Non-Jats too at Shamli meet

It's now about rural, not agri economy | Hry gears up for 'chakka jam' today

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

NEW DELHI, FEBRUARY 5
Amid the growing opposition to the Centre's agri laws, thousands of farmers today turned up for a "kisan mahapanchayat" in western Uttar Pradesh's Bhainswal village in Shamli. The protesters reached the village on tractors, two-wheelers, four-wheelers as well as on foot, defying prohibitory orders under Section 144 of the CrPC.

Ahead of the 2022 Assembly elections, this is the fourth major farmers' meeting in western UP after Muzaffarnagar, Mathura and Baghpat. Sources say BJP's rivals in the state are trying to make it an agitation regarding rural economy, not just farm economy, by including non-Jats, especially the Dalits. The meeting today was attended by members from "all castes and professions," they say. So far, the protests against the farm

CM committee on farmers' protest has met only once

Amid reports of backdoor parleys, meetings rescheduled thrice

TREBUNE NEWS SERVICE

CHANDIGARH, FEBRUARY 5

Amid reports of the Congress government engaged in backdoor parleys with farmers' unions, a committee of ministers and MLAs constituted by Chief Minister Capt Amarinder Singh to discuss issues related to the agitation has just met once in the last week of January.

"The next meeting of the committee has been rescheduled three times. Seeing the gravity of the situation at the Delhi borders, the committee members should meet more frequently as after the January 26 incident at the Red Fort, political intervention is urgently required. The committee members were asked to give suggestions," said a committee member.

It was on the suggestion of certain ministers that a delegation of the committee members was sent by the Chief Minister to meet Union Home Minister Amit Shah over the missing youths in Republic Day incidents and providing them legal aid.

Sources said in the meeting with Union Home Minister Amit Shah, the ministers were categorically told that the Centre would not repeal the laws and the state government would prevail upon the farmer unions to understand the situation and come for negotiations with an open mind.

The Congress government which has been supporting the farmers' concern finds itself in a piquant situation. At a recently held all-party meeting, a resolution sought immediate withdrawal of the farm laws and the statutory MSP. The meeting also adopted a resolution to condemn "sponsored" violence in Delhi, calling for a judicial probe into laxity/complexity of those responsible for law and order at the Red Fort.

inputs to the state government on the farmers' stir. The Opposition has been alleging that the officers were holding parleys with farmer leaders to end the stir, which has been strongly denied by the Congress government.

However, the state government has been pressing upon the Centre and farm leaders that an early solution was required as a prolonged stir would have dangerous implication for the state. With UP farmer leader Rakesh Tikait presently at the centre of the farmers' stir, the government is anxiously waiting for a peaceful solution.

Ignored by unions, say deceased labourer's kin

SAMEER SINGH

BATHINDA, FEBRUARY 5

The family members of farm labourer Gurjant Singh from Sivian village in Bathinda, who died last week, have accused farm unions and the Khet Mazdoor Union of ignoring them.

They said neither did they come to offer any condolence nor they put up a case with the administration or government for compensation. Notably, 66-year-old Gurjant Singh, who had been going to the farmers' agitation at the Jeeda toll plaza in Bathinda, had caught pneumonia and died on January 28.

Talking to The Tribune, Inderjit Singh, son of the deceased, said, "Today was his bhog ceremony but no one from farm unions or the Khet Mazdoor Union came to mourn his death. While his death has left us in despair, want admin to give them compensation

what's more disappointing is the complete ignorance by unions which otherwise have put forward demands of compensation with the administration," Singh, who used to work as peon at a private academic institute in Bathinda, said.

Jora Singh Nasrali, Punjab Khet Mazdoor Union state president, said, "I got a phone call from the son of the deceased today but before that, the matter was not in my knowledge. I have asked our block convener to probe the matter in depth and give me a real picture of the entire case. If it is found that the person concerned had been participating in the protests, his case would be duly taken up with the administration."

PATIALA, FEBRUARY 5
In a bid to garner support for the farmers' agitation, city youngsters have been holding protests at major roundabouts in the city regularly.

Several state and national-level skaters, who belong to underprivileged families, have been mobilising support for the farmers' agitation against the central farm laws at Delhi borders.

The Sangrur police have been helping these players by providing them the required equipment and ground at the Police Lines. The players, who also work as labourers, plumbers and even watchmen, have announced that on winning medals in the forthcoming state competition from February 12 to 15 at Sangrur, they would dedicate those to farmers.

"My father is a rickshaw-puller and finds it difficult to meet my requirements. But with the support of the Sangrur police, I have been skating and have won gold in state games twice. I also work as a watchman. Since we all understand the importance of helping the farmers, we are trying to mobilise maximum support for them," said Rahul Singh (19), while discussing

Unions' unity frustrating Centre: BKU

LUDHIANA, FEBRUARY 5

Bhartiya Kisan Union (Lakhawal) president Ajmer Singh Lakhawal today claimed that the Narendra Modi government was upset over the unity among agitating farmers and opposition by people of Delhi, Haryana and Uttar Pradesh to "repressive" measures being used by government agencies.

"It was out of this frustration that the government had taken upon an unprecedented fortification of Delhi borders," he told The Tribune on phone.

He said thousands of farmers from northern states and other parts of the country were holding protests for the past two and half months outside Delhi in adverse weather conditions but the Modi government, rather than accepting the demand for scrapping of three farm laws, had adopted a policy of confrontation.

Lakhawal said the underlying reason for fortification of borders was that the government wanted to block entire movement of people and essential items so that people in the national capital could be provoked against the farmers' agitation. — OC

SAD-BJP brought contract farming in 2013, says Jakhar

TREBUNE NEWS SERVICE

JALANDHAR, FEBRUARY 5

Condemning the efforts to defame Punjab because of the protest against the Centre's contentious farm laws, Punjab Pradesh Congress Committee (PPCC) president Sunil Jakhar today said attempts were underway to make it a disturbed state and alienate it.

He alleged as the farmers' protest had witnessed a good response in the country, attempts were being made to divide the country by sidelining Punjab. He appealed to the people of the state to stay united against mischievous elements.

Slamming the statement of Union Agriculture Minister Narendra Singh Tomar in the Rajya Sabha today, Jakhar said the Contract Farming Act 2013 was brought out by the Akali-BJP government.

He said this was the first such law that had the provision of penalising the farmers opting out of the contract and due to stiff protest, this law was not implemented.

He accused the Union government of putting the food security of the nation at stake just to please foreign companies. He said the prices of wheat would rise exponentially if the food security of the country was compromised.

Calling the BJP's "Tiranga yatra" a 'danga yatra', he said the Centre was simply inciting people in the name of this yatra. "Those who are organising the yatra hardly have any names to recall from within the party other than those of Veer Savarkar or Deen Dyal Upadhyaya who gave their lives for the nation. He appealed to the central government to restore democracy by respecting public sentiments on the issue of farm laws.

Lawyers collect proof of R-Day violence

Seek CCTV footage from Delhi police stations that lodged FIRs

GS PAUL

AMRITSAR, FEBRUARY 5

Lawyers, who have volunteered to fight a legal battle in support of farmers, have been busy procuring CCTV footage and video clips of the tractor parade violence and the Red Fort complex incident on January 26.

The Punjab Human Rights Organisation (PHRO) has approached the Delhi Police Commissioner, seeking CCTV footage of all cameras installed in police stations where the FIRs related to the Republic Day violence were registered.

PHRO lawyer Sarbjit Singh Verka said: "Around 1,200 video clips and CCTV footage from various locations of the tractor parade route have been collected. We are doing this to substantiate our case in the court."

The lawyers have also appealed to the public to provide them the video clips of the tractor parade if they have any. Verka alleged the unfortunate incident at the Red Fort was the result of political conspiracy. Later on, protesters were randomly picked up and implicated in criminal cases.

"The fact is 95 per cent of tractor parade passed off peacefully. However, to cover up their incompetency in handling the ruckus created in and around the Red Fort area, over 120 protesters were booked in various police stations and later sent to the Tihar jail. On January 27, the police commissioner himself admitted that 19 protesters were arrested and 59 others detained. This implied that the illegal detention of protesters was in his knowledge," he said.

