TS Budget to fulfil KCR poll promises

Crop loan waiver, jobless dole, pensions in focus

L. VENKAT RAM REDDY | DC

HYDERABAD, MARCH 6

Chief Minister K. Chandrashekhar Rao directed finance minister T. Harish Rao and finance officials to allocate adequate funds in the upcoming Budget for the ₹1 lakh crop loan waiver scheme, the new Pay Revision Commission for employees and pensioners, monthly unemployment allowance each of ₹3,016 and ₹5 lakh each to build a 2BHK for beneficiaries having their own plots.

All these schemes were major poll promises of the TRS during the 2018 Assembly election campaign but could not be implemented due to financial constraints on account of economic slowdown and the subsequent Covid-induced financial crisis.

However, revenue earnings have bounced back since November on the back of increased collections through GST, VAT, property and vehicle registrations and excise.

The Chief Minister chaired a meeting at Pragathi Bhavan on Saturday to give final touches to the Budget for 2021-22, which gave his directions after going through the proposals submitted by various departments. Harish Rao, Chief Secretary Somesh Kumar, finance principal secretary K. Ramakrishna Rao and senior officials were present.

According to the report submitted by officials, the government's revenue earnings through commercial taxes touched ₹50,000 crore till February-end with liquor sales alone contributing ₹15,000 crore.

Despite this, the upcoming state budget would be promising, Rao told officials at a review meeting.

He said welfare programmes would continue, including distribution of 3 lakh sheep units for which a provision would be made in the Budget.

The scheme had benefited the Kuruma and Yadav communities and had been appreciated by the Centre, he said. The fish distribution programme would be continued as it was benefiting the fishermen community.

Last year, the government presented the Budget with an outlay of ₹1.82 lakh crore.

Though the government is expected to fall short in meeting budgetary targets of the previous year by ₹30,000 crore, it hopes to cover this deficit in the Budget by mobilising an equal amount through auction of land and revising market values of lands.

BJP gets 1 LS, 20 Assembly seats in TN

G. BABU JAYAKUMAR & D. SEKAR/DC

CHENNAI, MARCH 6

Former Union minister Pon Radhakrishnan was officially re-nominated by the BJP to contest in the April 6 by-election for the Kanyakumari Lok Sabha constituency, which fell vacant following the demise of Congress MP H. Vasantha Kumar in August, 2020.

In the 20 seats the BJP has agreed to contest in the Assembly elections, through a deal signed at midnight with AIADMK, two seats would be given to former actresses of Tamil cinema, it is learnt.

While Khusboo is said to have been named for Chepauk-Triplicane, to which the DMK may nominate Udhayanidhi Stalin who attended the interview for aspirants on Saturday, Gauthami may be fielded in Rajapalayam.

Amit Shah, who will reach Nagercoil from Thiruvananthapuram will start his campaign after offering worship at the famous Suseendram temple and leave the town by 2 pm on Sunday.

In the agreement on the seat sharing that was signed by AIADMK coordinator O. Panneerselvam, co-coordinator Edappadi K. Palaniswami, BJP national general secretary C.T. Ravi and BJP state president L. Murugan, the AIADMK has agreed to extend full support to Radhakrishnan in the by-election.

Meanwhile, BJP leader Karu Nagarajan said that the party manifesto was ready and that state party leaders would start campaigning immediately.

Mithun, Akshay likely to share dais with Modi today

RAJIB CHOWDHURI | DC

KOLKATA, MARCH 6

Two famous Bollywood actors, Mithun Chakraborty and Akshay Kumar, are likely to share the stage with Prime Minister Narendra Modi at his mega campaign rally for the West Bengal elections on the Brigade Parade Ground in Kolkata on Sunday.

Mithun Chakraborty is reaching Kolkata on Saturday night, said BJP national vice-president Mukul Roy, adding, "I spoke to him. He has expressed his wish to meet the PM." BJP national general secretary Kailash Vijayvargiya also echoed Roy.

Both kept Mithun's purpose of meeting Modi and the venue of their meeting secret.

BJP sources however indicated that Mithun, who has a vast popularity across the state, may join the saffron party in Modi's presence to become its chief ministerial candidate with a Bengali face and star image against a two-time CM and Trinamul supremo Mamata Banerjee who had earlier made him a Rajya Sabha member of her party in April 2014.

