KCR AFRAID OF MIM'S WRATH, SAYS KISHAN

DC CORRESPONDENT
HYDERABAD, NOV. 28

Union minister of state G. Kishan Reddy slammed Chief Minister K. Chandrashekhar Rao for being silent when Akbaruddin Owaisi spoke of demolition of PV and NTR ghatas. He alleged that the CM was afraid of the MIM.

Vote for TRS to keep Hyd peaceful in future: KCR

DC CORRESPONDENT
HYDERABAD, NOV. 28

Urging the people to support the TRS, Chief Minister K. Chandrashekhar Rao on Saturday said, "This is the time to save, to build and take pride in presenting Hyderabad to the world as we have been doing."

Addressing a massive public meeting at LB Stadium, on which the TRS has laid great hope, Chandrashekhar Rao said, "It is a great historical place. Some divisive forces are trying to enter Hyderabad this time to create havoc here."

Asking the people if they would vote for such forces, he said, "Are we going to lose our peace? What about the future of our children? Please think, we may not be there but our children will be here. I appeal to all, particularly the intellectual community, to please rise, educate, come stand in the queue and vote for the TRS, which is progressive party."

He said: "This is to save Hyderabad, our history and its peace. I ask all professionals, particularly from the IT sector, engineers, lawyers, doctors, and everyone whether we want the same peaceful Hyderabad to continue? Do we want law and order to be maintained? What people are talking outside, you are watching." "They're shamelessly talking about their divisive proposal which is a very dangerous one. This is not at all desirable in a city that has been cosmopolitan for centuries."

Assuring that the TRS is committed to implementing all the promises made in its manifesto, he said supplying 24-hour drinking water to each household is his dream. He assured distribution of ₹10,000 to the flood-affected families who had not received aid, from December 7.

Chandrashekhar Rao said that the trend in the GHMC elections had been changing by the hour and people were looking at the TRS. "I am confident that TRS will win the GHMC with four to five seats more than last elections. We will start a new journey for development of Hyderabad after December 4 from LB stadium," he added.

PM reviews Covid vaccine progress at Bharat Biotech

DC CORRESPONDENT

HYDERABAD, AHMEDABAD, PUNE, NOV. 28

Prime Minister Narendra Modi visited Coronavirus vaccine facilities at Ahmedabad, Hyderabad and Pune to review the development and manufacturing process on Monday.

The visit was purely functional, and shorn of any ceremony.

Modi first visited the Zydus Biotech Park in Ahmedabad, then the Bharat Biotech plant in the city and wound up his tour with a visit to the Serum Institute of India facility in Pune.

Modi later posted on his Twitter handle that Bharat Biotech officials had briefed him about their vaccine.

He congratulated the scientists for their progress in the trials so far.

Biotech said they were humbled by the visit of the Prime Minister.

The PM personally reviewed the vaccine development and manufacturing process.

He was briefed by the company about the human trials for which 26,000 volunteers in hospitals across the country have been enrolled.

The vaccine is being produced in the certified level 3 biosafety production unit.

Modi also interacted with Bharat Biotech chairman and managing director Krishna Ella, scientists and senior management.

At all the three plants, the Prime Minister, who was wearing a PPE kit during the review, was extensively briefed about the vaccine work by company officials and scientists.

Modi landed at the Hakimpet Air Force station at around 1 pm and proceeded to Bharat Biotech's facility away by road.

He reviewed the progress of Covaxin, a vaccine candidate being developed by the company. He also interacted with Bharat Biotech chairman and managing director Krishna Ella, scientists and senior management.

Yogi: Only BJP can rename Hyd Bhagyanagar

DC CORRESPONDENT
HYDERABAD, NOV. 28

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath on Saturday said that only the BJP had the guts to rename Hyderabad as Bhagyanagar. He said the BJP government in UP renamed Faizabad as Ayodhya.

Adityanath was speaking at road shows in Jee-dinetla and Kukatpally. He recalled that Hyderabad had merged with the country under the leadership of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel. When the Nizam tried to merge Hyderabad with Pakistan, the people revolted and Patel merged Hyderabad State with India.

Zoo to remain closed on Dec. 1

Hyderabad: Due to the GHMC elections, the Nehru Zoological Park will be closed on December 1 following orders of the State Election Commission. The Zoological Park had reopened to visitors on October 6, amid strict safety protocols, seven months after it was closed down due to the spread of the Covid-19.

A large number of people from different parts of the city attended Chief Minister K. Chandrashekhar Rao's public meeting ahead of the GHMC elections, at the LB Stadium on Saturday.

We are not slaves of Delhi, CM tells Centre

Will take the lead in national politics, says TRS president

DC CORRESPONDENT
HYDERABAD, NOV. 28

Delhi is "shivering" after his call for a new political alternative with new thoughts, new ideas and new policies, TRS president and Chief Minister K. Chandrashekhar Rao said on Saturday.

Renewing his question on the rationale behind privatising LIC, which had 40 lakh policy holders and around ₹30 lakh crore of assets, the CM said: "They are targeting me because I questioned the privatisation of LIC and disinvestment in public sector undertakings like BHEL and railways. I strongly supported the nationwide strike of the trade unions and opposed legislation on agriculture. That is why they are scared of me and my commitment to the people."

Asking why the BJP leaders were coming in such large numbers and attacking this 'lanky man', Rao said they wanted to confine him to Hyderabad because he was questioning the policies of the BJP government at the Centre.

Stressing the need for a political alternative, Rao said, "The two national parties have miserably failed to address the basic issues of the people. Poverty, illiteracy and hunger still remain while there is inadequate healthcare, unemployment and agrarian crisis all over the country."

Referring to the electioneering of his Uttar Pradesh counterpart Yogi Adityanath, Rao said, "As a fellow-CM, I welcome him. But what moral authority does he have to talk about development here? His state ranks 28th in terms of development, whereas Telangana state is in the fifth position."

These so-called national leaders would disappear soon after the election campaign, but the TRS would remain forever in Telangana state, Rao said.

On the national political realignment that he has suggested, Rao said that he would take the lead in national politics. "Let's see who will stop me," he said. "We are not slaves of Delhi. We are not appointed by Delhi. We are appointed by the people of Telangana state and they are our bosses and we work for them."

Referring to the criticism of BJP leader, the CM said, "They even addressed me in the singular. We too have 60 lakh committed workers in the party. We also have a big mouth. But we cannot stoop to their levels. We have dignity."

TD PROTESTS AKBARUDDIN'S REMARKS

DC CORRESPONDENT
ADILABAD, NOV. 27

AIMIM leader Akbaruddin Owaisi's statement that NTR Ghat beside Hussainsagar should be demolished has activated the party's cadre.

TD leaders recalled that it was then Chief Minister N.T. Rama Rao who had set up the Waqf Board and Minorities Corporation.

