The ministry of external affairs on Saturday summoned Pakistan's charge d'affaires to convey India's strong concern on the terror attack planned by the Jaish-e-Mohammad (JeM) in Jammu & Kashmir and demanded that Pakistan desist from its policy of supporting terrorists and terror groups operating from its territory. Attacks new pension scheme that is causing heartburn among Central govt employees

S.A. ISHAQUI I DC HYDERABAD, NOV. 21

Telangana Rashtra Samiti TRS) president and Chief Minister K. Chandrashekar Rao is said to have directed party leaders to launch a hard-hitting strategic attack against the BJP in the Greater Hyderabad Municipal Corporation (GHMC) elec-

He has given a clear indication to the party with his scathing attacks on the BJP by raising disinvestments of Central public sector units, and its policies on farmers and workers, in the Parliamentary Party and Legislature Party meeting. Party leaders are carrying it forward.

On Saturday, they attacked the BJP-led government at the Centre on the new pension scheme, which employees see as being detrimental to their interests. While the contributions during the employee's service is seen as being high, the returns are low. The new pension scheme, which works on a defined contribution basis, has been causing heartburn for Central government and CPUS employee. Already, trade unions are agitating against it.

Sources close to the party disclosed that the TRS chief instructed ministers and senior leaders to highlight the deficiencies of the scheme so that the people could know the ground realities.

He instructed the party to highlight that under the new pension scheme an employee, who retires after serving 30 years in Central government institutions, would get a meagre amount of ₹1,250 which is less than the pension paid by the state government to the elderly and physically challenged. GREEN I SHOOTS PM confident India will be able to achieve its renewable energy targets ahead of 2022 deadline

India to slash carbon footprint by 35%: Modi

Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Saturday said the country was moving forward with the goal of reducing its carbon footprint by 30 to 35 per cent. He also said that efforts were on to increase the use of natural gas by four times in this decade and to double the oil refining capacity in the next five years. The Prime Minister said this while addressing the eighth convocation of Pandit Deendaval Petroleum University (PDPU) here via video conference.

"Today, the country is moving forward with the goal of reducing its carbon footprint by 30 to 35 per cent. When I told this to the world, it expressed surprise and wondered if India could achieve this," he said. "Our effort is to increase the share of natural gas in our energy needs by four times in this decade. Work is also on to nearly double the oil refining capacity in the coming five years," he added. He also expressed confidence that the country will aim, will be achieved before time...I am confi-dent of that," he said. The PM said that despite the hardships caused by the Coronavirus, the graduating students should remember that their strength and capacities are much bigger than the challenges, and asked them not to lose confidence. "What is more important than problems is your purpose, preference and your commitment. It is not that you are facing a challenge for the first time in your life, lenge. It is not the case that a successful person does not have problems. But those who accept the challenges and defeat them are the ones who succeed," he said.

He asked the students to recall the period of the country's Independence movement and how people sacrificed their lives for it. He asked them to similarly become a soldier for 'Aatmanirbhar Bharat'.

Industries Reliance chairman Mukesh Ambani said India needs disruptive low carbon and carbon recycle technologies, as well as breakthroughs in renewable energy and innovations in energy storand utilisation to achieve the twin goals of becoming an economic and a clean-and-green energy superpower. "By the middle of the century, the world will use twice as much energy as we use today. In the next two decades, India's own per capita energy needs will be more than twice as much as today," he said. -PTI

KAVITHA SLAMS KISHAN FOR FAILING TO SECURE FLOOD RELIEF

DC CORRESPONDENT HYDERABAD, NOV. 21

TRS MLC K. Kavitha slammed Union minister of state G. Kishan Reddy for failing to secure flood relief funds for Hyderabad despite being a member of Parliament from Secunderabad. Addressing an election preparatory meeting with the TRS cadre at the Gandhinagar division. She alleged that Dr K. Laxman, former BJP state president, had neglected the people during the pandemic.

She took on the BJP-led government at the Centre for being unresponsive towards the plight of Telangana state and its people.

She said that under the leadership of CM K. Chandrashekar Rao, the vision and efforts of minister K.T. Rama Rao had brought development to the state with a special focus on making Hyderabad an international attraction.

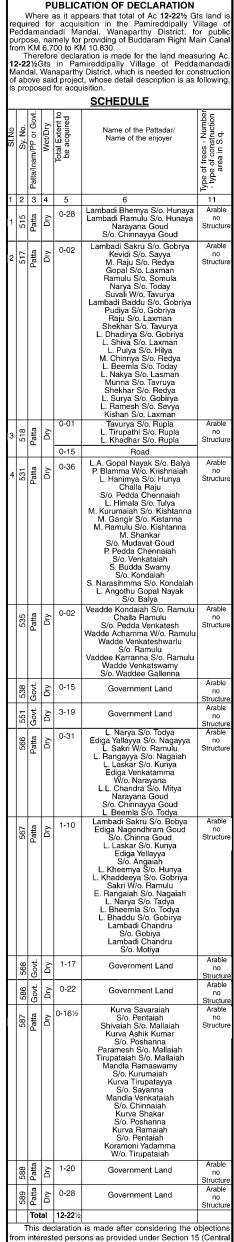

She claimed that the TRS victory march in GHMC elections will start from Gandhinagar.

Agriculture minister S. Niranjan Reddy on Saturday alleged that the BJP government at the Centre had become a puppet in the hands of corporates.

Addressing a press conference at Telangana Bhavan, he said on the one hand the Centre had waived ₹2.5 lakh crore loans of certain corporates but on the other was squeezing Central government employees by diverting their pension funds of ₹54,000 crore. ### Polling agents make it easy for MIM, BJP in 50 Old City seats

ATHER MOIN | DC HYDERABAD, NOV. 21

It will mainly be a three-cornered contest in around 50 municipal wards of the Old City in Hyderabad. Political parties, other than AIMIM, BJP, and TRS, are expected to find the going a little tough in some wards in finding polling agents.