If Mithun joins the BJP and contests the polls as which she had been representing for the last two terms. Nandigram, in East Medinipur, is considered the home-turf of the Adhikaris and is credited for bringing the Trinamul to power in 2011 and ousting the Left from the state after 30 years of its rule. The first list of 57 names, which came a day ahead of Prime Minister Narendra Modi's first election rally in the state at the Brigade Ground since the model code of conduct was imposed, also has names of former Indian cricketer Ashoke Dinda and ex-IPS officer Bharati Ghosh.

Dog lovers who are spread across the city and co-ordinate with each other on different platforms say that it is important to support dogs in summer. While they can offer milk and water, the dogs do not have place to rest in the shade.

In the gated communities, there are strict instructions to members that they must feed the dogs outside the compound and must not let them inside.

Rishi Khanna, an animal activist and college student, said, "Food is sufficient for the dogs but the major challenge is facing the summer heat. Often, people pelt stones at the dogs and incite them, which is one of the reasons for them to attack people."

A Greater Hyderabad Municipal Corporation veterinary department said that they receive lots of complaints from residents in summers with regard to dogs. The department asked people to not incite the dogs by teasing, pelting stones or hitting them as the dog could counter-attack.

Residents resist water bowls inside colonies

Summertime blues for strays

HYDERABAD, MARCH 6

With the summer setting in early, Good Samaritans in the city have started keeping bowls of water out for dogs and birds. This has sparked off objections from other residents in housing colonies and gated communities as a large number of dogs collects at the place, making it difficult for pedestrians and motorists.

Satish Kumar, a resident in Kukatpally, said, "We are not against residents giving water to the dogs but the problem is that the dogs do not allow anyone to pass by that area. If a lane has four water bowls, it becomes difficult to pass from there."

He agreed that it is important to support animals but it also becomes a challenge for children and senior citi-

Chief Secretary Somesh Kumar's troubles deepen?

Just a few days after the judiciary took serious note of the wilful contempt and utter disdain of the bureaucracy and decided to teach the stubborn set of the supremely recalcitrant to obey the law by sentencing a district collector to imprisonment, the entire officialdom in the state has sat up to check the scores. Unlike in cricket, a captain topping the scoring list did not emerge as the best news for Team IAS, with news circulating that Chief Secretary Somesh Kumar tops the list of contemnors of the various orders of the Telangana High Court. Making it worse, scuttlebutt in the power corridors began to keenly follow a senior Congress leader, who is making a trip to Delhi with a file listing and detailing allegations of misconduct, misuse of power and corruption against Kumar, demanding that he be relocated to his parent cadre, Andhra Pradesh. While a senior Congress leader seeking appointments with senior BJP leaders in the government, with allegations against a bureaucrat would normally not ruffle feathers, it is the appointments he is trying to get with Prime Minister Narendra Modi and home minister Amit Shah that are causing concern in officialdom. Added to it is the belief that the BJP wants this leader to jump ship from Congress to strengthen their bid for power against the TRS in Telangana state that is underlying fears that the BJP top brass may actually hear him out seriously.

How will things shape up in court in Hyderabad and the political darbar in Delhi in the coming week - everyone is waiting and watching with bated breath.

CJ Hima Kohli putting fear of law in babus

Since the day she was named to the Telangana High Court, Chief Justice Hima Kohli has stirred up the political and bureaucratic circles in Hyderabad. Known for her high and unimpeachable integrity and fearlessness, Chief Justice Kohli has made it a mission to create fear of law amongst the high and mighty who would normally feel entitled to total exemption and immunity from any implications of law on their power ambitions. Little wonder, the mood was subdued and apprehensive when the first women CJ in the state took the oath of office, given her insistence on actually implementing the canon that the law is equal for all. The "more equals" were clearly not happy. Constantly taking up the government, and various officials and departments over their disobedience of court orders and judgment, reckless disobedience and other actions falling under the purview of contempt of courts or irresponsible questioning and criticism of judges, the higher judiciary, under her captainship, is now making it a mission to punish the officials. While some mercy was shown in the first order of imprisonment of a district collector, later reduced to service and imprisonment consequent only to failure to pay a fine, the others may not be so lucky. Will IAS officers actually go to jail is a question on top of people's minds. While common people, activists and crusaders against corruption and highhandedness of officials are celebrating CJ Kohli's tough approach, the powerful are counting days for her short stint to soon get over.

