.

However, it appears the ruling party will not let the situation slip away from it. It has announced that Machanur Chandra will their candidate for the chairperson's post.

The AP Industrial and Infrastructure Corporation Limited (APIIC) chairperson and Nagari MLA R.K. Roja attributed credit to the welfare schemes initiated by Chief Minister Y.S. Jagan Mohan Reddy for the YSRC Congress registering thumping victory in the urban local body polls in the state.

The legislator took part in a programme held at the APIIC office at Mangalagiri on Monday.

Speaking on the occasion, APIIC chairman said that as the CM was initiating and implementing several welfare schemes irrespective of caste, religion and region, a large number of people supported their party nominees to get elected in the urban polls.

She turned critical on the Telugu Desam for making false allegations on their party for its victory.

The APIIC chairman said that the YSRC Congress rebels were taught a bitter lesson by the voters by rejecting them.

The ruling YSRC Congress secured a vote share of 52.63 per cent by polling 24.97 lakh votes while the opposition Telugu Desam got a vote share of 30.73 per cent, with a polling of 14.58 lakh votes in the ULB polls.

The Jana Sena secured a vote share of 4.67 per cent with 2.21 lakh votes polled in its favour while the BJP got a vote share of 2.41 per cent with 1.14 lakh votes polled for it.

Independents secured a vote share of 5.73 per cent and polled 2.71 lakh votes. The CPI, the CPI(M), the Congress, the BSP and other registered parties secured less than one per cent share of the total votes polled.

The NOTA option on the ballot paper registered a share of 1.07 per cent with 50,595 votes polled that way.

According to the SEC and municipal administration authorities, out of a total of 75,94,464 registered voters in all civic bodies, only 48,42,468 exercised their franchise. Some 96,273 votes were declared invalid. Only 47,46,195 votes were found valid for counting.

The election authorities said that 88 wards in eight municipal corporations saw unanimous elections, sans contest. So was the case with 490 wards in 51 municipalities/nagar panchayats in the state.

The SEC suspended the conduct of election at Ward 7 in Tirupati municipal corporation and also in Ward 8 at Addanki Nagar panchayat for want of contestants.

TIRUPATI MAYOR ELECTION ON MARCH 18

DC CORRESPONDENT
TIRUPATI, MARCH 18

The new Mayor and Deputy Mayor of the Municipal Corporation of Tirupati (MCT) will be elected on March 18. The office of the Mayor has been reserved for general category women, while the office of the Deputy Mayor has been unreserved.

In the 50-member house, the ruling YSR Congress enjoys a majority of 48 seats, while the opposition Telugu Desam Party has only one seat. The SEC has stopped polling for the 7th division, which is expected to go for polling very soon.

As the YSRC legislator Bhumana Karunakar Reddy promised the Mayor post to a BC woman, Dr Sirisha, who won the 27th division corporator seat, is doing rounds as the Mayoral candidate of the ruling party. As expected, the ruling party would field Bhumana Abhinay Reddy, son of local MLA BKR and YSRC youth wing leader, as the candidate for the office of Deputy Mayor.

Tight lobbying is also underway for the Mayoral post, as YSRC leader Anna Ramachandraiah Yadav is said to have been trying his best to get the post for his daughters, Dr Anna Anitha Yadav and Dr Anna Sandhya Yadav, who successfully contested from 48th and 49th divisions respectively. Party sources said that the final decision would be in the hands of MLA.

Meanwhile, the ruling party had secured 46 divisions out of 50 divisions in the Chittoor Municipal Corporation. Intense lobbying is underway for the Mayoral post. Party sources said that the tight competition is between the newly elected corporators – Sharmila Pyari, Poomani and Challa Muthu for the Mayoral post, while the office of Deputy Mayor will likely be going to Chandra Sekhar.

MIM DID BETTER THAN TD IN FEW WARDS

In the 15th municipal ward, the Telugu Desam candidate got just 140 votes and took the humiliating fourth place while the YSRC candidate got 874 votes, MIM 722 votes and the CPI 312 votes to take third place.

Interestingly, BJP candidate A. Anjali won from the 11th ward where she got 915 votes while the nearest rival, the YSRC candidate, got 783 votes, the MIM 255 votes and TD just 184 votes to take the fourth place. The TD had ruled the municipality in the last five years as also previously. The MIM proved its presence in all wards where candidates were fielded and won the 16th ward. There, the MIM candidate got 883 votes and the YSRC candidate 760 votes while TD got 143 votes to stay in the 3rd place and the CPI got 122 to remain at the 4th position in 16th ward.

Further, an independent candidate took second place in the first ward where the Telugu Desam was satisfied with the third place. The YSRC won the seat.

Similarly, TD stayed at the 3rd position with 244 votes in Ward 3 where the YSRC got 1145 votes and the MIM 303 votes. In the 5th ward, the Telugu Desam candidate couldn't compete with the YSRC. The YSRC got 1,160 votes and the MIM stood in second place with 716 votes.

Analyst L. Prasad observed the MIM has succeeded to poll for it the votes of TD dissidents. “We noticed a competition between YSRC and MIM in many wards, while TD fell below the mark,” he said.

YSRC leader Naveen Nischal claimed that his party's victory was due to the people's appreciation of the welfare schemes initiated by the CM.

DC CORRESPONDENT
TIRUPATI, MARCH 15

The Red Sanders Anti-Smuggling Task Force (RSASTF) sleuths arrested 14 smugglers, entering into the forests, abutting Panapakam and Ithepalle villages in Chittoor district on Monday.

Acting on a tip-off about the likely movement of outsiders in the Seshachalam forest area near these two villages, DSP Muralidhar alerted RSI Vasu and DRO Suresh and Narasimha Rao to take up a combing operation in the forest from Sunday night.

“The team encountered a group of 14 persons carrying essentials into the forests. The team swung into action and took them all into custody. During the interrogation, the group confessed to have been entering the forests to fell down the red sanders trees,” the DSP said.

All the 14 smugglers were the residents of Javvadimalai under the Jamuna Mathur area in Tamil Nadu's Tiruvannamalai district. RSASTF CI Subrahmanyam registered a case, and further probe is underway. The DSP informed that they had been deeply investigating the case to trace out the persons who deployed the TN-based smugglers into the forest.

He heaped praises on the RSASTF teams to arrest the smugglers before entering the deep forest and preventing them from axing red sanders. CIs Venkata Ravi and Chandrasekar RIs Vasu, Bhaskar, Suresh, Lingadhar and others were also present.

OPIUM POPPY CULTIVATION UNEARTHED BY SEB INMADANAPALLE, TWO ARRESTED

DC CORRESPONDENT
TIRUPATI, MARCH 15

Opium poppy cultivation was unearthed by the sleuths of the Special Enforcement Bureau (SEB) in the Madanapalle division in Chittoor district on Monday, leading to the seizure of plants and the arrest of two persons.

A natural substance taken from the seed pod of various opium poppy plants was used in production of heroin.

SEB SI Sridhar told the media persons that the accused B. Nagaraju of Kathavaripalle village was arrested for cultivating illicit opium poppy in his mango garden, situated between Kathavaripalle and Devalampalle villages in Madanapalli division.

Acting on a tip-off about the illegal cultivation of opium poppy, the SEB sleuths conducted surprise raids on the mango gardens belonging to Nagaraju. On seeing the sleuths, the owner of the crop deployed his men to destroy the crop with a tractor.

However, the sleuths prevented them. Later, the SEB sleuths seized four bags full of opium poppy and destroyed the entire crop.

ANTI-KAMAL NATH LEADER EXPELLED FROM CONGRESS

RABINDRA NATH CHOUDHURY | DC BHOPAL, MARCH 15

AICC member Manak Agrawal who has recently criticised head of Madhya Pradesh Congress Kamal Nath for inducting a “supporter” of Mahatma Gandhi’s assassin Nathuram Godse in the party, was on Monday expelled from Congress on charges of ‘anti-party activities’ and indiscipline.

The development has brought to the fore ‘growing rift’ between Nath and Congress veteran Digvijay Singh since Agrawal was considered staunch loyalist of the latter.