Individuals, who volunteer as polling agents, are typically those well clued with the neighbourhood. Or, they are deputed by parties as polling agents to act as eyes and ears of their respective parties, keeping a close watch at each polling booth and assisting the polling officer in keeping a check on impersonation among voters. They are the ones present at the start of the day and stay on until the ballot boxes are safely taken away to the strong rooms for counting of votes later. #### ANOTHER CONGRESS LEADER JOINS AIMIM

Khaja Bilal Ahmed, another senior leader of the Old City, deserted the Congress and joined the AIMIM, three days after a prominent leader of the party, Mohammed Ghouse, had defected on Thursday.

Bilal, a former corporator, had resigned from the AIMIM in December 2017 and joined the Congress. On Saturday evening he called on AIMIM president Asaduddin Owaisi along with his followers at the latter's residence in Shastripuram. Owaisi welcomed him and hoped that they would work for strengthening the party.

Considered an intelligent leader, Ahmed's move is another setback for the Congress in the run-up to the civic elections. Another leader of the Congress, Mohammed Ali from Rein Bazaar, also joined the MIM on Friday.

DC CORRESPONDENT HYDERABAD, NOV. 21

Non-Covid-19 services were resumed at the Gandhi Hospital on Saturday, after an eight month break during which the facility was the designated a centre of excellence for Covid-19 treatment by the state government.

Junior doctors working at the hospital had been agitating for the past few months demanding that the hospital restart all healthcare services as they were missing out on learning and gaining the experience of treating patients with different ailments at the hospital, otherwise known for its super-specialty services.

Gandhi Hospital superintendent Dr M. Raja Rao said 88 non-Covid-19 out-patients were attended to on Friday. He said till 4.30 pm, 15 persons were admitted as in-patients. Of these, eight were in the general medicine department, two each in the orthopaedics and obstetrics and gynaecology departments, and one each in surgery, neurosurgery and gastro departments.

KHAJA HUSSAIN DIES AT 70

DC CORRESPONDENT VIJAYAWADA, NOV. 21

Noted Telugu poet, journalist scriptwriter, and Kendra Sahitya Academy Award win-ner Shaik Khaja Hussain (70), popularly known as Devi Priya, passed away on Saturday morning following a brief illness in Hyderabad.

Born in Tadikonda in Guntur district of Andhra Pradesh, Devi Priya bagged the Sahitya Akademi award in 2017 for his book Gaali Rangu. His 'Running Commentary' on contempo-rary politics in a Telugu daily was very popular. Later, he continued the column for a couple of vernacular news channels. Devi Priva is known for his satirical political cartoons and poetry. Poetic precision was his primary strength. But he drew a thin line between direct and ornamental poetry. He attributed his poetic evolution to his love for mythological epics. Apart from penning poetry, he has also written lyrics for several Telugu movies. His song Jambhal Bhari Bhai penned for Maa Bhoomi was very popular among all. He authored several books including Gareebi Geetaalu and Amma Chettu Chepa Chiluka.

AP officer finds Delhi doors closed

Some of his admirers thought he would make it to the Prime Minister's Office, others saw in him a potential Cabinet Secretary. But Praveen Prakash, principal secretary to AP Chief Minister Y.S. Jagan Mohan Reddy, found the doors were shut in New Delhi. The 1994 batch officer, to the utter shock of his friends and followers, did not find a place in the Centre's empanelment list of additional secretaries. This is crucial because Central postings for the rank of secretary and above are given to empanelled officers at the level of additional secretary. Only in rare cases are the secretaries at Centre picked directly from the states. There were reports that Prakash had urged the Chief Minister to allow him to go to the Centre once he is empanelled. Different reasons are cited for Prakash missing the bus, including the unceremonious exit of L.V. Subrahmanyam as Chief Secretary which, according to his critics, was triggered by a tiff with the former. Poor Prakash has to try his luck again like his senior Sanjay Jaju who had to apply for review and get empanelled at a later stage. Amidst rumours that a strong section in the ruling party is working overtime to ease him out of the CMO, the powerful babu too is trying hard to retain his position. It will be very difficult for him to work in other posts in the state in case of his exit from the CMO. That will leave him with the lone option of going back as Resident Commissioner, AP Bhavan, an independent post of the state government in New Delhi.

Second time unlucky for former babu

ormer bureaucrat Dr P.V. Ramesh, who recently put in his papers as additional chief secretary to Chief Minister Y.S. Jagan Mohan Reddy, has missed the political bus not once but twice. YSRC leaders say that when all was set for Jagan fielding him from the Tirupati Lok Sabha seat in 2019, Dr Ramesh, who was in a Central post that time, met with an accident and fractured his hand. The YSRC had to import B. Durga Prasad, a TD leader, and field him. Unfortunately, Prasad passed away due to Covid-19 and this necessitated a bypoll. This time too, Dr Ramesh has no chance of becoming the party candidate as his relations with the Chief Minister became so badly strained in the meantime that he had to quit the CMO. His misfortune has brought a stroke of luck to another medical professional, Dr Gurumurthy, a physiotherapist to be precise, who accompanied the Chief Minister during his padayatra and treated him and is all set to be the party's nominee for the bypoll.

Fade out, Jana Sena in GHMC polls

The Jana Sena Party's desperate attempt to tie-up with the BJP for the Greater Hyderabad Municipal Corporation elections appears to have put the BJP state unit chief Bandi Sanjay to some inconvenience. Sanjay, fresh from the Dubbak victory and in the midst of pulls and count-er-pulls of the GHMC elections, had to refute a statement from the Jana Sena that the Pawan Kalyanled party was having talks with the TS BJP leadership for seat-sharing in the local polls. Sanjay made it clear that the BJP had not made any effort to share seats with Jana Sena. Disappointed with the statement, Jana Sena leaders are learnt to have moved the BJP high command at Delhi — after all the two parties are allies in Andhra Pradesh — but to no avail. Even so, despite Sanjay having said that there was no seat-sharing with the Jana Sena, some BJP leaders caused an awkward situation by meeting with the Pawan Kalyan party. The Jana Sena which had suddenly appeared on the scene quitely melted away.

