No more interviews in APPSC

DC CORRESPONDENT
VIJAYAWADA, JUNE 26

Aiming to bring about total transparency in the AP Public Service Commission (APPSC) recruitments, the AP government has cancelled the interview procedures in the selection process.

Chief Secretary Adityanath Das issued a G.O. on the annulment of the interview process on Saturday.

The general administration (services-A) department issued the G.O. 58, stating that the scheme and the syllabi for the recruitment of various posts were enunciated, as also the posts for which interviews are required to be conducted.

It further stated that the government decided that the interviews shall be abolished for all posts, except for the state services and for those posts which are executive in nature and where articulation skills and public interface are required. Based on the recommendations of the APPSC, interviews were prescribed for a few more posts.

The order said that the Secretary of APPSC stated that during the review meeting on reforms in the conduct of examinations by the APPSC held on 18.10.2019, a decision was taken not to conduct interviews for recruitment to any of the posts notified by the APPSC.

The government after careful examination of the matter with a view to maintaining utmost transparency and in order to ensure the complete trust of the competing candidates in the entire selection process, decided to dispense with interviews for all APPSC examinations under all categories including those for Group-I services, for all the recruitments notified on or after the issue of the G.O.

NCP hints Oppn alliance not possible sans Cong.

DC CORRESPONDENT
NEW DELHI, JUNE 26

Days after the Rashta Manch met at the NCP supremo Sharad Pawar's house in New Delhi in a bid to explore the possibilities for a third front without the Congress, the NCP and Shiv Sena have made it clear that for any Opposition grouping to be a viable force against the BJP, the Congress will have to be a part of it.

Sources in the NCP said on Saturday that since the Congress is present in all states, it will have to be accommodated in the larger anti-BJP alliance. After returning to Maharashtra, Mr Pawar also said that if any such coalition emerges, its leadership will have to be "collective".

On Saturday, the Shiv Sena too made it clear that no grand Opposition alliance can be possible without the Congress being part of it. Shiv Sena leader and Rajya Sabha MP Sanjay Raut on Saturday said that work is on to bring all Opposition parties together at the national level, and this alliance will be incomplete without the Congress.

Speaking with reporters,

Mr Raut said, "There is no need for the third front or any other front. Sharad Pawar has already made it clear. The Congress will play an important role. It will be a strong alternative to the present dispensation... Work is in progress to bring all the Opposition together, which will not be complete till the Congress is roped in."

Maharashtra strongman and NCP chief Sharad Pawar had called a meeting of several Opposition parties under the aegis of Rashta Manch started by him and current TMC leader Yashwant Sinha.

DC CORRESPONDENT
VIJAYAWADA, JUNE 26

The first-year MBBS students and their parents have urged the state government to promote them to the second year due to improper conduct of classes and incompleteness of syllabi due to the pandemic crisis.

A delegation of students and parents led by T. Srinivasa Vishwanatha called on NTR University of Health Sciences registrar Dr K. Sankar here on Saturday and submitted a memorandum seeking promotion to the second year.

They deplored that the classes for the first-year students could not be held properly due to the Covid-19 induced lockdown. They said the students were deprived of practical learning and later on, though online classes were started, they did not help the students as physical classes would.

They lamented that the improper clinical exposure and lack of practicals adversely impacted the learning.

Horticulture farmers being extended all support: Special CS

DC CORRESPONDENT
VIJAYAWADA, JUNE 26

Special chief secretary (Agriculture) Poonam Malakondaiah announced that the state government has started supporting horticulture farmers because of Covid-19 times. They are ensuring that farmers are able to transport their produce and get a proper price in the market.

Addressing a media conference on Saturday, she said horticulture in the state is being taken up over 17.84 lakh hectares. Their total yield is 312 lakh metric tonnes, which justifies AP being called "fruit basket of the country".

● DRAWING COMPARISONS with previous government, Poonam Malakondaiah said while 11,22,912 MT of crops, excluding paddy, had been procured during 2014-2019 at a cost of ₹3,921 crore, the current government has procured 19,30,199 MT crops in the last two years at a cost of ₹6,348 crore.

She said the government had also supported farmers by providing minimum statutory price (MSP) for perishable goods like chilli, turmeric, banana and orange, apart from establishing a price stabilisation fund of ₹3,000 crore.

Neta's Natter

Telangana, Andhra Pradesh boil over Krishna waters

It was supposed to be a Isangam to drown all other 'sangams' when the Telangana state and Andhra Pradesh Chief Ministers met in 2019 to discuss, among other things, the sharing of Godavari and Krishna waters. The Krishna has always been the contentious one, with a series of dams and power projects along its course. The CMs had made the right noises when they met, about working together, how every drop of water should be used judiciously and, despite being in two states, all Telugu speaking people were one, and so on.

Fast forward to 2021, and the tune in Telangana has changed. TRS leaders and ministers have taken to, and are crooning, the 'Dost dost n raha' line, about the sangam of the two states on matters related to the Krishna. "We will oppose AP's projects, particularly the Rayalaseema Lift Irrigation Scheme and the Rajolabanda Diversion Scheme's right canal project," is the refrain adopted by TRS ministers. Being friends is one thing, theft of water is another thing altogether, is what the TRS leaders say. Incidentally, this is not the first time politicians have sought to bring to a boil the waters in the Krishna. And it certainly won't be the last either. Meanwhile, the river continues to run through AP and Telangana and may continue to do so, but only if Maharashtra gets copious rains, lets water down into Karnataka, and then Karnataka does the same for TS and AP.

AP top cop's sermon raises eyebrows

Additional Director General of Police P.V. Sunil Kumar undoubtedly is the most controversial cop in AP these days. Heading the Criminal Investigation Department (CID), Sunil became famous following clamping of cases against big shots in the Amaravati land scam and alleged tampering of records in State Election Commission during the tenure of N. Ramesh Kumar.

The latest is the dramatic arrest of rebel YSR Congress MP Raghu Ramakrishna Raju. While in all the cases, the allegations against the accused, prima facie, are serious and the political direction to file cases is not merely out of vendetta, the handling of the investigation, arrest of the accused and the way they were treated in custody drew flak. Apparently sensing trouble, the CID chief recently held a virtual conference with his officers and gave sermons on protecting individual liberty which he said was the pinnacle of all laws. He went on to explain that arrest would mean suspending one's individual liberty for a brief period of time. Arrest shall not be a matter of routine, he said and asked officers not to apply law as they interpreted but follow the Supreme Court and High Court guidelines.