The disciplinary committee of Pradesh Congress Committee (PCC) which met here on Monday decided to expel Agrawal from the primary membership of the party for six years, a statement issued by PCC vice-president Chandrabhas Sekhar said.

Agrawal, however, cried foul saying that PCC was not empowered to take action against him since he was an AICC member.

He said he has done nothing wrong in disapproving party leadership’s decision to induct Godse’s supporter Babul Chourasia, a leader of Hindu Mahasabha, in Congress.

Congress spokesman here Narendra Singh Saluja however indicated that Agrawal was removed from the party for indulging in anti-party activities in the 2018 Assembly elections in MP.

BSP TO CONTEST ASSEMBLY POLLS IN 3 STATES, UT

Lucknow, March 15:

Bahujan Samaj Party supremo Mayawati on Monday asserted that her party will contest the Assembly elections in West Bengal, Tamil Nadu, Kerala and Puducherry on its own, saying the BSP has had a bitter experience of aligning with other parties in the past.

She also stated that her party will go alone in the Uttar Pradesh Assembly elections next year.

“We are working internally on the elections. We do not reveal our strategy. The BSP will contest on all the 403 Assembly seats in UP, and will perform well. The performance of the party will be good in the panchayat elections in Uttar Pradesh,” she told reporters at an event to pay tributes to BSP founder Kanshi Ram on his 87th birth anniversary.

The former Uttar Pradesh chief minister said her party has had a bitter experience of aligning with other parties in the past.

“The experience of our party forging an alliance with others has not been good. Our party leaders, workers and voters are highly disciplined. This is not the case with other parties of the country. In an alliance, our votes are transferred to the other party, but the votes of the other party are not transferred to us,” she said.

DHINAKARAN MOVES COURT IN AIADMK CASE

Chennai, March 15: AMMK leader T.T.V. Dhinakaran on Monday filed a memorandum before a city court, where a case challenging the resolutions adopted at the general council meeting of the AIADMK in September 2017 was pending, to detach him from the case.

Recording the same, the judge A.R.V. Ravi adjourned the matter to April 9 with a direction to the original petitioner, late chief minister J. Jayalalithaa’s confidante V.K. Sasikala, to inform the court of her stand on the issue.

The 2017 general council had expelled Sasikala and Dhinakaran as the party’s interim general secretary and deputy general secretary, months after she was convicted in a disproportionate assets case and then rival leaders, Chief Minister K. Palaniswami and his current deputy O. Panneerselvam, merging their led respective factions.

Originally, Sasikala moved the Madras High Court to declare the resolutions adopted at the general council meeting as null and void.

She also sought the court to declare Palaniswami, Panneerselvam, minister Dindigul C. Srinivasan and senior leaders S. Semmalai and E. Madhusudhanan as not members of the AIADMK.

‘Titans’ of TN politics file nominations

Palaniswami, Stalin, Dhinakaran, Kamal Haasan were among the many candidates who filed papers

DC CORRESPONDENT CHENNAI, MARCH 15

The heavy rush for filing of nominations on Monday, an auspicious day in the Hindu calendar, saw more than 100 candidates for the April 6 Assembly elections submitting their papers with their respective returning officers across the state, including all the Chief Ministerial candidates.

Chief Minister Edappadi K. Palaniswami (Edapadi), DMK president M.K. Stalin (Kolathur), AMMK general secretary T.T.V. Dhinakaran (Kovilpatti), Naam Thamizhar Katchi founder Seeman (Thiruvottiyur) and Makkal Neethi Maiaim president Kamal Haasan (Coimbatore South) were among the hordes of candidates who filed their papers.

Udhayanidhi Stalin, BJP national women’s wing president Vanathi Seenivasan also did not miss on the auspicious day.

Soon after filing his nomination to contest from Kolathur constituency in Chennai, Stalin left for Thiruvavur to launch his campaign from the birth place of his father the late M. Karunanidhi. He took a chartered flight to Trichy to reach Thiruvavur.

Kamal Haasan, too, took a chartered flight to Coimbatore from Chennai, where he landed in the morning by a helicopter. He had boarded the helicopter from Kanchipuram, where he had stayed overnight after a campaign drive. Haasan’s helicopter landed at 11.30 am in Chennai and the flight to Coimbatore took off at 12.00 noon.

Shah mocks Didi’s campaign in wheelchair

RAJIB CHOWDHURI | DC KOLKATA, MARCH 15

Rubbing salt into the wounds of West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee, Union home minister Amit Shah on Monday raised doubts on her claim that she was attacked as part of a conspiracy and teased the injured Trinamul supremo for resuming her poll campaign in a wheelchair and then wished her a quick recovery.

Shah, however, cancelled his attendance in person at the first of his two campaign rallies for the BJP candidates in the first phase of polls on March 27, blaming a snag in his helicopter in wake of a miserable turnout in Jhargram and addressed it virtually.

Mocking the CM in his second rally at Ranibandh in Bankura he said, “I apologise to you for my delay in reaching here. My helicopter developed a glitch. But I am not going to complain that there was a conspiracy in it. The helicopter malfunctions sometimes.”

He added, “I have seen Mamata suffered leg injuries. Didn’t you see it? How she got injured is yet to be ascertained. A probe is underway. TMC is crying of a ‘big conspiracy’ to leave her injured. But the EC has already called it an accident, not an attack. God knows who is speaking the truth.”

He also wondered, “Didi, you have got hurt and sad and you have started roaming around in a wheelchair. I want to ask her if she knows the pain of our 130 party workers who were killed in her politics of violence or not while she feels the pain of her leg injury? Weren’t the victims someone’s father or son or brother or husband? Didn’t they feel pain while dying? People of Bengal will give her their reply in votes this time. I pray to God for your quick recovery. But it would have been better if you felt pain for the 130 slain.”

Didi calls PM ‘incompetent’

RAJIB CHOWDHURI | DC KOLKATA, MARCH 15

Calling Prime Minister Narendra Modi “total incompetent” in running the country, West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee on Monday, in a veiled threat to the BJP, declared from her wheelchair with a plaster on her left leg for ankle fracture and feet injury that she would see how the saffron party’s workers could walk on their legs around in the state after the Assembly Election.

“Except defaming, BJP can not do anything. Their PM is total incompetent. He can not even run the country. An autocratic government is run at the Centre. It allows no one to speak out. There is neither any democracy nor justice to the people. Media is raided while civil society face atrocities if they speak against it. There are attempts to throttle politicians like us who raise our voice,” she told a TMC rally in Baghmundi in Purulia, one of the Jangalmahal districts going to the polls in the first phase on March 27.

Targeting the BJP over her leg injuries the Trinamul Congress supremo said, “Please wait for a few more days. How long can you leave me with a broken leg? Both of my legs will survive. But I will see in the coming days how your legs can walk on the soil of Bengal.” Countering Amit Shah’s doubt on her claim of an “attack in a conspiracy” behind her injury and his mockery of her poll campaign in a wheelchair, Ms Banerjee thanked her luck for her survival during the incident she had faced in Nandigram on March 10 to swing the public mood to her favour.

“I survived somehow fortunately that day. Many thought while I would not be able to step out of home with a broken leg, they would go on looting votes in the polls. During an election I decided to go out because I feel though I have pain across my body, people suffer from a greater pain than mine,” she added.

MLA Debashree Roy quits TMC

RAJIB CHOWDHURI | DC KOLKATA, MARCH 15

The Trinamul Congress continues to bleed with desertions as another heavyweight MLA, Debashree Roy, on Monday quit the party while keeping the door ajar for her switch to the BJP at a time the saffron party is also hit by a revolt within over distribution of tickets to TMC turncoats.

Sending her resignation letter to TMC president Subrata Bakshi, the two-time legislator from

● THE ACTOR-TURNED-POLITICIAN’S exit from the TMC came a day after former Kolkata Mayor and TMC turncoat Sovan Chatterjee quit the BJP.

Raidighi in South 24 Parganas later alleged, “I had many complaints which were ignored. So I quit. If the BJP approaches me, I will look into the possibility.”

The actor-turned-politician’s exit from the TMC came a day after former Kolkata Mayor and TMC turncoat Sovan

Chatterjee, whom she was earlier very close to, quit the BJP along with his close friend Baishakhi Banerjee for not getting a ticket.