He pointed out that if the complaint was received before scrutiny then the RO had power to reject the papers, but detaining the candidate till the complaint reached the office papers was illegal. The Congress MP said that it was an anonymous complaint and leaders of the ruling party had pressurised the election authority as Srinivas Goud's candidature could impact the chances of TRS candidates in the 125th divisions and also the adjoining divisions.

Forest dept denies tiger sighting video

DC CORRESPONDENT YDERABAD, NOV. 21

The Telangana forest department on Saturday dismissed reports published in a section of the media and a video makmedia of a tiger following a group of people, allegedly in Kumaram Bheem-Asifabad district, as fake. In a statement, the department said the video, that shows some people shouting at a tiger and forcing it to retreat, was shot in Anjan- particularly in Dahegaon wadi forests of Yavatmal district in Maharashtra in October, and not in Asifabad district as claimed by some media reports.

Some people have been claiming that this tiger was seen in the Bejjur forests of Asifabad district, C.P. Vinod Kumar, Adilabad circle chief conservator of forests and field director of Kawal Tiger Reserve said. It may be recalled that people in several villages in Asifabad district, mandal, have been living in some fear of a tiger after a 22year-old man, Sidam Vignesh, was killed by a tiger on November 11 when he, along with two youngsters ventured into the forest near Digida village, where he used to live.

Following the incident, the forest department deployed several teams of tiger trackers, set up four trap cages and has stepped up monitoring the movements of any large cats in the area. "In Asifabad district alone, 32 teams have been deployed, camera traps have been installed and tiger movements are being constantly tracked and monitored, Vinod Kumar said.

He also urged people not to believe rumours or fake forwards on social media claiming tiger presence in forest or near villages unless otherwise confirmed by the forest department which was taking every possible measure to ensure no conflicts take place between wild animals and humans

FEE RULE BEING IGNORED, SAY PARENTS

DC CORRESPONDENT HYDERABAD, NOV. 21

Schools Parents Association (HSPA) on Saturday gathered at People's Plaza to demonstrate against non-implementation of Government Order 46 on school fees.

Parents say the government is tight-lipped over implementation of its order over collec-tion of abnormal fee by schools. This is despite the HSPA making several representations to officials of the education department at various levels on the matter. Claiming that the TRS government had failed to implement its own promise during the 2016 civic polls to regulate the fee charged by private schools and stop commerciali-sation of education, parents have put several demands in front of the government ahead of the GHMC elections.

The HSPA has particularly demanded that the state government immediately issue on the state of ernment immediately issue an ordinance disallowing all schools from hiking their fee for the current and the next academic year. The associa-tion wanted the government to announce a deadline by which it will enact a new law regulating fee being charged at private schools. Furthermore, HSPA said education must become the top priority of government, wherein it makes much higher investments towards improvement of government schools.

The parents' body has also demanded that fee increment should be done once in three ears. The option of paying the fee monthly should continue instead of schools demanding a lump sum payment.

Registering their protest at the People's Plaza, HSPA sought penal action against 11 schools declared guilty of violating GO 46. This will set an example for all private schools to fall in line and not violate the governments rules.

Parents further demanded that no child should be deprived of online classes irrespective of whether or not the parents had paid their children's fee.

They said that the Telangana Fee Regulatory Guidelines should be framed immediately and Tirupathi Rao committee report be made public as soon as possible.

 REGISTERING THEIR protest at the People's Plaza, the Hyderabad School Parents Association sought action against 11 schools declared guilty of violating GO 46. This will set an example for private schools to fall in line and not violate the government's rules.

Virus stays in body 9 days, sheds for 90

KANIZA GARARI | DC HYDERABAD, NOV. 21

The Live SARS-CoV-2 virus stays in the body for nine days and viral shed-ding can continue for 90 days according to 79 studies in the world peerreviewed Lancet Microbe.

It has also been observed that majority of viral transmissions occurred early, especially within the first five days after the onset of symptoms. The observation is based on the data collected from January 1 to June 6 and published in pre-print sites.This understanding of the onset of the disease and viral transmission data will be used to design the treatment modules for the first days when symptoms manifest themselves. This can help control the severity in the

The viral transmission rates in asymptomatic and symptomatic cases are found to be the same but there is a difference of oninion noted as some say that it is more in the former. There is a need for more studies on adult patients to get more data to understand the transmission process. The virus in the body sheds in the upper respiratory tract for 83 days, 59 days in the lower respiratory tract, 60 days in serum samples and 126 days in stools.

Ťhis high load of virus shedding differs but it is confirmed that the body fluids are the source of shedding of virus.

This means that precautions and protocols must be zealously followed and lapses can lead to spread. In hospital and healthcare set-ups alertness has to be maintained as they have constant and continuous influx of patients.

SARS-CoV-2 mutates more in kids: Study

DC CORRESPONDENT HYDERABAD, NOV. 21

The SARS-Cov-2 transmission and mutation rate is higher in children when compared according to genome studies published in the Open Forum Infectious Diseases. The reason is suspected to be the growing cells in children.

But this is a speculation and it is not clear how and why is the virus mutating transmitting quickly.

Dr Satish Ghanta, senior pediatrician, says, "We know that children can be super spreaders. But there are two groups wherein one has the virus but no disease and the other has the virus and also the disease. We need more time to understand this. Earlier it was believed that mortality among children was only two per cent worldwide but now it is increasing."