Well, if officers are faulted for murmuring under their breath that charity should always begin at home, it is, for sure, tantamount to curtailing their individual liberty.

Caste war mars NRI group acquisition plans?

All is not going well with the 'mega' plans of acquiring the NRI Group of Educational Institutions by an agglomeration of companies based out of Hyderabad but spreading its tentacles across the country. The proposed acquisition has turned into a caste war, with the financially strong Kammams of the coastal districts, some of whom owned the NRI group, making every effort to retain ownership and prevent what they called bulldozing by the mega agglomeration owned by Reddys. A once-politically powerful leader stepped into the arena and assured the original promoters of protecting their interests by taking legal support. The mega entrepreneur is rumoured to have met the leader and tried to convince him on the acquisition and even requested him not to put spokes in the move. The leader did not budge and won the hearts of his fellowmen. It is not his fault if they compare him with Chandrababu Naidu and blame the latter for remaining silent on what they describe as a forced acquisition.

What's up Chiru's sleeve?

Megastar Chiranjeevi's tweet appreciating AP Chief Minister Y.S. Jagan Mohan Reddy's efforts to ensure vaccination for all has kept analysts busy at guessing the intent behind the tweet. As Chiranjeevi is not just a film star, the tweet led to a lot of political speculation. Founder of Praja Rajyam Party, the matinee idol merged his party with the Congress and went on to become a Union minister as part of the compromise formula designed by the Congress high command for creation of Telangana state. This was followed by the actor shunning politics and going back to films where he is best at. Some drew the inference that another compromise was being worked out between him and Jagan to win over the Kapu community to which the hero belongs. The tweet angered hardcore fans of Pawan Kalyan, his brother, film actor and politician. While the ruling and opposition party leaders are busy making calculations, top guns from the film industry who know Chiranjeevi do not rule out the possibility of the tweet being a simple goodwill gesture in advance of Chiranjeevi's and his son's big budget movies lining up for release. Producers and distributors of Pawan's latest flick 'Vakeel Saab' suffered as Jagan restricted the number of shows and scrapped benefit shows which otherwise are money spinners. Who knows, a simple tweet might turn the fortunes for the elder brother.

Venkaiah calls for making India a maritime leader

DC CORRESPONDENT
VISAKHAPATNAM, JUNE 26

Vice-President M. Venkaiah Naidu on Saturday called for making India a leading maritime nation and emphasized the important role ports will have to play in achieving the ambitious vision.

He was addressing a virtual meeting from Visakhapatnam Port Trust (VPT) guest house here on Saturday after he was briefed by the VPT Chairman K. Rama Mohana Rao on various activities of the port, including its expansion plans.

The Vice-President said that ancient India was a great maritime power and that navies of Chola and Kalinga kings used to rule over the oceans. "We have to regain that glory," he said.

Touching upon the development of the port infrastructure in the country, he said that as part of the ambitious Sagarmala project, more than 504 projects have been identified to unlock the opportunities for port-led development and these initiatives are expected to mobilize more than 3.57 lakh crore of infrastructure investment.

Noting the decline in the cargo trend at Visakhapatnam port during 2020-21 due to the pandemic after a healthy upward swing between 2015-16 and 2019-20, he expressed hope that it would regain its growth trajectory once the situation normalises.

"It is important to note that ports will play an important role in post-Covid-19 economic recovery," he added.

Lauding ports for having played a proactive role in handling oxygen supplies and humanitarian relief work during the second wave of Covid-19 and cyclones Tauktae and Yaas, he said "I compliment you all for that".

Referring to the Maritime India Vision 2030, Naidu wanted the port to adopt global best practices in operations and development. He said that the Vision-2030 is not impossible to achieve as India has the inherent strength of knowledge and wanted everyone to work together in the spirit of Team India.

Earlier, the Vice-President was apprised of the port's expansion plans, including the proposed establishment of a ₹406-crore Free Trade and Warehousing Zone (FTWZ) in an area of 103 acres.

Minister Muttamsetti M. Srinivasa Rao and local officials were present on the occasion.

The Smart Cities Mission of the Ministry of Housing & Urban Affairs, Govt of India, has initiated the CSCAF 2.0 in October 2020. None of the 126 cities that were assessed could get the 5-star rating.

Vijayawada Municipal Commissioner V. Prasanna Venkatesh said that only nine cities across India got 4-star ratings and Vijayawada is the only non-Smart City in India in this category. He emphasised that only 2 cities from AP, namely Vijayawada and Vizag, achieved the 4-Star rating. An elated Commissioner described it as a great achievement for the city of Vijayawada. KADAPPA, JUNE 26

Both the warring families contending for the Peethadhipathi post of the prominent shrine of Brahmangari Matham in the district have resolved their differences and agreed to hand over the responsibilities to Nossam Venkatadri Swami of the eight generation of Veerabrahmam as the 12th head.

Swami is the eldest son of the first wife of the recently deceased Peethadhipathi Vee-rabhoga Vasantha Venkateswara Swamy. The issue of succession became complicated with second wife insisting on the post to her son. Several seers tried to bring about rapprochement.

SCoR formation to be back on track

DC CORRESPONDENT
VISAKHAPATNAM, JUNE 26

The recent appointment of the officer on special duty (OSD) for the much-awaited South Coast Railway (SCoR) headquarters here points to some headway in the project, which had gathered dust for nearly one-and-a-half years. The Railway Board appointed Burada Chandra Sekhar as the OSD for the SCoR. He is yet to take the charge, railway sources said.

The Centre had announced the SCoR on February 27, 2019 and appointed S.S. Srinivas as the first OSD. R. Dhananjayulu came as his successor in July 2019 to lead preliminary works of the project such preparation of detailed project report (DPR), appointment of supporting staff, and study tours of the designated areas.

The former OSDs completed their tasks and submitted the project reports to the authorities concerned including the Railway Board and the Ministry for a final decision by the end of 2019.

Later early 2020 the Railways transferred the OSD and the post had since been lying vacant. The railway sources attributed the delay to the Covid-19. "The Covid-19 completely halted the progress of the SCoR, particularly the works at the main office of Waltair railway division here. There were no major budget sanctions, except Rs 43 lakh in 2021 and Rs 3 crore in 2020 for the SCoR," a senior railway official told the DC.

Visakhapatnam has nearly 200 acres of vacant land to be used for this project. The Railway Minister announced the SCoR as the 18th railway zone in the country in response to the demands from the people of the north coastal Andhra Pradesh for the last two decades.