In fact, Roy tried to enter the BJP when Chatterjee and Baishakhi went to join it in August of 2019. But her chance diminished as Chatterjee, prompted by Baishakhi, strongly objected to her induction to the BJP and made it clear to the saffron party that they would not join if Roy was inducted.

During the day the BJP workers laid a siege at their election office in Hastings of South Kolkata protesting against the distribution of tickets to TMC turncoats Rajib Banerjee at Domjur and his aide Mohit Ghatai at Panchla. They broke barricades and demonstrated in front of BJP vice-president Mukul Roy and Barrackpore MP Arjun Singh.

At Uttarpara in Hooghly where another TMC turncoat Prabir Ghoshal got a ticket, BJP supporters circulated posters against him.

HM OFFERS TEAM OF SPECIALISED COMMANDOS TO PROTECT MAMATA

DC CORRESPONDENT NEW DELHI, MARCH 15

Home ministry has offered a team of specialised commandos from central forces for protecting Mamata Banerjee. Sources said Election Commission and home ministry discussed the issue of alleged attack on Mamata in a meeting last week during which the Ministry made the offer.

Mamata Banerjee was injured during a roadshow in Nandigram last Wednesday but she had alleged that a group of some unidentified men had attacked her. However, the Election Commission had ruled out this in a detailed report on Sunday saying this was a mere accident.

Sources said during the discussion home ministry offered that in case Election Commission wants to deploy a team of “specialised and professional commandos from central para-military forces” can be deployed to protect the Chief Minister of West Bengal.

Central forces like CRPF, CISF and ITBP were providing Z and Y category security cover to a number of BJP leaders in Bengal. The same facility, sources added, was offered by the home ministry to Mamata Banerjee if Election Commission gives the directions.

Following the incident involving Mamata Banerjee the Election Commission of India had transferred three senior IPS officers, including one involved with managing her security.

CONGRESS WILL DESTROY INDIA, SAYS SHIVRAJ

MANOJ ANAND | DC GUWAHATI, MARCH 15

Bogged down by growing polarisation of Muslim votes, the BJP leaders have launched a frontal attack on Congress party accusing them of following the “footsteps of Jinnah” instead of Mahatma Gandhi in the ensuing Assam Assembly polls.

Madhya Pradesh Chief Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan who addressed three rallies in Upper Assam on Monday said, “Congress is not following in Mahatma Gandhi’s footsteps. Congress and Rahul Gandhi are following in Jinnah’s footsteps. And Jinnah’s steps will destroy Assam and India.”

Referring to the Congress alliance with AIUDF in Assam, Chauhan while addressing a public rally at Naharkatia in Dibrugarh district said, “Congress has allied with Badruddin Ajmal, who has filled Assam with infiltration... He has a perfume business, but is spreading poison in the society... If ‘naagraj’ and ‘saapraj’ ally, then Assam cannot be developed.”

LATHIKA MAY CONTEST AS INDEPENDENT

Thiruvananthapuram, March 15: Former Mahila Congress president in Kerala Lathika Subhash, who resigned from the post and tanned her head hurt over the denial of election ticket, on Monday said she would take a “decisive decision” about her political future this evening.

Her statement comes amidst widespread speculation that she would contest as an independent candidate from Ettumanoor, her hometown, in the April 6 Assembly polls.

“I will make a decisive decision about my future plan this evening. I am discussing it with my supporters and well-wishers. I cannot say anything about it right now,” Subhash said.

Sources close to her said the woman leader was likely to resign from her primary membership in the Congress party to contest from Ettumanoor constituency, the seat from where she had been keen to contest on the party ticket in the upcoming elections. — PTI

Twitter reveals plan to tackle poll-related ‘talk’

New Delhi, March 15: Ahead of Assembly elections, Twitter on Monday announced a slew of initiatives in a bid to protect public conversation and tackle poll-related misinformation.

Announcing the multi-lingual initiatives, the microblogging platform pledged its commitment to “facilitating meaningful political debate, driving civic participation during elections”, in real-time.

“With the #AssemblyElections2021 taking place in Assam, Kerala, Tamil Nadu, West Bengal, and Puducherry, Twitter announced a series of initiatives focussed on encouraging informed and healthy conversations between candidates, political parties, citizens, media, and society,” it said in a statement.

● MEASURES INCLUDE an information search prompt with the ECI and SEC to provide reliable information around the elections.

The measures include an information search prompt with the Election Commission of India (@ECISVEP) and State Election Commissions to provide reliable information around the elections, a custom emoji to encourage participation, a series of pre-bunks and debunks to tackle election-related misinformation, and a youth discussion series titled #DemocracyAdda aimed at voter literacy and civic participation among young Indians for the upcoming elections.

These will be activated across six languages including English, Hindi, Tamil, Bengali, Assamese and Malayalam, in order to cater to audiences across India.

Additionally, to put a focus on women in Indian politics, the service would be bringing back

#HerPoliticalJourney, a video series where women political leaders share their personal stories with leading women news journalists.

It is pertinent to mention here that voting for five Assembly elections will begin on March 27, with West Bengal hosting eight phases over a month. Counting of votes in the four states and one union territory will take place on May 2.

Twitter India public policy and government manager Payal Kamat said that public conversation is critical during elections, and “Twitter is where this unfolds”.

“With digital penetration accelerating in India, more people now have access to credible, authoritative and timely information — crucial tools for exercising their civic rights. By leveraging the power of the open Internet, we are encouraging people across India to be a part of the #AssemblyElections2021 conversation,” Kamat said.

Kamat thanked the Election Commission of India, the State Election Commissions for their support, and hoped that the platform’s efforts would “contribute to healthy and vibrant civic dialogue”.

Elaborating on the initiatives, Twitter said the information search prompt would make it easy to find credible and authoritative information about candidate lists, voting dates, polling booths, and EVM voter registration, among other election-related topics.

The custom emoji is aimed at stimulating participation in election-related discussions. Featuring an inked finger to represent a citizen who has exercised their right to vote, the emoji is available till May 10, 2021. — PTI

Why does SC need relook at Places of Worship Act?

The Supreme Court's decision to seek the opinion of the Union government on a public interest litigation petition (PIL) challenging the validity of certain provisions of the Places of Worship (Special Provisions) Act 1991 appears to be a legitimate legal procedure but one that calls for meticulous handling by all stakeholders.

The petition contends that Sections 2, 3 and 4 of the Act create an "arbitrary and irrational retrospective cut-off date" for retaining the character of the places of worship or pilgrimage. Section 3 of the Act bars conversion of any place of worship of any religious denomination into a place of worship of a different section of the same religious denomination or of a different religious denomination; Section 4(e) says any legal proceeding with respect to the conversion of the religious character of a place of worship shall abate and that no such proceedings shall lie on or after such commencement in any court, tribunal or other authority. In effect, the religious character of all religious places in India is fixed as per their character on the day of Independence and no person can alter it, nor can a court entertain a petition seeking an alteration. The Ram Janmabhoomi-Babri Masjid dispute was the only exception the law mentions.

Going by the petitioner, the law has closed the legal options of Hindus, Jains, Buddhists and Sikhs against illegal encroachment on their places of worship and pilgrimage. Interestingly, the petitioner, a Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) leader, raises the point that the law is ultra vires several key Articles of the Constitution which deal with equality, discrimination based on religion, race, caste, sex or place of birth, protection of life and personal liberty, freedom of conscience and free profession, practice and propagation of religion, freedom to manage religious affairs and protection of interests of minorities. Moreover, the PIL argues, it violates the principles of secularism, which is an integral part of the Preamble and the basic structure of the Constitution.

From the looks of it, the PIL is an innocent demand for justice but in fact it stands logic and the Constitution on their heads. Parliament had passed the law in the backdrop of the demolition of the Babri Masjid by a group of religious fundamentalists and vandals (who were last year absolved of their crime by the trial court). The P.V. Narasimha Rao government, that was accused of being a silent spectator to one of the most barbaric acts Independent India has witnessed, enacted the law to prevent a repeat of the same. This was because the same elements which brought down the Babri Masjid, showing scant regard for the basic concepts of democracy such as respect for the rule of law and the sanctity of judicial orders were targeting other such structures as well.