The different mutations of the virus have led to a lower cycle threshold of some strains wherein the virus is found in asymptomatic and symptomatic patients but the severity is very less. It has been found that the mutation

The study found that children below five years of age had higher mutation rates when compared to those above five years.

Data from India shows that children have been affected but many of them were asymptomatic cases.

Dr Narhari, senior pediatrician at Niloufer Hospital, said, "Overall, the experience among children has shown that SARS-CoV-2 in them is asymptomatic in nature. ## Bar bar dekho, hazaar bar dekho: 1K-plus bars, pubs, permit rooms

10 cases of drunks being caught in public every hour this year

BALU PULIPAKA | DC HYDERABAD, NOV. 21

That old song of the 1962 Shammi Kapoor-starrer Mohammad Rafi crooning Bar bar dekho, hazaar bar dekho", could well be the official tune of the prohibition and excise department in the state. At least as far as number of bars and permit rooms in Greater Hyderabad Municipal Corporation (GHMC) is concerned.

According to official figures, GHMC is home to

1,147 "watering holes" — 664 bars and pubs, apart from 483 "permit rooms" an euphemism for a poor man's bar; usually a dingy room attached to a liquor store where people can which allowed reopening of bars and pubs, the gov-consume liquor they have just bought in that particular shop. The Prohibition and excise department does not make a distinction between bars and pubs, whether they are standalone entities or part of a hotel or restaurant, apart from a store that serves liquor.

The 664 "liquor (bar) licences" within GHMC limits are more than half of the 1,042 such licences currently issued throughout state. According to top excise department officials, Telangana state, in addition, has 2,216 liquor shops. After the Coronavirus-prompted lockdown and subsequent relaxation which allowed reopening

ernment has not yet decided on reopening of permit rooms. Despite lack of permission, it is no longer an uncommon sight seeing people buying liquor and consuming it in premises right next to liquor shops or in the nearby bylanes, throwing to the winds all rules related to public drinking.

Statistics provided by the three police commissionerates — Hyderabad, Cyberabad, and Rachakonda — show that nearly 10 people are being booked on an average for every hour of the day and night for being drunk in public places. Since January 1 and till November 3, 73,792 such cases have been booked in the three police commissionerates.In comparison, 26 districts in the state saw between them 69,044 cases of people being drunk in public places during the same period.

The problem of being drunk in public places, along with driving while being drunk, and resulting accidents in the past few weeks has been enough to prompt Cyberabad police to warn owners of bars and pubs that they will be held responsible if one of their customers causes an accident. In case of fatalities in such instances, the liquor licence holders have been warned that they would face serious charges, including those relating to culpable homicide, though not amounting to murder.

DC CORRESPONDENT HYDERABAD, NOV. 21

As many as 283 JEE aspirants from across the country have written a ioint letter to the National Testing Agency, Union education Ramesh Pokhriyal Nishank and IITs requesting them to increase the number Mains/Advanced attempts for the 2019 batch as a special case, and scrap the 75 per cent eligibility criteria department, each has been passing the buck but did precious little to address the problems. Now the four residential associations of Malani Enclave, Indian Airlines Colony, Padmanabha Colony and Surva Avenue, which are near this lake, have started an online campaign and 85 complaints were registered with the Central Pollution Control Board stating that the untreated sewage is let being let into the lake by SCB.

According to Nagubandi Venkatarmana, a banker who resides in Malani Enclave, the first notice was served by the TSPCB on April 18, 2018, but there was no respite even after that. He added the problem rose when water was let into the lake. Bala Showry, secretary of Enclave, "During the recent rains, all these four colonies were inundated and water of up to six feet height entered houses. While no relief compensation was paid to the residents, even th SCB, GHMC, and irrigation department did not resolve the issue.'

Residents lambasted politicians for never visiting the place, not even during the recent floods. They said that if the authorities fail to respond to the second notice, they would lodge their complaints on the online portals of both GHMC and SCB.

FUEL PRICE HIKED FOR SECOND DAY IN A ROW

New Delhi, Nov. 21: Petrol price on Saturday was hiked by 15 paise per litre and diesel by 20 paise, the second straight day of increase in rates after firming international oil rates broke nearly a two-month-long hiatus in price revision.

The price of petrol in Delhi was hiked to ₹81.38 per litre from ₹81.23, according to a notification from oil marketing companies.

Diesel rates went up from ₹70.68 to ₹70.88 per litre.

On Friday, petrol price was raised by 17 paise per litre and diesel by 22 paise.

This is the first revision in petrol prices since September 22. Diesel rates had not changed since October 2.

Public sector oil marketing companies - Indian Oil Corporation, Bharat Petroleum Corporation Ltd and Hindustan Petroleum Corporation Ltd revise rates of petrol and diesel daily based on benchmark international oil price and foreign exchange rate.

They have, however, resorted to calibrating the rates since the pandemic broke out with a view to avoiding volatility in retail

The 58-day hiatus in petrol price revision and the 48-day status quo on diesel rates were preceded by no change in rates between June 30 and August 15 and a 85-day status quo between March 17 and June 6.

In Mumbai, the petrol price on Friday was raised to Rs 88.09 per litre from Rs 87.92, while diesel rates went up from Rs 77.11 to Rs 77.34.

Rates vary from state to state depending on the incidence of local sales tax or VAT.

COVID CLAIMS OVER 500 LIVES IN 24 HRS

DC CORRESPONDENT NEW DELHI, NOV. 21

With 46,232 fresh detections, India's overall tally of coronavirus crossed 90.5 lakh on Saturday morning. The death toll so far has been nearly 1.33 lakh out of which 564 fatalities occurred in the last 24 hours.

Delhi, Kerala, Haryana, West Bengal continue to remain areas of concern even as cases have started surging again in Maharashtra over the last two davs.