At various places, TD leaders and activists staged protests against Akbaruddin Owaisi's comments and burnt his effigies. It was after a long gap that the Telugu Desam activists and leaders were seen on the roads.

name of religion and create trouble," he said.

"We will not let anyone disturb the peace in Hyderabad. We will certainly not be soft in any way. In fact, not only MIM and BJP leaders, even if TRS leaders make some statements and try to disturb the peace, cases will be registered against them."

He said industrialists and business persons would be the first to suffer if communal harmony was disturbed.

"Hyderabad has been peaceful for the past six years. There has not been a single incidence of communal tension. Today, the BJP trying to divide people in the

Kishan questions CM's silence on city floods

DC CORRESPONDENT
HYDERABAD, NOV. 28

the tragedy following the rains and flooding in October, he had rushed from New Delhi where as the Chief Minister had not bothered to come out of his farmhouse to visit the affected families.

"I am wondering how TRS leaders can ask for votes. I wish to remind that KCR had promised to clean Tank Bund and provide drinking water from Hussain sagar. I wish to exhort people to ask TRS candidates who visit them for votes, to first drink Tank Bund water," Kishan Reddy said.

He alleged that when MIM leaders give orders, TRS big guns obliged like puppets. He wondered why the CM did not react when MIM leader Akbaruddin Owaisi spoke of the demolition of PV Ghat and NTR Ghat.

He assured that BJP will implement all the schemes specified in the party manifesto. The TRS has spent ₹5 crore on each division to bribe voters, he claimed.

Speaking at a road show in Mahankali division took exception to the Chief Minister's claims at his LB Stadium public meeting. He wanted the CM to take action against people who are trying to instigate communities and sowing the seeds of communal disharmony.

He said this was the handiwork of TRS and the AIMIM. He termed the CM's meeting at LB Stadium as a damp squib. His face revealed the fears that were haunting him, Kishan Reddy said.

On December 1, people must come out and vote for a change, he said.

TRS men set to join BJP: Bandi

DC CORRESPONDENT
HYDERABAD, NOV. 28

BJP state president Bandi Sanjay claimed that the TRS government will collapse after the GHMC elections and the ruling party MLAs will join the BJP soon thereafter.

He was participating in election campaigns at Kavadiguda, Bhalakpur, Ramnagar division, which all come under Musheerabad Assembly constituency.

The BJP leader said that the Union government was listing the "corrupt activities" of Chief Minister K. Chandrashekhar Rao and his family and he would be jailed for those offences. He stated that after GHMC elections, Assembly byelections would be necessitated in the state.

Sanjay criticised the Chief Minister for not getting an invitation for progress of Covid vaccine. He accused the police of implementing the script given by the state government. He reminded police officials that have landed jobs in the department on individual merit and they should refrain from working as TRS cadre.

Sanjay warned Rao against creating trouble during Union home minister Amit Shah's tour to the city. He said police were troubling BJP leaders and people who are working for the party's victory.

15 WAKF OFFICIALS GET MEMOS FOR NEGLECT OF DUTY

DC CORRESPONDENT
HYDERABAD, NOV. 28

Fifteen officials of the Telangana State Wakf Board have been issued memos seeking explanation for "dereliction of duty" after the Board was pulled up recently by the High Court for failure to protect graveyards from encroachments and inaction in lodging FIRs against the land-grabbers.

The Board's Chief Executive Officer issued the memos, which accuse the officials of utter failure in conducting physical inspections, surveys and submitting the findings based on which FIRs could be filed against the offenders. The officials were also charged that they failed to submit detailed reports within the stipulated time.

It may be recalled that the High Court took serious objection to the Wakf Board's failure in filing criminal cases against encroachments of graveyards under its control. As per the report submitted by the Board, 86 graveyards in Hyderabad have been encroached and only five FIRs were lodged.

The court dismissed the Board's plea that the police was not inclined to register FIRs citing the complaint is civil in nature and held that Criminal Procedure Code (Cr PC) provides three options for getting criminal cases registered against an offender and the CEO has failed in opting for any of the provisions.

Meanwhile, employees are furious at the memos that have been issued. They alleged that higher officers are trying to make them scapegoats. "We are not authorised to lodge a criminal complaint. The CEO issued orders after he was reprimanded by the Court," they contended. They said that it is not possible to conduct such surveys and prepare a detailed report within eight days, particularly considering that they have only one regular surveyor and a temporary surveyor.

The Board is suffering from shortage of staff after 60% of the staff went to AP.

Disappointed citizens use long weekend to go on a holiday

KANIZA GARARI | DC
HYDERABAD, NOV. 28

Upset with political parties for not fulfilling their demands and losing interest in the municipal elections, many voters have decided to convert the voting day holiday on Tuesday, December 1, into long weekend and escape from the city.

The offices of IT companies, medical and pharmaceutical firms and other organisations have received leave applications for Monday. Only the sales personnel who have to meet monthly targets will be at work.

Schools have declared a holiday to commemorate Guru Nanak's birth anniversary and Tuesday is a holiday on account of the elections.

Families have tied up these two holidays with the weekend to journey outside the city. Long road trips, adventure resorts and outings have been planned; the weather has been pleasant and the water bodies are brimming with water.

Officials carry ballot boxes to be used for the GHMC elections to the distribution centre at City College, in

On Saturday, many students told their teachers they could not join the online classes due to network issues as they were travelling. When the teachers contacted the parents, they found that the families had left on a holiday.

B.V. Raju, a techie, said,

"There is no party that is talking about dealing with the city's issues. Every part of the city has its own problems. In Madhapur and Hitec City areas, the water woes begin in January. Is anyone talking about resolving this problem? Why should we vote for any party?" People in the Old City and Secunderabad, too, say that their complaints regarding roads, drainage, sewers, infrastructure and encroached lakes are not attended to.

M.A. Jaffery, a businessman from the Old City, asked, "We do not find any political party working for the development of the Old City. Why should we vote in these elections?" Many of those who are leaving the city for the weekend or have decided to stay at home are being asked to queue up and use the Nota option. They are not interested, stating that it is of no use. Due to the Covid-19 pandemic, few senior citizens are expected to be seen at the polling booths.

Given their conditions, it is only the middle-aged and young who will opt for voting on Tuesday. Analysts state that these are constant warning signals from people that they are not happy with the political leaders. Will absenteeism help in better governance, is the question.

MODI GREETS PEOPLE NEAR BIOTECH FIRM

"At the Bharat Biotech facility in Hyderabad, was briefed about their indigenous Covid-19 vaccine. Congratulated the scientists for their progress in the trials so far. Their team is closely working with ICMR to facilitate speedy progress," Modi posted on Twitter.

While leaving the facility, Modi got down from his vehicle at the main gate and waved to media persons and the cheering crowd standing nearby.

The Prime Minister's last visit of the day was to the Serum Institute of India at Manjari, 17 km from the airport.

At the institute he reviewed the progress of the Covishield vaccine being made there.