Shreya Sen-Handley
Off the beaten track

The wonder years start at dauntless 50

Watching The Masked Dancer UK with my children last weekend, I was struck by the age, élan, and agility of two of the three finalists, both in their mid-fifties. When I grow up, I said to myself, that's how I want to be. But if growing up is getting to fifty then it isn't miles away, and with my two left feet, dancing's not on my bucket list.

Of course it's not about dancing at all, which is clearly just an extension of these fifty-somethings' love for life and who-gives-an-eff-about-convention stance. It's a metaphor for the verve with which they've waltzed into aging.

Convention, you see, would want us to age in a particular way. When they talk about aging gracefully, they don't mean you should enter a televised dance contest with competitors half your age. Or wear body-hugging outfits, or get in society's face. They mean you should disappear.

Disappear in a manner however, that suits society; hovering obsequiously on its periphery. You still need to turn up and be counted at funerals. At family functions that are any fun, you are lumped with children to look after; eliminating you from the action. In fact, wherever there's a thankless job, without recognition or reward, you're the one it's pegged for. Because, after all, as the scriptures confirm, you're at that stage of life — Sanyas — when you must renounce it all. Even far-sighted Shakespeare wrote about the "spectacles on nose and pouch on side (colostomy bag?), shrunk shank, and childish treble" of the post-fifty brigade. But he died at 52, without ever having experienced this stage, so what did he know?

I know that if I'm to toddle back to my childhood again, I will cherry pick, like a child might, the bits I want to swallow, spitting the rest out like unpalatable pips. Like the youngest kids, we are undoubtedly more vulnerable to diseases (as this pandemic has proved). Like them as well, we are not at the peak of our physical strength; not as robust as folks in their teens, twenties, or early thirties. We've been there, got the t-shirt, fallen over inelegantly onto the other, twilit side, and got it badly besmirched. But there are oh-so-many advantages to being weather-beaten and worldly-wise.

I know this before I've got to fifty because this locked-down pandemic has been an enforced aging. My stay-at-home-cooking-baking-pottering-in-the-garden avatar has descended on me ten years ahead of time. So have the array of diseases it has accelerated, which, had I been allowed to remain active and less anxiety-ridden, I may have sidestepped nimbly for another decade. But you could also look at this imposed maturation as early acquisition of wisdom; a bringing into sharp focus of all that really matters in life.

Yet, because growing old is so reviled by popular culture, and strikes such terror in the human heart, I too was a bit iffy about entering my thirties, but it turned out infinitely better than the decade before that. Arguably, my forties have been even more rewarding (though it does help to have a failing memory; lifting each decade I'm living through to the top). The fifties might be the best yet. Lumbering up for it as I have been through this speed-aging pandemic, I feel ready. I feel almost Zen.

Isn't that a lot like Sanyas? Disappearing with 'dignity' aka. not making a fuss? No, because vanishing only as much as we want to, from society's bleeping radar, is a whole other trip called freedom.

I've never known more liberty than now; a couple of years, plus a couple of months, away from my half-century. As we grow, conventions bind us and social expectations pin us down, till one day we discover we've been put out to pasture. With society's gaze irrevocably averted in this so-called second childhood, we can be ourselves again like carefree kids.

For example: Not one for superficial chatter, lockdown's one boon has been its cessation, and I'll never again feel compelled. Yet, I'm deeply interested in the welfare of those I love, as well as the world at large. But both these concerns require in-depth conversation and not trivial natter.

Nor will I wear anything ever again that makes me squirm. Not high heels, except when in the mood. And even less often — bras! Both socially imposed, they're uncomfortable, if not injurious to health. And do they really make us more presentable? To whom exactly? Those who care will want us to be comfy, and to everyone else I have this to say: go find something sensible to rant about instead!

Strenuously discouraged from dyeing my hair purple recently, on the grounds that it was unbefitting for my age, I went ahead. It caused a few jaws to drop undoubtedly, but well-wishers and my mirror loved it.

So, come and see me by all means, wild-haired in my flats and ganjee, looking more like my Dadu than ever, and as unwilling to indulge in frivolities.

This freedom goes way beyond the trappings of course, though not having to toe the line with even these are considerable victories. Age is then an invisibility cloak, but one that confers a powerful forcefield, allowing us to be ourselves, even as it embargoes the narrow-minded and the nasty.

Growing older and less decorous, like children but in reverse, because we know better now and our bodies won't conform anymore anyhow; society begins to give us a wide berth, not just from disinterest but fear! No longer hounded to deliver on this hide-bound expectation or that, there's peace at last.

Age is indeed more than just a number; it's a wondrous new world.

With trust as weapon, forge a Naya Kashmir

Pavan K. Varma

Chanakya's View

Chanakya had a basic dictum: you cannot rule a people against their will. Perpetual intimidation of an unwilling populace is a tempting but unworkable solution. You have to win the trust of those you govern. It is good that this principle is at last being followed by the BJP government at the Centre where Kashmir is concerned. The importance of Prime Minister Modi's meeting with 14 leaders from Kashmir on June 24 has to be understood in this context.

Since August 5, 2019, when Article 370 was revoked, the people of Kashmir have literally been incarcerated in their own homes. Landline, mobile and Internet connections were cut; as many as 3,800 political leaders and activists were jailed or put under house arrest; curfews and lockdowns were imposed; and an army of troops and police personnel converted the Valley into occupied barracks.

The time to break through this impasse was long overdue. The PM himself acknowledged that he would have had the meeting earlier, where he could meet leaders face to face instead of virtually, but for Covid.

The most important takeaway from the meeting was that the principal Opposition parties in Kashmir, the People's Democratic Party (PDP) and the National Conference (NC), attended. Both Farooq Abdullah and Mehbooba Mufti were present. The second takeaway was that, in spite of the strong feelings in both these parties against the abrogation of Article 370 — on which the Centre would not yield — there was no veto on discussions, and other issues of great import could be discussed.

The discussion on Article 370 was deflected by the simple fact that the question of its constitutionality was before the Supreme Court (SC) and, therefore, sub judice. There is, indeed, a good case for the reservations of the Kashmiri parties on the manner in which Article was revoked. According to the Constitution, while 370 is a temporary measure and can be done away with, this step requires a recommendation from the J&K Assembly. This was not obtained. The Assembly had been suspended. There was President's rule. The powers of the Assembly were being exercised by the Centre directly through the governor. The government thus obtained the recommendation from the governor, their own nominee. That was tantamount to seeking concurrence from itself. The decision is under challenge, and rightly so, in the SC, and we would respectfully urge the highest court to expedite a decision.