Srilakshmi gives herself a 'promotion'

Senior AP bureaucrat S.Y. Srilakshmi seems to be so 'self-reliant' that she needs no approval from the system to do what she wants. The Telangana state cadre officer sprang a surprise by securing an order from the Central Administrative Tribunal (CAT) changing her cadre to Andhra Pradesh six years after bifurcation.

This she did after her hectic lobbying for being sent on deputation to AP failed. She joined the AP cadre and reported to the general administration department though the rules say the Union department of personnel and training has to first act on the CAT order. On Friday, she declared herself special chief secretary that too in an affidavit she filed in the Telangana High Court seeking quash the CBI's infamous Obulapuram mining case.

She is yet to be promoted from the rank of principal secretary. Of course for the next and ultimate position — Chief Secretary — Srilakshmi does not need a self-ointment as Chief Minister Y.S. Jagan Mohan Reddy is inclined to make her the next executive boss.

MIB leaves AP redfaced... again

The Most Influential Bureaucrat (MIB) has landed the Y.S. Jagan Mohan Reddy government in an embarrassing situation, once again. It was an open secret in babudom both at the state and the Centre that he was instrumental in the AP government clamping charges of deriving personal gains by exerting pressure on subordinate staff against retired Union health secretary Preeti Sudan. She was served a show-cause notice that created ripples in the administrative circles. The grapevine was that the MIB bore a grudge against Preeti Sudan for a personal reason but projected it to the political bosses that she had refused his request to back the state in its fight against the decision of State Election Commissioner N. Ramesh Kumar to postpone the local body polls last year and that she needed to be taught a lesson. Now that Preeti Sudan has replied to the notice and backed her argument by citing DoPT rules, the state has no option left but to drop the charges. One more tight slap!

HC summons 2 top TS officials

Pulls them for ignoring court directions

VUJJINI VAMSHIDHARA
| DC
HYDERABAD, MARCH 6

The Telangana High Court has summoned principal secretaries Vikas Raj (panchayat raj) and K. Ramakrishna Rao (finance) for personal appearance to explain why they should not be punished in a contempt case because of willful disobedience towards court directions.

Justice M.S. Ramachandra Rao ordered both officials to appear on March 26 and adjourned all issues related to the case to the same date.

Justice Rao issued summons to them in a contempt case filed by 46 petitioners, who are working for decades as sweepers and full-time contingent employees in government schools across districts, which are under control of panchayat raj department. Though they were working in government schools, they were getting meagre amounts as wages, ranging from ₹1,650 to ₹4,000 per month.

Earlier, these petitioners sought directions to the education, panchayat raj and finance departments to pay them salaries drawn by full-time sweepers like in the case of zilla parashad schools.

Having considered their pleas and having regard for the law declared by the Supreme Court in 'State of Punjab and others vs. Jagit Singh and others', Justice Rao had on March 15, 2018, directed the principal secretaries to pay the petitioners on the basis of the principle of 'equal pay for equal work', within a period of four weeks.

As per those directions, a minimum monthly pay of ₹13,000 was to be paid to each petitioner. However, as it was not complied with by the authorities, even two years later, the court summoned them for personal appearance.

SANJAY SAMUEL PAUL DC
HYDERABAD, MARCH 6

A former Ranji Trophy cricketer was arrested by the city police for claiming that he was a secretary to minister K.T. Rama Rao, and collecting money from several corporates for a purported swearing-in ceremony of Rama Rao as Chief Minister.

According to Hyderabad police commissioner Anjani Kumar, the impostor, identified as Budumur Nagaraju, collected close to ₹40 lakh from hospitals, realtors, and educational institutions.

Nagaraju represented Andhra Pradesh in Ranji Trophy matches during 2014-2016, and has a criminal record that began in 2018. He has been arrested for involvement in 10 other cases but had secured bail, Kumar said.

The accused would reach out to the targeted corporates on phone, by getting the number through websites. He would introduce himself as Bandari Tirupati, Rama Rao's personal secretary, the police said.

He would tell them that Rama Rao was to be sworn in as Chief Minister and sought contributions for arrangements for the purported ceremony at the Lal Bahadur Stadium here in the city, and for associated advertisements and publicity.

One of his victims, a corporate, that gave him ₹17,50,400, lodged a complaint with the police when the company realised it was taken for a ride by the conman, the police officer said.