The Prime Minister interacted with scientists at the Serum Institute and had a walkabout of the facility, taking stock of vaccine development work being carried out there.

The Prime Minister was received by Dr Cyrus Poonawalla, chairman of Poonawalla Group, and his son and SII Chief Executive Officer Adar Poonawalla.

2 Rachakonda constables placed under suspension over bribery

DC CORRESPONDENT
HYDERABAD NOV. 28

Rachakonda police commissioner Mahesh Bhagwat placed two constables — R. Chandra Shekar and K. Lingaswamy of Choutuppal — under suspension on Saturday for allegedly demanding bribes from citizens. The orders were passed by the official based on the report submitted by DCP, Bhongir, K. Narayan Reddy. The Rachakonda police chief appealed to citizens that in case any police personnel resorts to corrupt practices they can complain on the WhatsApp number 9490617111.

Parties failed to address issues, feel youth

HARLEEN MINOCHA | DC
HYDERABAD, NOV. 28

has been disturbing for the most part. There's always some argument or debate going on over unnecessary issues, rather than a proper discussion where problems of society are addressed.

"The State Women's Commission is non-functional. The government has been failing the women ever since it came to power. All corporators in their respective wards need to be made accountable, but the issue for them is non-existent," said a woman who wishes to remain anonymous.

Another voter from Allwyn Colony, Kukatpally, Gaurav Jain, said, "Currently all political parties are trying to bag votes in the name of religion and caste. Not a single leader has addressed issues of development, roads, infrastructure, employment opportunities, healthcare, education facilities. This time I would like to see them delivering results rather than delivering speeches."

Suresh Reddy, a voter from Attapur believes that the promises made in the manifestoes of each party are far off from what is achievable at the level of corporators. "I think to score their points, manifestos have been made in a way that is not realistic. In that race, the real basic issues have already been neglected by the contesting candidates," he said.

Off the beaten track

Different, and same: Pandemic musings

Big calamities induce great change. The Fukushima disaster 2011 in Japan left behind 16,000 dead and the haunting image of the Emperor Akihito, kneeling before aged victims — never before, mutely humane gesture expressing remorse and reassurance.

April 2020, India. A possible 10 million emigrant workers abandon locked down cities. Some walk to distant villages with their family in tow and their meagre possessions on their heads — a replay of the post-Partition mass exchange of the dispossessed in 1947 — except this is just one-way.

Media reports kindle public sympathy. Yogi Adityanath mobilises hundreds of buses to ferry "his" people home to Uttar Pradesh. Their cousins from Bihar are left to brave the searing summer heat and exhaustion — some die on the way.

November 2020, New Delhi, Mumbai — lockdowns are long over but most people now carry documents to prove residence, drown themselves in vitamins and track the apps for movement restrictions. The worst is over. The Covid monster is dying. But the fear is palpable of being dragged under by its distended death spasms.

The ongoing pandemic's most telling debris — other than heightened neurosis and germophobia — are the ubiquitous masks. Masks everywhere in a macabre caricature of a Venetian Carnival — except here masks are the vehicle to scurry home not strut the streets and party.

Product design lags horribly. The masks either keep pollution out or the deadly spiked pathogens. You must choose between the two — a senseless game of Russian roulette. Pollution choked lungs gasp for air through impermeable medical-grade masks. But there are eyes watching everywhere now.

With masks obscuring the face, all-American, blindingly white teeth and a now-it's-on, now-it's-off toothy smiles are yesterday's asset — dentists, beware of your declining profits. Today it is the eyes which are once again the windows to a person's soul.

For the well-off, excluding others from physical proximity, unless they are suitably bathed and clad, was always the norm. South Asians smarten up before they go to beg for relief for a Bahubali (big man). It is not just hotels and the military, which enforce daily dress and hygiene inspections. Privileged homes also follow this rule, requiring house help to change into "clean uniforms" before going about their work.

It all goes back to the Raj, when mem-sahibs would drill the women of the "coolie lines" — people not like them — on the basics of hygiene, partly, to forestall the spread of classless contagion to the "main house".

Hawking or spitting is second nature to South Asians. An early morning ritual which requires the most labored exertions to eject yesterday's detritus from around our gullets, in a fluid heave by contracting the stomach and gagging ferociously. Sensible Europeans brush their teeth post dinner. Asians must do it early in the morning, before eating anything, or lose their meal.

Touching and feeling anything and everything is second nature. It could be a door frame, the back of a chair or even the person ahead of oneself in a queue. Does "connecting" physically create a human chain of reassurance circling the Globe?

With masks obscuring the face, all-American, blindingly white teeth and a now-it's-on, now-it's-off toothy smiles are yesterday's asset — dentists, beware of your declining profits. Today it is the eyes which are once again the windows to a person's soul.

And don't forget how voice and audio have eaten into video's share as the principal tool for business and social communication, to access knowledge, music, shows or catch-up on current affairs because pod casts allow you to "multitask" — the holy grail of the 2020s, also known by the less flattering epithet of "shared attention" — as by a mother of quintuplets.

Personal vehicles, insanely popular in South Asia because of poor public transport, soar in appeal. They extend the bubble of "safe social isolation" to the street. The purveyors of the virtues of "shared mobility" need to come up with very rigorous sanitisation options before people go back to Uber and Ola. One option is drive through UV sanitizers — giant versions of the smaller ones for home use, to disinfect mobiles and parcels, now available at between ₹2,000 to ₹10,000 apiece.

Accessing doctors is, at once convenient and yet dreadfully stressful. Letting a doctor look down your gullet online whilst lying in your bed is sheer luxury, as is ordering medicines like pizza. The bad old days of heaving yourself to a hospital or a clinic for a doctor's appointment or to get a medical test done, are now mere memories, except for the truly ill, who now need generous insurance policies and "connections" for non-Covid medical help.

Dying at home was once a preferred eventuality for the aged. Today they are denied even this final dignity. Doctors hesitate to certify the cause of death. Even the dead must pass by to be stamped as "non-Covid" before being cremated or buried. Some say, the movers and shakers, who know how to live and die comfortably, get certificates prepared in advance, just to avoid the detour. Kafka rules now more than ever.

Chanakya's View

As I saw thousands of farmers being tear-gassed and drenched by water cannons, and the mass of lathi-wielding policemen and barbed-wire barricades put up to prevent farmers coming to Delhi to protest against the recent farm bills, I was reminded of Tulsidas' remarkably insightful lines in the Ramcharitmanas: Nahn kou asa janama jaga mahin, prabhuta pai jahi mada nahn. Never was a creature born in this world, whom power did not intoxicate. How else can one explain the arrogant manner in which the BJP government has handled the entire project of farm reforms? It is a classic case of hubris derailing even a well-intentioned attempt of change.