Civilisations survive and thrive not by going back to history and righting everything that went wrong. After all, the scale changes with time. India definitely doesn't have the luxury to engage its several future generations on issues religious with a scale that surpasses time, ignoring poverty, ignorance and disease. The Supreme Court will do justice to itself, and to the people, by remembering this simple point.

Jagan is South's big star

From being a political upstart who intrepidly challenged the mighty Sonia Gandhi at the height of the United Progressive Alliance's stint in power at the Centre to the latest founder of a powerful regional party in the South, to one of India's youngest chief ministers, Y.S. Jagan Mohan Reddy has traversed an exciting and peerless journey, lickety-split, with remarkable ease.

With a sweeping win even before his first term as chief minister reaches its mid-point, reducing the Opposition Telugu Desam led by an experienced political giant of another era, N. Chandrababu Naidu, to rubble, Mr Reddy is now the undisputed political czar of Andhra Pradesh. But is he actually more than just that?

A cursory scan of South India's political map — read hot in parts because of the ongoing Assembly election campaigns — will find the answer is yes. At a time when several incumbent CMs and their challengers are fighting to etch the next episode of their career and destiny, Mr Reddy is sitting pretty on his people-gifted throne.

Karnataka's B.S. Yediyurappa is past his prime and Telangana chief minister K. Chandrashekar Rao is battling intense anti-incumbency and an exceptional political challenge from the BJP. Kerala's incumbent chief minister Pinarayi Vijayan may be on the verge of making history as a rare instance of a front retaining power in that state, but as part of a political party and ideology without any larger national salience or relevance, he will remain a state-level leader.

In Tamil Nadu, M.K. Stalin's long wait may finally be over and his tryst with power may bring upon him the status of being a new icon in national politics from the south. But a big "if" stands between Mr Stalin and the results on May 2. In the context, Mr Reddy is now bigger and more than just the chief of the YSR Congress or the CM of Andhra Pradesh; he is the most powerful political leader in South India. He's also the creator of a new brand of politics whose best times may still be ahead: far, far ahead.

As Afghan mess grows, India must be cautious

Anand Sahay

Far & Near

It is becoming apparent that the Americans are finding it hard to orchestrate their plan to get out of the Afghan quagmire. The way things are going, an outcome satisfactory to all is unlikely from the set of ideas that Washington has lately advanced.

In these circumstances, India must learn to do its own sums even as it seeks to be collegial. Its abiding interests in the Afghan theatre are self-evident. Its best bet is to align with the people of Afghanistan at a crucial juncture, and to develop working relations with key constituencies, banking on the goodwill it has earned.

The Biden administration's ideas were projected in a letter by secretary of state Antony Blinken to President Ashraf Ghani, and the so-called draft peace proposals canvassed by Zalmay Khalilzad, the US special envoy for Afghan Reconciliation, to enable constitution-making afresh (in a new order), shape post-US governance through an interim government to start with and pave the way for a comprehensive ceasefire.

Practically rejecting this line, President Ghani declared on March 6: "Transfer of power through elections is a non-negotiable principle for us." He said that he was ready to discuss free and fair elections "under the auspices of the international community".

"We can also talk about the date of elections and reach a conclusion," the Afghan President added, showing readiness to forgo more than half his term. His words were pithily reaffirmed by vice-president Amrullah Saleh, a redoubtable former intelligence chief, suggesting that this is a deliberated position — indeed, the articulation of an alternative formulation to America's.

While the response of the key Afghan political elites like former President Hamid Karzai, chairman of the country's reconciliation process Abdullah Abdullah, and others to the US proposals isn't developed yet, President Ghani's interjection can leave little doubt that the US plan is facing rough weather inside Afghanistan.

There are indications that the Karzai group gives little credence to guarantees for peace the regional powers may offer at America's behest at the proposed UN-led conference in Turkey. Also, it is not enamoured of the idea of an unelected "guidance council", or shura of theologians, to exist alongside government structures in the US scheme — virtually a vetoing authority that may give the Taliban a further edge.

After Mr Ghani's public stance, taken in the Afghan Parliament, on March 8, a US state department spokesman was quoted as saying that it was "too early to say how the peace process is going". This seemed a dose of realism after Mr Blinken's hectoring letter.

President Ghani is neither widely popular, nor known to be a consensus-builder, but he does represent the current Afghan Constitution which the US had helped fashion (along with then interim President Hamid Karzai) in 2004, and which New Delhi had gone to considerable lengths to back. The gains arising from this Constitution at the popular level are backed by the new generation of Afghans, the largest constituency.

The Blinken epistle favours a UN-routed conference in Turkey (a "Bonn 2" of sorts) of leading countries that ring Afghanistan (India included, though it doesn't have a border with that country), presumably to get them to agree to a "unified approach" on Afghanistan's future.

This is not only wispy, it is self-serving. Does the US seriously believe that Pakistan, China, Russia, Iran and India, besides America itself (the six countries Mr Blinken envisages will be at the table), can project a "unified approach" as "these countries share an abiding common interest in a stable Afghanistan"?

While Pakistan and China may be expected to be favourable to the Taliban outright, what the US is perhaps really saying is that Iran, India (and Russia) should lump it and accept the Taliban's hegemony in Afghanistan once the remaining American troops have exited. Even if India or Iran can develop a functional relationship with the Taliban in time, how realistic is this prospect in the immediate future?

The US of course already accepts the Taliban as the hegemon. That indeed was the basis for the earlier Trump administration to reach the Doha agreement with this Pakistan-nurtured politico-military outfit in February 2020, and the reason why the Biden administration is being openly solicitous of the group which continues to rain violence on the Afghan people.

In the American scheme, half of all official positions will go to the Taliban in the envisaged interim government. Not to put too fine a point on it, the logic of things suggests that so long as the last US soldier exits unharmed, it will matter little to Washington if the Taliban (with Pakistan's and China's support this time) seeks to bludgeon the country into submission yet again.

Disregarding the promises it had given the US of a negotiated peace with the Afghan government, as a condition for the final withdrawal of American troops under the Doha agreement, the Taliban went on a spree of violence, killing thousands in the course of the past year, along with targeted assassinations.

This was to project its military prowess to strengthen its negotiating stance vis-a-vis fellow Afghans, and to suitably impress the Americans further. And yet, astonishingly, Mr Blinken's letter to President Ghani speaks of a "revised proposal" for a 90-day "reduction in violence" — not "ceasefire" — to pre-empt the Taliban's "spring offensive", an annual feature, presumably so that peace parleys (to aid the US) are not precluded.

The question to ask is whether the Doha accord survives as an instrument of any merit after a year of bloody Taliban violence. If not, are there lessons in this for the future? But uninterested, the US is headed for "Bonn 2", probably on March 27. Besides, with the participation of the US, Russia, China and Pakistan, and invitations to senior Afghan figures, including government leaders, an earlier "peace" conference is due on March 18, hosted by Moscow. There is unseemly hurry.

Negotiated settlement or not, a May 1 withdrawal agreed by the former US President is not off the table. On the first anniversary of the Doha accord, the Taliban threatened that "any attempt against the agreement" will end in "failure of talks". The thought must terrify the Americans. Equally, Afghan national security adviser Hamdullah Mohib has said that Kabul was against "imposing" the Doha accord on the people. Completely split perspectives.

Afghanistan is said to be the graveyard of empires, but it is also proving to be the breeding ground of ironies. Trophies are sought to be handed out to the most violent.

THREE CAPITALS' WIN

The landslide victory of the ruling YSRC in urban local body elections of AP is complete. The handsome victory in all three regions has given the ruling party the assent of people over its idea of three capitals. The able stewardship of Jagan, the welfare schemes and good team efforts of the cadre are seemingly main contributing factors for the victory. It's a positive vote for the ruling party.