On Friday, North Zone Task Force laid a trap after receiving credible information and apprehended Nagaraju. He has been remanded to custody after being produced before a judge.

BALAKRISHNA SLAPS PHOTOGRAPHER IN HINDUPUR

DC CORRESPONDENT
ANANTAPUR, MARCH 6

Film star and Hindupur MLA Nandamuri Balakrishna slapped a photographer at the residence of a party worker in Srikanthapuram in Hindupur municipality on Saturday. Balakrishna slapped the photographer for covering every moment of his and ordered him to delete videos. But the video of his slapping the photographer went viral on social media and captured by others over mobile phones.

Telugu Desam leaders had to patch up the issue by releasing a video statement by the victim and a photograph of him with the actor. Meanwhile, SP Satya Esabubu said no complaint was received with regard to the issue.

However, the photographers association of Hindupur staged a protest at Ambedkar Circle demanding action against the MLA for his behaviour. YSRC leaders lashed out at Balakrishna and said that was unfit to be a public representative.

Sources said Balakrishna was on an election tour in Hindupur municipality for the last couple of days. On Saturday, he was in the 9th municipal ward in Srikanthapuram.

Balakrishna went to a house and a photographer Somu, who was reportedly engaged by the candidate, was clicking all moments. The actor lost his temper and slapped the photographer. After ordering him to delete the videos, he slapped him for a second time. When the issue went viral, party leaders reportedly tried to restore normalcy. They released a video and photograph of Somu with Balakrishna and the party symbol.

In the video, Somu says "As great fan of Balayya, I was not hurt by the incident because he has been touring without rest."

YSRC in-charge Naveen Nischal said "As a MLA, he should have patience and be more responsible". He added that there were previous instances of the actor slapping in public.

KTR warns of 'silent gun'

Minister warns Oppn against taking party's silence as a sign of weakness

HYDERABAD, MARCH 6

TRS working president and IT minister K.T. Rama Rao on Saturday issued a stern warning to Opposition leaders against abusing Chief Minister K. Chandrashekhar Rao with no regard for his age, seniority and constitutional position of being CM of the state.

"The TRS silence is just that of a gun hung on the wall," was his veiled warning. The gun looks silent but everyone knows what happens if the weapon is taken out and fired, Rama Rao remarked.

BANDI DEMANDS ACTION AGAINST GOUD'S REMARKS

DC CORRESPONDENT
HYDERABAD, MARCH 6

BJP state president Bandi Sanjay on Saturday warned TRS leaders and ministers against threatening graduate voters and demanded that the Election Commission initiate stringent action against tourism minister V. Srinivas Goud for his unsavoury remarks on voters during poll campaigning.

Sanjay was speaking at campaign meetings in Nagarkurnool on Saturday for the upcoming graduate constituency elections for the Legislative Council.

Sanjay alleged that Goud had threatened and cursed voters that if they don't vote for the TRS, they will not prosper in their lives. "This amounts to threatening, blackmailing and cursing of voters. Parties should seek votes in a democratic manner. The EC should take action against the minister," Sanjay demanded.

OWAISI TO MUSLIM: STRENGTHEN LEADERSHIP

DC CORRESPONDENT
HYDERABAD, MARCH 6

MIM president Asaduddin Owaisi on Saturday called on Muslims to strengthen the political leadership in the community, only which will make political parties realise the community's importance and seek its support.

Addressing an election meeting at Adoni in Andhra Pradesh, Owaisi said parties typically promote a particular caste or a section of society and ignore Muslims, Dalits and Adivasis. It was time these neglected sections strengthened themselves politically to force other political parties to pay attention to them.

He said people who brand the MIM as a communal party do not see how the so-called secular parties stay silent over communalism indulged in by such parties. He also said Muslim minorities in the country are being subjected to fear.

People losing faith in TRS govt, says Kishan

WARANGAL, MARCH 6

The people's displeasure against the TRS government is clear from results of the Dubbakk Assembly bypoll and GHMC elections. The BJP is sure to win the MLC seat from the Nalgonda-Warangal-Khammam graduates constituency, said Union minister of state G. Kishan Reddy.

Campaigning for party candidate G. Premender Reddy in Warangal on Saturday, Kishan Reddy alleged that even though the TRS spent ₹1,000 crore to win the GHMC elections, people largely chose the BJP.