Firstly, it was the manner in which the three agricultural bills were passed in Parliament last September. This is a government with an overwhelming majority in the Lok Sabha, and a manageable preponderance in the Rajya Sabha. It is in a position on a simple numerical basis to get its legislative agenda through. Why then were these bills passed in a tearing hurry, without a structured discussion, through a voice vote, and without sending the bills for wider consultations and thorough consideration to the select committee?

Let us accept, too, that there is a need to replace the stranglehold of middlemen in agricultural trade and do away with the APMC Act. However, if the farmers are protesting the move it is not because they have shrunk craniums that prevent them from realising what is good for them. The question is not that agricultural commerce needs to be opened up, but what is going to replace it. The government says that removing unproductive middlemen and allowing farmers to sell to whomsoever they want is good for farmers. It will open the way for corporate India to buy from farmers, enhance business investment in the agricultural sector, facilitate healthy price competition and thereby increase farmer remuneration.

The fact of the matter is that, while this sounds great in theory, marginal and small farmers with less than five hectares of land account for 86 per cent of total farmers in India. No attempt has been made, as part of preparatory steps leading up to this reform legislation, to aggregate them or to encourage cooperatives. They have been given the freedom to sell outside the APMC, but given their indigent and scattered status, are without the power to negotiate the best deal for themselves.

It is true that there are only some 7,000 APMC mandis across the country, and farmers can theoretically sell to anyone they wish to. In fact, some states like Bihar, Kerala and Manipur have scrapped the APMC Act. But has the condition of the small and marginal farmers really improved in these states? The truth is that the old system, which does need reform — guarantees to most farmers through the MSP, a minimum floor price for their hard-earned produce. The much-maligned middlemen or adhatis provide a support system to farmers for transporting their produce and selling it; they also are a part of a familiar socio-economic eco-system available to farmers in times of need, such as a temporary loan for marriage ceremonies or child education. Now the assurance of the old system is being removed, and there is no explicit guarantee in the law for MSP.

Reforms, although necessary, need to be prepared for and properly transitioned. Suppose, the government made a peremptory announcement that henceforth everybody will travel in New Delhi only by public transport. The step can be justified as a "reform" because it will save fuel, encourage savings, and reduce pollution. But the ordinary person will ask the basic question: is the existing public transport infrastructure good enough to meet this increased demand? If the answer is no, then people will protest.

The agricultural sector is crying out for greater investment. The government feels that these farm bills will facilitate this by the corporate sector. However, has the government come out with the requisite tax incentives and fiscal policies that will encourage such investment? Besides, there is a point beyond which governments — both at the centre and in the states — cannot abdicate their own responsibility. Systemic investments in modernising the food supply chain should have been made in much greater measure by governments. The buck is now being passed on to the private sector on the uncertain premise that they will do what successive governments did not.

We need agricultural reform. But it must be done through consultation with the stakeholders and systematically prepared. Teary-gassing farmers and intimidating them is not the answer.

PAK KILLING JAWANS

It is painful to read about the death of our Army personnel daily (2 more jawans killed in Pak fire, DC, Nov. 28). How long will this continue? We respond every time only after we are attacked. This is wrong. We should attack first. We should destroy their arms and soldiers. As our soldiers are brave and well-equipped, we can defeat Pakistan. Hope this chronic problem is resolved once and for all.

SIMULTANEOUS POLL

The BJP seems to be planning to return to power by creating some sort of wave and polarising votes on the basis of religion. This will be possible only if elections are conducted on a single day across the country (PM bats for simultaneous elections, single voter's list, DC, Nov. 27). Government should explore digital elections if it wants to save, money, time, check malpractices. I feel 'one nation, one election' policy is only to strengthen the BJP.

CIVIC BODY POLLS

The GHMC election campaign is getting shriller and vituperative by the day. Voters should not be carried away by their rhetoric, but vote sensibly for the party which can work to provide a clean environment and adequate basic facilities; eliminate corruption in the delivery of public services, including adequate health services.

Abdul Hakeem
Hyderabad

I pray that the Almighty drives sense into our politicians to stop shouting at each other. They must stop blaming each other for problems India faces. They must realise that politics is to provide good governance and manage resources for progress and well-being of all. Today's politicians have reduced governance to hurling freebies, divide public on caste and religion to garner votes to remain in power.

Licensing policy may not be relaxed

NEW DELHI, Nov. 28

The Ministry of Industrial Development is understood to have informed the Planning Commission that there would be no further liberalisation of licensing policy and it would go ahead, with the consent of the Cabinet with projects that would ensure over-all growth of the economy.

In the course of exchange of views it has had with the Planning Commission, the Ministry is believed to be of the view that if private sector did not come forward to help achieve the Fourth Plan targets in the industrial sector, the public sector would step in. Already, the Ministry has pointed out, some of the shortages that have developed in consumer goods, such as man-made fibres, were being overcome through the public sector. The Ministry feels strongly that the private sector should not be allowed to make money out of raw materials produced by the public sector.

been waiting to be rehabilitated for the past five months.

Soon after BJP Rajya Sabha MP and Amit Shah confidant Bhupendra Yadav was given charge of the poll campaign for the Greater Hyderabad Municipal Corporation, he immediately got down to business. He has set up shop in Hyderabad and has been approaching local Congress leaders for induction into the BJP. Realising that the Congress is on a weak wicket, Yadav and his team has been sending out feelers to the rival party's leaders, even going to the extent of calling on them at their homes. This is the same pattern adopted by the BJP in West Bengal as the saffron party is determined to expand its footprint in the East and South. Unlike Trinamool chief Mamata Banerjee who is putting up a tough fight in West Bengal, there is no one in the Congress to counter the BJP's expansionism.

Despite defeat, Rahul vac was on track; Patel's unenviable role

Over the past few days, there have been numerous accounts of how Ahmed Patel managed affairs in Congress president Sonia Gandhi's office as her political secretary. Among the various responsibilities entrusted to the late leader was to keep his boss out of the line of fire. It was left to him to tactfully handle delicate situations. A phone call from Patel generally meant he was ringing to convey some bad news. This happened with senior Haryana leader Birender Singh (now with the BJP) when he was getting ready to leave for the Rashtrapati Bhawan to be sworn in as a minister in the Manmohan Singh government in 2013. Minutes before Mr Singh stepped out, he got a call from Patel. When Mr Singh heard who the caller was, he realised he would not be joining the Union Cabinet. "I knew immediately I was out... because Ahmed Patel would not be calling to congratulate me," says Mr Singh whenever he recounts this story. This was not the first or the last time that Mr Patel was called upon to perform such an unpleasant task. But he handled it tactfully, breaking the news in his imitable gentle style. His general refrain was, "Sorry yaar, tumhara kaam nahin hua. Dekho, agli baar shayad kuch ho payega."