Dr D.V.G. Sankararao

Vizianagaram

The verdict was indeed an endorsement of Chief Minister Y.S. Jagan Mohan Reddy's policies and rule during the past 20 months. It also includes the 'three capitals' issue. The stupendous, resounding and landslide victory of YSRC in both gram panchayats and the urban local bodies proved it beyond any doubt. The rural as well as the urban electorate voted for good governance and the innovative socio-economic welfare schemes of the state government covering almost all sections of the people in the state. The three capitals issue got an emphatic nod from the people. In addition, the people have apparently and truly believed in the prowess of the Chief Minister in getting things done. For Telugu Desam chief N. Chandrababu Naidu this is his Waterloo. The less we speak or write about the other parties, or call them outfits, it is better for society as a whole.

BJP has never spelt out what 'parivartan' it hopes to bring

In 2019, the BJP won 18 of the 42 Lok Sabha seats in West Bengal. It is hard to see why it will not win the Assembly elections now because it has so much more resources than the rest (more than 90 per cent of electoral bond money, which is the anonymous but legal funding by corporates to political parties, according to RTI reports) and also the power of the Central administration. Prime Minister Narendra Modi has promised he will bring real change to West Bengal. Perhaps he will. The interesting thing to me is that his party has never defined what this "change" is.

Formed in 1951, the Jan Sangh/BJP manifestos move effortlessly back and forth from grand and formless expression like "national rejuvenation yagna" directly to things like running more trains with third-class compartments as opposed to air-conditioned ones, pushing the benefits of cow manure and asking linguists to introduce technical and scientific terms based on Sanskrit to replace English.

The party's ideologue, Deen Dayal Upadhyaya, did not want the states to exist. In his Integral Humanism lectures, he had said: "According to the first para of the Constitution: 'India that is Bharat will be a federation of states', that is Bihar Mata, Banga Mata, Punjab Mata, Kannada Mata, Tamil Mata, all put together make Bharat Mata. This is ridiculous." He did not tell us that if we removed the states, what mechanism of administration would come between the Union government and the village.

In the first manifesto, the party identified blackmarketing, profiteering and nepotism as the country's key problems. Over time, the Jan Sangh dropped all references to these problems without saying whether they had been solved or had become less relevant to the party.

On agriculture, the party was for "encouragement of the use of mechanical appliances in agriculture". However, later it said that "tractors will be used only to break virgin soil. Their use for normal ploughing purposes will be discouraged". (1954). This was because it was trying to protect oxen from slaughter.

In 1971, the Jan Sangh resolved to limit the maximum income of all citizens to ₹2,000 per month and the minimum to ₹100, maintaining a 20:1 ratio. It would continue working on reducing this gap till it reached 10:1, which was the ideal gap and all Indians could only have incomes inside this range based on their position. Additional income earned by individuals over this limit would be taken by the government. Residential houses in cities would be on plots that did not exceed 1,000 square yards.

In 1954, the party said that it would repeal the Constitution's first amendment that curbed freedom of speech by imposing "reasonable restrictions". However, after 1954, this demand disappeared from the manifestos.

Interestingly, the Jan Sangh also said that it would repeal preventive detention laws which it said were absolutely in contradiction to individual liberty. This promise was made repeatedly in the 1950s. In time, both the Jan Sangh and the BJP became the most enthusiastic champions of preventive detention and laws like UAPA.

Even though the idols were smuggled into the mosque in December 1949, there was no reference to Ayodhya or a Ram temple there in any manifesto from 1951 to 1980.

In defence policy, it wanted compulsory military training for all boys and girls, removal of licences for possessing muzzle-loading guns (an eighteenth century weapon) and expansion of the National Cadet Corps.

Like "Atma Nirbhar Bharat", the Jan Sangh's swadeshi meant giving subsidies to local industries and tariff protection. Import of consumer goods and luxury goods would be discouraged. Labour rights, including strikes and lockouts, would be discouraged.

Culturally, the party was against alcohol consumption and called for nationwide prohibition. It wanted English to be abolished and replaced in all spheres by local languages, and especially Hindi.

There is no comment whether positive or negative on the Constitution, which was adopted months before the first Jan Sangh manifesto, or even about the ideals it represents. Dr B.R. Ambedkar had proposed modest changes to Hindu personal law, especially on the question of inheritance for women. He identified two dominant forms of traditional inheritance law and modified one of them to make inheritance fairer for women. In its 1951 manifesto, the Jan Sangh opposed this reform.

While it signals anti-Muslim intent, the Jan Sangh did not have the transparency of the BJP and its open dislike of Muslims. The Jan Sangh was unable to express its majoritarianism as clearly and in as full-throated a fashion as the BJP was later able to.

This was because it lacked a specific programme on the back of which to mobilise anti-Muslim sentiment, such as the campaign against the Babri Masjid. It was not important as an issue all this time. The lack of a mass-mobilisation issue meant that the Jan Sangh remained a minor player, getting only a few seats in each election. In the last election it contested under its own name, in 1971, the Jan Sangh won 22 seats and seven per cent of the vote, making it only the fourth largest party in Parliament. It was only under Lal Krishna Advani, and then especially under Narendra Modi, that the BJP became the mass-based electoral force it has become, from the cadre-based party that was the Jan Sangh. It is remarkable that this should have been achieved in the absence of a coherent, consistent ideology and even a definition of what "parivartan" it stood for and would bring.

WPI inflation
rises to 4.17% on costlier food, fuel

The wholesale price-based inflation rose for the second consecutive month to a 27-month high of 4.17 per cent in February, as food, fuel and power prices spiked. The WPI inflation was 2.03 per cent in January and 2.26 per cent in February last year. After witnessing months of softening of prices, the food articles in February saw 1.36 per cent inflation. In January it was (-) 2.80 per cent.

Bill to hike insurance
FDI cap placed in RSFALAKNAAZ SYED
MUMBAI, MARCH 15

In a move that would open further avenues for investors of insurance companies and attract considerable activity from private equity, venture capital firms and foreign institutional investors (FIIs), the finance minister Nirmala Sitharaman on Monday introduced a bill in the Rajya Sabha to increase the foreign direct investment (FDI) in the sector to 74 per cent from 49 per cent.

The Insurance Amendment Bill 2021 seeks to make changes in the Insurance Act 1938 to increase the permissible FDI limits. The bill has been cleared by the Union Cabinet on Wednesday.

Under the new structure, the majority of directors on the board and key management persons would be resident Indians, with at least 50 per cent of directors being independent directors, and a specified percentage of profits being retained as a general reserve.

Currently, most Indian promoters of insurance companies, namely public sector banks, NBFCs, corporates, need capital to fund their core businesses and would use the FDI opportunity to monetise their investments and sell their stakes to PEs, VCs or existing foreign joint venture partner.

In 2015, when the FDI limit was lifted from 26 per cent to 49 per cent, the expectation was that the insurance sector would get fresh capital of Rs 25,000 crore, however, the actual infusion into the sector was just around Rs 5,400 crore, since the Indian promoters of existing companies monetised their investments by selling their stake to the foreign joint venture partners.

Also, the premise that higher FDI would increase insurance penetration appears faulty as despite 20 years of privatisation and raising the FDI limit, India's insurance penetration (life and non-life) languishes much below the world average. Life insurance premium as a percentage of GDP is 3.6 per cent in the country, way below the global average of 7.13 per cent, and in the case of general insurance, it is even worse at 0.94 per cent of GDP, against the world average of 2.88 per cent.

Karthik Srinivasan, senior vice president, group head-finance, sector ratings, Icra said, "Instead of promoters monetising their investments, if the capital is infused into insurance companies then that would help companies to scale up their business and increase insurance penetration.

"Barring a few companies, most other players have adequate regulatory capital as indicated by high solvency levels, but going forward since most are growing their protection business and with natural calamities and mortalities, pace of capital consumption can increase," added Srinivasan.

Ashvin Parekh, managing partner at Ashvin Parekh Advisory Services, said, "It is a long-awaited reform and should be welcomed as it would bring in about Rs 30,000 crore in the insurance sector over the next three years...Another important point is that since foreign capital can come in any form, we could also see activity from private equity, venture capital firms and FIIs."

MUMBAI, MARCH 15

IPO investors in Hyderabad-based MTAR Technologies nearly doubled their investment on the company's market debut on Monday.