"Ironically, those who went to Delhi police stations to enquire about their missing relatives were also detained and booked for no valid reasons. Their families were also not informed within 24-hour span, which was against the violation of Supreme Court guidelines," the PHRO lawyer further said.

Meanwhile, the lawyers under the banner of All-India Legal Fraternity for Farmers have decided to organise a dharna at the Delhi Police headquarters on February 8, contesting the arbitrary action of the Delhi police against the protesters and journalists.

Kinnow price drop raises worries of Fazilka growers

PRAFUL CHANDER NAGPAL

FAZILKA, FEBRUARY 5

Kinnow-growing farmers are worried lot as the fruit has attracted almost half the price this year as compared to the previous year in Fazilka.

"Kinnow King" Prem Babber of Fazilka, a recipient of several state awards for producing quality kinnow, said traders were offering just Rs 6-8 per quintal as compared to Rs 14-16 per quintal last year.

Babber showed concern that in spite of the low price, more than 65 per cent orchards were yet to be sold and the crop had already ripened.

Tajinder Singh, Deputy Director (Horticulture), said the reason for the low price was bumper crop of Nagpur orange, which dissuaded traders from entering the market in Fazilka district.

Farmers feel that the kinnow mandi in Abohar is proving to be a bane for them as traders and exporters do not go to the orchards and buy the produce from the mandi at cheaper rates," Babber said.

tion gathered by The Tribune, bumper kinnow crop is another reason for low price as the yield of 150-200 quintals of kinnow per acre has been recorded. As per a report sent by the Horticulture Department to the state government, Covid pandemic is another reason for the dismal disposal of the fruit.

"Kinnow was sold for Rs 10 per kg even a decade ago but surprisingly the price has come down, leaving farmers upset. If the situation remains the same, farmers would not be able to realise the input cost and may have to uproot the orchards," said Ajay Wadhwa, a horticulturist of Diwan Khbera village who has cultivated kinnow in 48 acres.

"If the government wants to boost diversification, it has to include kinnow to the list of MSP," said another traditional grower Vijay Setia.

Drug money seizure: NIA nabs suspect, search op continues

AMRITSAR, FEBRUARY 5

A day after the seizure of Rs 20 lakh drug money along with 130 bullets, sleuths of the National Investigation Agency (NIA) along with forensic experts continued their search at the rented accommodation of Manpreet Singh, an alleged hawala operator and accomplice of drug peddlers Ranjeet Singh Cheeta and Iqbal Singh Sheria, for the second consecutive day today.

The NIA arrested Manpreet late on Thursday and would produce him in the special court at Mohali for further remand. Manpreet, who hails from Teja Khurd village in Gurdaspur, had been living in the rented house on the Loharaka road for the past three months claiming to be a farmer. According to his neighbours, he kept to himself.

The house is owned by Mahesh Sharma, who claimed he had submitted the rent deed and other documents to the Sadar police station for further verification. The NIA team also

As per information, when the NIA team raided the house yesterday, Manpreet did not open the gates and flushed "something" into the toilet. Following this, the sewerage was dug up inside the house. The NIA suspected he might have flushed narcotics to destroy evidence.

Manpreet was reported to be close to drug peddlers Cheeta and Sheria, who was arrested in connection with the Hizbul Mujahideen narco-terror module busted by the Amritsar City police in April 2020 following the arrest of over-ground worker Hilal Ahmad Sherjogi of the banned terrorist organisation.

Hilal, an accomplice of Riyaz Ahmed Naikoo who was gunned down by security forces in Jammu and Kashmir, had come to collect funds for nefarious activities in the Valley. The city police had recovered Rs 29 lakh along with a truck from his possession at that time. The case was handed over to the NIA in May 2020. —TNS

Jalalabad violence: 2 nominees among 5 SAD workers booked

OUR CORRESPONDENT

FAZILKA, FEBRUARY 5

Five SAD workers, including two MC poll candidates and husband of two women candidates, have been nominated as accused for the Jalalabad poll violence that broke out at the tehsil complex on February 2 in the presence of SAD president Sukhbir Singh Badal and Jalalabad Congress MLA Raminder Singh Awla.

The accused have been identified as Harbhagat Singh, alias Laddi Dhawan, and Deepak Verma, who are contesting the election on SAD ticket from wards 4 and 14, respectively, Mohan Singh Bedi, Baljeet Singh Kapoor and Baljinder Singh. Sources said the wives of Bedi and Kapoor are contesting

AKALIS PROTEST REJECTION OF PAPERS

Gidderbaha: A day after the papers of two Akali candidates were rejected here, the SAD leadership on Friday protested outside the SDM office, alleging that it was done at the behest of Congress MLA Amarinder Singh Raja Warring. "I warn officials to mend their ways or get ready to face action," SAD chief Sukhbir Badal said.

SUKHBIR TO CAMP AT ABOHAR ON FEB 14

Abohar: SAD chief Sukhbir Badal has decided to stay in Abohar and other poll-bound segments of Ferozepur on February 14. At his first rally at a community hall on Friday, he said, "No one can dare rig the polling when I am here." He indicated that he'd extensively tour all wards again so that SAD got a majority in the MC.

the election on the party ticket from ward numbers 13 and 15, respectively.

Fazilka SSP Harjeet Singh feigned ignorance about their association with any political outfit but said after thorough investigation and scrutiny of the CCTV footage, the accused were found involved in the violence. No one has been arrested so far.

The SSP said after the probe, it surfaced that six persons, namely Ranjit Singh, Gursewak Singh and Sonu had sustained bullet injuries, while Pawan Kumar, Gurpreet Singh and Gursewak Singh, sustained minor injuries during the group clash.

Notably, on the basis of statement of Satinderjit Singh Manta, OSD to Sukhbir, a criminal case was registered by the Jalalabad city police on February 2 against 50-60 unidentified persons. Manta had alleged that he and Sukhbir were assaulted by Congress workers in the presence of MLA Raminder Singh Awla and his son Jatin Awla. The MLA had denied the allegations.

"No evidence of involvement of the father-son duo was established in the violence, so all charges against them have been dropped," said SSP Harjeet Singh.

The SSP said 35 polling booths set up in 17 wards of Jalalabad town for MC poll had been declared sensitive and comprehensive security arrangements were being made for the poll.

AAP begins campaign

CHANDIGARH, FEBRUARY 5
The Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) on Friday launched its campaign with the slogan 'Saareyan nu ajmaya, saareyan ni ditta dhoka, hun jhadoo waleyan nu devangey manuka', for the MC poll.

On the occasion, senior AAP leader and Leader of Opposition Harpal Singh Cheema and party MLAs Jagtar Singh Jagga Hissowal, Principal Budh Ram, Rupinder Kaur Ruby, Gurmeet Singh Meet Hayer and Baldev Singh Jaito released a song.

In a statement from the AAP headquarters, Cheema said the campaign was started by sweeping with the party's symbol broom by the candidates and office-bearers. He said the volunteers would take a pledge to clean up the filth of corruption. "Sanitation in cities is deteriorating day by day and there is no provision of CCTV cameras to curb crime. The SAD-BJP and the Congress have worked to fill up their coffers. However, the AAP is now offering change to the public, so that those who work for them are elected." — TNS

Nomination rejected, AAP accuses SDM of bias

SANGRUR, FEBRUARY 5

Accusing Sunam SDM Manjot Kaur of rejecting the nomination paper of their ward number 14 candidate without any valid reasons, AAP MLA Aman Arora along with his supporters staged a protest from Thursday evening to Friday evening.

Shimla areas sans power; supply of water disrupted

TREBUNE NEWS SERVICE

SHIMLA, FEBRUARY 5
 Following the daylong snowfall on Thursday, many parts of Shimla went without electricity for over 24 hours. While a few areas plunged into darkness on late yesterday, many others lost the connection on Friday morning. Also, because of the erratic power supply and low voltage, water supply to the city, too, was affected in several parts of the city on Friday.

"Many trees fell in the city because of the heavy snowfall, damaging our lines and disrupting power supply. As a result, multiple faults developed," said Himachal Pradesh State Electricity Board Limited (HPSEBL) Superintendent Engineer Lokesh Thakur.