Two other issues were on the table: the restoration of full statehood to J&K, and the holding of democratic elections. There is understandable resentment in Kashmir that their state has been converted into a Union Territory (UT). The Centre wisely gave in to this demand. The PM reiterated his resolve to restore statehood, and Amit Shah said that he had given this assurance on the floor of the House. The holding of democratic elections were made conditional on the completion of the delimitation exercise in J&K.

Delimitation is the act of redrawing boundaries of the Assembly seats to represent changes in the population over time. Although delimitation for the rest of India is scheduled for 2026, there is no doubt that delimitation is overdue in J&K. Earlier, delimitation exercises were done in 1963, 1975 and 1995. Since no census was carried out in the state in 1991, there has been no delimitation since 2001. Delimitation will have an impact on the number of seats currently divided between Jammu and Kashmir. Currently, Kashmir has 46 seats, and Jammu 37. It is expected that after delimitation the number of seats in Jammu would go up, thereby upsetting the current numerical domination of Kashmir representatives.

The Delimitation Commission for J&K was set up on March 6, 2020, under the chairpersonship of retired SC judge, Ranjana Prakash Desai, with the mandate to finish the exercise in one year. The other members of the Commission were Union minister Jitendra Singh, Jugal Kishore Sharma of the BJP, and Farooq Abdullah, Akbar Lone and Hasnain Masoodi of the NC. The Commission did not hold a single meeting until February 2021, ostensibly due to the pandemic. In the first meeting, only the BJP representatives attended. The NC leaders boycotted the meeting to protest against the J&K Reorganisation Act, 2019.

The key question is whether the representatives of the NC, and, indeed, other key Opposition parties like the PDP, will now cooperate with the delimitation process. Not having completed its work in the one-year deadline, the Commission has been given a year's extension that lapses in March 2022. It is very important to keep to this deadline since the holding of democratic elections is conditional on it. Ultimately, the return of democracy in the troubled state is the best antidote to the existing resentment and anger. Democracy — if genuine — gives people the ventilation valve to express their feelings, and feel that they are stakeholders in unfolding events.

The way forward will be hugely dependent on the creation of trust, ending the dil ki doori. The Centre will have to walk the extra mile to ensure this. Its past actions have militated directly against it. Apart from incarcerating an entire state, BJP leaders have till recently reviled the grouping of the Opposition parties in Kashmir as the Gupkar gang. The Centre must take necessary steps to rectify the memories of the past, release political detainees wherever feasible, and carry out the delimitation exercise with utmost transparency and sincerity. An onus also rests on political parties in Kashmir. They must desist from taking extreme positions dictated by a sense of catering to the anger among the Kashmiris. They must work, as Ghulam Nabi Azad said, for the rehabilitation of the Kashmiri Pandits. And, they must desist from making — as Mehbooba Mufti seemed to suggest — Pakistan a stakeholder in what is entirely an internal matter of India. The Central government would also have to retain its full vigilance against terrorism emanating from Pakistan, which would do its best to derail a peace and reconciliation process. With trust as a weapon, the entire country hopes that normalcy would soon be restored, and we would have a Naya Kashmir.

STAYING VIGILANT

The more we relax the public health and social measures, the more the chances of Delta plus variant striking hard. Already it is found in over 85 countries including India and is reportedly spreading rapidly, being the 'most transmissible' one. Right now people in AP are hopeful that night curfew would be lifted and all economic activities are resumed. However, the risk is too high and the state government must continue with the pandemic protocol for some more time before lifting the curfew. With the Delta plus variant already entering AP, it is all the more necessary to continue with the restrictions.

HUMAN GROWTH

The concern about the low GDP numbers are welcome but the real issue which we all should be concerned about is our Human Development Index where we are way behind. The standard of living of our people has fallen to a new low and now it's important more than ever to raise the standard by improving the savings and reducing expenditure. The major part of savings goes towards healthcare and education and yet there has been no major improvement to reduce their expenditure on these basic human needs. The privatization of health care and education has done more bad than good that our policymakers expected.

REPRESSIVE ACTS

When will the Centre stop using the repressive Sedition Act, UAPA, etc against innocent activists for criticising the government's way functioning is a million rupee question that can be answered only by the ill-advised governments themselves (HC grants bail to Aisha Sulthana, DC, June 26). It's most unfortunate how they could have become so thick-skinned, insensitive to human rights, rule of law and injustice day-in and day-out!

Indian Navy enters missile era

JAMNAGAR, June 26. The Indian Navy has entered the missile era with the acquisition of a few rocket boats, Chief of the Naval Staff S.M. Nanda said here today. Addressing officers and sailors of INS Valsura, the electrical training establishment of the Navy, at a ceremonial parade, Admiral Nanda said that the navy had developed into a balanced force. The equipment on board the ships were of a sophisticated nature.

the latter will not be directly involved in the distribution of tickets for the Assembly polls, giving the former chief minister a free hand in picking his own candidates.

There is a strong buzz in Madhya Pradesh political circles that newly-minted BJP member Jyotiraditya Scindia is eyeing Indore as his next Lok Sabha constituency. This speculation has gathered momentum as the frequency of Mr Scindia's trips to Indore has increased in recent months. Ideally, Mr Scindia would like to return to the Gwalior Parliamentary seat. But he is being given a hard time in his old pocket boroughs of Gwalior and Guna by the sitting MPs Vivek Narayan Shejwalkar and Krishna Pal Singh Yadav. Both the BJP leaders have the distinction of defeating Mr Scindia in his stronghold and they are clearly in no hurry to cede ground to him again. Meanwhile, there is no end to their turf war as all three are quick to take credit for any development work undertaken in the region.

Ayodhya leak radar on Yogi; Cong ready to forgive senior

The recent charges of corruption in the purchase of land for the construction of the Ram Temple complex at Ayodhya has led to animated discussions in Lucknow about how Opposition leader, AAP's Uttar Pradesh in-charge Sanjay Singh, managed to lay his hands on the documents about the deals. People in Uttar Pradesh were surprised how the Opposition managed to get hold of these papers because chief minister Yogi Adityanath has a vice-like grip on the administration and anyone suspected of leaking such information or even talking about it publicly would normally be handed out stringent punishment. There is also all-round agreement that the Opposition in Uttar Pradesh is incapable of unearthing such exposes as it is virtually defunct. It is, therefore, surmised that the documents were leaked with Yogi Adityanath's permission. According to the grapevine, the chief minister wanted to get back at the BJP leadership after he was pulled up by the party top brass for flying solo and marginalising his party colleagues. The temple construction committee of the Ram Jannabhoomi Trust is headed by Nripendra Misra, Prime Minister Narendra Modi's former principal secretary, while Champat Rai, also known to be close to Modi, is the Trust general secretary. It is for the Trust office-bearers to defend these allegations while Yogi is out of the picture.