The company, which develops and manufactures precision components and critical assemblies for clean energy, nuclear, space and defence sectors, has raised Rs 597 crore in the public issue between March 3 and March 5.

MTAR shares listed at 82 per cent premium at Rs 1,063.90 on the BSE and at Rs 1,050 on the NSE against the public issue price of Rs 575. Later the share price rose further to more than double to Rs 1,154 in the intra-day trade, as there is no upper circuit filter applied on the debut day on any listing of shares through the initial public offering.

Finally, MTAR shares closed at Rs 1,082.25 on the BSE and at Rs 1078.30 on the NSE, registering a gain of 88.22 per cent.

At the market close, the company's market capitalisation stood at Rs 3,328.96 crore on the BSE. Shares worth Rs 1637.79 crore were traded and on the NSE.

No proposal to bring petrol, ATF under GST: FM

New Delhi, March 15: Amid record-high fuel prices, finance minister Nirmala Sitharaman on Monday said there is no proposal before the government as of now to bring crude oil, petrol, diesel, jet fuel (ATF) and natural gas under the goods and services tax (GST).

When the GST was introduced on July 1, 2017, amalgamating over a dozen central and state levies, five commodities, crude oil, natural gas, petrol, diesel, and aviation turbine fuel (ATF) were kept out of its purview given the revenue dependence of the central and state governments on this sector.

This meant that the central government continued to levy excise duty on them while state governments charged VAT. These taxes, with excise duty, in particular, have been raised periodically.

While the taxes haven't come down, a spike in global oil prices on demand recovery has pushed petrol and diesel to an all-time high, leading to demand for them be brought under the GST.

PRIVATISATION TO UNLOCK REAL VALUE OF PSUs: SITHARAMAN

New Delhi, March 15: Finance minister Nirmala Sitharaman on Monday said efficient management and use of the latest technology by the private sector will help unlock the real value of CPSEs undergoing strategic sale and bring much higher dividends for the economy.

She said Niti Aayog had been mandated to identify and recommend CPSEs — which are not in the 'priority sector' — for strategic disinvestment, based on the criteria of national security, sovereign functions at arm's length, and market imperfections and public purpose.

These CPSEs are reckoned as 'low priority' for the government notwithstanding that they may be proposal to bring crude petroleum, petrol, diesel, ATF and natural gas under GST," Sitharaman said in a written reply to a question in the Lok Sabha.

She said the law prescribes that the GST Council shall recommend the date on which the GST be levied on petroleum crude, high-speed diesel, motor spirit (commonly known as petrol), natural gas and ATF.

"So far, the GST Council, in which the states are also represented, has not made any recommendation for inclusion of these goods under GST," she said.

The Council may consider the issue of inclusion of these five petroleum products at a time it considers appropriate keeping in view all the relevant factors, including revenue implication, she added.

Including oil products in GST will not just help companies set off tax that they paid on input but will also bring about uniformity in taxation on the fuels in the country.

Sitharaman has in recent weeks talked of inclusion of fuel under GST as well as Centre and states taking a joint call on cutting taxes to cushion consumers against the spike in retail prices.

To a separate question, her junior in the finance ministry, Anurag Singh Thakur said excise duty on petrol was Rs 19.98 per litre a year back and is Rs 32.9 now. Similarly, on diesel, the excise duty has been raised from Rs 15.83 to Rs 31.8.

Market trims losses
after sinking 1000 ptsRAVI RANJAN PRASAD
MUMBAI, MARCH 15

The Sensex recovered from early blows partially after suffering close to 1000-points loss intra-day on poor domestic macro-economic data, surge in US bond yields and a sharp rise in Covid-19 cases in India.

The Sensex fell 993 points, drowning below the 50000 level to the day's low of 49,799.07, but later positive global cues from Asia and Europe helped in a pullback that helped the benchmark index to finally settle at 50,395.08, down by 397 points, or 0.78 per cent.

The Nifty-50 closed at 14,929.50, down by 101.45 points, or 0.67 per cent.

"Market was impacted adversely after February headline CPI inflation rose around 100 basis points to 5.03 per cent led by unfavourable base effect, higher vegetable prices, higher energy and transportation prices and increase in core goods inflation," said Emkay Global Financial Services.

"Also the Index of Industrial Production lost momentum after rising for the previous two months, and in January 2021 contracted 1.6 per cent, dragged down by poor manufacturing activity and muted consumer demand."

Before the US Federal Reserve's Federal Open

Market Committee's scheduled meeting on March 16 and 17, the 10-year US treasury yield still ruled above 1.6 per cent, making equity investors cautious.

Both foreign portfolio investors and domestic institutions were net sellers of equities worth Rs 1,101.35 crore and Rs 749.71 crore, respectively.

"We saw selling pressure right from the word go and Nifty corrected sharply to breach 14,750 level during the day. The banking index was reeling under pressure and it seemed that bears have complete control today. However, the index started recovering gradually in the last couple of hours and managed to trim much of the intra-day losses and end well above 14,900," Ruchit Jain, senior analyst-technical and derivatives, Angel Broking said.

Govt to sell up to 16.12% in Tata Comm

New Delhi, March 15:

The government on Monday said it will sell up to 16.12 per cent stake in Tata Communications Ltd (TCL) through an offer for sale (OFS) starting on Tuesday at the floor price of Rs 1,161 per equity share.

As part of its exit plan from Tata Communications (erstwhile VSNL), the government is initially offering to sell up to 2.85 crore equity shares representing up to 10 per cent of the total paid-up capital of the company.

The government may sell additionally over 1.74 crore equity shares representing 6.12 per cent of stake in Tata Communications as an over-subscription option.

The window for sale of shares for retail investors and for non-retail investors, including who choose to carry forward their unallocated bids, will be opened on March 17.

The government has reserved minimum of 25 per cent of the offer share for mutual funds and insurance companies subject to valid bids and 10 per cent for retail investors.

As per the shareholding pattern of TCL, the promoters hold 74.99 per cent in the company. Of this, the Government of India holds 26.12 per cent stake while Panatone Finvest holds 34.80 per cent and Tata Sons holds 14.07 per cent. The remaining 25.01 per cent is with the public.

The Department of Investment and Public Asset Management (Dipam) plans to sell its entire stake in TCL in the current fiscal. —PTI

plan dropped

New Delhi, March 15:

The government is not considering any proposal to bifurcate state-owned gas utility Gail (India) Ltd, and the PSU is focused on building pipelines to connect gas sources to consumers to accelerate gas usage, oil minister Dharmendra Pradhan said on Monday.

Gail is India's biggest natural gas marketing and trading firm and owns 60 per cent of the country's 26,284-km gas pipeline network.

To resolve the conflict of a transporter also being the marketer, it was proposed that Gail's pipeline business should be hived off into a separate entity. But the proposal has been dropped for now.

"There is no such proposal under consideration at present," Pradhan said in a written reply in the Lok Sabha. He said the share of natural gas in India's primary energy basket is targeted to be increased to 15 per cent by 2030 from the current 6.3 per cent.

For this, the government is promoting the expansion of natural gas infrastructure—pipelines, LNG import terminals and city gas distribution network.

"GAIL is executing projects related to the expansion of gas infrastructure," he said. —PTI

The growing market wagers about the most aggressive interest-rate tightening in India of any nation in Asia are wrong, according to Aditya Birla Sun Life AMC.

Five-year interest-rate swaps jumped to 5.42 per cent on March 8, the highest in more than a year, reflecting surging expectations of a tighter monetary policy, and were at 5.32 per cent on Monday. "Markets are mispricing quick rate hikes," said Maneesh Dangl, co-chief investment officer at Aditya Birla.

Dangl, who oversees Rs 1.8 lakh crore of debt assets ($25 billion), expects the policy rates to remain low for longer as the central bank prioritises a nascent economic recovery over signs of perking inflation.

He also expects the Reserve Bank of India to keep the banking system awashed with liquidity to support the government's record borrowing programme.

The RBI's "compulsion" is its inability to normalise its policy as markets have not adjusted to higher levels of government borrowings and are naturally demanding much higher term-premium than before," said Mumbai-based Dangl.