"We have already restored electricity in 90 per cent areas of the city. We are trying to reconnect the remaining areas by around 8 pm," he said. Apart from the city, the peripheral areas and higher reaches, too, are coping with either no electricity or an erratic supply. "There has been damage to supply lines in upper Shimla areas too. In higher reaches, especially in Karsog area, many lines have been snapped. Our staff is trying its best to restore the electricity at all places," said HPSEBL spokesperson Anurag Parashar.

For many, it's been a tortuous 24 hours without electricity. "We spent the last night without electricity, and it seems we will have to spend another night shivering in the cold. How do we keep small children warm in this cold weather without electricity," said Mala Devi of Sujana village, near Jubbarhatti Airport.

Congress councilor Inderjeet Singh said the elderly who need oxygen cylinders suffered a lot in the absence of electricity for such a long duration. "The government and the department knew there was alert issued for snow, so the preparations to handle the situation could have been better," he said.

Sanjay Chauhan, former mayor of the city, was equally critical. "If we can't restore electricity in the capital for well over 24 hours, we can imagine the situation in far-flung areas," he said. Chauhan said the delay in the restoration of electricity was happening because the government had reduced the department's manpower drastically over the years.

"There is hardly any staff on the ground for maintenance and repair work. It's the government's ploy to let the services deteriorate and prepare the ground to eventually hand over the electricity board to private players," he alleged.

Roads slippery, commuters harried amid traffic jams

144 roads blocked in Shimla, supply of essentials hit

BHANU P LOHUMI

TREBUNE NEWS SERVICE

SHIMLA, FEBRUARY 5

Commuters were harassed a lot as sliding vehicles on slippery roads led to traffic jams as Shimla shivered under biting cold wave conditions.

A breakdown of a bus near Jutogh on the Shimla-Mandi road became a nightmare for commuters as traffic was blocked for more than two hours. A large number of vehicles was stranded on either side of the blockade and people were so disgusted that many of them with light luggage got down of their vehicles and started onward journey on foot.

The jam continued even after the vehicle was removed as the road was blocked due to piling up of vehicles in a haphazard manner which was moving at snail's pace and the police had hard time in resuming normal traffic. The jam could be seen till Chakkher and Dhanda from Tutu.

As many as 465 roads are closed due to snow. The maximum number of 144 roads is blocked in Shimla district. Further, 2048 DTR transformers have developed snags resulting in disruption in power supply at numerous places.

Supply of essential commodities like milk, bread and newspaper was hit as roads were blocked in the morning. Road restoration work is in progress, Chandigarh-Shimla and Shimla-Mandi roads have been opened for vehicular traffic and bus service has started. The upper Shimla region remained cut off for the second day due to thick layer of snow on main roads and link roads.

All the major roads in the town have been cleared for traffic, said SP Shimla Mohit Chawla. Road to Kufri has been opened but unnecessary movement should be avoided as the roads are slippery and could lead to accidents, he added.

As expected, there was surge in tourist inflow and the occupancy in hotels in the state capital has increased from 30 per cent to 70 per cent. Hundreds of tourist vehicles are arriving since morning and all parking lots are full.

Tourist made a beeline to Shimla following snowfall. The occupancy is around 70 percent but the problem is that neither there is light nor water to cater to the tourists, said Tourism Industry Stake Holders Association MK Seth.

Shimla and adjoining tourist resort of Kufri received 57 cm and 60 cm of snow in one day, breaking 30-year-old record while Shilaroo and Khadrala recorded 55 mm and 49mm, Jhenjheli 15 mm, Sarahan 12 cm, 12 each, Kasauli 10 cm and Kalpa and Keylong 7 cm.

Kandaghhat was the wettest in the region with 63 mm rains, followed by Rohru and Solan 50 mm, Dharampur 40 mm, Rampur 27 mm, Gohar-24 mm, Tinder, Banjar, Rajgarh and Paonta Sahib 18 mm. Weather will remain dry for next six days from February 6 to February 11 and night temperatures are likely to fall by 3 to 5 degree during next three days, MeT office said.

Night temperatures dropped sharply in higher hills. Keylong and Kalpa recorded a low of minus 7.2 degree and minus 4.3 degree while Kufri and Shimla shivered at minus 3.1 degree, and 1.0 degree, followed by Solan and Manali zero degree, Sundernagar 1.7 degree, Dharamsala 1.8 degree.

The Facebook page of Shimla administration was full of negative comments. Residents took to the social networking site to vent out their ire, saying that the system has collapsed, roads are blocked, there is no electricity. They blamed the administration for poor response.

Regular teaching for students of classes VI, VII from Feb 15

TREBUNE NEWS SERVICE

SHIMLA, FEBRUARY 5

The state Cabinet at a meeting chaired by Chief Minister Jai Ram Thakur here today decided to start regular teaching for students of Class VI and VII in schools from February 15. However, the service of mid-day meal would remain suspended till March 31.

All government educational institutions in Sarkaghat subdivision of Mandi district would be allowed to reopen from February 8; these institutions were closed after a large number of teachers tested positive for Covid. However, if any teacher or employee or student is found Covid-19 positive in any educational institution of the state, that institution would be closed for 48 hours and would reopen after proper sanitisation, as per the protocol.

It was decided that the new academic session 2021-22 would begin on April 1. The students of standard first to fourth would attend online classes at their homes. Instead of serving cooked mid-day meals in schools, all students would be provided dry ration and the cooking cost would be transferred to the bank accounts of the beneficiaries or their guardians.

The Cabinet also decided to allot 20 kanals and one marla of the Industries Department at Tahliwal in Una district on lease to the Haroli Industrial Infrastructure Development Society for 30 years at one rupee per square metre annually for setting up a general engineering cluster. The Cabinet gave nod to the deployment of 30 Home Guard vol-

NO MID-DAY MEAL TO BE SERVED IN SCHOOLS

- Students of standard first to fourth to attend online classes at their homes
- All government educational institutions in Sarkaghat subdivision of Mandi district would be allowed to reopen from February 8
- The service of mid-day meal to remain suspended till March 31
- Students to be provided dry ration and the cooking cost to be transferred to the bank accounts of beneficiaries or their guardians
- 150 posts of drivers or operators in the PWD to be filled through the process of limited direct recruitment
- Water Sports & Allied Activities Rules approved

unteers on a daily basis in Baddi to strengthen law, and order and the traffic system.

It also gave its consent to framing the Himachal Pradesh Taxation (on Certain Goods Carried by Road) Rules 2021 by repealing the Himachal Pradesh Taxation (on Certain Goods Carried by Road) Rules, 1993 to make the payments of all taxes, demand or any other sum through the electronic mode, besides manually.

The Cabinet also decided to hold the Budget session of the Vidhan Sabha from February 26 to March 20. The Chief Minister, who also holds the Finance Ministry, said the Budget would be presented in the Assembly on March 6. There would be 17 sittings in the session.

Seroprevalence up

Heartening pointer, but not yet time to lower guard

THE third national serosurvey conducted by the Indian Council of Medical Research from December 17 to January 8 to check for antibodies against the coronavirus in random samples of people who did not have known infection has found that 21.5 per cent of the population (1.38 billion) has evidence of antibodies to the pathogen. This means that nearly 30 crore people have possibly had the disease, though the national Covid tally reflects just a tad over one crore. Notably, this indicates a rise in the number of people who may have had Covid-19 since the first two surveys done in the same 70 districts and cities.

The second serosurveillance pointed to over 6.6 per cent of the individuals having been exposed to the virus by August. It also found that for every reported case, there were 26-32 actual cases of infection. In other words, there were around 9-11 crore Covid cases when the official figure was only 35 lakh. The first serosurvey held in May-June recorded an overall seropositivity of 0.73 per cent and 82-130 cases of possible infections for every reported case.

The rising seroprevalence is reassuring as it contributes to boosting immunity to the virus. A heartening reflection of this is the steady decline in the number of Covid-positive patients in the past few months, as also the reduction in the Covid-19 positivity rate from 8.89 per cent on August 4 to 5.42 per cent on February 4. But some worrisome trends continue and must be tackled. The weekly positivity rate of eight states and UTs is higher than the national average of 1.82 per cent, including that of Chandigarh (2.10 per cent). The Covid management strategy must focus on Kerala and Maharashtra — the two states that have, of late, been contributing to 70 per cent of the active cases — to contain its spread. The ongoing vaccination drive is equally essential to expedite the taming of the virus. Meanwhile, with almost 78 per cent people still vulnerable to contracting the disease, letting go of Covid-appropriate behaviour will cost dearly. Letting go of masks, sanitisers and social distancing is not yet an option.