Union Ministry of Health officials said an average of more than 10 lakh tests conducted daily have ensured that the cumulative positivity rate is sustained at low levels and is presently following a downward trajectory. The cumulative national Positivity Rate stands at 6.93%. The daily positivity rate on Friday was 4.34%. "Higher volumes of testing eventually lead to low Positivity rate... The daily Positivity Rate is now 4.34% which points out that a comparatively huge volume was tested to detect these cases from the population. With a continuous surge in daily cases in European and the American countries, India is taking all precautionary steps to bring the trajectory of the disease under control. In view of the increase in cases of some of the north Indian States, the Centre has advised all states and UTs to ramp up testing,' officials said.

As many as 12 States/UTs have lower tests per million than national average, and have been advised by the central government to substantially ramp up the levels of testing.

the lines of Yogi Aadityanath government, which is planning to bring a law against unlawful conversions in Uttar Pradesh, the BJP has demanded a similar act in Maharashtra. The BJP will propose to bring such an act against 'Love Jihad' Maharashtra, said senior BJP leader Kirit Somaiya.

"We support the move of the UP government, which has decided to bring a law against love jihad. There should be a similar law in Maharashtra. The BJP will table a proposal in Maharashtra Vidhan Sabha in this regard," he said.

The BJP leader accused Chief Minister Uddhay Thackeray of supporting Congress minister Aslam Shaikh who has ruled out bringing such a law in Maharashtra. Mr Shaikh had said, "The governments which want to hide their inadequacies are bringing in such laws.

MANOJ ANAND | DC

In what has almost confirmed the break up in alliance between the BJP and Bodoland Peoples Front (BPF), the BJP national parliamentary board has formally approved the joining of BPF MP in the Rajya Sabha, Biswajit Daimary, in the saffron party ahead of the Assam assembly election due in April. The meeting was held at the official residence of BJP national president J.P. Nadda in New Delhi and was attended by union home minister Amit Shah, chief minister Sarbananda Sonowal, Assam BJP president Ranjeet Kumar Dass and cabinet minister Himanta Biswa Sarma.

Pointing out that parliamentary board has given approval for the induction of the BPF Rajya Sabha MP Mr Sarma said, "In the parliamentary board meeting, our national president JP Nadda gave the approval for Mr Daimary's joining in BJP. This approval was necessary because Mr Daimary is a sitting MP in the Rajya Sabha." Mr Daimary had resigned from the post of working president of BPF recently. Meanwhile, Mr Daimary while announcing his decision to join the BJP told reporters that he has resigned from his Raiva Sabha seat on which he was elected on the symbol of BPF. "I have sent my resignation to the chairman of the Rajya Sabha, said Mr Daimary whose resignation from the BPF has been seen as a major setback for the Earlier, reiterating that the alliance with BPF is over, Mr Sarma clarified that the issue of breaking the alliance with the BPF was not discussed at the parliamentary board meeting. "Why will the BPF issue be dis-cussed in the parliamentary board of BJP? When BJP is going to form the next government in BTC after this election (in December), where is the question of the alliance between the two parties in the 2021 assembly elections? BJP will contest all 12 assembly seats in Bodoland Territorial Region (spread over four districts) on its own. But our alliance with AGP will remain," Mr Sarma asserted. A day before the parliamentary board meeting, Mr Sarma had announced that their fiveyear old partnership with BPF will not be renewed on expiry of the term of the present alliance in January, which means that the two allies will not fight the 2021 election as friends but as rivals.

Assam BJP president Ranjeet Dass who was also present in the parliamentary board meeting of BJP in New Delhi said that the party's national leadership was apprised of the situation in the Bodo heartland in the context of the coming council election.

'We have told the party parliamentary board that BPF has lost the trust of people in Bodoland Territorial Region and BJP will win the ensuing council elections on its " In January, 2016, BJP had forged a prepoll alliance with the BPF and the AGP riding on which the saffron party formed its first government in the state.

Turmoil reigned supreme in Odisha Legislative Assembly on Saturday as the Opposition Congress and BJP strongly con-demned custodial deaths of two youths - K. Ramesh of Puri and Tarique Salim of Kuanarmunda police station in Sundergarh district - and sought judicial probe into them.

25 tigers die in MP in 11 months, highest in India

RABINDRA NATH CHOUDHURY | DC

BHOPAL, NOV. 21 Madhya Pradesh which has the highest number of 526 big cats as per the latest census has earned the dubious distinction of recording deaths of maximum tigers - 25 - in the country in the last 11 months. According to tiger mortality updates provided by National Tiger Conservation Authority, MP has witnessed death of 25 tigers, the highest among the states in the country, since January 2020 and majority of tiger mortalities were reported outside the reserve forests in the state. Incidentally, it was the 6th year in a row that the state has topped the chart of tiger mortality among the states. Forest officers have attributed the high to congestions in reserves. "The state is witnessing an increase in tiger population due to favourable habitats. But, at the same time the growth of tiger population has left less than 10 sq km for each tiger in these reserves", a senior forest officer of the MP government told this newspaper requesting not to be quoted since he was not authorized to speak to the media.

"We need to learn from the conservation model of Karnataka where the tiger mortality is much lower", he added. Karnataka has the sec-

Off the beaten track

How I tweeted away my pandemic summer

say this to sound like I have an all-round life, but I mean Twitter. Thanks to Mark Zuckerberg and his strange ideas of how threatening decapitation is not threatening decapitation, my interactions with Facebook have diminished. WhatsApp I have always abhorred because there are only so many "Good Morning" fake cups of coffee and bunches of flowers that you can receive without falling vio-

Aha, I hear you thinking, this means you are in favour of "fake news" and are actually a secret WhatsApp addict. You could imagine that but you could also imagine that I ruthlessly block anyone who bores me with endless rightwing rubbish.