Thanks to the enthusiastic response RJD leader Tejashwi Yadav got at his election rallies, Rahul Gandhi was convinced that their alliance was all set to form the next government in Bihar. In fact, he was so confident that he took a break in the midst of the election campaign and went off for a short holiday to Shimla at his sister, Priyanka's house. The Nehru-Gandhi scion had even planned to go on a desert safari to Jaisalmer before the declaration of the Bihar poll results. However, these plans came unstuck because Rahul Gandhi was denied permission by the security agencies as Prime Minister Narendra Modi was due to visit the forward areas and spend his Diwali with the jawans. This was just as well as the Bihar poll results proved to be a real letdown for the Rahul-Tejashwi duo. However, this did not stop Rahul Gandhi from proceeding on vacation to Goa later with Sonia Gandhi.

Madhya Pradesh chief minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan has put the proverbial cat among the pigeons with his recent announcement that he is in no hurry to expand his Cabinet. This has obviously come as a rude shock for former ministers Tulsil Silawat and Govind Rajput who had to resign their posts in October as they had failed to get elected as MLAs in the stipulated six months following their induction into the Cabinet. Both Silawat and Rajput are Jyotiraditya Scindia loyalists who had crossed over to the BJP from the Congress along with 20 other MLAs which led to the downfall of the Kamal Nath government. The two were hoping to get back their ministries after they were re-elected in the recent Madhya Pradesh bypolls. They are naturally depending on Mr Scindia to push their case but their mentor is himself waiting for the ministerial berth promised to him by the BJP as reward for bringing down the Congress government.

Ahmed Patel's untimely demise is undoubtedly a blow for the Congress but it is a personal setback for former Rajasthan deputy chief minister Sachin Pilot who had led a rebellion against the Ashok Gehlot government earlier this year but backed off subsequently. The Congress leadership had then set up a three-member committee, comprising Patel, K.C. Venugopal and Ajay Maken to hear out Mr Pilot's grievances and find an alternative role for him. This was in July but the panel has yet to submit its report. With Patel's departure, it is highly unlikely that Mr Venugopal and Mr Maken will be in a rush to send in their recommendations. As it is, Mr Venugopal and Mr Maken were depending on the more senior and experienced Patel to find an amicable solution to the Gehlot-Pilot rivalry. This is certainly not good news for Mr Pilot who has

2 KIDS OF A FAMILY DIE, 8 HURT IN MISHAP

DC CORRESPONDENT
HYDERABAD NOV. 28

Two children of a family were killed in a road accident and eight others were injured when the car they were travelling in crashed into a parked lorry at Nandigama early on Saturday morning.

The victims were identified as Adil Khan, 13, and Mahabub Khan, 7. They were traveling with their family, residents of Chandrayangutta, towards Shadnagar when the mishap occurred.

"The incident occurred at Mekaguda bypass road. The car driver who sustained injuries was shifted to a hospital. The rest of the family members will be identified after they receive medical attention," said the police.

The police rushed to the spot after learning the accident and rescued those stuck inside the car. A case has been registered by the police and an investigation was launched.

Jobless make money from poll campaigns

Parties paid them up to ₹5K for participating in rallies

MADDY DEEKSHITH DC
HYDERABAD, NOV. 28

domestic help by her employer in April. This pushed her into a financial crisis. Her husband and two children were also jobless.

She could get a job only in August. "I agreed to work for a 50 per cent wage cut and the employers are promising full payment only after January, and that too if their financial position improves," Sujatha told Deccan Chronicle.

Electoral rallies have come as a blessing. "The parties in the beginning offered ₹500 each to me and my children and ₹1,000 to my husband. Now, they are offering me ₹1,500 and my husband ₹2,500," she said.

Sujatha, from Baghingampally, said she was sacked as a ₹30,000 in a week, while continuing to work elsewhere. Additionally, there is the prospect of election-day money. Free transport is on offer or fuel if they have their own vehicles.

Venkateshwari, a daily-wage worker in Barkatpura, said he has been participating in multiple rallies on the same day. Each party was offering him ₹1,000 per rally and he could earn ₹3,000 every day, and food came free.

If a political leader addresses a public meeting, we get ₹2,000, party T-shirts, face masks and caps, which have been extremely useful for us during the crisis. I have collected about 10 face masks and T-shirts for each person in our family."

He said parties have offered money for votes, which is a bonus. The money he has earned in the last 10 days would see him through for three months.

Venkateshwari said that people like him were saved by election rallies in these difficult times.

A few participants said there were special payments to cheer for the leader atop buildings or sunshades, or by standing on barricades. The location would be selected by the local political leaders and payments, ranging from ₹2,000 to ₹5,000, based on the risk, would be made on the spot.

I WISH

DC speaks to voters to find out the one thing they want their new corporator to do

...ANIMAL LOVERS GET SAFETY

Q Why is the Metro Rail not coming to the Old City? Why is the Dabirpura TB hospital building in shambles? We have time and again complained about encroachments of nalas and storm water drains.

The extended curves at the Government Tribunal has left only 20 feet of road. We want the corporator to sort out these issues.

— DR MOHAMMED JAVED IQBAL

...BASTI DAWAKHANAS GIVE AYUSH

Q In the GHMC region, the medical facilities are very poor. Alternative medicine systems should be introduced in the Basti Dawakhana by the new Council that will be formed at the GHMC. The new Council should also crack down on food adulteration as well as take steps to control the outbreak of seasonal diseases.

— DR MD MINHJUDDIN KHAN
senior Unani physician

...WARD IS CLEANER AND GOES GREEN

Q When Hyderabad is claimed as one of the best global cities, corporators should feel responsible. Roads, other than the VIP ones, are mostly shabby. Garbage collection and cleaning of streets should be improved. Citizens should be encouraged to use bicycles and public transport. Eco-friendly toilets should be installed at all places and not just used as billboards.

— DR ARTI RATHI
Begumpet

...WE GET BETTER ROADS, LESS TRASH

Q Many residential complexes have come up within a decade. This has compounded the problems of traffic congestion and pollution. There are no proper roads in certain areas of the division and garbage is not lifted daily. I hope that the new Council will solve the traffic congestion problem and focus on developing community parks.

TWO HELD FOR CHEATING WITH FAKE PORTAL

DC CORRESPONDENT
HYDERABAD, NOV. 28

The Hyderabad cyber-crimes police arrested two persons — Prem Muley, 31, and Mahesh Kumar Dandote, 26, of Bidar district in Karnataka — for cheating people with a fake 'Dharani portal application'. The arrest was made on a complaint from officials at the TS Technology Services Limited here, who said that fake mobile applications which are in circulation in the name of 'Dharani mobile app'.

"They accused developed a mobile application in the name of 'Dharani Telangana Land Records' and mentioned it as 'Telangana Dharani app', designed to search land record details, ROR, Phani and Form B1 details in Telugu language. They made this app available for download on playstore and were cheating the public by posing as government officials," said the CCS police.

HC slams GHMC as permit denied

VUJJINI VAMSHIDHARA I DC
HYDERABAD, NOV. 28

The Telangana High Court has faulted the GHMC for maintaining a 'private' prohibitory register, in which it was listing certain land parcels without legal basis for the purpose of denying permission for construction even to persons having the right and the title.