Scrutiny for passport

Bihar, Uttarakhand need to be wary of such steps

FOR a state whose chief minister owes his eminence in public life to the mass movement that began against the Emergency to endorse an order that says those participating in violent protests, sitting on dharna or blocking roads will find it difficult to get government jobs or passports sounds inane. The Bihar Police have said such persons are also not to be given loans or grants by the state as this will amount to misuse of technology. Uttarakhand has followed in Bihar's footsteps with its police stating that the social media behaviour of those applying for a passport and arms licence will be verified for 'anti-national' content. The problem will be of defining not just what constitutes objectionable content, but also to guard against the misuse of powers by state agencies.

The police as the arm of the law had been instrumental in implementing the stringent lockdown and paying attention to the normal law and order duty is now needed, which also means tackling cyber-crime, instead of merely seeking out individuals with a dissenting view. Efforts to check the entry of people with a criminal background into politics have still not been completely successful. The Bihar Police have sought to justify this by clarifying that it does not curb the democratic right to protest, but was intended only to check involvement in criminal activities during a protest. With separate legal provisions already there for dealing with criminal activities, the justification does not qualify on the grounds of logic.

In Bihar, because of the lockdown, political parties chose to hold virtual meetings to reach out. With restrictions and social distancing in place because of the pandemic, technology platforms were increasingly used by the people to communicate and stay connected. Some time back, the US State Department had also stipulated that applicants for a visa would need to submit social media details for scrutiny and false information could have serious immigration consequences. For governments, there will be a need to be circumspect in the exercise of their powers when it comes to the life of an ordinary citizen.

An Optimistic View.

OUR London Correspondent is nothing if not optimistic in his reading of the present situation. He does seem to believe that British statesmanship is at last getting to be alive to the true nature of the situation in India, and is not wholly unwilling to handle it wisely. This is what he writes in his letter dated January 13: "There is good reason for stating that the Cabinet is seized at last with the true facts of the Indian situation. Mr Montagu has not withheld from his colleagues a frank disclosure of the discontent which his Government of India Act has done precious little to remove. He still believes that the new Councils, set up by that Act, if wisely guided, will do a great deal to soften the asperities of the situation but he knows quite well that it is touch and go with the whole fabric of British rule in India." Again:—"I believe it is dawning upon the Imperial Government that a good deal more will be required to pacify India than the Reforms of 1919. Several opportunities will occur during the next twelve months for making this manifest. I hope you will hear before this letter is published that the Duke of Connaught has not come out empty-handed. Not that you are expecting from him or anyone else a mere boon in the conventional sense of that word. What India wants is not favours but freedom, as much of it as she can get. Lord Reading must be more aware of this than any previous Viceroy has ever been, and if he is the sensible man most people believe him to be he will shape his course accordingly. Then when the Prince of Wales comes to India at the close of the year, the time ought to be ripe for a really epoch-making announcement, the effect of which ought to be to establish not only the equal status of India within the Empire, but the dominant control of the affairs of India by her own sons." The trouble is that the time for such an announcement is already ripe.

The legacy of 'Indiawalas'

Parsis have, and continue to lead India in fields of national magnitude

GOPALKRISHNA GANDHI

FORMER ADMINISTRATOR,
DIPLOMAT AND GOVERNOR

LEAVING politicians and cricketers aside, Adar Poonawalla is easily among the most prominent—and popular—names in India today.

Why, even perhaps in the world.

Given the pandemic, it is only natural that someone who has led an intercontinental initiative for getting a vaccine onto the world's health map should become famous.

But not everyone who has now become familiar with the name will immediately connect it with the Parsi community. This minuscule Gujarati-speaking population of Persian descent which claims no more than about 61,000 souls in India (out of a world total of just 1.2 lakh) has led India in fields of national magnitude and moment — atomic science, industry, law, education, banking, medicine, music, literature, sport, architecture and over-arching these, philanthropy. Parsis have not just been prominent in these fields; they have been pre-eminent in them.

Cyrus and Adar, the brothers who own and run Serum Institute in Pune (formerly Poona) have, like many fellow-Parsis, the place of their domicile welded into their surname — Poonawalla. And of course there are Parsi surnames that end with the trades practiced such as Doctor, Engineer, Lawyer, Merchant.

This incorporation of places and trades in the surnames was natural and ingenious for a community that came fleeing from real or feared persecution in Iran over a thousand years ago. The arrivers had no given destination — except what is now known as India—or a known occupation. If they were to give themselves a new identity the name of the place

SYNTHETIC: Not just the Poonawalla brothers, several other Parsis have participated in the development and distribution of the Covid vaccine. PTI they were settling into and the trade or profession they were adopting was a good point to start.

In this 120th anniversary of Naoroji's pioneering book, we need to reflect on where, post Empire, our wealth lies, whether it is justly spread, wisely used.

The Poonawalla brothers, by the logic of trade-names among Parsis, may well now come to be thought of, hailed, as Cyrus and Adar Vaccinewala. Or, rather more chunkily, Covishieldwala. But not just them. I learned (Kashmir Times online, January 21, 2021) to my delight that other Parsis have participated in the development of the same vaccine. Its glass vials were supplied by another Parsi firm, Schott Kaisha, owned by Rishad Dadachanji; trucks to transport the stocks from the institute were those of the most famous of all Parsi firms — Tata Motors; the vaccine batches were airlifted by another Parsi venture GoAir of Jeh Wadia. The vaccines were, further, stored in refrigerators produced by Godrej, while dry ice used for transport was produced by yet another Parsi, Farooq Dadaboy. They are all entitled to be called Vaccinewala.

But there is more that has followed, more to ponder.

It is only to be expected that the Poonawallas' Serum Institute should have offered to reserve 60,000 doses of the vaccine for their own, numerically challenged Parsi community. But hats off to the Bombay Parsi Panchayat for going beyond the 'expected', and as the report has it, declining the offer on behalf of the community. This followed Ratan Tata's advice that 'we are Indians first, Parsis later and so we will wait for our turn'. This entitles all Parsis now to be called by a grateful nation after their greatest domiciliary address — quite simply, Indiawala.

That is what the greatest ever of all Parsis and, by any standards, among the greatest of all Indians ever, Dadabhai Naoroji (1825-1917) was. He was, going by his family's original name, a Dordi, which means, in Gujarati, 'rope' or 'string'. And he has gone on record as saying, 'You can burn a dordi but you cannot take the twist out of it'. That 'twist' in him, and one might say in the Parsi community as such, is the desire to excel in whatever is undertaken and to do so in celebration of a larger purpose.

Certainly for Britain where he spent a major part of his adult life, as an entrepreneur, public figure and Member of the House of Commons (the first Indian to reach that position), Naoroji's goal lay beyond his own status. It was: Justice for India and Indians, not as vassals of the British Empire but as among its most prized citizens. He knew and wanted others to know that the Empire was draining India of its substance, its soul.

Naoroji's fascinating life is the subject of one of the best biographies ever written on any Indian: Naoroji — Pioneer of Indian Nationalism (Harvard University Press, 2020) by historian Dinyar Patel. This absorbing account of Naoroji's life tells us how from the depths of poverty and adversity, with nothing to steer him but plain brilliance of mind and sheer determination to excel, young Naoroji drew the attention of Bombay's educational edifice, his mathematics professor Arthur Orlebar, describing young Naoroji, simply as the 'promise of India'. In 1871, exactly 150 years ago, Patel informs us, Naoroji toured South Gujarat, Kathiawar and Kutch to investigate local poverty. His seminal work Poverty and un-British Rule (1901) is the first systematic identification of the roots of India's endemic poverty in the Empire's draining of its 'jewel's' wealth.

More was to come. Gandhi said he got his first sense of India's poverty from Naoroji's book. Patel tells us Gandhi called him by the two 'titles' he was himself hailed by: 'Father of India' and 'Mahatma'.

In this 120th anniversary of Naoroji's pioneering book, we need to reflect on where, post Empire, our wealth lies, whether it is justly spread, wisely used. And whether our political economy today is aping something from imperial, colonial, 'draining' practices? Is the pandemic the result of gargantuan global profitlust, our own 'Wuhans' included?