"A huge number of poor have been denied free ration, as no new ration cards have been issued. Unemployed youth are waiting endlessly for job notifications. Under these circumstances, it is natural that people are losing faith in the government," Kishan Reddy remarked.

The minister said: "The dream of separate Telangana state was realised after 1,200-odd people sacrificed their lives. But Chief Minister K. Chandrashekhar Rao gave prominence to leaders who opposed the separate Telangana." He promised that the Centre will restore the Mamnoor airport if the state government acquires the required land.

The TRS government has been foisting false cases against BJP to sabotage the party's chances in the election to the Warangal-Khammam-Nalgonda Graduates Constituency, he said.

He accused the TRS government of reluctance in releasing its share of funds for Central government schemes like the Smart Ruling TRS and opposition Congress and BJP are going all out campaigning in the two constituencies of Hyderabad-Ranga Reddy-Mahbubnagar and Khammam-Warangal-Nalgonda constituencies. Ministers, MPs and MLAs of TRS, apart from senior leaders have been appointed as election in-charges and are busy campaigning in their respective areas. So are opposition parties. The Congress is attacking both the state and Union governments for their alleged failure on various fronts. The BJP is attacking the ruling party on the unemployment front.

Young graduates may mar chances of MLC candidates

HYDERABAD, MARCH 6

While all the major parties are expressing confidence about winning the two graduate constituencies of the Legislative Council going to the polls on March 14, there are certain candidates who may mar their chances of victory.

Analysts, however, say with young graduates being a major factor in the graduate MLC elections from Khammam-Nalgonda-Warangal and Hyderabad-Ranga Reddy-Mahbubnagar constituencies, ideologies may mar the chances of political party candidates.

Among the candidates is Prof. Kodandaram who played an active role in the Telangana movement. As chairman of the Telangana Joint Action Committee, he coordinated with all political parties and employees unions and in the fight for statehood. Another leader, Cheruku Sudhakar, was booked under Preventive Detention Act and sent to jail for his active participation in the Telangana movement.

SARPANCH IN ODISHA DISQUALIFIED

AKSHAYA KUMAR SAHOO | DC
BHUBANESWAR, MARCH 6

A sarpanch from Odisha's Ganjam district has been declared disqualified from his post for not knowing Odia and having two wives and six children.

According to the 1994 Odisha Gram Panchayat Act, a person is ineligible of holding any position in a gram panchayat if he or she does not know how to write and speak Odia, have more than two children and illegally has more than one husband/wife. Such a person cannot contest any post too.

P Simadri was elected as the sarpanch of Agastinuagam gram panchayat under Chhatrapur block of Ganjam district during the panchayat polls held in the year 2017. He had won by defeating his nearest rival Niwas Gouda.

However, after losing the polls, Gouda had filed a petition at the Civil Judge Senior Division Court in Chhatrapur challenging his disqualification as sarpanch of Agastinuagam gram panchayat on the grounds of not having the knowledge of Odia language, having two wives and six children.

After the hearing was over, Gouda's lawyer, Srikant Mishra said, "Based on the statements of four witnesses, two from each side, the Chhatrapur Civil Judge Senior Division disqualified the standing sarpanch Simadri for not knowing Odia. The Court has also directed the District Collector to take further action in this regard," Mishra added.

"I had filed the petition against Simadri after the panchayat elections in 2017. My three and half years of legal battle is over now as he has been disqualified from his post by the court for violating the Odisha Gram Panchayat Act. The court has also sent notice to the district collector and communication officer to take further action as the post will be lying vacant after Simadri's dismissal," said Gouda.

CHENNAI, MAR 6

The MDMK signed an agreement with the DMK on Saturday to contest the April 6 Assembly election in six seats and to fight the polls in the DMK's 'Rising Sun' symbol, while two of the prominent allies, the Congress and the CPI, may have to wait till Monday to resume talks.