A division bench comprising Justice M.S. Ramachandra Rao and Justice T. Amarnath Goud said that the city planner or any other authority does not have the discretionary power to reject permission for construction without valid basis.

The court was dealing with a petition by A. Shalivahana Reddy of Kukatpally, who challenged the GHMC's refusal to grant construction permission for his house on 461 square yards in Plots No. 141 and 140 in Survey No. 78 of Hafeezpet village Serilingampally mandal, on the ground that Survey No. 78 it was categorised as 'government sarkar'.

Upon inquiry, the court found that Survey No. 78 had 215 acres and 20 guntas of land, and there were nearly 1,000 buildings on the land parcel, some without approved plans.

The petitioner said that on six occasions the government had failed to claim title over the land. In 2004, a notification under Section 22-A was set aside and a direction was given to the GHMC commissioner to pay the petitioner ₹10,000 as costs.

The government had permitted the Ranga Reddy collector to effect mutation in the land records with respect to the land as per the recommendation of the Special Chief Secretary and the Chief Commissioner of Land Administration. In a memo issued 2009, the principal secretary issued orders permitting mutation of names of the parties who had succeeded in CS No. 14 of 1958 as per the orders of the High Court.

Even after these documents were submitted, the GHMC refused to grant permission to the petitioner.

The court directed the GHMC to accord construction permission to the petitioner, and ordered the GHMC commissioner to pay the petitioner ₹10,000 as costs.

The Greater Hyderabad area will go dry from 6 pm on Sunday until 6 pm on December 1, the day of polling for the GHMC Council elections. The government on Saturday announced that all liquor shops, bars, and pubs will be closed in the GHMC limits during this period. No liquor shall be served in bars or restaurants in star hotels and clubs during this period, the government said.

Also prohibited during this period will be any kind of an assembly of people in public places, setting up of temporary shelters such as shamianas, use of public address systems or any kind of activity, whether direct or indirect, which propagates any election related matter.

Congress men offer rebate on chicken

DC CORRESPONDENT
HYDERABAD, NOV. 28

The first 1,000 Congress supporters in Subhashnagar division will get a special 25 per cent discount on 1 kg of chicken party workers in the area said.

Congress candidate for the civic body election Thaman Shravani Sridhar Reddy and his supporters have come up with this idea to attract voters.

"Vote for Congress, Give GHMC a chance and Fight Corona with Chicken," is their slogan.

So far, 20 persons have availed of the offer. Activists said the low off-take was because it was the Karthik month during which many people do not cook meat at home.

The State Election Commission, meanwhile, made it clear that no form of political campaign will be allowed from 6 pm on Sunday including convening a public meeting or procession in connection with the election. It said that any "display to the public any election matter by means of cinematography, television, or other similar apparatus" is also prohibited after 6 pm on Sunday.

PIL FILED AGAINST MLC NOMINATIONS UNDER GUV'S QUOTA

DC CORRESPONDENT
HYDERABAD, NOV. 28

A petition was filed before the Telangana High Court seeking to quash the GO and notification regarding the recent nomination of three MLCs by the Governor. The petitioner, advocate T. Dhanagopal Rao, said that the process to nominate the MLCs — Gorati Venkanna, Basavaraju Sariah and Boggarpudi Dayanand — had not been followed with regard to the provisions laid down in Article 171(3) of the Constitution read with Clause 5.

The petitioner said that the Governor has the discretion to nominate MLCs who have special knowledge and practical experience in specialised subjects like literature, science, art, social service or cooperative movement as per clause 5 of Article 171.

Here, the Governor nominated the MLCs based on the recommendations of the Cabinet, which is contrary to the prescribed provisions.

The petitioner sought that he be nominated MLC in place of those three, and urged the High Court to tell the government to consider his name.

Sikhs to celebrate Prakash Utsav on November 29 & 30

DC CORRESPONDENT
HYDERABAD, NOV. 28

GSS PRABHANDAK
Committee president S. Baldev Singh and secretary S. Avtar Singh said the event will be marked by the recitation of Gurbani keertans by reputed ragi jathas (religious preachers) who are being specially invited from various parts of the country.

On November 29, two deewans will be held at the Secunderabad Gurudwara premises, from 5 am to 10.30 am and 7 pm to 9 pm. After the culmination of the congregation Guru Ka Langar (free community kitchen) will be served to the devotees.

Upset with poor civic facilities, Gunfoundry doctor enters fray

SANJAY SAMUEL
PAUL | DC
HYDERABAD, NOV. 28

It was during the Coronavirus lockdown that Dr Surekha Omprakesh Beeshwa, a resident of Gunfoundry, decided that it was time she did something about the civic conditions in her municipal ward.

An Ayurvedic practitioner, Dr Surekha, said Gunfoundry, Ward No. 78, is confronted with problems like lack of sanitation, many other basic amenities despite the locality being in the heart of the city.

"I was born and brought up in this division. Though situated in the centre of the city, the division is without basic civic amenities. It needs better sanitation, a revival of the library which was highly patronised in the past, proper maintenance of the community hall and some fitness centres and parks," she said.

People, she said, are vexed with the pathetic civic infrastructure in the area, and "when we ladies were debating during these lockdowns and the floods, I decided that I should do something, I need to get into politics and serve."

The division has a high percentage of families that are well educated and is home to several reputed educational institutions, many commercial establishments and hospitals.

EPFO EXTENDS DEADLINE FOR PENSIONERS

New Delhi, Nov. 28: Retirement fund body EPFO has extended the deadline for submission of life certificates by pensioners till February 28, a move which would benefit over 35 lakh persons who could not submit the document by November due to Coronavirus pandemic.

The pensioners who could not submit their life certificates till November 30 deadline, would get pension every month till February. "In view of the ongoing Covid-19 pandemic and the vulnerability of elderly population to Coronavirus, the Employees' Provident Fund Organisation (EPFO) has extended the time limit up to 28th February 2021 for submission of Life Certificate (Jeevan Pramaan Patra-JPP) in respect of the Pensioners drawing pension under EPS 1995 (Employees' Pension Scheme-1995) and whose Life certificate is due in any month till February 28, 2021," a labour ministry statement said.

Presently, a pensioner can submit JPP anytime during the year up to 30th November, which is valid for a period of one year from the date of issue. All such pensioners can submit life certificates till February 28, 2021.

During this extended period, pension will not be stopped in respect of 35 lakh pensioners who could not submit JPP during November 2020, the ministry added.

Centre ready for farm talks: Shah

Protesters' numbers swell at the Burari grounds

New Delhi/Chandigarh, Nov. 28: Thousands of farmers dug in their heels at Delhi's border points, their numbers swelling through the day as many more joined them, and hundreds gathered at the city's Burari grounds on Saturday, disparate but united in their determination to hold protests against the new farm laws.