We owe that reflection to Dadabhai Naoroji Indiawala.

Don't hold back the tears

RAJBIR DESWAL

AN emotional avowment, natural, and not manoeuvred like maverick demagogues, by the farmers' leader, Rakesh Tikait, did what a million imploitations couldn't do. It generated unsolicited and free-flowing support from the hoi polloi, especially the farming community in UP, Punjab and Haryana. They all seemed to tell, and not ask Tikait — 'Aap kyun roye!'

Crying is human to the core, and essentially balances the upheavals felt within. Lord Ram's father Dashrath wailed for days over the former's separation and going in exile, till he died. Even Lord Ram cried upon seeing his brother Laxman faint. It's believed that Nehru cried when Lata Mangeshkar rendered the patriotic number, 'Aye mere watan ke logon, tum aankh main bhar lo pani'. So, nothing wrong, or unusual, even for the iconic figures to be human-like and not just flaunt the royals' 'stiff upper lip'.

I recall Shylock, in The Merchant of Venice, 'If you prick us, do we not bleed?' In a similar vein, if you torment the bread-giver, does he not cry and bleed tears? Here, Tikait's feelings of concern for his ilk have surfaced.

Crying elders move people even if they are stone-hearted. Look at the parents who lament their children deserting them! It may be only the kids and infants who may be just throwing tantrums, and feeling agitated, and making a song and dance about anything trivial, but when a mature person cries, it moves everyone around, for it's just not for a naught that he might be thus painfully hurt. And Tikait is not a thespian, but a simpleton who bears his cross, valiantly.

In his seminal work, Home They Brought Her Warrior Dead, Tennyson talks about this very emotion, which if remains bottled up and doesn't find an outlet, explodes. 'She should weep or she'll die' — everyone is concerned about the soldier's widow in the poem.

There is yet another story in which a tombstone cutter, who is approached by a widow for making her late husband's tombstone, keeps standing like a statue, unmoved and listless for three days, without saying a word, and finally collapses and dies. The stone-cutter has to make two tombstones then. A tear says a million unsaid and pent-up emotions.

I once saw my father crying at the suggestion of our family's separation. I couldn't bear it then and to date it nearly eats up my entrails in pain. Similarly, when I came to know that my mother wept having seen me off to stay in a hostel, I cried endlessly for days together.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Meaningful freedom

Apropos of 'A long list of opponents', democracy has had its ups and downs under every successive government, more so today. We notice that those who speak saner things are punished unnecessarily. This should be undone for the greater interest of making the country vibrant. Whatever we speak and write in public must be tempered with civility and grace. Any national reconstruction and mission requires cooperative endeavour, and before hauling our opponents, we have to take their arguments reasonably and not consider them as enemies. Without meaningful liberty and freedom, democracy will be in chains.

PARTHASARATHY SEN, NEW DELHI

Reeks of authoritarianism

Refer to 'A long list of opponents'; the slogan of 'Congress-mukt Bharat' seems to have degenerated into 'Opposition-mukt Bharat'. The sedition Act, which ought to be invoked in the rarest of rare cases, is now being invoked at the drop of a hat to stifle dissenting voices. It is unfortunate that people are immediately categorised as anti-national or seditious and draconian laws like the UAPA are slapped against them. This policy reeks of totalitarianism and despotism. Right to freedom of expression enshrined in our Constitution will lose its meaning and significance if the voice of dissent is misconstrued as sedition. The imposition of Emergency was a one-off aberration, but now our democratic rights are imperilled indefinitely.

ROSHAN LAL GOEL, LADWA

Logjam continues

Both the Centre and farmers' unions are adopting aggressive tactics to browbeat each other, resulting in a logjam over farm issues. If the police act of barricading and fortifying Delhi borders is a repressive measure, the call by farmers' unions to block highways is also not justified as means of a peaceful agitation. Both sides must show magnanimity in resolving the issue before the nation is plunged into a state of anarchy and civil unrest.

ANIL VINAYAK, AMRITSAR

Fiery Tikait

Refer to 'Time for firefighting'; hyperbolic statements by Tikait could hinder the creation of a peaceful atmosphere for talks, allowing others to interfere in India's internal matters. Multiple barriers on the agitation sites are checks on any repetition of the January 26 violence.

PAWAN RAKHEJA, GURUGRAM

Scripted news

News channels have taken the role of the mouthpiece of political parties instead of conveying news. Parties have been spending crores of rupees to spread their own propaganda through the media. Contents in this politically driven media are usually twisted according to the needs of their own ideology and thus helps in the propagation of narcissistic politics. Parties are more interested in forming governments for their vested interests rather than serving people. One is advised to remain alert to use his or her wisdom in understanding the various complexities of politics.

AMANDEEP BAINS, KURUKSHETRA

Sanctity of Spiti

Since the Spiti valley is finally opening the door for tourists after almost a year, tourists as well as the locals are excited at the prospect. Now that the valley is Covid-free, all precautionary measures must be followed since there may be a surge in the number of tourists with the opening of the Atal Tunnel. It is essential to keep the virus attack at bay. Let's hope the sanctity of the region is maintained and the snow keeps glowing white.

SHIVANI BANSAL, RAMPURA PHUL

Corruption a way of life

The news report 'Indian jailed in UAE for offering bribe' is rather interesting in the Indian context, where corruption and bribery have become so rampant that it has become part of our culture now. Nobody is ashamed of either demanding or giving bribes to get work done, more so government servants and general public. It is difficult for the common man to get even the minutest of work done without greasing the palms of officials.

RAMIT BAGGA, PANCHKULA

Biden a case study

US President Joe Biden is 78 years old. His first wife and child were killed in a road accident, and a son died of cancer. The second son was discharged from the US navy following cocaine use. Biden also suffered from life-threatening aneurysms and face muscle paralysis. Despite facing unfavourable situations, he became the President of the most powerful country in the world. He is physically and mentally fit to take up this huge responsibility. It is a perfect case study for senior citizens of the world, because at the age of 60, they think that everything is over. What an inspiring and motivational life!

Oppn on terra firma, but cohesion missing

RADHIKA RAMASESHAN

SENIOR JOURNALIST

OVER two months after the farmers' protests began at Delhi's borders, the incipient signs of a more direct engagement between the political Opposition and the agitators are showing up. The Opposition stepped out of the breathless and bizarre microcosm of Facebook and Twitter to set its foot on terra firma, and check out the travails of people who braved the cold and rain and are living without water and electricity. The Opposition's forays into ground zero might not yield anything tangible. It is unlikely to pressure the Centre to resume a dialogue with the farmers, considering that the government refused to accede to the Opposition's demand for a separate discussion on the issue in the ongoing Parliament session. But the initiative opens up the prospect of a partnership between a civil society movement and political parties to address the issues at the heart of the churn in Punjab, Haryana and west Uttar Pradesh.

On Thursday, the leaders of 10 parties (excluding the Congress and the Left Front) journeyed to UP's Ghazipur border, shepherded by Shiromani Akali Dal (SAD) MP Harsimrat Kaur Badal. The cops did not allow them to cross the heavily fortified red line following which they returned without meeting the protesters, led by Bharatiya Kisan Union (BKU) leader Rakesh Tikait. At least, the MPs got a sense of how the Centre had recalibrated its approach to the farmers after the Republic Day violence. The same day, Priyanka Gandhi Vadra, the Congress general secretary, travelled to Rampur to meet the family of Navreet Singh, who died in a clash between the cops and protesters on January 26.

The Opposition's endeavour is conspicuous by a lack of cohesion although the parties are pursuing the same end. The Congress couldn't associate with the SAD because both are battling to retain or usurp a common turf, a battle that's often marked by violence. The Dravida Munnetra Kazhagam (DMK), a Congress ally in Tamil Nadu, and the Nationalist Congress Party (NCP), which runs the government with the Congress and the Shiv Sena in Maharashtra, were part of Harsimrat's enterprise. Leaders of the Sena, constantly looking to steal a moment on their own, went separately to Ghazipur earlier in the week. UP's Samajwadi Party (SP), Bahujan Samaj Party (BSP) and the Rashtriya Lok Dal (RLD), who will count more than the others in the state's political schema, were out of Thursday's frame. The RLD, the traditional Jat party of west UP by virtue of inheriting Chaudhary Charan Singh's formidable legacy, is forced to append itself to Tikait and stay afloat because Tikait has appropriated the RLD's agrarian base for the moment. Tikait possibly lacks the organisation, cadre and resources to set up the BKU as an autonomous political entity.