When he was replaced as leader of Opposition in the Kerala Assembly last month, senior Congress leader Ramesh Chennithala shot off a letter to party president Sonia Gandhi to complain about the insulting manner in which he had been eased out. He has since been making amends by posting his old photographs with Indira and Rajiv Gandhi on his Twitter handle to underline his special bond with the Congress and the Gandhi family. For instance, one post shows a photograph of Indira Gandhi campaigning in Chennithala's constituency while another tweet mentions how she signed a letter appointing him as NSUI president chief at the airport before boarding a flight to Russia.

Similarly, there are several pictures of Chennithala with Rajiv Gandhi while on tour and one of Gandhi attending the Kerala leader's wedding reception where he told him about his appointment as Youth Congress president. Chennithala's efforts in getting back into the good books of the Gandhis may well pay off, as there are reports he has been promised a slot as Congress general secretary in Delhi.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi's assurance at an all-party meeting last week that holding elections in Jammu and Kashmir is a priority, is in line with the BJP's eagerness to test the electoral waters in the newly-carved Union territory. Though the BJP did not fare well in last year's local elections, the party has not given up on its ambition to install a Hindu chief minister in Jammu and Kashmir as it believes the redrawing of the constituencies by the Delimitation Commission will work to its advantage. Failing this, the BJP is also extending an olive branch to National Conference leader Farooq Abdullah in the belief he will be amenable to an understanding with the saffron camp. The National Conference has aligned with the BJP in the past and it could well do so in the future. There are unconfirmed reports that back-channel discussions with Abdullah have already been initiated.

The Congress leadership has reason to worry as its party units in several poll-bound states are in turmoil. While the never-ending battle between Punjab chief minister Amarinder Singh and his bete noire Navjot Singh Sidhu can only be described as a soap opera, the situation is no better in Uttarakhand. The post of legislative party leader in Uttarakhand fell vacant recently after senior leader Indira Hridayesh's death but the party is struggling to find her replacement. State unit president Pritam Singh is being persuaded to take over this post but he has declined and threatened to resign if the Central leadership insists on giving him Hridayesh's job. Former chief minister Harish Rawat is keen that his rival Pritam Singh accept this post because then

AYODHYA SHOULD MANIFEST OUR TRADITIONS: PM

New Delhi, June 26: Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Saturday reviewed the development plan for Ayodhya and asserted that the temple town in Uttar Pradesh should manifest the “the finest of our traditions and the best of our developmental transformations”.

Speaking at a virtual meeting, which was also attended by Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath, Modi described Ayodhya as a city that is etched in the cultural consciousness of every Indian and said the human ethos of this city must be matched by futuristic infrastructure.

A Prime Minister's Office (PMO) statement on the meeting said Ayodhya's development is being envisaged as a spiritual centre, global tourism hub and a sustainable smart city.

At the meeting, Uttar Pradesh government officials made a presentation which encompassed various aspects of Ayodhya's development.

The prime minister was informed about various upcoming and proposed infrastructure projects to improve connectivity with Ayodhya and various projects like airport, expansion of railway station, bus station, roads and highways were discussed, the PMO said. An upcoming greenfield township was discussed which includes lodging facilities for devotees, space for ashrams, maths, hotels, bhavans of various states.

CJI SEEKS STEPS TO RESOLVE POOR CONNECTIVITY

New Delhi, June 26: Chief Justice of India N. V. Ramana has written to Information Technology Minister Ravi Shankar Prasad seeking steps to resolve poor digital connectivity in rural, tribal and hilly areas, saying this is “adversely impacting the pace of justice delivery”.

In his letter to Prasad, who is also the minister for law and communications, Justice Ramana also referred to the “digital divide” and said “a whole generation of lawyers is being pushed out of the system” due to technological inequality. The Chief Justice of India (CJI) informed about the letter, written on June 8, while speaking on Saturday at the virtual release of a book “Anomalies in Law and Justice” authored by former Supreme Court Judge Justice R. V. Raveendran.

During the course of a panel discussion that followed the book launch, Justice Ramana said that the issue of connectivity figured prominently at a two-day conference of chief justices of high courts that he had held recently. “Poor connectivity in rural, tribal, remote and hilly areas is adversely impacting the pace of justice delivery and is also depriving thousands of young lawyers across the country of their livelihood”, — PTI

Tikait: Rallies if Centre doesn't resume talks

Farmers mark 7 months of their agitation at Delhi borders

DC CORRESPONDENT WITH AGENCY INPUTS CHANDIGARH/NEW DELHI, JUNE 26

Marking the completion of seven months of agitation at Delhi's borders against the three farm laws passed by the Centre, scores of farmers from Punjab and Haryana on Saturday took out protest marches while farmers camping at Delhi's Singhu, Tikri and Ghazipur observed July 26 as “Save Agriculture, Save Democracy Day”.

Bharatiya Kisan Union (BKU) leader Rakesh Tikait said at least four lakh tractors and 25 lakh farmers are ready to march towards Delhi. However, if talks with the Centre resume, then the march will not be taken forward, he said.

Mr Tikait announced two rallies in Delhi next month to intensify the protest against the Centre's three new farm laws. Mr Tikait, who held a meeting with farmers at Delhi's Ghazipur border, said two decisions were made at the meeting. First, a batch of farmers will leave on tractors for the Singhu border from Uttar Pradesh's Shamli district on July 9. And another such rally will start from Bijon on July 24 and will head towards Ghazipur border via Meerut, he said.

Even as farmers in several states tried to march to governors' residence to submit a memorandum to mark the completion of seven months of their agitation, Union agriculture minister Narendra Singh Tomar on Saturday appealed to them to end their stir and offered to resume talks on the provisions of the three legislations.

“I want to tell all the farmers union people that they should end their agitation. The Government of India is also ready to discuss and redress any provision of law,” he said.

Star TMC MP ill after fake vaccine

RAJIB CHOWDHURI | DC KOLKATA, JUNE 26

Four days after taking a dose of what is purported to be Covishield at a fake vaccination camp, and getting the racket behind it busted with the help of the Kolkata police, Mimi Chakraborty, Tollywood actor and Trinamul Congress Jadavpur MP, fell ill at home on Saturday.