With many roads and entry points blocked, Union Home Minister Amit Shah appealed to the farmers to shift to the Burari ground and said the Centre is ready to hold discussions with them as soon as they move to the designated place.

He said a delegation of the farmers has been invited for discussion on December 3, adding now that some of their unions have demanded that talks be held immediately, the central government is ready to do so as soon as the protesters shift to the ground in Burari.

Punjab Chief Minister Amarinder Singh termed Shah's offer to hold discussions at the earliest as the best in the interest of the farming community and the nation at large. He urged the farmers to accept the appeal and shift to the designated place for their protest.

After a restive Friday that saw police using teargas shells, water cannons and multi-layer barriers to block the protesters and some farmers pelting stones and breaking barricades in their determination to push through as part of their 'Delhi Chalo' march, it was a quiet Saturday.

Though there was no clear roadmap, the farmers, belonging to multiple groups, including 30 from Punjab, appeared clear in their resolve, some saying that they would not disperse till the laws were repealed and others that would ensure their voices are heard. They were mostly from Punjab and Haryana but also from Madhya Pradesh, Uttar Pradesh and Rajasthan.

At the Singhu and Tikri borders, thousands of farmers in trucks, tractors and other vehicles who had braved the water cannons and batons and had been there for three days, refused to budge. As police personnel swarmed the area, many said they would not go to the Sant Nirankari ground in Burari that was offered to them for peaceful protests. Settling down for another night on the road, some said they would wait for the outcome of a crucial meeting on Sunday to decide the next course of action.

UP 'love jihad' law gets Gov. nod

Lucknow, Nov. 28: The Uttar Pradesh ordinance aimed at curbing forcible or fraudulent religious conversions including those for the sake of marriage has got the assent of state Governor Anandiben Patel with the new law providing for a jail term of up to 10 years for any violations.

The law, which has been published in the UP gazette, comes into force at once, an official spokesperson said on Saturday. The ordinance was promulgated by the Governor on Friday with immediate effect.

and those wishing to change their religion after marriage need to apply to the district magistrate.

The Yogi Adityanath government on Tuesday approved the draft of the Uttar Pradesh Prohibition of Unlawful Conversion of Religion Ordinance, 2020, which also curbs religious conversions only for the sake of marriage, dubbed by BJP leaders as 'love jihad'.

"The way in which religious conversions are done using deceit, lies, force and dishonesty is heart wrenching, and it was necessary to have a law in this regard," Cabinet minister and UP government spokesperson Sidharth Nath Singh had said.

India, Nepal put 'sour' ties back on friendly track

SRIDHAR KUMARASWAMI
NEW DELHI, NOV. 28

With India declaring it is "Nepal's foremost friend and development partner", bilateral ties are once again firmly back on track following the successful two-day visit of foreign secretary Harsh Vardhan Shringla to Kathmandu this week. Sources said recently that both sides "noted the special relations between India and Nepal, and the importance of respecting each other's sensitivities", adding that the two sides "shared their perspectives on boundary matters and discussed ways to take it forward under the appropriate bilateral mechanisms".

Foreign Secretary Mr. Shringla said in Kathmandu during his just-concluded visit that culminated on Friday that "aside from our common civilisational inheritance, India's relationship with Nepal rests on four pillars – development cooperation; stronger connectivity; expanded infrastructure and economic projects; easier and enhanced access to educational opportunities in India for the young people of Nepal". He had also declared that "underlying all of these is a steadfast principle: we will work to Nepal's priorities".

The Foreign Secretary also "assured the people of Nepal that, once a vaccine is rolled out, meeting Nepal's requirements would be a priority for us".

Macros deployed near E. Ladakh

DC CORRESPONDENT
NEW DELHI, NOV. 28

India has deployed Marine Commandos (Macros) from the Indian Navy in the Pangong lake area, which is one of the flash points with China in Eastern Ladakh.

Macros will also get new boats to carry out operations in the lake apart from the existing infrastructure there. Indian Air Force's Garud and Indian Army's Para Special Forces have already been operating in Ladakh.

India's position has been that it was China that had first moved its troops at the LAC and China will have to be the first to withdraw from these positions. India has told China that it will talk about all flashpoints and not just about the south bank of Pangong Tso where Indian Army occupied strategic heights in August in a surprise move.

India has deployed Macros in Ladakh at a time when there is a virtual deadlock between India and China to disengage from the seven months military standoff in Eastern Ladakh. There has been no progress on the disengagement proposals that were discussed during eight rounds of Corps Commanders meeting. There has also been no discussion on the next date of Corps Commanders meeting.

In the much-awaited Central Secretariat meeting of the ruling Communist Party of Nepal (CPN) on Saturday, Prime Minister Oli submitted a separate 38-page political document in response to the allegations made by party's executive chairman "Prachanda".

INDIA, LANKA, MALDIVES TO ENSURE PEACE

Colombo, Nov. 28: Top security officials of India, Sri Lanka and the Maldives on Saturday agreed to further strengthen cooperation and ensure peace for common benefit as they took stock of the current maritime security environment in the region during the high-level trilateral dialogue which was held here after a gap of six years. National Security Advisor Ajit Doval took part in the dialogue along with Sri Lankan Defence Secretary Major Gen. (Retd.) Kamal Gunaratne and Maldivian Defence Minister Mariya Didi. Sri Lanka hosted the fourth National Security Adviser-level trilateral meeting on maritime security cooperation with India and the Maldives.

It took place after six years. According to a joint statement issued by Sri Lanka's Ministry of Defence, the three countries — recognising the significance of the forum for promoting meaningful cooperation in the Indian Ocean Region on common issues pertaining to maritime security — took stock of the current maritime security environment in the region.

Germany hits mn cases as Russia links up with India on vaccine

Europe toll crosses 4L, shops reopen in parts of continent

Berlin, Nov. 28: Germany, once a beacon of hope in Europe's Coronavirus nightmare, logged more than one million cases on Friday, while Russia asked India to help mass produce its controversial Sputnik vaccine.

Although the virus spread is slowing thanks to weeks of tough restrictions, Europe remains at the heart of the pandemic, recording more cases than the United States in the past week.

The pandemic is spreading fastest in Asia and Latin America, and is up by a worrying 113 percent over the week in Mexico.

Until recently, Germany's relative success in containing the virus had offered some sense of hope.

Paris, Nov. 28: Coronavirus deaths topped 400,000 Saturday in Europe, the world's second worst-hit region, as parts of the continent began to reopen shops for the holiday season. But across the Atlantic fearful US shoppers turned to online outlets for a massive Black Friday sale, while densely populated Los Angeles county announced a ban on gatherings of people under a new "safer-at-home order".

Persistent high case numbers loom over governments' hopes to ease their virus rules for Christmas and New Year.

Europe on Saturday crossed a grim barrier, registering 400,649 deaths. Stores began lifting their shutters in France on Saturday, while Poland's shopping centres will also reopen.