Rate-hike wagers are building around the world as expectations for growth and inflation gain ground. Swap rates are signalling India will see the most rapid tightening of any nation in Asia, according to Standard Chartered Plc.

CAUGHT IN CROSSFIRE US whiskey industry faces 50% duties in EU from June

Jack Daniel's feels trade war hangover

MARCH 15

American rum distillers and French winemakers celebrated this month when the US and European Union suspended tariffs on billions of dollars of each other's exports.

But for US whiskey producers, the detente brought no relief.

The products getting a reprieve on duties were part of a dispute over subsidies to the world's two biggest aircraft makers, Boeing Co. and Airbus SE. The whiskey industry still faces 25 per cent duties that are the result of a still-unresolved, separate front in former President Donald Trump's transatlantic trade war. The tariffs are set to double to 50 per cent on June 1.

The duties are hitting American distillers from Brown-Forman Corp.—the maker of the iconic Jack Daniel's brand and Woodford Reserve bourbon—to hundreds of small craft producers. The pain is compounded by a plunge in demand from restaurants and bars due to the pandemic, and closures of tasting rooms due to social-distancing measures.

The duties show how unrelated industries get caught up in trade wars when countries look to maximise the political impact of reciprocal duties. The whiskey tariffs particularly hit Kentucky, the biggest bourbon-producing state and home of then senate majority leader and Trump ally Mitch McConnell.

The whiskey tariffs are the EU's response to Trump's June 2018 steel and aluminum duties that are still in place. The UK, which came to its own reprieve in the aircraft-subsidy dispute with the US, has also kept the whiskey duties.

European alcohol and American spirits including rum and vodka that saw tariffs suspended this month were part of $11.5 billion in EU and US industrial, agricultural and consumer goods that got a temporary respite related to the Boeing-Airbus case. But whiskey is the largest US spirits export globally.

When the whiskey tariffs went into effect almost three years ago, Brown-Forman decided to absorb the cost, thinking that the duties wouldn't remain in place more than a few months, said Lawson E. Whiting, president and CEO of Louisville, Kentucky-based Brown-Forman. That has resulted in annual expenses of $80 million, squeezing the company's profit margins and restraining hiring and expansion, he said.

Brown-Forman—a global business with famous brands and more than $3 billion in annual revenue —has been able to mostly maintain sales. But many smaller distillers have seen exports to Europe tumble.

Since the tariffs took effect in mid-2018, exports to Europe have fallen by about 60 per cent. While the company sells to 55 markets globally from Australia to Russia, and has continued to grow in the US, it put off plans to expand into eastern Europe. American whiskey sales to the EU, the US's largest export market, plunged 37 per cent to $440 million since the tariffs went into effect in 2018.

Kapil is now PGTI board member

New Delhi: Legendary cricketer Kapil Dev was on Monday inducted as one of the board members of the Professional Golf Tour of India (PGTI), the sports body said. Dev, who captained India to World Cup glory in 1983, said he would work for the development of golf in the country. "I thank PGTI for allowing me to be a part of their board. I am extremely happy to be a part of PGTI and will do my best to promote golf as a sport that is doing well and has the potential to become one of the most coveted tours in sports," Dev said in a PGTI release. "...It is up to all of us to promote other sports including golf. I wish PGTI good luck for the upcoming events." Meanwhile, the Delhi-NCR Open Golf Championship 2021, to be jointly organised by the TATA Steel PGTI and Prometheus School, Noida, will begin at the Golden Greens Golf Club in Gurugram on Tuesday. The Pro-Am event will be staged on March 20. — PTI

Police hunt for Angel's robbers

Paris: French prosecutors have launched an investigation into a robbery at the home of Angel Di Maria after thieves broke in while the Argentina winger was playing for Paris Saint-Germain. Nanterre prosecutor's office secretary general Marion Chalaux told The Associated Press on Monday that the investigation is being handled by a special police unit dealing with armed robberies and serious burglaries. The unit was already in charge of inquiries into similar cases linked to PSG players Mauro Icardi and Sergio Rico, whose houses were also burgled during matches this year. Chalaux said intruders managed to sneak into Di Maria's home in the posh Parisian suburb of Neuilly-sur-Seine on Sunday without being noticed. According to L'Equipe, the thieves took watches and jewelry from a safe for an estimated loss of more than 500,000 euros ($597,000). — AP

No fans at Oly torch relay start

Tokyo: Spectators will be barred from the start of the Tokyo Olympics torch relay, organisers said on Monday, announcing a pared-back launch as the countdown to the postponed Games begins in earnest. Fans were told to stay away from next week's "simplified" starting ceremony and first leg of the nationwide relay, which was put on hold a year ago when the Olympics were delayed over the coronavirus. "The grand start ceremony and the first section of the Fukushima torch relay... Will not be open to the public," organisers said in a statement, adding that the festivities would be broadcast live online. The announcement comes ahead of a decision on whether fans from overseas will be allowed to enter Japan for the postponed Games, expected to be taken before the torch relay begins on March 25. — AFP

B'day boy Curry lifts Warriors

Los Angeles: Golden State star Stephen Curry celebrated his 33rd birthday Sunday with a 32-point performance that propelled the Warriors to a 131-119 victory over the NBA-leading Utah Jazz and snapped a four-game skid. Curry got off to a sizzling start, connecting on 63 percent of his shots in a 14-point first quarter in which the Warriors seized a lead they wouldn't relinquish. He finished 10-of-20 from the field with six three-pointers. "It's like that ageing wine, right?" Curry said. — AFP

Kohli & Co. look to take lead against England in 3rd T20

Ahmedabad, March 15: Their confidence soaring high after a resounding series-levelling win, India would look to build on their new approach of batting freely and fearlessly when they take on England in the third Twenty20, here on Tuesday. The Men in Blue were off to a horrible start in the T20 series, suffering a demoralising eight-wicket loss in the opening match but turned the tables on England with a seven-wicket win in the second game.

In stark contrast from the first match, Virat Kohli and his men excelled in all departments.

The inclusion of Ishan Kishan, who made a sparkling debut with a 32-ball 56, allowed India to go ahead with their new approach that encourages batsmen to express themselves.

Despite losing K.L. Rahul in first over with no runs on the board, the 22-year-old attacked from the word go, smashing Jofra Archer for a boundary in the very first ball he faced.

The hosts will also gain confidence from Kohli's unbeaten innings in the previous game as he took the side past the finish line, breaking a sequence of low scores.

The skipper did not have the best of times in the preceding Test series and also got out cheaply in the first T20. Both Kohli and Shreyas Iyer will target big scores. The bowling department, which didn't have runs to defend in the opener, did a fabulous job to restrict England to 164. The biggest positive would be Hardik Pandya bowling four overs which allowed the hosts to go with an extra batsman.

The bowlers will look to replicate their good show from the last match where they found their rhythm.

What India would aspire is a better effort from Rishabh Pant, who has been promoted to number four ahead of Iyer. The big-hitting wicket-keeper has looked lethal in both outings but failed to capitalise on his starts.

India are unlikely to tinker with the winning combination save the return of star white-ball opener Rohit Sharma who is expected to be back in the side after being rested for a couple of games.

With Kishan faring well, Rahul, who looked out of sorts in both the outings, is expected to make way for Rohit.

The primary objective for India remains the same — to get an idea of the core group of players going into the ICC T20 World Cup in October.

England attack looked less threatening in the absence of Mark Wood, who missed the second T20 due to a bruised heel. However, skipper Eoin Morgan confirmed that the pacer will return in the next game. — PTI

India exposed our weakness: Eoin

Ahmedabad, March 15: India have exposed England's "weakness" in handling slow conditions but competing here will only prepare them well for the Twenty20 World Cup, feels skipper Eoin Morgan.

India drubbed England by seven wickets in the second T20 to level the five-match series 1-1 on Sunday night.

Morgan admitted they struggled to get used to the slow surface used for the second match.

"I suppose the difference was in the wicket we played and how we adapted. It was different wicket from the one we batted in the first game. The pitch was slow and low and one thing that does expose our weakness on these surfaces a little bit," said Morgan at the post-match virtual media interaction on Sunday night.