Whatever traction the protests gained after the disaster on Republic

Day that nearly derailed the movement is owed largely to the global attention they drew from a range of celebrities and the firestorm the superstars stirred on social media, making it untenable for the Centre to ignore the unexpected backlash. The Opposition's interventions were largely confined to Parliament.

The absence of synergy between the civil society movement and the political parties does not augur well for both. If indeed the parties wish to draw political mileage from the farmers' fight—as they certainly would in the Punjab and UP elections—can they even claim to be indirect stakeholders after remaining distant and proffering token protests? The India Against Corruption campaign rattled the United Progressive Alliance

(UPA) regime with its focused and well-synchronised attack against the UPA's alleged malfeasance. It did not reach out to the Opposition although the BJP and the RSS tried hard to get a foothold. The campaign birthed the Aam Aadmi Party but eventually the BJP gained by the atmospherics it aroused and the anti-UPA discourse it shaped. The BJP's PM face, Narendra Modi, arrived on the scene, carrying a clean slate on the corruption quotient from Gujarat. Can the Congress likewise take advantage from the 'kisan andolan' or the SP and the BSP for that matter? None of them seems positioned to reap even a small harvest right now because the BJP has polarised the issue along the 'national-anti-national' divide and labelled the protesters and their supporters as 'enemies of the state'. It's a trap that the Opposition will be wary of falling into. The global celebration of the movement and backing for the farmers fuelled the BJP's narrative of 'foreign forces' working to 'destabilise' the Modi government and by extension, India, through sections of the protesters, making justified condemnation of rights' violations possible at the risk of being labelled a deshdrohi.

In the eighties, journalist, author and politician Arun Shourie was asked to list individuals from outside mainstream politics who he thought would redefine India's history in the coming decades. Among those he chose were Ela Bhatt, the founder of the Self-Employed Women's Association of India and a cooperative organiser, environmentalist Chand Prasad Bhatt who set up the Dasholi Gram Swarajya Sangh that mothered the Chipko crusade, Arun Bhattacharya, a former bureaucrat who floated the People's Guardian Party, and Chhattisgarh's path-breaking trade unionist Shankar Guha Niyogi.

The Opposition's forays might not yield anything tangible. It is unlikely to pressure the Centre to resume a dialogue with the farmers, considering that the govt refused to accede to the Opposition's demand for a separate discussion on the issue in the ongoing Parliament session. But the initiative opens up the prospect of a partnership between a civil society movement and political parties.

Each of them was identified with value-based politics and pioneered campaigns that left an imprint on their core areas but are footnotes on a broadsheet. Barring Bhattacharya, who fought and lost an election in 2004, none of them joined politics and were out of the popular mainstream. Any seminal idea and movement that captures the national imagination needs a political party or allies to stay relevant and go forward.

Raise defence spending to meet challenges

PK VASUDEVA

DEFENCE COMMENTATOR

There were expectations of a significant increase in the allocation to the forces, given the added strain of deployment in Ladakh, where troops have been stationed during the harsh winter. While it was the Army holding the fort at the Ladakh border amid the tensions that started in May last year, the jump in the revised expenditure for 2020-21 of the Navy and the Air Force was much more.

In the Union Budget for 2021-22, the defence sector has been allocated Rs 4.78 lakh crore, including an outlay for the payment of pensions, against last year's Rs 4.71 lakh crore. The total amount includes capital expenditure of Rs 1.35 lakh crore to purchase new weapons, aircraft, warships and other military hardware against the capital outlay of Rs 1.13 lakh crore during 2020-21. At a time when India is locked in a prolonged standoff with China in eastern Ladakh, straining its resources, the Budget has allocated Rs 3.62 lakh crore, excluding pensions, for defence expenditure—up by 7.4 per cent from last year. The total outlay for the Ministry of Defence (MoD) is pegged at Rs 4,78,195.62 crore, with pension liabilities down by Rs 18,000 crore from the present fiscal. The outlay for weapons and modernisation has been increased from Rs 1,13,734 crore last year to Rs 1,35,060 crore for 2021-22—a rise of 18 per cent.

The increased budget for modernisation will help the armed forces equip themselves with new weapon systems and spares. In this Budget, the capital outlay for the Indian Army is Rs 36,481 crore; for the Air Force, Rs 53,214 crore; and for the Navy, Rs 33,253 crore.

The total revenue expenditure, which includes expenses on the payment of salaries and maintenance of establishments, has been pegged at Rs 3.37 lakh crore. The total revenue expenditure includes Rs 1.15 lakh crore for the payment of pensions.

The Budget documents reveal that the MoD spent an additional Rs 20,776 crore for buying new weapon systems and spares for the armed forces in the present fiscal over and above the funds allocated for the purpose. The amount has been used to acquire equipment like the Spice-2000 bombs, Spike anti-tank guided missiles, SiG

Sauer assault rifles, Excalibur ammunition, multiple types of aircraft spares from Russia along with ammunition for tanks and fighter jets.

There were expectations of a significant increase in the allocation to the forces, given the added strain of deployment in Ladakh, where about 50,000 troops have been stationed during the harsh winter. While it was the Army holding the fort at the Ladakh border amid the tensions that started in May last year, the jump in the revised expenditure for 2020-21 of the Navy and Air Force was much more. In the ongoing fiscal, the Air Force overshot its original allocation by Rs 11,773 crore and the Navy spent Rs 10,854 crore above its budget. In comparison, the Army spent Rs 821 crore above its allocation.

The MoD also carried out extensive construction work on the borders last year amid the India-China standoff. While the estimated budget for the civil work was Rs 14,500 crore, it increased to Rs 15,914 crore as the government spent on building infrastructure in border areas.

Apart from that, the allocation for civil works under the MoD is Rs 15,257 crore as against the revised allocation Rs 15,914 crore in last year's Budget. The civil allocation includes allocation for the construction of roads and bridges, government aid to state governments and housing in the North East and border areas.

The Finance Commission's proposal of a non-lapsable fund for the defence sector has been accepted in principle, but the modalities are to be worked out. It had been reported earlier that the MoD had proposed a roll-on non-lapsable budget over a period of five years for big-ticket acquisitions. It is proposed that a fund of Rs 2.38 lakh crore will be available for a period of five years (2021-26) that will not lapse. The fund can be used for the modernisation of forces, capital investment for Central armed police forces and also state police forces.

Amidst the ongoing standoff between India and China along the Line of Actual Control (LAC), the hike in the defence budget announced is negligible. Given the expectations that a large infusion of funds would come into the sector to prepare the armed forces for the new two-front challenge and the goal of achieving Atmanirbharata in the field of defence manufacturing—with the coming up of two Defence Industrial Corridors and the target of achieving $5 billion defence equipment exports by 2025—the outlay seems to be insufficient.

Military experts, in general, have expressed satisfaction at the overall allocation, considering the coronavirus-triggered adverse impact on the economy, though they said India would have to gradually raise its defence spending to deal with increasing external threats.

The capital allocation for the Defence Research and Development Organisation (DRDO) has been pegged at Rs 11,375 crore, which is an increase of 8 per cent over the amount earmarked in 2020-21. The allocation for the Border Roads Organisation (BRO) has been increased to Rs 6,004 crore, 7.48 per cent more than the amount given in 2020-21.

Keeping in view the threat perception from China and Pakistan, India needs to increase its defence outlay from 2.1 to 3 per cent of the GDP.

US delays Trump-era H-1B policy; lottery system to continue

WASHINGTON, FEBRUARY 5

The Biden administration has announced that it is delaying the H-1B policy of the previous Trump administration on allocation of the popular foreign work visas by continuing with the lottery system until December 31, 2021, to give the immigration agency more time to develop, test and implement the modifications to the registration system.

On January 7, the US Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) announced to do away with the traditional lottery system in deciding the successful applicants for the H-1B visas.