It is true that I have another Zuckerberg product or acquisition on my phone and that is Instagram. This I like. I haven't fully grasped its purpose other than the purpose of all social media which I understand is to sell me as "data". But I do enjoy the photographs. Especially of endless images of boiled eggs and avocadoes in such creative and innovative juxtaposition. The human mind is fabulous.

Is that it? There's the Nasa app for the latest on space exploration, the Chirp app for the latest on gravitational wave detections, the free weather apps which are quite my favourite to waste time on, the Google map app which forces me to find geographical locations mentioned in every book I read. The tennis apps, well their purpose is obvious. If I can't remember anything else after looking at my phone to check, well, this

I don't have much to do with the "gig" economy either and not just I live in a remote area where no one really wants to gig by. I am wary of using my phone to pay, transact, bank. And I do like humans and physical shops and such. And I don't want to chat with my phone service provider on WhatsApp no matter how many annoying messages they

So after this long detour, we reach Twitter. Or do we? Once, angry with Twitter for its Zuckerbergian refusal to stop toxicity and for suspending anti-toxic handles, a few of switched us to Mastodon. This was really sweet for a while. There were only like-minded people on it and you had lovely chats. But boy did it get hellishly boring after a while. There was no information you see, because there were no news sites, no information sites, no sports sites. No nothing, really. Bye-bye it was to Mastodon. I still get plaintive emails telling me what I'm missing, like from an old flame who hasn't realised it's

Now we reach Twitter. It's got everything right with it and everything wrong with it. I'm not going to get philosophical and stuff and tell you it's a microcosm of life blah blah. But it is compelling and it is negotiable. And I spend most of my day on it. Yeah, it sounds pathetic, but do I care?

You want the obvious: you interact with a wide range of people from all over the world. There is no endless procession of smiling cups of coffee. Fake news may proliferate but is easily called out. News itself is widely available with "real time" updates. You can take part in conversations or you can just watch.

Trolls? Yes. There are trolls. They can be putrid, vile, scary. You have to deal with them. For journalists, trolls have long been part of our lives. Earlier, trolls would write postcards and letters. Then they sent emails and wrote comments below your articles and columns. They made more or less the same threats of death and rape. It was just a question of scale and accessibility. There's no one-size-fits-all answer. I don't interact;

It's a great escape too from the real world and that's why it's an addiction. An ever-widening circle of information, entertainment, interaction, annoyance, humour, joy and so on. People you might never have known existed otherwise. People you never would have met. And yes, I have met some Twitter friends in real life. And sometimes, especially since Covid, have interacted more with real friends on Twitter than in

I get that it's not for everyone. It can be too political, too in-your-face, too demanding of responses. It can force you to fall into weird rabbit holes. Words, phrases, ideologies you don't understand. I feel my age on Twitter at all times and have to use online dictionaries to understand what people, young people, say and mean. There are worlds within worlds revealed. If I were a proper psycho-babbler, I would have more insights to offer into human nature and the infinite spirals we can tra-

I get that some people prefer cat videos and holiday snaps. Either way, we are part of this grand social media exercise. If you're up for a fight, vou know where to find me!

Get priorities straight in time of a pandemic

Patralekha Chatterjee

he number of Indians infected by Covid-19 has crossed 90 lakhs. Over 1.3 lakhs have died of the virus. The economic distress in the wake of the pandemic is palpable. Millions have seen their earnings drop.

Amid the deaths, disease, debt and despair, guess what some state governments in India are concerned about? They are worrying about who one marries, whether the person is of the same faith or a different one, and if there is any hint of conforced versions, or otherwise.

In the last few weeks, several BJP-ruled state governments have been ratcheting up tension by publicly announcing their plans to bring about legislation to outlaw what they describe as "love jihad".

Last week, it was the turn of Madhya Pradesh, now been imposed in Indore, Bhopal, Gwalior, Vidisha, and Ratlam districts from November 21 as Covid-19 cases surge. In the middle of all this, Madhya Pradesh home minister Narottam Mishra found time to declare that a "love jihad bill", which intends imposing five years of rigorous imprisonment for "violators", will soon be introduced in the state Assembly. Madhya Pradesh is not the only state stoking sentiments around the "love jihad" conspiracy theory, which pivots around the belief that Muslim men in India are part of some organised campaign to convert Hindu women to Islam. Four other BJPruled states — including Uttar Pradesh and Haryana — are following the same playbook.

At an election rally in Jaunpur last month, Uttar Pradesh chief minister Yogi Adityanath warned of dire consequences to those found guilty of "love jihad". Earlier this month,

Haryana home minister

Anil Vij announced that his state was planning to bring in a strict law to control "love jihad" cases and soon a committee would be constituted to draft the law. The tourism minister of Karnataka, also BJP-ruled, has tweeted that the southern state would bring in a "a law banning religious conversions for the sake of marriage". Assam minister and BJP Northeast point-person Himanta Biswa Sarma has joined in the against "love chorus

What is behind this rush for laws to outlaw "love jihad" in the time of a pandemic?

It is clearly a rallying cry to mobilise BJP supporters. But that is only part of the story.
Think of all the issues and questions that gets pushed off the news cycle "love jihad" each time grabs headlines. Public health experts like Anant Bhan and Hemant Shewade point out that India is far from being on the top of the pandemic and governments at the Centre and in states must focus on addressing the needs of those with Covid-19 and those who have other diseases. There is literally no time to waste.

Why then this noise about "love jihad" when in February this year, G. Kishan Reddy, Union minister of state for home in the Narendra Modi government, said: "The term 'love jihad' is not defined under the extant laws." He also said: "No such case of 'love jihad' has been reported by any of the Central agencies.' Mr Reddy was replying to a question by Congress MP Benny Behanan in Parliament on "whether Central agencies have reported any case of 'love jihad' from Kerala during the past two years and if so, the details thereof?"