Meanwhile, to mount pressure on the Mamata Banerjee government over the racket run by a bogus IAS officer, allegedly linked to several TMC leaders, Leader of the Opposition Suvendu Adhikari urged the Centre to order a probe by its agencies. At around 4 am, the MP complained of illness which included severe dehydration, low blood pressure and acute stomach pain. A doctor treated her and advised her rest with medication but suspected the symptoms as panic syndrome over the fake Covishield dose she got on June 22 rather than its side-effects.

While the Kolkata Municipal Corporation and state health department have launched a drive to check the health of those who along with Mimi Chakraborty got the ‘vaccine’, the Kolkata Police slapped attempt to murder charge on three arrested accused including racketeer Debanjan Deb.

On Friday Adhikari wrote Union health minister Harsh Vardhan, “...several incriminating photos suggestive of the accused's influence in the ruling party of West Bengal have come to the fore. Kolkata Mayor Firhad Hakim, West Bengal minister Subrata Mukherjee, TMC MP Santanu Sen, TMC MLAs Debasish Kumar and Lovely Maitra, KMC councillor Baiswanor Chatterjee and others are seen directly or indirectly endorsing the activities of Debanjan...”

He claimed Debanjan has previously been posing with government of West Bengal files or hosting Duare Sarkar camps of West Bengal government in Ward 66 of KMC. In such a situation with so many influential ruling party leaders and government representatives being seen in close proximity to the accused, we have serious doubts about an impartial investigation from Kolkata Police that follows the instructions of the same government.”

22 1/2 years in jail for Chauvin

Ex-cop sentenced for George Floyd murder

Minneapolis, June 26: Former Minneapolis police Officer Derek Chauvin was sentenced Friday to 22 1/2 years in prison for the murder of George Floyd, whose dying gasps under Chauvin's knee led to the biggest outcry against racial injustice in the US in generations.

The punishment — which came after Chauvin broke his yearlong silence to offer condolences to the Floyd family and express hope that they eventually have “some peace of mind” — is one of the longest prison terms ever imposed on a US police officer in the killing of a Black person.

Still, Floyd family members and others were disappointed. The sentence fell short of the 30 years prosecutors had requested. And with good behavior, Chauvin, 45, could get out on parole after serving two-thirds of his sentence, or about 15 years. “Just because it's the most time doesn't mean it's enough time,” said Nekima Levy Armstrong, a Minneapolis protest leader.

Judge Peter Cahill went

beyond the 12 1/2-year sentence prescribed under state guidelines, citing Chauvin's “abuse of a position of trust and authority and also the particular cruelty” shown to Floyd. Floyd family attorney Ben Crump said the family had gotten “some measure of accountability” but is hoping Chauvin gets the maximum at his upcoming federal civil rights trial. Crump said this was the longest sentence a police officer has ever received in Minnesota. But he added: “Real justice in America will be PoC men and PoC women and people of colour who will not have to fear being killed by the police just because the colour of their skin. That would be real justice.”

Outside the courthouse, a crowd of about 50 people clasped hands or placed them on each other's shoulders. The reaction was subdued as people debated whether the sentence was long enough.

Some critics in disgust. At George Floyd Square, as the intersection where Floyd was pinned to the pavement is now known, members of the crowd broke into applause, and several said, “We'll take it.”

Chauvin was immediately led back to prison. He showed little emotion when the judge pronounced the sentence. His eyes moved rapidly around the courtroom, his Covid-19 mask obscuring much of his face.

The fired white officer was convicted in April of second-degree unintentional murder, third-degree murder and second-degree manslaughter for pressing his knee against Floyd's neck for up to 9 1/2 minutes as the 46-year-old man gasped that he couldn't breathe and went limp on May 25, 2020.

New lockdown in B'desh after Delta variant spike

Dhaka, June 26: Bangladesh has announced it will impose a tough new lockdown starting Monday, after a “dangerous and alarming” surge in Delta variant cases of Coronavirus.

All government and private offices will be shut for a week and only medical-related transport will be allowed, the government said late Friday. “No one can step out of their homes except in emergency cases,” a statement added.

Health department spokesman Robed Amin said police and border guards would be deployed to enforce the lockdown and the army may be involved if needed.

“It is a dangerous and alarming situation. If we don't contain it now, we will face an India-like situation,” Amin said, referring to a surge in cases in neighbouring India in April and May.

NZ suspends travel bubble with Oz

Wellington, June 26: New Zealand announced a three-day suspension of its quarantine-free travel arrangement with Australia on Saturday, with Wellington citing “multiple” outbreaks of Covid-19 in the neighbouring country.

The announcement comes as a two-week lockdown begins in Sydney to contain a rapidly spreading outbreak of the Delta Coronavirus variant.

More than 80 cases have been reported in Australia's largest city, while a handful of community cases have also been recorded in the Northern Territory, Victoria and Queensland in recent days. “But given the high level of transmissibility of what appears to be the Delta variant, and the fact that there are now multiple community clusters (in Australia), it is the right thing to keep Covid-19 out of New Zealand,” said NZ's Covid-19 Response Minister Chris Hipkins.

DC CORRESPONDENT WITH AGENCY INPUTS NEW DELHI, JUNE 26

A day after Delhi's AAP government and the BJP were locked in a battle over the national capital's oxygen crisis during the second wave of Coronavirus in April-May, three of the five members of the Supreme Court appointed team have distanced themselves from the report, with AIIMS director Randeep Guleria saying that it's not correct to say the Arvind Kejriwal government exaggerated the city's requirement.

Dr Guleria, who heads the subgroup, said, “It would not be correct to say that. Delhi oxygen audit is an interim report. We should wait for the final report.” Two other members, B.S. Bhalla, Delhi government's principal home secretary, home, and Max Healthcare's Sandeep Budhiraja, have also questioned the reported conclusions of the report and said that they had raised objections against several claims that are being made.

“The manner in which the proceedings of the subgroup were conducted suggested that the purpose of proceedings was to satisfy a preconceived and predetermined conclusion and narrative to recommend a lower quantity of oxygen to Delhi. It was also aimed at further portraying an impression that the assessment by the GNCTD (Government of National Capital Territory of Delhi) before the high court and the Supreme Court was exaggerated or not genuine,” Mr Bhalla had noted in a communication sent to the panel on May 31.

Max Hospital's director Sandeep Budhiraja said in his comments, included in annexure of the report, that a decision was taken in the panel's first meeting itself to get actual details of oxygen consumption from all the hospitals of NCT Delhi.