The H-1B visa is a non-immigrant visa that allows US companies to employ foreign workers in specialty occupations that require theoretical or technical expertise. The technology companies depend on it to hire tens of thousands of employees each year from countries like India and China.

The USCIS had said it would prioritise wages to protect the economic interests of American workers, and better ensure that the most highly skilled foreign workers benefit from the temporary employment programme.

In a statement on Thursday, the USCIS said that it is delaying the rule's effective date until December 31, 2021. The Trump-era rule was scheduled to go into effect on March 9.

"To give USCIS more time to develop, test, and implement the modifications to the H-1B registration system and selection process, DHS is delaying the effective date of this final rule

US EMPLOYERS ADD JUST 49,000 JOBS

Washington: US employers added just 49,000 jobs in January, a sign that the viral pandemic retains a tight grip on the economy nearly a year after it triggered a painful recession. The tepid increase followed a decline of 2,27,000 jobs in December, the first loss since April. The unemployment rate for January fell sharply from 6.7 per cent to 6.3 per cent, the Labor Department said Friday. AP from March 9, 2021, to December 31, 2021," it said.

This is because it will not have adequate time to complete system development, thoroughly test the modifications, train staff and conduct public outreach needed to ensure an effective and orderly implementation of the H1B Selection Final Rule by the time the initial registration period will be open for the upcoming fiscal year (FY) 2022 H-1B cap season, the USCIS said.

The delay will also provide more time for the USCIS to train staff and perform public outreach as well as give stakeholders time to adjust to the new rule. — PTI

Amid protests, Nepal's Oli seeks support for early poll

Justifies dissolving Parliament | Thousands attend pro-govt rally

KATHMANDU, FEBRUARY 5

Nepal Prime Minister KP Sharma Oli insisted on Friday he had the legal right to dissolve parliament and said he was justified in calling an early election in the face of widespread opposition from within his own ruling communist party.

Oli was addressing thousands of supporters in Kathmandu, a day after leaders of a rival party faction called a national strike to oppose what they said was his "unconstitutional" move to seek a fresh poll amid a pandemic-induced economic crisis.

The prime minister has the prerogative to dissolve the parliament," Oli told a crowd gathered on a main road in the capital.

Sensex, Nifty end at fresh lifetime peak

MUMBAI, FEBRUARY 5

Extending its winning run for the fifth session, equity benchmark Sensex finished at a fresh lifetime peak on Friday after the RBI kept interest rates unchanged but continued its accommodative stance and announced fresh liquidity measures to revive growth.

The BSE benchmark briefly crossed the 51,000-level, before ending 117.34 points higher at its fresh closing record of 50,731.63.

Similarly, the NSE Nifty scaled the 15,000-mark during the day but shed some ground to close at its all-time high of 14,924.25, up 28.60 points.

SBI was the top gainer in the Sensex pack, rallying 10.69%, followed by Kotak Bank, Dr Reddy's, UltraTech Cement, ITC and HDFC Bank. — PTI

Three final bids received for PMC Bank resolution: RBI

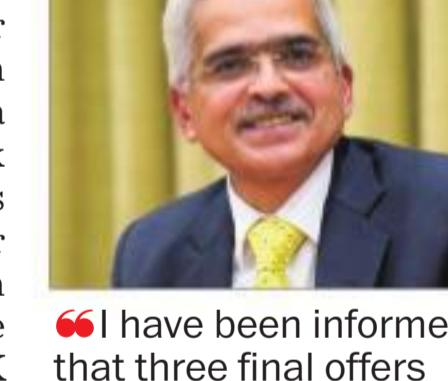

MUMBAI, FEBRUARY 5

Three investors have submitted their final offers for resolution of crisis-ridden Punjab and Maharashtra Co-operative (PMC) Bank and their evaluation is underway, RBI Governor Shaktikanta Das said on Friday. Last month, the bank's administrator AK Dixit had said three investors were given time till February 1, 2021 for submissions of their final offer.

"I have been informed that three final offers have been received. I am given to understand that the PMC bank itself is evaluating the offers," the Governor told reporters after announcing the monetary policy.

He said once the evaluation is done, the bank would approach RBI.

In September 2019, RBI

Shaktikanta Das, RBI GOVERNOR

had superseded the Board of PMC Bank and placed it under various regulatory restrictions after detection of certain financial irregularities, hiding and misreporting of loans given to real estate developer HDIL.

Its exposure to HDIL was over Rs 6,500 crore or 73% of its total loan book size of Rs 8,880 crore as of September 19, 2019. Initially, the restrictions, including withdrawal of deposits and fresh lending, were imposed for six months but RBI has been extending the curbs.

On December 18, it announced a further extension till March 31, 2021. In November last year, the fraud-hit multi-state urban cooperative bank had invited expressions of interest (EOIs) from potential investors for investment or equity participation in the bank for its reconstruction.

EOIs were invited to identify a suitable equity investor/group of investors willing to take over management control so as to revive the bank and commence regular day-to-day operations. — PTI

Pharma industry's wait for bulk drug parks gets longer

VIJAY C ROY

CHANDIGARH, FEBRUARY 5

Though the Central government's higher allocation to healthcare sector elated pharma industry, the wait for bulk drug parks aimed at reducing dependency on China is getting longer as the same was not announced in the Budget.

The government proposes to develop three bulk drug parks through grant-in-aid to states with a cap of Rs 1,000 crore per park with 70% financial assistance.

The government was supposed to announce the name of states selected for setting up the bulk drug parks by January 15. As the deadline passed, the drug makers were expecting the announcement in the Union Budget. The northern states such as Himachal Pradesh, Punjab and Haryana are in the fray besides over a dozen states to set up these parks.

"Under the Production Linked Incentive (PLI) scheme, the first tranche of key starting materials for large scale fermentation of four molecules has been declared. A lot of states are wooing investments and the investors are eagerly waiting for the allocation of these parks," said Dinesh Dua, past chairman, Pharmaceuticals Export Promotion Council of India (Pharmexcil).

The four molecules include pencillin G, 7-ACA, erythromycin thiocyanate and clavulanic acid. At present, India is fully dependent on China for these molecules.

"We're in a bind as the pharma parks offer a great opportunity to investors by not only providing PLI incentives but also reduction in capital expenditure and operational expenses besides providing another shield against Chinese aggression in future supply chain scenario. Since the commercial production is projected to commence from April 1, 2023, the government should announce the selected states soon," he said.

Nagal to play Berankis in Australian Open first round

Sumit Nagal was expecting a clash against a top-10 player in his opener but the Indian tennis player today drew Lithuania's Ricardas Berankis as his first-round opponent at the Australian Open. It will be world No. 139 Nagal's second clash against the world No. 72 in as many weeks after losing to the Lithuanian early this week in the build-up event. It will be Nagal's third Grand Slam men's singles appearance, having competed in US Open (2019, 2020) twice. Ankita Raina, who was waiting to know if she got the lucky loser spot in the women's singles, could not make the cut. In the men's doubles, Rohan Bopanna and Diviv Sharang will compete with their respective partners. Meanwhile, all 507 Australian Open players and staff who stayed at a quarantine hotel where a worker contracted Covid-19 have tested negative.

South Africa's top order stumbled to 106/4 at stumps after Faheem Ashraf's second successive half-century had rallied Pakistan's first innings to 272 in the second Test today. South Africa trail Pakistan by 166 runs in a match they must win to draw the series. Pakistan fast bowler Hasan Ali (2/29) grabbed his wickets off successive deliveries. Earlier, pacer Anrich Nortje picked up 5/56 to bowl out Pakistan half-an-hour before tea.

After Oz thrills, grind on field

CHENNAI: Soon after India opener Shubman Gill let the ball slip through his legs at the square-leg boundary for four in the 78th over, wicketkeeper-batsman Rishabh Pant was heard shouting: "Body language is going down, lift it up".

After the thrills of cricket in Australia, where the wickets had a lot of help for the bowlers, it was a tough grind for India on the field today. As England dominated the second and third sessions, they were having it easy as the home spinners were ineflective while the fielders' shoulders drooped in the heat and humidity.

"I think we were okay in the second session. But in the beginning of the last session, we were a bit here and there," said Jasprit Bumrah at the end of play.