"I'd rather avoid the internet, I'm going to buy things in the shops. They need it," said Anne Dubois, one of the first customers applauded through the doors by staff at Paris' vast Galeries Lafayette department store.

"Whether or not there's people here, at least we've got our daily life getting back to normal," said 36-year-old Aurelie, a manager in the L'Oréal section at Galeries Lafayette.

Belgium will allow shops to reopen from December 1, but keep the current semi-lockdown in place possibly until mid-January. The move mirrors similar easing in Germany, Luxembourg and the Netherlands. Ireland has also announced a staggered easing of restrictions to allow some businesses to reopen.

SHORT TAKES

Hamilton takes Bahrain GP pole

Manama: Newly-crowned seven-time champion Lewis Hamilton claimed pole position for Sunday's Bahrain Grand Prix with an impeccable record-breaking lap on Saturday as Mercedes dominated the floodlit qualifying session. He clocked an all-time track record lap in one minute and 27.264 seconds to outpace team-mate Valtteri Bottas by 0.289 seconds, the pair delivering Mercedes' 11th front row lockout of the season.

It was Hamilton's record-increasing 98th career pole position and the fluency and speed of his driving endorsed his status as the outstanding man to beat at Sakhir's Bahrain International Circuit. With two races to go, Hamilton could reach a remarkable total of 100 pole positions at the final race while he is also seeking to increase his total of wins from 10 to a record-equaling 13 triumphs.

Jehan pips Mick for F2 podium

Bahrain: Rising Indian racer Jehan Daruvala earned his maiden Formula 2 podium after pipping championship leader Mick Schumacher in a gripping battle for the third place at the Bahrain Grand Prix support race, here.

Starting eighth on the grid, Jehan gained two places and stayed sixth for a few laps. However, in Lap 5, he lost two places and was forced off the circuit. The resulting loss of speed cost him more positions. He stayed in tenth place for a few laps before pitting to change tyres.

The 22-year-old Indian emerged from the pits down in the 18th place but quickly climbed up the order. He gained more positions as others pitted and was running sixth by lap 19 of the 32 lap race.

Jehan soon overtook multiple race winner Robert Schwartzman to move up to fifth. — PTI

JONNY CRACKS WHIP AS ENG WIN AGAINST SA

Cape Town, Nov. 28: Jonny Bairstow brought England home with an unbeaten 86 from 48 balls against South Africa to win the first Twenty20 by five wickets on Friday.

Bairstow won it with back-to-back boundaries, a four and then a big six over wide long-on, to take England to 183-5 and past South Africa's 179-6 with four balls to spare.

England was behind the game through most of its chase despite Bairstow's boundary hitting until the 17th over, when Bairstow and captain Eoin Morgan plundered 28 off left-arm seamer Beuran Hendricks.

That changed the complexion completely at a fan-free Newlands, with England needing 51 runs from 24 balls before the over and just 23 from 18 after it.

Morgan fell for 12 in the next over to a catch at midwicket off Lungi Ngidi but England kept its head, and Bairstow kept smashing boundaries, after being given the opening.

Bairstow hit nine fours and four sixes and was England's match-winner.

Sam Curran, who took 3-28 with the ball to lead England's bowling attack, helped out with the bat with a six of his own right at the end, and was 7 not out.

The teams will play three T20s and three one-day internationals on England's short-notice tour, organised to give both teams a chance to play some cricket in a virus-disrupted international schedule. — AP

Brief scores: S. Africa 179/6 in 20 overs (F. Du Plessis 58, H. Van der Dussen 37; S. Curran 3-28) lost to England 183/5 in 19.2 overs (J. Bairstow 86 not out, B. Stokes 37; G. Linde 2-20). — PTI

Hyderabad's adamant defending frustrated Bengaluru, who struggled to take the ball up to their attacking trio of Sunil Chhetri, Kristian Opseth and Udanta Singh.

Bengaluru engaged in long-range shots, which proved futile.

Going forward, Hyderabad were the better side in the first half. The men in yellow nearly took the lead in the 25th minute from a Lluis Sastre set-piece. Bengaluru keeper Gurpreet Singh Sandhu denied Aridane Santana's header with a full-stretch save to keep the scores level.

Despite making a half-time change, replacing Kristian Opseth with Dimas Delgado, Bengaluru had nothing different to offer as their opponents continued to dominate the play.

Court rejects Don Pennsylvania suit

Observes voters, not lawyers choose Prez Biden to represent best in us: Harris

Washington, Nov. 28: In a fresh setback to US President Donald Trump's efforts to reverse the November 3 presidential election result in the battleground state of Pennsylvania, a court has dismissed a lawsuit filed by his team, observing that "voters, not lawyers choose the president." The judgement came four days after Pennsylvania certified Trump's Democratic rival Joe Biden as the winner in the state which has 20 electoral college votes.

Trump, a Republican, has refused to accept defeat in the November 3 presidential election, and told reporters on Thursday that it would be "hard" to concede to Biden, a Democrat. The President has said that he would leave the White House if the Electoral College declares Biden as the winner, but made clear he is not prepared to "concede" the election.

He has launched a slew of lawsuits in key states, but has not provided any evidence to back his claims of electoral fraud. Many of the lawsuits have been dismissed by courts. The three-judge panel of the 3rd US Circuit Court of Appeals on Friday upheld a previous ruling that dismissed the Trump campaign's request for an injunction in the case in Pennsylvania to challenge the election results and slammed the lawsuit. "Free, fair elections are the lifeblood of our democracy. Charges of unfairness are serious, but calling an election unfair does not make it so. Charges require specific allegations and then proof. We have neither here," Judge Stephanos Bibas said in his order.

GUANTANAMO: SOME MAY BE RELEASED

Washington, Nov. 28: The oldest prisoner at the Guantanamo Bay detention centre went to his latest review board hearing with a degree of hope. Those pushing for its closure now see a window of opportunity, hoping Biden's administration will find a way to prosecute those who can be prosecuted and release the rest. — AP

Steve Smith prior to the match, Smith was happy that he could decide which bowlers to attack even though the entire Indian bowling line-up was at the receiving end of his onslaught.

"I just found a nice rhythm again," Smith told reporters while crediting his skipper Aaron Finch for setting up a nice platform with a 156-run opening stand with David Warner.

"It was just see-ball, hit-ball and obviously the foundation had been set so I could be quite aggressive," Smith said.

"Having found his 'hands' as he had said areas of my strengths." By his own admission, the pressure was less unlike some other times when quick wickets have fallen around him.

Smith said that trying to switch from his natural style of building the innings to a more T20 friendly mode of power-hitting did affect his game.

"I haven't felt quite right for a while and maybe that's T20 cricket, trying to be a bit more powerful and probably not playing as much to my strengths as I'd like," Smith said.

What Smith did before this series was to get back to normal grip.

"So I've been getting myself back to my normal grip and finding it," he added.