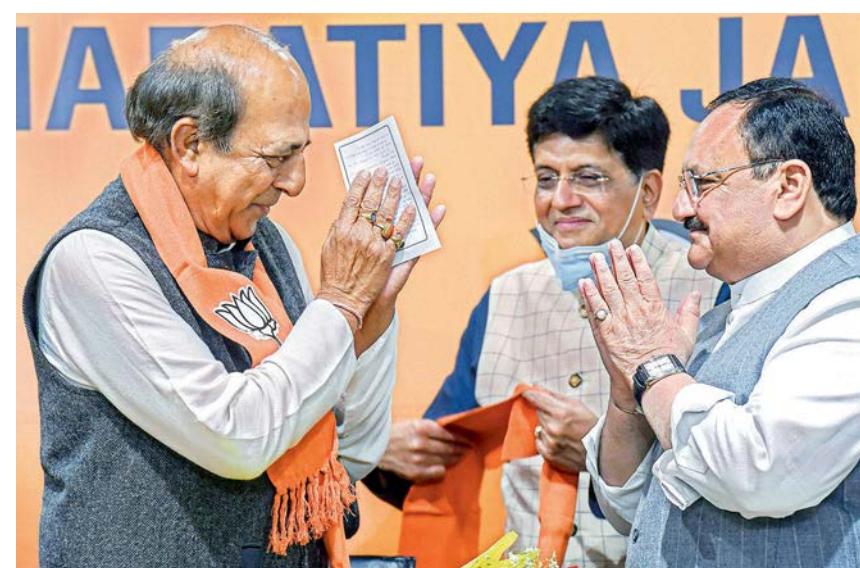

The MDMK general secretary, Vaiko, who broke away from the DMK in 1994 to form his own party, had been insisting that his party would only use its own symbol, 'the spinning top,' but gave in to pressure from the DMK to choose the 'Rising Sun' symbol for his candidates.

Since the DMK is holding a grand public meeting near Tiruchy on Sunday, the leaders would not be available in Chennai for further talks at least for a day.

The CPM representatives, who visited the DMK office for discussions on Saturday morning, said that they would be getting back after taking the views of their party functionaries.

From the Congress, however, there was no word of confirmation on accepting the seats offered by the DMK, while sources in the DMK said that their leaders were only waiting for the Congress to return to the negotiating table.

In the AIADMK camp, the DMDK, which had been asking for 25 seats, expressed the hope that an amicable settlement would be reached soon as they had climbed down from their earlier demand, while the Tamil Maanila Congress leader G K Vasan was closeted with the Chief Minister at his

POPE, TOP SHIITE CLERIC PLEAD FOR 'PEACE' IN IRAQ

Baghdad, March 6: Grand Ayatollah Ali Sistani, one of Shi'ite Islam's top clerics, told Pope Francis in a historic meeting in Iraq on Saturday that the country's Christians should live in "peace".

The meeting, on the second day of the first-ever papal visit to Iraq, marked a landmark moment in modern religious history and in terms of Francis's efforts to deepen interfaith dialogue.

Pope Francis later addressed the rich spectrum of Iraq's religious communities at Ur, traditional birthplace of the Prophet Abraham, a central figure in the Christian, Jewish and Muslim faiths, where he made an impassioned plea for "unity" after conflict.

The 84-year-old pontiff's trip to Iraq is an effort to both reassure the country's ancient but dwindling Christian community and expand his dialogue with other faiths.

His meeting with the grand ayatollah in Najaf lasted 50 minutes, and Sistani's office put out a statement shortly afterwards thanking Francis for visiting the holy city.

Sistani, 90, "affirmed his concern that Christian citizens should live like all Iraqis in peace and security, and with their full constitutional rights," it said.

His office published an image of the two, neither wearing masks: Sistani in a black turban with his wispy grey beard reaching down to his black robe and Francis all in white, looking directly at the grand ayatollah.

Sistani is extremely reclusive and rarely grants meetings but made an exception to host Francis.

The pontiff had landed earlier at Najaf airport, where posters featured a famous saying by Ali, the fourth caliph and the Prophet Mohammed's relative, who is buried in the holy city.

"People are of two kinds, either your brothers in faith or your equals in humanity," read the banners.

PAK PM WINS TRUST VOTE; OPPN DEMANDS RESIGNATION

Islamabad, March 6: Pakistan Prime Minister Imran Khan on Saturday comfortably won a trust vote in the National Assembly, boycotted by the Opposition, days after the ruling party's high-profile candidate suffered an embarrassing defeat in the hotly-contested Senate elections.

Khan secured 178 votes in the 342-member lower house of Parliament during a special session called after he voluntarily sought a trust vote following the defeat of his finance minister Abdul Hafeez Shaikh in Wednesday's elections to the upper house.