"There are lot of incentives coming when you take a lot of wickets and the body language is automatically good. Sometimes in the heat it is difficult to keep the body language up," he added. "But, yeah, after a while we were okay. We were trying to keep in a lot of effort and trying to create chances." TNS litres of fluid in the sapping Chennai heat.

Root and Sibley knew that they had to tire Ishant, Ravichandran Ashwin (1/56) and Bumrah out as Virat Kohli would then have to bring on the inexperienced Washington Sundar and Nadeem. With no help to the spinners from the track, it became easier for Root and Sibley to use their feet to dominate the two spinners, who looked clueless.

Nadeem and Sundar struggled to hit the right length and the abrasive surface of the track meant that the red SG brand ball, which was expected to retain its hardness and seam for a longer duration, got soft and scuffed up by the 40th over. This meant the batsmen got extra time to adjust their footwork against both spin and pace. Ashwin was brought into the attack as early as seventh over but Sibley and Rory Burns during the first 90 minutes were solid, putting on 63 runs for the opening stand.

After two dismissals in the first session, England were in complete control in the next two sessions on a lifeless track. It will get more difficult for batting as the game progresses and with India to bat fourth, the first innings score by both teams will be crucial. — Agencies, TNS

Rooth has eye on 700

CHENNAI, FEBRUARY 5

Virat Kohli helping his opposite number Joe Root deal with cramps became one of the moments of Day 1, and Root said he's fine and prepared to prolong India's wait on the field.

"Yeah, I am ready for more tomorrow... Very kind of Virat (Kohli) to help me out (with cramps), good sportsmanship from him," Root said. "It's just like a long day and then after a few overs I get some fluids and cooled down."

About how many runs could be scored in the first innings, Root said: "We have got to look and try and get as many as we can 600-700 if we can, really trying to make most of the first innings make it good and those four overs trying to work quickly."

Incidentally, the last time England played in Chennai, they batted first and made 477 but still lost by an innings — because India piled up 759/7, with Karun Nair scoring 303 not out and KL Rahul making 199.

It's that experience that makes Root target 700 this time. "So if we can bat into whole of tomorrow or maybe Day 3 then things could speed up quite quickly for us and you never know what can happen for that point onwards," he said. — Agencies

Germany end Serbia's ATP Cup defence

MELBOURNE: Alexander Zverev shrugged off a tight loss to Novak Djokovic to end Serbia's ATP Cup title defence with victory in the doubles as Germany advanced to the semifinals of the team-based event today. Germany will meet Russia in the last-four, while Spain will take on Italy. Zverev, beaten 6-7(3) 6-2 7-5 in a high-quality match by world No. 1 Djokovic earlier today, stepped up to partner Jan-Lennard Struff to a rousing 7-6(4) 5-7 (10-7) victory over Djokovic and Nikola Cacic on Rod Laver Arena. # Oppn wants repeal of agri laws, seeks probe into R-Day violence

BJP hits back, says legislations aim at reforming farm sector

Tribune News Service

NEW DELHI, FEBRUARY 5

The Opposition parties on Friday slammed the Centre on the three contentious farm laws, demanding their repeal.

They demanded a time-bound judicial probe, headed by sitting a Supreme Court judge, into the violence on R-Day. Putting up a stout defence, BJP members said they aimed to reform the farm sector.

They were upfront in appreciating the government's performance under the leadership of Modi. Taking part in the discussion on Motion of Thanks to the President's Address, Anand Sharma of the Congress said the current impasse on the laws was due to the "rigidity" of the government in continuing with them.

Agriculture is a "state" subject and the Centre enacting farm laws is legally questionable. Also, the laws were passed in the Upper House in an undemocratic manner.

Sharma, however, lauded the country's successful resolve to tackle the Covid-19 pandemic, especially manufacturing of the two indigenous vaccines.

Binoy Viswam of the CPI, Praful Patel of the NCP and SC Mishra of the BSP among others also demanded withdrawal of the laws. BJP's Vinay Sahasrabudhe flayed the Opposition parties for calling the government "arrogant". He rubbished alle-

Remarks on farm stir can harm ties, India tells Canada

NEW DELHI, FEBRUARY 5

India has told Canada that remarks on its internal affairs by its top leaders, including Prime Minister Justin Trudeau, has the potential to harm bilateral ties.

"The government is aware of Trudeau's remarks regarding the farm laws. We have raised this incident with competent authorities of Canada, both in Ottawa and New Delhi. The Indian Government has told them that comments related to India's internal affairs are inappropriate and unacceptable and may harm the India-Canada bilateral relations," Minister of State for External Affairs V Muralidharan said in response to a question in Rajya Sabha.

Shiv Sena's Anil Desai wanted to know if the government was aware of the intervention in India's internal affairs through Trudeau's comments against farm laws passed by Parliament. He had also asked if the government thought those observations were unfair and unnecessary, and if any protest was lodged with the Canadian authorities. Trudeau had expressed concern over the tear-gassing of farmers while they were on their way to the national capital. —TNS

UPSC aspirants to get extra chance

Tribune News Service

NEW DELHI, FEBRUARY 5

The Centre and UPSC have agreed to grant an extra chance to candidates who are not age-barred and exhausted their last attempt for the prestigious Civil Services Examination (CSE) in 2020 during the Covid-19 pandemic, the Supreme Court was told on Friday.

The one-time restricted relaxation would be applicable only to CSE 2021 for those who were not age-barred and appeared in their last attempt during the pandemic. Additional Solicitor General SV Raju told a Bench headed by Justice AM Khanwilkar: "One-time, restricted relaxation to be granted to prospective candidates," the ASG read out from a note.

The Centre had on February 1 reiterated before the Supreme Court its stand against granting an extra chance to the civil services aspirants who could not appear or prepare well for their last attempt in the 2020 UPSC exam due to Covid-19.

SC junks PIL on withdrawal of WhatsApp's new policy

NEW DELHI, FEBRUARY 5

The Supreme Court on Friday refused to entertain a PIL seeking a direction to WhatsApp to withdraw its new privacy policy that allegedly violated citizens' right to privacy and affected national security.

A Bench headed by Chief Justice of India SA Bobde told petitioner Confederation of All India Traders (CAIT) that the issue was already pending before the Delhi High Court.

WhatsApp has already announced delaying by three months the implementation of its new privacy policy that has caused concerns among millions of its users, many of whom started to move to its rivals such as Signal and Telegram. It was originally scheduled to come into effect on February 8. Amid demands for rollback of WhatsApp's new policy, CAIT had on January 16 moved the top court seeking protection of citizens' right to privacy. —TNS

Nana Patole is Maha Cong chief

Tribune News Service

NEW DELHI, FEBRUARY 5

Nana Patole, who resigned as Maharashtra Assembly Speaker on Thursday, was on Friday named state Congress chief by party president Sonia Gandhi.

Patole, a former BJP MP, had defeated NCP's Praful Patel from Bhandara Gondiya in 2014 and later in December 2017 resigned and joined the Congress. Sonia also named six working presidents, including Praniti Shinde, daughter of former Home Minister Sushil Kumar Shinde. Patole said his aim would be to restore Congress to number one position in the state. The party also set up a Parliamentary Board in the state with 37 members, a Strategy, Screening and Coordination Committee for the upcoming local bodies elections. The Congress shares power with the Shiv Sena and the Nationalist Congress Party in Maharashtra.

Modi to visit poll-bound Assam, WB tomorrow

Tribune News Service

NEW DELHI, FEBRUARY 5

Prime Minister Narendra Modi will visit election bound Assam and West Bengal on February 7, for the second time within 15 days.

He will lay the foundation stone of two hospitals and launch 'Asom Mala', a programme for state highways and major district roads, at Dhekiajuli in Sonitpur District, Assam. Thereafter, at around 4.50 pm, he will lay the foundation stone of key infrastructure projects in Haldia, West Bengal. In Bengal, the PM will also launch the LPG import terminal built by Bharat Petroleum Corporation Limited constructed with an investment of around Rs. 1100 crore with capacity of 1 Million metric tonne per annum.

It will cater to the growing requirement of LPG in West Bengal and other states in Eastern and North-Eastern India and is an important step towards realizing the vision of the Prime Minister to provide clean cooking LPG to every household, a PMO statement said.

The PM will also dedicate to the nation the 348 km Dobhi-Durgapur Natural Gas Pipeline section.