Mr Reddy also noted that Article 25 of the Constitution provides for the freedom to profess, practice and propagate religion subject to public order, morality and health. "Various courts, including the Kerala high court, have upheld this view," he said in a written reply It is astonishing that in 2020, an adult woman in India is not seen as capable of making decisions on her own about herself and there are so many who are willing to believe that there is a vast conspiracy leading to young Hindu women being seduced and coerced into marriage by Muslim men under false pretexts. Hadiya Jahan's case comes instantly to mind. Her family claimed that she was a victim of "love jihad", despite her saying that that she had converted willingly. The Supreme Court subsequently restored the marriage. A Supreme Courtordered probe by the National Investigation Agency into 11 cases of inter-faith marriages in Kerala has not found any evidence of forced conversion in any of the cases.

All this high-decibel talk about an imagined 'love jihad' and the rush for laws to stop something that does not exist is worse than tilting at windmills — it is helping divert attention from far more pressing issues surrounding the pandemic

In India, there is no law barring couples from different faiths from getting married. Couples, including interfaith ones, can get married under a Special Marriage Act without changing their religion. The law, however, requires the registrar to post a notice about the intended marriage 30 days before the wedding and this has triggered many problematic situations, with families and right-wing groups trying to stir the pot if it the cou-ple are from different

The All India Lawyers' Association for Justice, a national lawyers' collective, has condemned the announcements made by the BJP-ruled states to pass a law against "love j̃ihad"

In a statement, the association said that it "believes that every person has the right to marry or not, and to select their partners as per their will and desire...

Governments, instead of pursuing a communal agenda that penalises those who exercise their constitutional freedoms constitutional freedoms, must take immediate steps to enact a law that would specifically cover the field of so-called 'honour' crimes. It is clear that charges of "love jihad" may not stick in court. It is also clear that the "love jihad" bogey is more a marker of the politics of intimidation than anything else. All this high-decibel talk about an imagined "love iihad" and the rush for laws to stop something that does not exist is worse than tilting at windmills — it is helping divert attention from far more pressing issues surrounding the pandemic.

We can neither afford deepening of fissures nor diversions.

NEW DELHI, NOV. 22 India has now become the largest supplier of railway wagons to some of the East European countries.

The State Trading Corporation has just concluded an agreement with Yugoslavia for the supply of 3,600 railway wagons costing about ₹38 crore. The first delivery of these wagons is to be effected by the end of 1971.

According to State Trading Corporation sources, these wagons are to be manufactured and delivered by the private sector wagon manufacturing industry in West Bengal.

The wagons to be supplied to Yugoslavia are to be utilised for carrying mineral ores in the STC sources said Yugoslavia had now called for new tenders for supply of 10,000 railway wagons. India was also participating in this bid.

Wall Street injected millions of dollars into Joe Biden's campaign, and awaits Cabinet appointments and more, which will be duly granted given that some 40 former lobbyists populate his transition team. So we are a long way from Mr Biden posing credibly as a humble man of the people. It was truly bizarre listening to affluent Democrats dismiss Bernie Sanders as not a "real" party member when he and Elizabeth Warren were the only candidates who stuck to the values of traditional FDR Democrats. After fending off the left-liberal platforms of Mr Sanders and Ms Warren, complacent Democrat officials are determined to revert to the same stale economic policies that bred Mr Trump's resistible rise to in the first place. Throughout his lacklustre campaign, Mr Biden avidly played the Covid-19 card of extreme lockdown, pleasing perhaps a third of the populace who can afford a Zoom lifestyle but far less so a hardpressed majority who plead that the economy (jobs, wages, small businesses and housing stability) is their foremost worry.

Lockdown proponents like to claim that disobeying their rules means you will murder your granny. They don't like to hear that lockdowns mean condemning multitudes to poverty, homelessness and early deaths (from untreated illnesses) in order to protect their privileged selves. The anti-Covid measures in the United States simply managed to shift the risks from the upper class to the poor, and is no small part of the reason for the boosted Trump vote. A loss of seats in the House of Representatives and an inability to gain a Senate majority should alert the Democratic Party lords that something essential is missing in their economic programmes, but all they do is blame the left for their own short-

Mr Biden's popularity was only modestly higher than Mr Trump's. The bulk of Democrats voted for Joe Biden out of distaste for Mr Trump, not enthusiasm for he who has little to offer those outside his highincome social orbit. Mr Biden has a track record any conservative can cherish - servant of the credit card industry in his home state of Delaware, passing a 2005 law stripping people of bankruptcy relief; tormentor of Anita Hill during a 1991 Supreme Court nomination event, installing a judge who became a reliable rubber stamp for reactionary views; pushing a 1994 crime bill that sent the incarceration of minorities skyrocketing; and blithely offering several times, including as Barack Obama's vicepresident, to slash social security and Medicare to make foolish compromises with crafty Republicans. Mr Biden's good manners will be a relief, but only for a short spell. Kamala Harris praised Mr Biden for his "audacity" in choosing her as running mate when nothing was more obvious than the careful political calculations involved in the choice. In mainstream American politics, "identities" of race, creed, ethnicity and gender are are allowed to flourish instead of class interests, which are not supposed to exist. One hopes that Ms Harris' shattering of race and gender barriers puts those symbolic goals behind us, because Barack Obama's presidency gave black voters who weren't already prosperous nothing but a vicarious thrill. Canny elites can always pick useful opportunists to do their bidding, on the assumption that all that people crave is to become part of the establishment. Too often, they're right about that. Ms Harris is a dedicated careerist who played her cards right as a public prosecutor with a merciless approach to the poor, even threatening to jail parents of truant people who run it are. An New York Γimes poll attests two-thirds of US citizens want a wealth tax, national healthcare, free college tuition and a Green New Deal, just for starters. A recent Fox News poll put those figures even higher.