The floor test took place without the Opposition as the Pakistan Democratic Movement (PDM) — an alliance of 11 parties — boycotted the voting, making it easier for Khan to secure the required numbers.

Khan decided to take a vote of confidence after Shaikh was defeated in the Senate election by former prime minister Yusuf Raza Gilani. The Opposition demanded the Prime Minister's resignation after the debacle. Addressing the House after securing the trust vote, the 68-year-old cricketer-turned politician thanked all lawmakers from his party and allies for supporting him.

Earlier, foreign minister Shah Mahmood Qureshi earlier tabled a single-point resolution that the House reposes confidence in Prime Minister Khan.

INDIA LORD IT OVER

Kohli & Co. crush England to make WTC final at Lord's

Ahmedabad, March 6: Axar Patel and R. Ashwin once again made a mockery of an eternally confused English batting line-up as India cantered into the inaugural World Test Championship final with a resounding innings and 25 run victory on the third afternoon of the fourth and final Test here on Saturday.

All India needed was a draw to book a Lord's date in June with New Zealand but Patel (24-6-48-5), in company of Ashwin (22.5-47-5), literally blew England away in a session and half for a paltry 135 in 54.5 overs to complete a 3-1 rout, ensuring that the Anthony De Mello Trophy will stay at the Cricket Centre in Mumbai.

It was another two-and-a-half-days finish but even the most partisan England experts like their former skipper Michael Vaughan have admitted that the 22-yard strip had almost nothing to do with their side's abject surrender.

A case in point could be India's first innings score of 365 and a lead of 160 on the same track where England could cumulatively manage only 340 runs across two innings.

Atrocious application and unbelievably poor mindset while playing spinners cost the Englishmen dearly during the last three Tests and skipper Joe Root had little to offer in terms of explanation.

"We haven't matched India in the last three, and we need to keep learning and keep getting better for this experience and this series," admitted Root.

This was one Test match where Indians, even before a ball being bowled, created an illusion of a turning track. It was a ploy of playing with the minds of a team that was already deep into a negative zone.

There wasn't much turn but enough to ensure that the visitors wilted under pressure as Patel's series tally stood at highest for a newcomer (27) while man of the series Ashwin was peerless as ever with 32 scalps in his kitty. — PTI

SWISS OPEN

Danish pair of Kim Astrup and Anders Skaarup Rasmussen in the last-four stage.

The Indian duo had a last four finish in their last event at Toyota Thailand Open in January.

Sindhu thus emerged as the lone Indian survivor in the $140,000 event, the first tournament in the extended Olympic qualification period which ends on June 15. In the women's singles match, Sindhu erased a 5-7 deficit in the opening game to grab a 11-8 advantage at the interval. The Indian then zoomed to 17-12 but Blichfeldt clawed back with five straight points.

Sindhu soon grabbed three game points but again her rival managed to level the score. However, the Indian ensured she had the last laugh as she pocketed the opening game.

Sindhu dominated the proceedings in the second game as she was up 5-2 first and kept moving ahead. She enjoyed a 11-6 lead at the break and continued her good run to eventually shut the door on her opponent.

Sindhu in final, all other Indians out

Basel, March 6: Olympic silver medallist P. V. Sindhu dished out a superlative performance to outclass Mia Blichfeldt of Denmark in straight games and enter the women's singles final of the Swiss Open Super 300 tournament here on Saturday.

Sindhu, the reigning world champion, beat fourth seeded Blichfeldt 22-20, 21-10 in 43 minutes to avenge her first-round loss to the Danish world number 12 at the Yonex Thailand Open in January.

This is Sindhu's first final appearance since the World championships here in 2019. The second seeded Indian will top on top seed and Rio Olympics gold medalist Carolina Marin in the summit clash on Sunday. It will be the first meeting between the two in over two years.

Kidambi Srikanth, however, couldn't cross the semifinal stage as he went down 13-21, 19-21 to top seed and former world champion Viktor Axelsen.

Satwiksairaj Rankireddy and Chirag Shetty also bowed out after losing 10-21, 17-21 to sixth seeded Kidambi Srikanth. Sindhu dominated the proceedings in the second game as she was up 5-2 first and kept moving ahead. She enjoyed a 11-6 lead at the break and continued her good run to eventually shut the door on her opponent.