“After repeated corrections (as hospital medical superintendent used a different format), the total calculation of oxygen consumption (based on actual consumption data of 214 hospitals) came to around 490 MT. This did not take into account oxygen cylinder refilling and non-Covid requirements of hospitals,” Mr Budhiraja said.

Relieved at the clarifications, chief minister Arvind Kejriwal said the acute shortage of oxygen during Covid's second wave was real and appealed for an end to political bickering and for everyone to work together so that no one suffers in the third wave. “May we work now if your fight over oxygen is finished? Let us together make a system so no one faces shortage of oxygen in the third wave. There was an acute shortage of oxygen in the second wave. It should not be so in the third wave. Corona will win if we fight with each other. The nation will win if we fight together,” Mr Kejriwal tweeted.

Injury scare for sprinter Hima

Patiala: Star sprinter Hima Das on Saturday suffered a hamstring injury during the 100m heats at the ongoing National Inter-State Athletics Championships here, leaving her on the verge of missing out on the upcoming Tokyo Olympics. Hima, who has had a lower back injury problem for a long time, did not start in the 100m final due to the injury though she qualified for it. She did complete her heat race and finished third with a timing of 12.01 seconds during the morning session. It is learnt that the Assam athlete is highly unlikely to run the 200m race scheduled on Sunday as well as the women's 4x100m relay final on June 29. Hima's injury is also a big blow to 4x100m women's relay team's qualification.

Verstappen takes Styrian GP pole

Spiegelberg: World Championship leader Max Verstappen of Red Bull produced the quickest lap in qualifying on Saturday to claim pole position for the Styrian Grand Prix. Mercedes' Valtteri Bottas was second quickest but drops to fifth on the grid because of a three-place penalty imposed on Friday, leaving teammate Lewis Hamilton to start on the front row with Verstappen. McLaren's Lando Norris produced the performance of the day, pushing the front runners all the way and finishing fourth. — AFP

Saurabh and Manu clinch silver medal

Osijek (Croatia): Continuing their impressive run, the Indian duo of Saurabh Chaudhary and Manu Bhaker clinched the silver medal in the 10m air pistol mixed team event at the ISSF Shooting World Cup here on Saturday. Already assured of a silver, the Indian duo was on par with Russia's Vitalina Batsarashkina and Artem Chernousov at 12-12 before losing the last two series to go down 12-16. Representing the other Indian team, Yashaswini Singh Deswal and Abhishek Verma missed out on a bronze medal. Deswal and Verma, who qualified in the third place, were completely outplayed by Iran's Golnoush Sebgatollahi and Javad Foroughi. — PTI

Champ Farah fails to qualify for Tokyo

London: Four-time Olympic champion Mo Farah's hopes of ending his track career at the Tokyo Games ended as he fell short of the qualifying mark for the 10,000 metres in Manchester on Friday. The 38-year-old won a specially-arranged race to give him a final chance to qualify at the British Championships, but his time of 27 minutes 47 seconds was nearly 20 seconds off the time required to qualify. Farah won the 5,000m-10,000m double at the London Olympics in 2012 and repeated the feat four years later in Rio de Janeiro.

Archer Verma wins gold in World Cup

Paris: Star compound archer Abhishek Verma stunned American heavyweight Kris Schaff in a shoot-off to bag a gold medal at the Archery World Cup Stage 3 here on Saturday. Verma's effort has come two months after he along with the Indian team was stopped from board the flight for the first stage of the meet in Guatemala City following their coach's false positive Covid-19 test report. India archers are also in the fray for three more medals in the women's recurve individual, team and mixed pair. — PTI

Denmark decimate Wales to enter Euro quarters

Denmark	4
(Kasper Dolberg 27, 48, Joakim Maehle 88, Martin Braithwaite 90+4)
Wales	0

Amsterdam, June 26: Denmark marked the 29th anniversary of their greatest triumph by marching on to the quarter-finals of Euro 2020 on Saturday as Kasper Dolberg scored twice in an emphatic 4-0 win over Wales before an exultant travelling support in Amsterdam.

In the city where Christian Eriksen made his name, it was Dolberg — another former Ajax player — who opened the scoring with a fizzing strike in the 27th minute.

That came after Wales had started so well but Denmark never looked back and Dolberg struck again just after the restart before Joakim Maehle and Martin Braithwaite added more goals late on.

Carried by a wave of emotion, Danish dreams are still intact in a tournament that began in such traumatic circumstances for them with Eriksen's collapse in their opening match against Finland in Copenhagen.

They now go on to a last-eight tie in Baku against the Netherlands or the Czech Republic.

Eriksen, still recovering at home after his cardiac arrest, was present in everyone's minds at the home of Ajax, and that combined with a vast Danish support inside the one-third full Johan Cruyff Arena made this occasion really like a home game for them.

European champions against all odds when they beat Germany in the final on this day in 1992, Denmark finally have their first win in the knockout phase of a Euro since then and it would be a truly extraordinary story if they could repeat the feat this time.

Nobody in Denmark will want to get ahead of themselves but Wales — who finished with 10 men after Harry Wilson's late red card — could certainly have no complaints about the outcome and there will be no repeat of their run to the semi-finals at Euro 2016.

They needed a moment of magic from captain Gareth Bale or Aaron Ramsey which never came, but in truth they were up against it from the outset.

Aside from the universal goodwill towards Denmark following Eriksen's collapse, a ban on travellers from the United Kingdom entering the Netherlands meant there were very few Welsh supporters inside the stadium.

Danes, in contrast, descended in their droves on Amsterdam, creating an atmosphere not far off that seen at the Parken Stadium in Copenhagen when they beat Russia to qualify for the last 16 — even the Danish Prime Minister, Mette Frederiksen, was in attendance. To their credit Wales started well, with the probing Bale leading by example in the early stages. He crashed a shot just wide in the 10th minute.

Belgium & Portugal in clash of heavyweights

Madrid, June 26: Portugal felt the full range of emotions during the Euro 2020 group stage and with Cristiano Ronaldo in the groove again, they can really begin to believe.

After scoring three late goals to beat Hungary, Portugal were shaken by a 4-2 loss to Germany, only for a 2-2 draw against France to restore morale and ensure they snuck out of Group F in third place.

The result is a last-16 clash with Belgium in Seville on Sunday, when one of the tournament favourites will bow out in what is surely the blockbuster tie of the round.

One of the frontrunners for the Golden Boot will fall too, with Ronaldo and Belgium's Romelu Lukaku both in contention. Ronaldo leads the scoring charts on five goals with Lukaku not far behind on three.