"We don't play a lot on slow, low wickets and the more that we can do that, the better. You only become better in these conditions by playing in them and making mistakes."

The English skipper, however, said playing in such tough conditions ahead of the ICC World T20 later this year in India, will only help

India's K. L. Rahul at a practice session ahead of the third Twenty20 against England in Ahmedabad on Monday. — AP

IPL stint made Kishan fearless

Ahmedabad, March 15: Young batsman Ishan Kishan says having faced the best pacers from across the world during the IPL had given him the confidence to play fearlessly against England on his India debut.

Kishan's blistering 56-run knock at the top laid the platform for India's comfortable and successful chase in the second Twenty20 on Sunday night.

The 22-year-old left-hander acknowledged the contribution, the IPL stint has made in his growth as a batsman. "It obviously helped (to face the likes of Mumbai Indians teammates Trent Boult and Jasprit Bumrah) in the nets. They are very pacy bowlers and to hit shots against them gives confidence," Kishan said at the post-match virtual press conference.

"In IPL you get to face quality bowlers from across the world and you start getting used to these bowlers. And I think that really helped me."

Kishan also said that the team management had backed him to play his natural game without feeling the pressure.

In IPL you get to face quality bowlers from across the world and you start getting used to these bowlers. And I think that really helped me. — ISHAN KISHAN after his match-winning knock against England

"Before the match I was told to go and open the innings and play freely the way I play in IPL. I was told not to take extra pressure. But it being my first game I was little nervous while going at the ground."

"But when you wear the jersey of your country that pressure simply goes away and you try to give your best."

The debutant was in awe of Virat Kohli during their 94-run stand and hopes to pick the brain of India skipper

NO SPECTATORS AS COVID CASES RISE IN GUJARAT

Ahmedabad, March 15: The remaining three T20 Internationals between India and England will be played here without spectators in the wake of rising Covid-19 cases, Gujarat Cricket Association vice-president Dhanraj Nathwani said on Monday.

"T20s on March 16, 18 and 20 will be played without audience at Narendra Modi Stadium in Ahmedabad. Refund will be given to the spectators who have purchased tickets," Nathwani stated.

"Due to rise in the number of Corona cases, we at GCA have decided, in consultation with BCCI, to hold the matches behind closed doors and not to allow spectators in the ground during T20 Internationals to be played between India and England at Ahmedabad," he added.

Nathwani said the GCA will form policy for refund of money to the spectators who have already purchased tickets for these three T20Is.

"Those who have received complimentary tickets are requested not to visit the stadium," he added. The BCCI and the England and Wales Cricket Board (ECB) also issued their respective statements after the development.

"The BCCI will continue to comply with all the regulations put in place to curb the spread of the Covid-19 virus and will always put the health and safety of its fans and stakeholders at the top," BCCI secretary Jay Shah said. — PTI during the five-match series.

Chase master Kohli (73 not out off 49 balls) took charge after Kishan's dismissal to power India to victory with 13 balls to spare. "It was proud feeling for me because I had just seen him (Kohli) on TV, his attitude on the ground, but to see it from the other end is totally different. I think it is something which I can change in myself, his energy, his appearance on the ground, there is a lot to learn from him."

"The way he talks in the ground it takes pressure from you. I just want to make sure that I learn a lot from him in this series," Kishan said. — PTI

TON-UP BRAVO HELPS WINDIES SWEEP SERIES

North Sound (Antigua and Barbuda), March 15: Darren Bravo's fourth ODI century guided the West Indies to a five-wicket victory over Sri Lanka and a clean sweep of the three-match series here on Sunday.

Set another challenging target of 275, the home side's response was anchored by Bravo's innings of 102 off 132 balls highlighted by five fours and four sixes. He was the obvious choice as man of the match with Shai Hope the equally straightforward option as man of the series with the opener following earlier scores of 110 and 84 with an elegant 64 to set his team well on their way.

Sri Lanka, who made three changes to their team from the nail-biting loss in the second match two days earlier, fought to restrain a powerful West Indies batting line-up but in the end they were undone by the home side's wealth of talent and experience. — AFP

Brief scores: Sri Lanka 274/6 in 50 overs (W. Hasaranga 80 n.o., A. Bandara 55 n.o.) lost to West Indies 276/5 in 48.3 overs (Bravo 102, Hope 64).

Escape to victory, MP archers' style

Kolkata, March 15: The brave-hearted Madhya Pradesh junior archers "achieved the impossible" by winning four medals in the Nationals Championships after miraculously escaping the Shatabdi Express train inferno on their way to Dehradun, their head coach said on Monday.

With less than an hour to reach Dehradun on Saturday, the eight-member recurve men's and women's team experienced the horror of being chased by black thick smoke and fire as they jumped to safety to the adjacent bogey.

But they lost all their belongings, right from their equipment to original documents including Aadhaar Card and birth certificates after their coach C5 was charred near Kansrao.

Starting from scratch with a new set of equipment that arrived in the wee hours of Sunday, the archers without any pre-match day practice concluded their campaign with two silver and one bronze in the recurve category and a team silver in the compound category earlier.

Class X student Sonia Thakur, who won two silver medals in the ranking round, went one step up advancing into the Olympic round on Monday as she nearly bagged a third but only to go down to her Haryana rival in a tightly-contested bronze playoff that was decided in a tiebreaker.

"They have achieved something impossible. Miracles like this do happen in sport," MP head coach Richpal Singh said from Dehradun.

Singh, who had reached with the compound team ahead of the recurve archers, remembers Saturday's ordeal vividly when he first learnt about the horrific incident.

"They were slated to reach in Dehradun at 12.55pm and we were to go for practice after grabbing a quick bite. But there was no phone calls as I dropped a message in our WhatsApp group and learnt about the trauma."

"The first thing I asked them was 'Are you all safe?' After hearing that they all are safe, our first job was to boost their morale and ensure that they stay focus on the competition the next day."

Ronaldo hits back at critics with hat-trick

Milan, March 15: Cristiano Ronaldo hit back at his critics with a quick-fire hat-trick as Juventus brushed aside Cagliari 3-1 on Sunday, five days after their Champions League elimination, while Inter Milan moved nine points clear at the Serie A summit.

Portuguese star Ronaldo bore the brunt of the criticism for Juve's latest European flop after failing to score in either leg of the last-16 defeat by Porto, while also being partly at fault for what proved to be the goal which knocked them out. But the 36-year-old scored a header in the 10th minute at the Sardegna Arena, added a second from the penalty spot 15 minutes later, and completed a 'perfect' treble on 31 minutes with a fine left-footed strike.

Defending champions Juventus are 10 points behind leaders Inter Milan, who beat Torino 2-1 earlier Sunday, but with a game in hand.

Andrea Pirlo's side pulled just one point behind second-placed AC Milan, whose title hopes took a big hit following a 1-0 home defeat to Napoli.

"Our approach was spot on and it was important to get off on the right foot after being knocked out the other night," said Pirlo.

ARSENAL EDGE SPURS, MAN UNITED ALSO WIN

London, March 15: Arsenal bounced back from Erik Lamela's stunning Rabona to open the scoring in the north London derby to beat Tottenham 2-1 on Sunday, as Manchester United and Leicester tightened their grip on a top-four finish in the Premier League.

United edged out fifth-placed West Ham 1-0 thanks to Craig Dawson's own goal to remain a point ahead of Leicester, who thrashed bottom-of-the-table Sheffield United 5-0. On a costly afternoon for Spurs' hopes of a top-four finish, Tottenham also lost Son Heung-min to a hamstring injury, while Lamela went from hero to villain for the visitors with a needless second-half red card.

Arsenal's afternoon did not start well with captain Pierre-Emerick Aubameyang dropped to the bench for a breach of discipline, reportedly after turning up late for the squad's pre-match meeting.

West Ham missed the chance to move into the top four as former Man Utd boss David Moyes remains winless in 15 visits to Old Trafford as the opposition manager.

The Hammers' conservative approach was punished by one moment of misfortune eight minutes into the second half as Dawson turned a Bruno Fernandes corner into his own net.

Mason Greenwood also hit the post either side of half-time for United, who close the gap on league leaders Manchester City to 14 points. — AFP