Mr Biden and Ms Harris became Democratic candidates because they are "safe hands" who enable Wall Street, mega corporations, and too-big-to-fail banks to go on bilking average citizens. The top 10 per cent in the US now own 78 per cent of the wealth. At this rate, the top 10 per cent should own everything in another lifetime, but something has to give. The real social distancing that the US has practised since the 1970s is the ever-yawning gap between the wealthy and the rest. Mr Biden is by no means a remedy, unless the social justice movements arising during Trump's era pressure him ever so reluctantly into the role.

Guatemala City, Nov. 21: Guatemala's vice president told President Alejandro Giammattei that both men should resign their positions "for the good of the country" following the approval of a budget cutt ing educational and health spending that caused a public outcry. "We both resign," Vice President Guillermo Castillo said he told Giammattei Friday. He had suggested vetoing the approved budget, firing government officials and attempt more outreach to various sectors around the country.

Giammattei had not respond ed publicly and Castillo did not share the president's reaction to his proposal.

Castillo said he would not resign alone. Discontent had been building over the new 2021 budget on social media and then generated clashes with police Friday in front of the congress. The spending plan was negotiated in secret and approved by the congress.

Chelsea's new castle

Blues take top spot for first time in over two years

Newcastle, Nov. 21: Frank Lampard warned Chelsea to stay humble after they climbed to the top of the Premier League for the first time in more than two years with a convincing 2-0 win at Newcastle on Saturday. Lampard's

MONACO COME BACK TO STUN LEADERS PSG

Paris, Nov. 21: Kylian Mbappe's two goals against his former club were not enough as French league leaders Saint-Germain Paris wasted a 2-0 lead and lost at Monaco 3-2.

first-half Mbappe's brace took him to 99 goals for PSG since joining from Monaco three years ago in a deal worth a staggering 180 million euros.

But lively German forward Kevin Volland netted twice after the break, and was fouled by center half Abdou Diallo for a penalty converted by former Spain and Barcelona midfielder Cesc Fabregas in the 83rd.

Diallo was sent off to leave PSG with 10 men in the closing stages.

The defeat was PSG's third of the season and ended a run of eight straight wins after losing the first two games. Monaco moved up to second place, and four points behind PSG, despite being without top scorer Wissam Ben Yedder as he recovers from the coronavirus.

Another comfortable PSG win looked on the cards when Mbappe latched on to a fine pass from winger Angel Di Maria and finished confidently in the 24th minute.

The France striker then beat goalkeeper Vito Mannone from the spot in the 36th after midfielder Youssouf Fofana gave away a penalty.

Striker Moise Kean and Mbappe had goals ruled out for offside shortly before the break, and Monaco pulled one back in the 51st when Volland turned in Fofana's cross from the right.

Over The Top

oing by the cricket played between the two teams in the past few years, India's tour of Australia promises rich and exciting cricket in all formats. But there are hardships for Virat Kohli and Co which can't be overwhelmed by hype. In the ODIs and T20is, India will be without their best white ball batsman, Rohit Sharma. In Tests, the team will be without the services of their best batsman in red ball cricket over the best part of a decade, Virat Kohli. More than just irony, this is a serious setback to India. It leaves the batting vulnerable across the different formats, which the Aussies will be eager to exploit. Though he came back after a spell on the bench to play in the knockout stages and led Mumbai Indians to the title, Rohit wasn't cleared by the BCCI's medical team for the ODIs and T20is. He is currently in rehab and recovery at the National Cricket Academy in Bangalore.

Kohli will return to India after the first Test to be by his wife's side for the delivery of their first child. Australia's strict quarantine rules (14 days) has scuttled Kohli's prospects of returning back for the Tests, so he is available only for the first day/night ball affair

Adelaide. The Test series are under greater scrutiny as the previous rubber — also played Down Under — was won by wonderful achievement considering no Indian team had ever done this in Australia in over 70 years. Obviously, the home team will be seeking revenge, and with the return of Steve Smith and David Warner — both serving a ban in 2018 — it will be that much tougher for India to retain the Border-Gavaskar Trophy. Considering his massive success as opening batsman after his wondrous exploits in the World Cup, Rohit will be sorely missed. Though K.L. missed. Rahul has shown superb form, it is in white ball cricket. How well he adapts to the longer format is now crucial for India. Much of the pre-Test series conversation and debate has been around how good the current Indian pace attack is, even without Ishant Sharma (also in rehab Bangalore) and Bhuvaneshwar Kumar.

In 2018, India's pace attack — Bumrah and Shami in particular — was outstanding, and the major factor in the series triumph. If they are in similar form this time, there is every chance of an encore. However, former India captain Kapil Dev, has an interesting — and perhaps more pertinent — take on the matter. Kapil believes that the fate of the series does not hinge on the fast bowlers, but on the Indian batsmen, though for vastly different reasons than in his playing days.

"India's pace attack is superb," Kapil said when we chatted the other day. "I am confident bowlers will take 20 wickets. But will batsmen provide 350-400 runs for bowlers to win the match?"

Moot question. Before the pace bowling got teeth and edge to bundle out rivals, India's batting was seen as it strength playing overseas. Now there is doubt whether the batsmen can do enough to support bowlers!

The Test series begins after the ODIs and T20is are completed, which should give the Indian players enough time to settled down and acclimatize to Australia conditions.

But this does not mean that the next couple of weeks is a slack period. White ball cricket has its own huge significance in the sport today which players and teams will ignore at their own peril.

This will be a particularly testing period for Kohli. His success as captain in the shorter formats does not quite match up to the terrific win percentage he has in Tests. There has been wide debate whether the cap-taincy should not be bifurcated between him (Tests) Rohit (ODIs and T20is). England, Australia and South Africa for instance follow the split captaincy theory, Pakistan (now) and New Zealand

(for the most part) don't. There are pros and cons to the theory, but what's clear is that in the Indian context, the debate will intensify and Kohli placed under even further scrutiny if results are not favourable.