Portugal may have taken only a point from a sweaty contest with France at the Puskas Arena in Budapest but the belief and confidence gained from going toe-to-toe with the world champions could be pivotal for the rest of their tournament.

After chaos against Germany came concentration against the French, a committed, organised and aggressive performance which was a reminder of what carried Portugal to success at Euro 2016 and in the Nations League three years later.

"We were strong and consistent. The players helped each other, we had possession, we attacked well. We improved a lot from the game against Germany," said Portugal's coach Fernando Santos afterwards.

Santos had responded too, reacting to criticism by reverting to his traditional 4-3-3 system of the past two years and making some bold changes to his starting line-up.

CZECH FAVOURITES AGAINST DUTCH

The Czech Republic will enter Sunday's last-16 game against the Netherlands at Euro 2020 as the odds-on favourites, at least when it comes to the history of their head-to-head encounters.

Since the Czech Republic emerged as an independent state in 1993, their national team have won five games and lost three against the Dutch, on top of three draws.

Before that, Czechoslovakia memorably beat the Netherlands on the way to their only European Championship title in Belgrade in 1976, having edged Johan Cruyff and company 3-1 after extra time in the semi-final.

Czechoslovakia were not there to stop the Dutch when they won the 1988 title in West Germany.

But Czech fans cherish above all the memory of an epic battle at Euro 2004 in Portugal, won by the Czechs 3-2.

TOKYO | OLYMPICS

Sindhu carries flag and hopes

MOSES KONDETY | DC
HYDERABAD, JUNE 26

P. V. Sindhu can't wait for the Olympics to begin. The badminton ace will have the rare honour of leading the country at the world's biggest sporting spectacle when the Games begin in Tokyo next month. "The Hyderabad girl will carry the tri-colour as she heads the Indian contingent at the Opening Ceremony.

"Being the flag-bearer is such a proud moment altogether," a chuffed Sindhu said.

"To think that you would be carrying the national flag and leading the Indian contingent at the opening ceremony is staggering. I am thrilled and excited because that sort of opportunity is rare... it's a huge honour," the 25-year-old said during an interaction post her talk at TEDxYouth@SuchitraAcademy organised by Suchitra Academy International School in Hyderabad on Saturday.

The Covid pandemic may have pulled everyone back a bit but the gritty girl is gung-ho. "I am emotionally attached since the entire country is showing support and wanting me to get the medal. I am really looking forward to doing that," the Khel Ratna awardee said.

Preparations are in full swing. "Since February I have been practicing at the Gachibowli Stadium, which is the same as the one in Tokyo where the badminton events will be held. The venue has come in handy to get myself used to the air-conditioning and flight of the shuttle. I am thankful to the government, the Sports Authority and the badminton association for the facility. Whenever I asked for permission to practice, they readily granted my request," Sindhu said.

"In the evenings, I go to the Suchitra Academy, which is like a second home to me, for my recovery sessions — pool, ice-bath, gym and running — that are very much needed as there is not much time left for the Games," Sindhu added.

Suchitra Academy also provides her with sparring partners of different styles and skills — left, right-handed, aggressive, defensive, et al. Everyday there are different players and Sindhu has been up against two, sometimes three, opponents at a time as she gears up to take on the world.

The pressure is intense though. "This Olympics will definitely be different compared to Rio 2016 (where she won silver). Now, everyone wants me to get a medal wherever I play, so yes, there is pressure and we have to deal with it. At the end of the day, Olympics are Olympics — right up there. We have to be prepared for everything and anything," Sindhu said.

SAJAN CREATES HISTORY, MAKES OLYMPIC 'A' CUT

New Delhi, June 26: Sajjan Prakash on Saturday became the first-ever Indian swimmer to qualify for the Olympic Games by breaching the 'A' standard time, clocking 1:56:38 seconds in the men's 200m butterfly event at the Sette Colli Trophy in Rome, Italy. The Games 'A' standard was set at 1:56.48 seconds and the 27-year-old Prakash completed the run 0.10 seconds faster at the Fina-accredited Olympic qualifier.

Prakash also rewrote his own national record of 1:56.96s that he had set last week at the Belgrade Trophy swimming competition. This will be Prakash's second successive Olympics, having represented India in the 2016 Rio Games. — PTI

Sachin bills Jamieson as top all-rounder

New Delhi, June 26: Kyle Jamieson has the ability to become one of the leading all-rounders in world cricket in days to come, reckons legendary Sachin Tendulkar after watching the giant Black Cap torment India's best batsmen in the recently concluded World Test Championship Final.

In New Zealand's emphatic title triumph, Jamieson played a major role with match figures of 7 for 61 in 44 overs along with 21 valuable runs in his team's first essay.

"Kyle Jamieson is a fantastic all-rounder. He is going to go on and become one of the leading allrounders in world cricket," Tendulkar said on his YouTube channel.

"When I had seen him last year in NZ, he impressed me," the maestro said.

He then elaborated on why playing Jamieson in English conditions made him even more lethal.

"If you see his bowling, he is very tall and more than swinging, he likes to bowl seaming deliveries. He is a different bowler compared to Tim Southee, Trent Boult and Neil

"Jamieson hits the deck hard and whatever he does, is off the seam. There were variations which he used where he angled is wrists and bowled big inswingers. There was reasonable variation in his bowling and what I liked was consistency," Tendulkar said.

Tendulkar also liked how Jamieson used his height to play the big shots.

"His partnership with Williamson was critical one for New Zealand. He chose to attack from ball one and used his height beautifully. A tall batter, who can get on to the front-foot and makes a big statement.

"That kind of unsettles bowler and they have to pull back their lengths because batter is using his height. When the ball has to come chin high, then length has to be short and that gives batter chance to play horizontal bat shots and that's what Jamieson exactly did. Anything off length, he used his height beautifully, stood tall and played most of them."

On the Indian front, Tendulkar felt that Virat Kohli and Cheteshwar Pujara's dismissal in the first hour on sixth day became decisive.

Shafali all set to make ODI debut

Bristol, June 26: Teen sensation Shafali Verma is set to make her eagerly-anticipated ODI debut as the Indian women's team seeks white-ball course correction against a strong world champion English side in the first game of the three-match series, here on Sunday. The 17-year-old batting sensation, who has taken world cricket by storm, has so far played 22 T20 Internationals but was inexplicably not picked for the last home series against South Africa Women, with India witnessing disastrous consequences.

India lost 1-4 against South Africa and there was a lot of debate about Shafali's omission from that series. No such harakiri is expected to be committed by the Indian team management, which now understands Shafali's true value all the more after her stellar Test debut against England last week. — PTI
